

METEOROLOGICAL.

The following record of temperature and rain for the week ending yesterday, Nov. 23, 1900, was kindly furnished to the Astorian by Mr. M. O'Connell, Auxiliary Secretary, Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Portland, Ore.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

Well, it is all over. Heavy frosts prevail. S. H. Barboe is down from Cape Nome. The weather has been delightful the past week. Miss Lucy Carney is seriously ill at the hospital. Many of the "boys" went on a foot Tuesday night. The Kaufman family are about to move to San Francisco. A son has been born to the wife of George Swan, of Eastside. Mrs. Frank Lawton is quite ill at her home on Eighth street. The Yacht Dahpne has been hauled into winter quarters at Percival's dock. J. M. Huntington, formerly of this city, died at The Dalles, Oregon, yesterday. A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Bonner, of the Capital City Dye Works. Jessie Ferguson, of Bush prairie, one of the che chacos of Thurston county, is quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maloney celebrated their "Silver Wedding," Sunday night. "Fair to-night and Saturday," is the announcement from the house-to-day. Ninety-two hundredths of an inch of rain fell last Friday night inside of three hours. A repair shop is being built by the Olympia Light and Power Co. adjoining their car-barn. A movement is on foot for union services by all the churches on Thanksgiving Day. Sawyer & Filley's drugstore has just been re-papered and presents a very attractive appearance. The next attraction at Olympia Theater will be "The Coon Town 400," on the 21st inst. Twenty applicants for teachers' certificates are now undergoing examination at the court-house. James Troupe, the cattle buyer, returned from Tacoma this week where he disposed of a number of cows. Mr. W. W. Reed and family, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., are visiting Mr. R.'s uncle, T. M. Reed, Sr., of this city. Miss Wiggins, a relative of Mrs. Thos. Mattingly, returned Saturday from a visit to down Sound points. The piles have all been driven and carpenters are at work on the addition to the Pioneer Iron Works and Foundry. The steamship Cottage City sails for Alaskan ports Sunday and will be succeeded by the City of Topeka, Friday. Eliza N. Paff bought of Elmer L. Epperson, this week, lot 6 block 21, Swan's addition, for the consideration of $350. Mr. Oisen and family, of Seattle, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. P.'s parents, who reside on the Westside. Horace E. Pease, of this city, and Miss Lynn Richardson, of Shelton, were married Wednesday, by Justice Schomber. J. H. Hawk and Agnes P., his wife, were divorced yesterday, on the ground of desertion by the latter. They were married in 1884. Now, as the Frenchman would say, "Revenons a nos moutons," let us return to business. The barbers of this city all closed their shops to attend the funeral of B. Kretschmer, lately deceased, who was a member of their trade. Judge Gordon has sold to E. C. Macdonald, his realty in Swan's addition and 50 acres in section 10 range 2 west, for the sum $500. E. V. Stalnaker arrived from Great Falls, Saturday night, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sickle's, his wife's mother, which took place Sunday. Mr. Byrne has moved Van Epps' office building, corner of Plum and Fourth Streets, to his lot fronting on the Eastside bridge, opposite Union block. The Eastside mill has thus far furnished 1,000,000 feet of lumber for the new flume at Tumwater. Nearly two-thirds of this amount was dressed lumber. Bert Kretschmer will open the barber shop, formerly conducted by his father, on Washington street, between Third and Fourth, to-morrow morning. The County Canvassing Board, consisting of Chairman Byrne, Auditor Graham and Attorney Funk, will meet next Thursday to list the election returns. Clarence Brown, in employ of the Capital Brewery, who had been assigned to clerical duties in Seattle, some time ago, has been recalled to his post at the office in this city. Thomas M. Tallentire, an Olympia "boy," was married in Seattle, a few days ago, to Miss Mary Jane Sandwith. The bride is the daughter of a rich sheep rancher of San Juan county. The half-breed, Lambert Lequally, who has been for some time a county charge at the Poor Farm, was taken this week to the Simcoe Reservation, where he properly belongs.

Mrs. Gilbert left last Friday, for San Francisco, to join her husband, Capt. Gilbert, of the Coast Survey, who will spend the winter, the closed season for his business, at the Bay City.

The funeral Mrs. A. M. Sickle's was held at the family home Sunday, at 1:30 p. m. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Glass, and the attendance of sympathizing friends was large.

L. Leclve, of Bordoux camp, No. 5, in Mason county, was brought up and lodged in the hospital, Saturday, suffering from a fractured leg, which injury resulted from a falling tree.

Charles Worthington, formerly of Tumwater, has been released from the Walla Walla penitentiary after serving four years. The term of E. H. Biles, formerly of the same place, expired last week.

A detective was here Saturday to obtain extradition papers for one Chas. F. Matler, charged with stealing diamonds valued at many thousands of dollars. They have Matler in the jug at Seattle.

The first indication of a restoration of confidence by the Presidential election came this week in a cut of 25 per cent. in the wage-rate of one of our mills, with the alternative of accepting or substitution of Jap labor.

Mr. McKercher, of Seattle, President of the Woman's Relief Corps of this State and Alaska, held an inspection of Geo. H. Thomas Post, No. 34, Women's Relief Corps of this city, Tuesday afternoon, of last week, at Grand Army Hall.

