CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

The baseball club has received its new uniforms. Druggist Hewitt, of Tumwater, is ill of tonsillitis. John V. Ostrander and wife visited Seattle this week. Mrs. Dr. Manier is quite ill at her home on Chambers' Prairie. Travel between this city and down-south points is quite brisk. H. G. Richardson is on the sick list, suffering from a severe cold. The merry-go-round will seek new fields after to-morrow night. Miss Grace Lotz is visiting the Misses Kneeland at Shelton. U. S. Marshal Hopkins arrived here by the Capital City last evening. "To-night and Saturday showers," is the weather prediction issued to-day. B. W. Davis has sold lot 5 of block 23, on Eastside, to Allen Williamson for $500. Mrs. Charles Billings returned yesterday from a visit to relatives in Spokane. Eighth grade examinations are to be held in this county on the 22d and 23d insts. George Scofield is in a fair way of recovery from a distressing siege of rheumatism. Mr. and Mrs. Allen White, of Elma, visited their former home, this city, a few days ago. Schooley Moore has gone to Oregon to cruise some lands in that State for Eastern parties. The steamer Multnomah has been taken to Seattle to go into the dry dock for repairs. The Aberdeen missed her trip to Seattle yesterday, owing to an accident to her machinery. Fourth street, with its garage of workmen, now looks like it did in the boom time of 1890. George Chambers, of Yelm, has gone to North Yakima where he will remain for the present. C. R. Carroll is undergoing treatment at the hospital for food-poisoning of the right hand. The ship Annie M. Campbell sailed this week with a cargo of lumber from one of our local mills. O. C. White has bought lots 3, 4 and 5, of Fourth Street Addition, for a consideration of $100. James Israel has gone to Ellensburg to do some "cruising" for the State in Kittitas and adjoining counties. Little Rock's population was increased this week by the advent of a son at the home of Marvin Dailey. Mrs. M. H. Draham, Mollie Snyder and Miss Margie Draham were Shelton visitors to the Capital City this week. A son has been born to the wife of F. Gingrich, and a daughter to the wife of A. Barriekman, both of Oyster Bay. The St. John's Guild netted about $60, in their entertainment and sale in Grand Army hall, last Wednesday night. Oliver H. McIntire and Pearl M. Dillon, both of Elma, were united in marriage, last evening, by Rev. A. G. Sawin. W. T. Melvin was in the city this week from Yelm. He reports his wife, who has been quite ill, as somewhat improved. The Street Commissioner's force filled in with earth the large cistern at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, this week. Frank Wyman, of Lexington, Ky., and Miss Susie Holmes, were married in this city, Wednesday night, by Rev. Dr. Hayes. The old engine-room, where the hand engine was installed for many years, is being fitted up for police headquarters. The barkentine Northwest, Capt. Lemer, arrived in our harbor Sunday from San Francisco, to load lumber for San Pedro. Millard Lemon has a crew of men at work in Mason county surveying some new spurs for the Peninsula logging railroad. The Capital Brewing Company shipped 60 halves and 40 whole barrels of bottled beer for the Honolulu market, Wednesday. The steamship City of Puebla sails from the Sound for San Francisco Monday, and the City of Topoka for Alaskan ports Tuesday. The Capital City is announced to make another excursion next Sunday, the objective point being Bremerton. She will leave at 8 A. M. J. J. Blair, of Yelm, has sold his farm in section 3, township 16, range 2 east, consisting of about 200 acres, to Gabriel Gallar and W. Jones. Herbert Bashford will give a reading and lecture in the Baptist church, to-morrow night, under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World. Mr. E. Bertram Graves will soon erect a handsome cottage residence on his lately acquired lots corner of Eleventh and Columbia streets. C. Perkins, an employe in Richardson's shingle mill, had the index finger of his left hand severed, Tuesday, from contact with the knot-saw. A son was born to Mrs. W. R. Palmer, of Westport, Wednesday, and a daughter to Mrs. Conrad Schneider on the same day and in the same suburb. The work of improving Fourth street has been begun both by the contractors and the Light & Power Co., who will ballast and replank their car line. An enjoyable party was tendered Miss Janet McPherson, Wednesday evening, at the home of Miss Margaret Lyman. Games, singing and music were among the pleasant features of the evening. The high school commencement exercises will be held in Olympia Theater, next Friday evening. Supt. Frank B. Cooper, of Seattle city schools, will deliver an address on that occasion.

