Frank Williamson, of Tacoma, says that if a "deal" he now has on is completed, he may return with his family to Olympia.
The County Commissioners have awarded a contract to A. A. Tibbits for building a bridge across Salmon creek, at Little Rock.
The next steamship leaving the Sound for San Francisco will be the Matilla, Monday, and the same day the Alki sails for Alaska.
A. B. Richmond, the poet-optician, has sold his office-fixture to Dr. Strickland, and designs seeking "pastures new" in a far away clime.
Chas. Besserer, of Walla Walla, an old-time newspaper man, paid a visit to our city today, on his return home from the Republican State Convention.
Haven't it rained, at times, the past few days? A deluge is the proper term for the downpour that has occurred at frequent intervals the past week.
Dr. Wm. A. Newell left Monday, over the Northern Pacific, for Hartford, Conn., to settle up some business connected with the estate of his deceased wife. He will be absent three weeks or a month.

Charley Pridham has traded a quarter section of timber land in this county, to Mr. H. T. Rudow, of Seattle, for a five acreage in Eastern Washington.
The St. Leon's Australian Show performed in this city this afternoon and will give another exhibition this evening, on the vacant block, corner Main and Union streets.
The consolidated university question has been settled, and now it is in order for Olympia to establish an institution that will prove a valuable adjunct and feeder.
Israel & Winstock have removed their office to the Chamber's block, in the rooms formerly occupied by A. L. Campbell, and Mr. Israel has changed his home to a dwelling corner of Adams and Seventh streets.
Passengers over the Union Pacific this week are, Mrs. S. S. Hawley and Mrs. Mary Hawley for Omaha, Neb., and Miss Fried, for Washington, D. C.; Mrs. D. N. Lillard and Mrs. H. A. Tanner for Kansas City, Mo.
Indulgent parents who go to the circus today will have to invent a new ruse. That old chestnut, "just to let the children see the elephants and other animals," has no force this time as the show is not a menagerie.
The "obnoctial" storm came on according to expectation notwithstanding the effort of scientists to ignore existence of conditions which justify a precipitation of atmospheric moisture. Another evidence that theory is not infallible.
Where are those scientists who said that "crossing the equinox" did not induce storms? This is a case in which results establish the cause or the effect reinstates a time-honored theory which modern sages have attempted to dispute.
It is announced that Frank Cushman (facetiously dubbed Abe Lincoln from his want of resemblance to that great and good man) who has been set up for Congress to be knocked out on the first round, will "open" the campaign in this city next Wednesday night.
J. W. Pierce has accepted a position with the McDougal & Southwick Co., of Seattle, the largest department store on the Coast, and is employed in the advertising department covering all of southwest Washington. Mr. Pierce is in the city today in the interest of the firm.
Capt. John G. Parker, an old-time resident of this city and known all over the Sound as a steamboat man, having commanded the Traveler in the "fifties" and the Messenger in the "seventies," now residing in Tacoma, talks of returning to Olympia and engaging in business here.
A former business man of this city, now engaged in trade at Tacoma, is Ira B. Manville, the marketman, who for many years was a familiar adjunct of our local trade. Mr. Manville is in the employ of the Frye-Bruhn Co., at 1316 Pacific Avenue, who control the largest trade in the meat-market line in the City of Destiny.
The Multnomah will resume her trips Monday, leaving and returning on schedule time, carrying passengers and fast freight only. The Aberdeen will be run as a freight boat, leaving this city at 2 p. m. and Seattle at 7 p. m. The former boat has been placed in excellent trim, repainted, and newly finished throughout. Her new steel shaft, made to order in Pittsburg, is 8 1/2 inches in diameter, one inch larger than the old one.
Two passenger cars and a freight car are now under process of construction for the Light and Power Co. of Olympia, to replace the service that existed when the equipments of the company were burned in the destruction of their car-barns. The builder of the cars is the noted firm of J. G. Brill & Co., of Philadelphia. They will be of modern style and first-class in all respects and furnished with Westinghouse motors. The contract calls for delivery of the cars here by the middle of November.
An inhuman act was performed by the conductor of the southbound train, Tuesday afternoon, about two miles from town, where the engine ran over a splendid Jersey cow, breaking both forelegs, when he ordered the train to proceed without putting the poor animal out of her misery. The cow hobbled off the track on the protruding bones of her upper joints, while the train proceeded on its way amid the earnest protests of many passengers who witnessed the cruel act. The only excuse made was that he had no gun with which to shoot the animal, and seemed oblivious of the fact that a blow from an ax, or a well-aimed rock might have been used as a substitute. He declared that he had his "orders," but whether the commands of the company preclude an act of mercy in a service where time is not an all-important factor, or not, is a matter he did not stop to explain to the indignant spectators of the outrage.
A Terrible Explosion.
The boiler of a threshing machine that was being operated on the Offut farm about a dozen miles south of this city, exploded Tuesday, by which one person is supposed to be fatally injured and three others sustained painful if not serious cuts and bruises. The threshing was in charge of J. T. Ellis and it seems that he had a premonition of disaster, for he had begun to draw the fire from under the boiler, when it exploded with great force hurling great scraps of iron in all directions. Mr. Ellis' injuries, it is feared may prove fatal. Charles O'Neil had a rib broken and a bad cut on the left arm. Nellie O'Neil, his daughter, who happened to be present, received a deep cut over the eye and bruises on her back and side. Andrew Nelson had a gash cut in his upper lip.