The steamship Walla Walla leaves the Sound for San Francisco to-morrow, with the following passengers from this city: J. C. McClelland and wife, Miss Sarah McClelland and R. M. Chrisman. The succeeding steamer for that destination will be the Umatilla, Thursday.

Mrs. Leroy Simpson and two sons arrived in the city from Whatcom last Saturday night with their household effects and expect to make Olympia their future home. Mr. Simpson preceded his family by three weeks and has been employed as a compositor in the STANDARD office.

Mrs. Eureka M. Horton has filed a suit for divorce against George S. Horton, on ground of failure to provide, incompatibility of temper and abuse of plaintiff. The parties were married in Minnesota in 1895. Plaintiff also prays to have restored her maiden name, Eureka M. Root.

An intoxicated, insane individual, took a bath in the lake at Sylvester Park, last Friday, with his clothes on, and reversed the order usually observed on such occasions, by an endeavor to disrobe afterwards. He was stopped, however, by a passer-by, and a little later was arrested by a policeman.

B. Kretschmer died at his residence on Washington street Monday, at an early hour, of heart disease. He was a native of Weimar, Germany, and 65 years of age. He leaves a wife and one son, of age, Berthold. The funeral took place Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m., and interment was made in Odd Fellows cemetery.

The will of Mrs. Sickle's bequeaths the family residence on Thirteenth and Franklin streets to her daughter, Mrs. Stalnaker, and her son, Ray. The personal property, likewise, is thus bestowed, share and share alike, except the piano, which becomes the property of Mrs. S., who is named as executor and guardian of Ray till his majority is attained.

The Republican meeting, at the theater on Saturday, closed with the ringing of the fire-alarm bell, signifying a burning chimney in the Woodruff building. The alarm served a good purpose, at least, in closing a harrange, which put one in mind of these lines on "The Brook," from Tennyson:

"I chatter, chatter, as I flow, To join the brimming river, For men may come and men may go, But I go on for ever."

Lem Smith, a brother of Mrs. Chas. Stewart of this city, has returned to Olympia after several years' absence in California. Mr. Smith was the man who brought the steamer Gold Dust around from the Columbia river 13 years ago and ran her for a time between Olympia and Seattle. She had to be withdrawn from the route on account of the shallow water in our harbor, as no dredging had then been done. The Gold Dust was a fast boat and resembled the Fleetwood in size and appearance, but drew considerable more water than the latter, would run aground and tip over, and it was not an uncommon sight to see nothing but the pilot-house and smokestack of the Gold Dust sticking above the water. We now have a deep water channel that will accommodate an ocean steamer.

The following Thurston county criminals are serving terms in the State Penitentiary at Walla Walla: John Webb, sent from Suquamish for burglary in 1893, escaped in 1896, recaptured in California in April, 1900; term expires in 1902. John Cronin, sent from Thurston county for murder in second degree, March 3, 1899; term expires in 1910. J. P. Dunlop, sent from Pierce county for grand larceny March 2, 1900; term expires in 1904. Geo. D. Evans, forging State warrants, convicted in April, 1899, from Thurston county; term expires in 1903. W. J. Douset, sent from Chehalis county for forgery in January, 1899; term expires in 1903. Fred. Horner, sent from Thurston county in March, 1900; term expires in October, 1901. Geo. E. Giesy, sent from Pierce county for highway robbery, in March, 1900.

The farmers of Walla Walla are using their barbed-wire fences for telephone conductors. Nine miles of telephone line has been strung along a barbed wire fence. There are no insulators being used and the line is doing good work and the results are satisfactory.

Several farmers who desired to bring into closer communication with each other presented the ordinary receivers and transmitters and attached them to lines of barbed wire strung on a common cattle-proof fence of the variety that is in general use among stockmen. The wire is nailed to the fence posts in the ordinary way and staples are used to fasten the wire to the fence posts. Where rods had to be crossed poles were set in the ground on either side and the wires strung in this manner sufficiently high to insure safety from passing vehicles. This line has been in operation for several weeks and so far there has been no break in the communication by reason of "grounded" wires or other causes that would seem impossible to avoid. It is of great benefit to those who employ it and the way that within the next few years all the farmers in the country will be employing similar means of communication.

One of the most desperate and reckless shooting scrapes ever recorded in the history of Republic occurred last Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock on the sidewalk in front of the Montana saloon on Clark avenue, the main thoroughfare of the town. The participants were Frank Wells and Ed. Lathrop. It seems that Lathrop at one time got into trouble at Spokane, and Wells' evidence in the case was the cause of a conviction. We had lately come to town and Lathrop, it is understood, still bearing a grudge against the former, met him during the day and chastised him, as satisfaction for being responsible for the previous inconvenience and trials he was put to at that time. This abuse of the law by Wells would stand, so after drinking considerable Republic whiskey he provided himself with a 30 40 rifle and went hunting for his man. He met him at the location above referred to and opened fire on him, not desisting until four shots had been fired. Lathrop jumped behind an awning post for protection, and drawing a 38-caliber revolver, returned three shots in defense, then rushed into the saloon. None of the shots took effect. They were fired $100 each, the limit of the city ordinance.
