Table with columns: Day, Temp. (max, min, fall), Rain. Rows for Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

"You'll have to hurry"—to register. Phil Trombley is on a visit to Seattle. Mrs. L. A. Jacox is down with typhoid fever. A son was born this week to Mrs. C. H. Guberson. A jury term of the Superior Court convened Monday. S. M. Percival and family are about to move to Spokane. Register if you want to vote. The time for so doing is short. Miss Eva Weir is spending a few days with friends in Seattle. The Zephyr came up to-day for a boom of logs for the Tacoma mill. W. J. Conrad and family have removed from Centralia to this city. Twin boys were born to the wife of John Curtin, at Kamlichie, last week. Miss Hilda Munson is confined to St. Peter's hospital with typhoid fever. A daughter was born to the wife of S. E. Julson, near Arcadia, on the 10th inst. The new Baptist church will be formally dedicated on Sunday, the 24th inst. B. F. Littlejohn has bought of C. F. Kaler lots 8 and 9, block 11, Central addition, for $650. The steamship Umatilla sailed for San Francisco to-day, R. G. Corey being a passenger from this city. Miss Ida Chambers is spending her vacation from duties in the postoffice with friends in the Queen City. One of the jurors drawn for the present term of court, James Walker, of Gate City, is a full-blood Indian. The Tony Faust Restaurant will hereafter be kept open nights. The dining-room entrance is on Fifth street. The weather forecast issued to-day reads: "To-night and Saturday, occasional rain; brisk to high easterly winds." Harvey Matheson Tuesday, declared his intention of becoming a citizen of this country. He is a native of Nova Scotia. Judge D. E. Bailey is again a patient at the hospital, with lung trouble. He has the heartfelt sympathy of many friends. Accounts of the progress of the "mill" between Jeffries and Rhulin will be read at Scott's and Blake's saloons to-night. The milk dealers of this city have entered into an agreement to make only one delivery daily throughout the winter season. E. B. Collins, of Little Rock, fell from a wagon yesterday, and sustained a fracture of the arm. Dr. Kincaid reduced the fracture. Officer Labarre sprained his ankle the other day in chasing a refractory cow, and has ever since been off duty nursing the injured member. The Olympia Commandery Knights Templar have surrendered their charter preliminary for uniting with Ivanhoe commandery at Tacoma. The passengers over the O. R. N. and U. P. were Frank Morris for Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Jessie Bridges and daughter for Oakesboro, Iowa. Another marble cutter's shop has been opened in this city, one of the Stamper buildings on West Fourth street being utilized for the business. Several of our townsmen are in Seattle to enter timber land claim in that district, under the opening to sale of the forestry reserve in that district. The many friends of A. A. Phillips, County Treasurer, will regret to learn that he is confined to his home by an illness that presages an attack of typhoid fever. Mrs. Mary B. Johnson has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Thomas B. Johnson, lately drowned in British Columbia. Mrs. J. is the mother of deceased. Aaron Hartsock has been appointed administrator of the estate of Amos Hyatt deceased, who died in April last year, leaving an estate valued at a few hundred dollars. Willard McGuire, special agent of Yale's "Devil's Auction" Co., was in the city yesterday, making arrangements for that company's appearance at Olympia Theater on the 23d inst. Mrs. M. E. Harrison has been finally adjudged to be a habitual drunkard, and all liquor vendors are prohibited from furnishing her intoxicating drinks, under penalty of a revocation of license. The county teachers' examination began yesterday morning, under the management of County Superintendent Henry, at his office in the McKenny block. It will continue over to-morrow. Dr. Ostrander has been quite ill the past week of general debility. The doctor is now 83 years of age, but possesses in a remarkable degree the requisites for longevity—a vigorous constitution and indomitable will. The Fraternal Union of America held a meeting and social at Grand Army hall, Wednesday night, and was addressed by J. L. Handley, Supreme Secretary and E. E. Bunell, Deputy Supreme President for Washington,