A daughter was born to Mrs. H. D. Saunders, of Portland, at the hospital in this city, Sunday. She and her husband were once residents of Tumwater. Chas. Koppeler, the house-mover, has bought a new merry-go-round in the East and it will soon arrive. The freight on the machine will amount to $100. Frank Mossman came up from Oyster Bay Wednesday, and somewhat resembled Buffalo Bill as he sat astride a galloping horse of the merry-go-round. H. B. Cusick has been elected a director of the Tumwater school for a term of three years and C. F. Eastman for one year. R. G. Esterly has been elected Clerk. Roger Patterson, aged about 60 years, for a number of years employed by the Simpson Logging Co., dropped dead of heart disease in camp No. 6, last Thursday. W. LeRoy was brought to the hospital the other day, suffering from a fracture of his back, a bale of hay having fallen from the loft and striking him on the same. Sylvester LeBarre, the bicycle policeman, reports that the path on Taylor's lane is about completed and that a ride "around the block" will soon be only a delightful exercise. The liquor license held at Tenino by M. C. Cole, has, with permission of the County Commissioners, been transferred to Bunham & Waddell, who now conduct the "resort." Orson Curry, the well known teacher from this county, who has been for some time dangerously ill at Whatcom, from an incurable disease of the stomach, died Monday morning. About an even hundred people went on the excursion by the Capital City, Sunday, to Tacoma, Seattle and Everett. Tacoma and Seattle added large numbers to the pleasure seekers. Wm. A. Nelson, of Inman, Alaska, is in city and will remain some time. Mr. N. is in hope that a change may improve his health. He is an old friend of Dr. Wyman, of this city. The applicants for admission to the bar last night filled two boxes at Olympia Theater. They are a bright looking set of young men and will doubtless do credit to their profession. S. K. Taylor, of Oyster Bay, sustained some severe bruises by his horse falling, while on his way to this city, Wednesday. His injuries were not serious, however, and he came on to his destination. James Finning was, Monday, committed to the insane asylum at Steilacoom. His affliction is of a mild form and it is thought that with a short period of bodily rest his mental equipoise will be restored. Pat Dolan sells his household furniture at his late residence, on upper Columbia street, at public auction, to-morrow. Mr. John Byrne, who lately purchased the residence, will move in soon as Pat moves out. Hugh Morrison, the well-known Mason county logger, has returned from California, where he has been spending the past several months for the relief of his health. Mr. Morrison returns greatly improved. The county and city intend to "pool issues" in building a jail. There is no certainty, however, of the plan being carried into effect, as, in building a court-house and city hall, the city backed out at the last hour. E. C. Martin, a trainman in Wilson's logging camp, received the sad intelligence Monday that his young child, at his home in Cleveland, Ohio, was dead. He left immediately to be present at the rites of burial. Memorial exercises were held in Lincoln school, Wednesday, in testimony of great remembrance of Orson Curry, who died at Whatcom a few days ago, and resolutions of respect were adopted by its members. H. G. Richardson, Alexander-like, is seeking other worlds to conquer in his chosen vocation—shingle-making. He has now two extensive mills here, and is planning to start another at Shelton, near a splendid tract of cedar. The Olympia Base Ball team has been organized with Frank Coter as Business Manager, and John Berkshire Treasurer. Efforts are being made to secure a match game Sunday, with either a Tenino or a Tacoma nine. The Flynn shingle mill company have purchased from Chas. S. Wilson, for a consideration of $1,200 several tracts of cedar lumber land in section 3, township 18 north, range 3 west and section 31, township 19, range 3 west. The Capitol Commission meets next Monday to consider bids for equipment of the legislative halls of the capital annex. A session was held this week at which bids were submitted and the matter of details was discussed. Chas. Jackson was arraigned, Tuesday, on a charge of attempted rape of little Helen White, last month, and given till yesterday to plead, at which time he entered the plea of not guilty. His defense will be conducted by Troy & Falkner. Any of our Eastern readers who are thinking of locating in this county and wish to purchase a farm, or a home in Olympia, will do well to write to T. N. Ford & Co., the real estate dealers. The STANDARD recommends this firm as thoroughly reliable. A. P. Perry has been enjoined by the Superior Court against any further cutting of timber on the northwest quarter of section 24, township 16, range 1 west, by E. Wilcox, trustee in bankruptcy for George Lawler, doing business as the Sunset Lumber Co. Thurston county's share of the present apportionment of the State school fund amounts to $14,807.34, nearly half of which is to be disbursed on the basis of the school census, belongs to the Olympia districts. The aggregate of the State fund apportionment is $692,478.50. At Clifton, in Mason county, last Saturday, Jack McDonald and his father-in-law, Thomas Griffith, had a dispute over some family affairs and in the course of the fracas McDonald knocked Griffith down with a chair. Griffith is nearly 80 years of age and lies in a precarious condition as a result. Architect Hartsock has been authorized to draw plans for the new county jail and city station house. It is contemplated that $5,000 will erect a building suitable for the double use, and that an equitable rating would be for the county to pay $3,000 and the city the remainder of the cost up to that sum.