Medical and surgical aid were at once procured from this city and the victims were made comfortable as possible under the circumstances.
Mr. Ellis is a resident of St. Louis, Mo., on a visit to this coast, and it was his intention to return home soon as the threshing season was over.

"South Before the War."
This splendid aggregation of colored minstrels, who will appear at Olympia Theater, Nov. 14th, are not strangers to our people. They visited this city last fall and gave a performance that pleased every lady. They come this year reinforced by cinematograph of "The Passion Play," which has created a sensation wherever it has been exhibited. The Free Press of Winnipeg of the 6th inst. has this to say of its late appearance in that city:
"The South Before the War," one of last year's successes, appeared at the Winnipeg theater last evening before a crowded house. The would-be audience was so large that somewhere in the neighborhood of four hundred people were turned away from the doors. The play is practically the same as that of last season, with the difference that all the songs and dances are of the latest and much up-to-date type, and not one number failed to make a hit. The performance opens with a beautiful series of moving pictures, representing the Passion Play as performed by the peasantry in Austria. This part of the programme was worthy of the great appreciation with which it was received.
Following this is a cotton field scene, in which some of those old negro melodies so dear to the hearts of all are introduced with capital effect. Next on the programme is an olio of vaudeville numbers, all first-class in their own particular line. The scene on the levee introducing dark songs, choruses, and buck and wing dances created raps of laughter and half an hour of genuine entertainment, and ended round after round of applause. The contortions work of the human frog is simply wonderful, and suggests to one's mind a rubber man. Two male and one female quartettes, all of which were lustily encored, brought the musical programme to an end. The voices of the vocalists were always in perfect harmony and the bass solo, "I am king over land and sea," was a gem. The cake walk was a fetching number, and after a close contest, the verdict went to a pair who used the Union Jack as a feature of their performance. The grand patriotic finale, the sentiment of which was on the lines of the Anglo-American alliance, was received with a wild tumult of cheering and brought to a conclusion as clean and bright a performance as will be seen in the city this season.

A Good Suggestion.
ED. STANDARD:
The idea of a circulating art gallery for the schools of Thurston county, was started by Mrs. B. W. Brinthal. It is one of the happiest of her happy thoughts.
According to agreement with Mrs. Brinthal, the Olympia W. C. T. U. undertook to add twelve or fifteen pieces to this traveling gallery that should teach kindness and art together. We had but to point out the opportunity, and liberal-hearted friends of humanity took up joyfully. Sarah J. Eddy of Providence, B. I. sent the pictures, fine photographs, neographs, engravings, etc. The Olympia Door and Lumber Co. donated air moulding, a special outlay for this purpose. E. J. Payne stopped work on the canal long enough to make the frames for a nicely, for he says, "I shall pass this way but once and the children have great claims." H. Marie Curry finished the moulding with hard oil finish giving a tasteful setting for the beautiful pictures. And so it is, this fine art group (Barnard's Cisten Madonna is among them) is ready for a fortnight visit to each and every school of our county. The plan is that the pupils shall write about the pictures some time during their sojourn with them, and the district Board of Education shall decide upon the best paper on each picture and forward the same to the REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