The sale of several townships of vacant land in Chehalis county that has hitherto been held in the forestry reserve, opened this morning at the general land office in this city, and there was considerable competition in obtaining choice selections for entry. The reporter of this paper adopts a very unique manner of dishing up some very reasonable local hits this week, on our first page, and it is probable that he will recover his magic tube and fathom other brain-tanks before it becomes a thing of the past. Phil McNulty, a well known character of Spokane, who has been a familiar figure in this city during sessions of the Legislature, is dead. His main object in life seems to have been a pilgrimage to this political Mecca during each term of the legislative mill. H. Wagner who perpetrated the joke of foisting upon the people a "topsy-turvy" geography, is endeavoring to perpetuate the funny business by restraining our local board of directors from using any other. An order of the court has been demanded. One of the best artesian wells yet driven in on the Millard Lemon place, corner of Fourth and Franklin streets. An excellent flow of water was struck at a depth of 70 feet. Mr. Wood, who drove this one, says that he has thus far sunk over 70 fowling wells in this city. The Queen Restaurant is again closed. It seems to be having a streak of bad luck while other eating houses seem to prosper. Goldsmith, the last victim, made a splendid record as caterer the short time he was its manager, and it is to be regretted his success was not more in accord with merit. The prevalence of typhoid fever at this time demands some inquiry as to cause. The germs of that disease are said to be conveyed more generally by the water drunk than any other agency. It might be well for people to boil their drinking water, for a while at least. This is said to be death to the germ. Sheriff Brisbin, of Whatcom county, was in the city Monday to obtain requisition papers for H. St. John Dix, the man who robbed and wrecked a couple of Whatcom county banks about a year ago. Dix has been arrested in England, and the present effort is the beginning of proceedings to bring him back for trial. Matt Egley doubtless contracted the smallpox he is afflicted with in Snohomish county, as he was ill a week before he returned home, and it is probably want of knowledge of the nature of his attack and neglect, that has rendered it the most severe case yet reported in this city. It is thought, however, that he will recover. Annie Moquet has begun an action in the Superior Court for divorce from Charles Moquet. The couple were married in Tacoma in 1896 and have one child, a boy 4 years old. The wife alleges that she was forced to leave her husband in 1898 because of cruelty. Besides the divorce, plaintiff seeks possession of the child. Rev. Father Saindon has been transferred, by the Bishop of this diocese, to Chehalis. He has been in charge of St. Michael's church, of this city, about three years and has endeared himself to many outside his church congregation by manifestation of the true Christian spirit. It is with regret we note the change. Who his successor will be is not yet announced. William Chappel, a young man whose home is at Bucoda, was arrested Saturday night, for seduction of Lillie Ingraham, aged 15 years, and brought to this city and lodged in jail. He was brought before Justice Giles, Monday, for preliminary examination, but the matter was postponed to yesterday, when the defendant was committed for trial, and his bond placed at $1,000. A number of young men of this city have formed a football club. It looks as if the inclement season was hardly a proper time for that game, of all others. But then probably the "boys" know what they are about. The club consists of Jas. Stanford, Ed. Hawes, Frank Anderson, Roy Phipps, Harry Phipps, L. Collins, Herbert Matson, George McClurg, James Kitterman and Ed. McClarty. The first game will be played to-morrow afternoon with the school teams. Mrs. Elizabeth Fenton, of Tumwater, has got into trouble by accusing James T. Ramsey of a too intimate acquaintance with her woodpile. It is alleged in a complaint for $5,000 damages to character, that he had stolen her wood, and this led to his discharge from a $45-per-month position under W. H. Mitchell, which place, by a strange coincidence, fell to Mrs. Fenton's father, Abram Todd, after Ramsey had been removed, he alleges by the charges made against his character. He thinks he is injured in his sensibilities as much as those who fall through holes in the sidewalk are physically by this slander. Oscar Jacobson was shot and probably fatally wounded by "Harry" Crowhurst, at a resort in the tenderloin district, yesterday morning. It seems that Crowhurst claims to be the husband of Jennie West, the woman in the case, and it was during a family row in which Jacobson interfered that the shot was fired. The STANDARD is not in the habit of publishing the details of such disgraceful occurrences. Suffice it to say that Jacobson is at the hospital with the chances of life and death about equally balanced, and Crowhurst is in jail awaiting the result of his act. The assailant has retained Geo. C. Israel for his defense. The attorneys for Ben Goyette, Troy & Falkner, have succeeded in securing a continuance for their client, who is charged with burglary, and an order to produce his pal, Frank Stewart, from the penitentiary, convicted and sentenced as participes criminis in the same transaction, to testify to defendant's good character, at least in that matter. Stewart, it was claimed, would appear and swear that it was his act alone of abstracting certain property from the station house at Roy, of which both were charged. For some reason, Prosecuting Attorney Funk made no strenuous objection to this proceeding and the unusual spectacle of opening the doors of the "pen" to establish character (or rather to prove innocence) is afforded. Why is it that the persistent and effective efforts of J. K. Chaplin to benefit this State, and especially Thurston county and Olympia, by advertising its resources throughout the East, should meet with not only so little aid from our people, but open opposition from a majority of the active members of the local Chamber of Commerce? Tuesday night, in reply to a communication from him requesting a list of the names of home-seekers gathered at the Pan American Exposition, so that he might furnish them with descriptions of our resources and facts that might aid them in forming a decision, did nothing but abuse the man who has for several years past directed more attention to this part of the country than all other influences combined. It is a pity that what we regard in the main as personal prejudice has retarded in a large degree, and in one instance at least, defeated, objects that would have materially assisted our growth and resulted in establishing conditions for a permanent prosperity.