The Bush exhibit, which took the world's premium at the Philadelphia Centennial Fair, and has ever since been the victor at every Fair where exhibited, has been presented to the Chamber of Commerce for a permanent display, and an effort is being made to secure adequate quarters in the new court house. The police had some difficulty in arresting two drunken Indians Wednesday night. "Fire-water" has but one effect upon the "untutored mind," and that is to fight, and it should be made the duty of those law-defenders who sell the vilest brain-paralyser to run the gauntlet with a drawn scalping-knife at their heads. William F. Duke, son of George Duke, living on Eastside, died yesterday morning, of consumption, aged 21 years. He was a native of Adrian, Mich., and came to this state with his parents ten years ago. Most of his life since then was spent in this city. The funeral services will be held Sunday, at 2 P. M. in the Christian church. Attorney General Stratton has filed an opinion to the effect that there is no vacancy in the office of Lieutenant-Governor, but that Gov. McBride still holds that office and is simply performing the duties of Governor until the constitution provides for under certain conditions. His term as acting Governor runs with the unexpired term. William D. Coming, a resident of Mason county for 18 years, died Tuesday of pneumonia, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Conrad Schneider, on Westside. He was 65 years of age and leaves a wife and six children, all grown. The funeral rites were held yesterday at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Hayes officiating, and interment made in Odd Fellows' cemetery. Fred. Dorn, a deckhand on the Capital City, sustained a painful injury of his arm, while engaged in "deporting" at the penitentiary, on McNeill's Island, Saturday. It is customary, there being no wharf, to shove animals from the steamer, and let them swim ashore. It seems that a kick from the horse as he took his involuntary bath, struck Dorn on the arm inflicting the injury. My published, Sunday, the individual opinions of our local preachers, on Heaven. It seems that no agree, as might be expected, on a subject which is at best purely speculative. Now let our neighbor interview the clergy on their ideas of that other place, known under the sugar-coated names of Hades or Sheol. Dimes to donate as they can give, much more definite opinion of the place or condition of eternal damnation. It seems that the land sharks have caught several home-seekers by recommending locations embraced in the Rainier reserve, which is not subject to entry, except to those who made locations before the reserve bill became a law, March 1, 1893. The township on which "strangers in a strange land" have been located in township 18 range 7 east, which has been advertised and was filed yesterday for such entries as can be made. An applicant for admission to the bar yesterday's examination was Takuji Yamashita, a native of Japan, 24 years of age, educated in this country and admitted to citizenship lately by Judge Chapman, of Tacoma. He is a high school graduate of that city, and has taken a course at law in the State University. Now if he would only have his name naturalized, so as to lessen the strain on the English alphabet, he would do a sensible thing. Dr. David Mitchell sold yesterday his farm of 122 acres, on South Bay, with a good house, barn and outbuildings, to Chas. A. Rose for a consideration of $3,250. A spring of water 20 rods from the farm is likewise conveyed by a provision for transfer of the four rods square of land, with a spring and a strip of land two rods wide from it to the farm. The spring was a "tab" to the farm when acquired by Dr. Mitchell, but how it became attached is unknown to him. Mrs. Grace Mitchell, of Seattle, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. A. A. Phillips. She is an applicant for admission to the bar and her visit is to undergo the examination necessary to aid in punishing the wicked and helping the righteous out of difficulties. The experience so far with lady lawyers, goes to show that they make splendid advocates and that their work is marked with more care and fort than that of many of their brothers at the bar. That at least is the opinion of an eminent Chicago Judge. Dan. J. McDonald, aged 29, is wanted by the Sheriff of Mason county on a warrant sworn out charging him with rape committed some time ago, on the person of Ella Griffith, aged 14. McDonald has been employed on a logging camp near Polatch, and when his youthful victim gave birth to a child, last Sunday, was induced to divulge the name of the fiend who accomplished her ruin, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. McDonald got hold of the information he was to be arrested and skipped out. The Board of Examiners in the State Superintendent's office are quite busy with the papers that are coming in from all over the State as a result of the May examination of teachers. The board consists of Mrs. Dora McKee, Mr. Margaret O'Keefe, Mrs. Mary Bryan, C. W. Shafer, of Olympia; Miss Rose Morgan, Mrs. Dora Criderman, of Whatcom, and Miss Emma Tuttle of Hoquiam. On account of the number