They Throw off the Mask and Come Out Squarely for the Gold Standard.
We, the Republicans of the State of Washington, in convention assembled, hereby make this declaration of principles:
We endorse and approve the administration of the President and his cabinet, and endorse and approve of the course of Hon. John L. Wilson, our Republican Senator in Congress.
We deplore the conduct of the administration of President McKinley relating to the measures and events which led to the war with Spain, and are now in favor of the retention of all conquered territory.
We favor the existing gold standard and oppose the free and unlimited coinage of silver.
We endorse the action of the present Republican Congress, which has re-elected to office the President and restored prosperity to the country.
We favor such reform in our consular service as will put it upon the same basis with that of any other nation in the world.
We demand the completion of the Nicaragua canal as a United States waterway at the earliest practicable time, and pledge our nominees for Representatives in Congress, toward this end.
We are in favor of upbuilding the American merchant marine and the protection of American rights in every quarter of the world with an adequate navy.
We denounce the course of the fusion Representatives in Congress from this State in their attempt to detract from the achievements of the national administration, and the method employed by them, perverting the truth.
We commend a national system of irrigation.
We recommend the establishment of a system of postal savings banks.
We glory in the achievements of the army and the prosecution of the war with Spain, and especially, in the name of this State, thank the volunteers from the State of Washington for their patriotic action in enlisting in the defense of their country.
We demand the repeal of the forestry reserve order to the extent of reserving land in this State which is suitable for agricultural, logging or mining purposes, and we pledge our nominees for Congress, when elected, to work to this end.
Firmly believing in the principle of equal rights to all and special privileges to none, we recommend to the voters of the State a careful consideration of the proposed constitutional amendments granting equal suffrage.
We favor the construction of the Puget Sound, Gray's Harbor and Columbia canal, and the improvement of the Columbia and Snake rivers, thus uniting all navigable inland seas and rivers of this State with the Pacific ocean.
We recommend a law which will result in a general improvement of the State road system, and particularly in the construction of roads in mining localities, to aid in the development of mining.
We recommend the enactment of a law that will compel common carriers at junction and terminal points to transfer cars, and denounce the present Populist administration of this State for squandering the money appropriated by the late legislature to effect the relief herein demanded and other needed relief in this direction, and we demand reasonable regulation by the legislature of freight and passenger rates in this State.
We are opposed to the principle of equalization of all classes of property upon the basis of value, and we therefore oppose the amendment to the constitution proposed by the late fusion legislature upon the subject of taxation.
We are opposed to the principle of requiring candidates for judicial office to pledge themselves in advance to the carrying out by judicial decision of any party precepts or principles.
We condemn the partisan management by Gov. Rogers of the public institutions of this State.
We urge the restoration of the State

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution.
STATE OF WASHINGTON.
OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: IS HEREBY notified that an act of the Legislature approved March 10, 1902, entitled as follows: "An act to provide for holding a constitutional amendment at the general election to be held in November, 1908, relative to taxation," has been published for the consideration of the voters of the State of Washington, and that the proposed amendment to the constitution of said State of Washington shall be amended to read as follows:
Sec. 1. The legislature shall provide by law a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation on all property in the state, according to its value in money, and shall prescribe such regulations by general law as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to his or her or its property. Provisions that a deduction of debts from credits may be authorized. Provisions relative to the taxation of the qualified electors voting thereon the class of classes of property upon which taxes for municipal purposes shall be levied, which tax shall be uniform as to persons and class. Provisions relative to the taxation of the qualified electors and the State, counties, school districts and other municipal corporations, and other property as the legislature may by general law provide, may be exempt from taxation.
There shall be printed on each of the ballots supplied at the general election, article 7 of the constitution, relative to taxation. Against proposed amendments to section 2, article 7 of the constitution, relative to taxation.
In obedience to an act of the legislature, approved March 11, 1902, entitled as follows: "An act to provide for holding a constitutional amendment at the general election to be held in November, 1908, relative to taxation," the following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Washington shall never be denied any person on account of sex, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this constitution.
The general election to be held in November, 1908, the amendments heretofore mentioned shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State of Washington for their approval, and there shall be printed on the ballots provided for said election the words: "For the proposed amendment to article 6 of the constitution, conferring the elective franchise on women."
At said election each elector shall vote for or against said amendment by crossing out part of the ballot in such manner that the remaining part shall express his vote on the question submitted. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the State of Washington, this 25th day of July, 1908.
[STATE SEAL.] WILL D. JENKINS,
Secretary of State for the State of Washington.

Mutual Life Insurance Co.,
OF NEW YORK.
RICHARD A. McCURDY, - President.
Assets, over $240,000,000
Surplus, over 29,000,000
The oldest in the United States. The richest in the world. It is liberal in its terms, economical as to cost, and protective in its scope.
Why Should a Man Insure in the Mutual Life?
Because it provides for him in old age.
Because it protects him against poverty.
Because it protects his other investments.
Because it provides for his family in case of death.
Because it will help him credit in the business world.
Because it is a duty to provide for his wife and family.
Because successful business men carry large amounts of insurance.
Because it is a sad thing to see the widow and her family destitute.
Because it is a source of great satisfaction to a man to own a Mutual Life insurance policy.
Because it furnishes immediate relief, and keeps the wolf from the door in case of death.
Because cash invested in the Mutual Life Insurance Company is cash invested that will return again with compound interest.
Because it is a great consolation to a man, when taking the last farewell to his family to be able to say: "I am glad that my insurance policy will help you from want."