"A WISE WOMAN."

Wilfred Clarke's Clever Comedy Which Appears at the Theater Monday Night. An attraction that merits more than passing notice will be seen at Olympia Theater next Monday evening. It is the company that is presenting Wilfred Clarke's comedy, "A Wise Woman." This play, which the London critics credit with being one of the cleverest farces presented for some time, had a run at the Strand Theater, lasting for 238 nights, during the entire period of which the business was up to the record breaking point. The presentation of Mr. Clarke's comedy in this country is reported to be meeting with the same remarkable success it had in London, and the further fact that it is being used as a medium for the introduction to the public of three of the most promising candidates for stellar honors that have recently asked for public acknowledgement, makes the production doubly interesting. The candidates referred to are Ethel Balch, Marie Lamour and Frederic Murphy. The staging of "A Wise Woman" has been done under the personal supervision of Mr. Clarke, whose wide experience and ability in matters of this kind is a strong assurance that the most important part of any production has been well done.

ANOTHER UNFORTUNATE.

A Stranger Commits Suicide in This City. A young man who affixed the name of Dorman E. Noggle to the Olympia hotel register, was found dead in a room of that house, Tuesday evening. He secured accommodations the previous night, about midnight, and after he had retired nothing further was heard from him, until an investigation was made, and finding his door locked, it was forced open, and the horrible ending of a life revealed. His body was found in bed, and on a table beside it, two ounce bottles of carbolic acid, bearing a Seattle label. The victim's mouth and face showed the effects of the caustic acid. Letters were found in the suicide's pockets, evidently from his father, dated at Oakland, Cal., and as they were written on U. S. mint letter sheets, it is supposed that he is an employe in that institution. His tone indicated that the son was addicted to drink and a spendthrift, and for that reason remittances were refused him. One letter signed "Anna Mary," from Seattle, was not definite enough to establish the identity of the writer. The man was absolutely penniless. Not a cent was found in his pockets, but three pawn-tickets for jewelry in pledge at Seattle, were in evidence of his hard financial straits. He had no baggage of any sort, and it seems absolutely that he had arrived at the jumping-off place. Deceased was apparently about 28 years of age. Coroner Hartsock took charge of the body and notified the father of the sad occurrence. Later on, the Coroner received directions from the father to send the body to Oakland.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated. Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide.

PALOMA AND KARLA.

Oly says that it is "probably for the reason that Paloma and Karla Schramm appeared once before in this city, the attendance at Olympia Theater on their second performance was limited." This is quite a different reason for a light house, from what is generally given. It is want of knowledge of the "treat" in store, that is the stock-in-trade opinion of the average reporter. The fact is that the Schramm children merit patronage, and would receive it, were they under any other management than that of a father who has not the least conception of the duties incumbent upon him. He refuses the usual advertisements in newspapers and on the bill-boards, because, as he says, "my children are well enough known, and he insists upon a programme of brilliant vagaries, "way up in G," instead of a selection from the many well-known classical productions, that might be substituted, even though his aesthetic soul might not tolerate an occasional strain of "Annie Laurie" or the "Last Rose of Summer." There is nothing truer of audiences than that to make them a success to the profession, you must allow them, when they pay their money to take their choice. The transcendental strains elicited from the piano by Paloma and Karla, show only finished execution. They possess nothing to catch on to the heartstrings and attune the soul to melody. On the former visit, the enthusiastic applause that was accorded to a selection from "Il Trovatore," which was a veritable oasis in a broad desert devoted to keyboard gymnastics, should have suggested to Mr. Schramm that common sense and the adoption of sensible means of entertainment. One would suppose that the department of many from an audience before the performance had closed, would, in the course of time, produce an impression upon the popular brain—but it seems there are exceptions. There would be a bright future before the Schramm midgets under proper management, but under the close-fisted, narrow-minded supervision of their worthy father, some respects) prosper, they are literally wasting their sweetness on the desert air.

STATE NEWS.

A Brief Summary of News Gathered from All Parts of the State.

R. S. Morton, a well-known young man of 20 years, was killed Monday night on the Tacoma Eastern road between Midland and the sawmill, out on the line. The body of the young man was found on the track badly cut to pieces.

Henry William Saxon, aged 5, was fatally shot Sunday at the home of his parents, near American Lake. The revolver from which the fatal shot was fired was in the hands of a little boy named Sargent, about the same age. It was a small caliber affair with which the children had been permitted to play.

After the State Board of Equalization completed its labors a month or more ago, it was discovered that the board had added to the valuation of Chehalis county property some $178,000 in property that is by law exempted. Assessor Jones wrote to the State Auditor about the matter and only a few days ago received a reply which states that all the counties were treated alike, therefore none of them suffered. Mr. Jones thinks this statement a mistake for the reason that some of the

THE DEVIL'S AUCTION.

A Perennial Success with Up-to-Date Features.

For over a fifth of a century Chas. H. Yale has continuously kept the famous "Devil's Auction" before the public, and now offers the 20th edition of this marvelous attraction. Every year it has been revised and brought up to date by the introduction of new matter, ideas, clever artists, scenery, ballets, costumes and exclusive features. It is stated, however, by the management that this the 20th edition of the "Devil's Auction" will exceed by far any former efforts, for not one old feature remains. The entire cast with one exception will be new, while among the new special features may be mentioned Fox & Foxie, a most novel vaudeville feature which will at once become a great favorite with the ladies and children; Bush & Gordon, a duo of grotesque acrobats who combine dexterous feats of the gymnasium with laughable pantomimic comicities; The Dance to the Moon, a new and most original idea which comes from Europe and is presented for the first time in this country, and introduces a number of startling and unique light effects, combined with other novel features. The comedy element of the performance has been well taken care of in the engagement of the noted comedian, Mr. Gus Mortimer, who will appear as "Toby" the donkey, afterwards transformed to a man, and William J. Mason, who will enact the part of Pere Andoche, while Miss Victoria Walters, the clever singing and dancing comedienne will appear as Janet the Milkmaid. Special attention is called to the reproduction of the beautiful Dance of the Elements which has been greatly elaborated, and now offers besides the magnificent electrical and gold, silver and rain effects, a shower of flowers and other novel illusions. Manager Yale has also provided a new Scene of Transformation entitled Ocean's Mighty Depths, which, together with the ladies and children, costumes and trick mechanisms, promises to make the 20th edition of the "Devil's Auction" the most notable production of its phenomenal career. Tom Sercy, an Everett youth, has been shanghaied in Seattle by the crew of a lumber vessel bound for South Africa. The tidings reached the boy's mother Tuesday in a letter which the lad was permitted to write before the departure of the ship on her long cruise. Young Sercy says he was drugged with liquor, and while in a helpless state carried aboard.