of papers submitted it is probable that the work of examination will not be completed before the end of the month. The presentation of "Faust" by Mr. Griffith and his talented company at Olympia Theater, last night, was a treat to all who saw it. Griffith is a model Mephisto and Miss Parnell a splendid Marguerite. All parts were, however, well sustained, and the scenic display in keeping with the infernal reality of the plot. There was a hitch, however, in the electrical effects in the Brocken scene from the electrician having lost his "plug." Aside from this, the presentation was acceptable in all respects. To-night "The King's Rites" will be presented, an adaptation from Don Cesar de Bazar, by the author of "Two Orphans." A general raise in salaries of post-office clerks has been made in this State. In the Olympia office the clerk formerly receiving $600 will after July 1st receive $100 more, the $700 man (who is a lady in this instance) will receive $800 and the $800 man will be advanced to $900. The clerks affected are F. W. Reisenweber, Miss Ida Chambers and Chas. Sparks. Several additional clerks are to be appointed: At Tacoma, five; at Aberdeen, one; at North Yakima, one, and at Spokane two. Meanwhile the Man with the Hoe plods along with his $40 to $50 per month, when the sun shines and nothing when it rains, or he or his family are sick, without a holiday except at his own expense. H. H. Gouley, of Rainier, came to town to-day and sought out Oly to buy him $1.50 on subscription, and good Samaritan-like, the writer conducted him to the door of the improved daily and fairly shoved him in to our neighbor's sanctum sanctorum. A couple of hours later the same individual sauntered into the STANDARD office and plunking down his money for a year's subscription to the paper, said with emphasis: "Well, I couldn't find nobody at home at all. Send me the STANDARD, I like it better than the dummed Republican paper, onyways." While Oly generally leaves his latch-string out, he does not always stay at the other end of it. State School Apportionment. The exact figures of the Olympia district's apportionment of the State and county school fund for May are $56,306.63. The other districts will receive the following amounts: District No. 2, $186.03; District No. 3, $114.12; District No. 4, $291.39; District No. 5, $453.28; District No. 8, $117.78; District No. 9, $262.40; District No. 10, $285.82; District No. 12, $121.59; District No. 13, $224.43; District No. 14, $162.43; District No. 16, $239.91; District No. 18, $103.83; District No. 19, $316.01; District No. 21, $236.13; District No. 22, $147.77; District No. 26, $182.31; District No. 31, $689.49; District No. 33, $186.63; District No. 34, $268.32; District No. 44, $300.02; District No. 46, $109.54; District No. 55, $130.92; District No. 60, $167.47; District No. 62, $158.43. Districts No. 5, 7, 11, 15, 17, 20, 23, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32, 34, 35, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 45, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 56, 57, 58, 59, 61, 62, 64, 65 and Union District No. 1 (Woodland High school), all being below the minimum in point of attendance, were allowed 10 per cent attendance, amounting to $103. No apportionment was made to the Union High school at Little Rock, as it was not organized until after the County Superintendent made his report. The same is true of the new District No. 66. A Married Man and a Young Woman Die Together. Dr. F. J. Leadbrooke, a prominent physician of Moscow, and Miss Winnie Booth, 19-year-old daughter of Rev. G. M. Booth, pastor of the Methodist Church at Moscow, committed suicide at Oro Fino, Idaho, last Monday. The couple arrived in that city Saturday and spent the night at the hotel. Next evening they attended the Epworth League meeting, and then returned to the hotel. They did not appear for breakfast next morning, and at noon when the door of their room was opened, the girl was found dead on the bed. Beside her was Leadbrooke, in a dying condition. He passed away at 10 o'clock. The couple had taken morphine by hypodermic injection. A note was left by the couple on the table, stating they had sent letters to Moscow, and that people should arrive from that point to take charge of the bodies. Leadbrooke was a married man and was wealthy. Miss Booth was a school teacher, and was employed near Kendrick Friday, and the next day they were in Orofino. Leadbrooke arrived at Moscow about a year ago from Minnesota and became acquainted with Miss Booth in church work. He was also the physician of the Booth family. STATE NEWS. The Shelton public schools closed Friday. Walter Blakeslee attempted to commit suicide at Whatcom, Sunday night, by taking carbolic acid, but was saved by the quick arrival of a physician. Charles Sandstrom was drowned in the Hoquiam river Sunday night. With several companions he was crossing the river, when their boat filled, and the men were thrown into the water. The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Landrum swallowed a large Pendo button with a pin attachment the other day and has, as yet, suffered no inconvenience. She ought to be made an honorary member of the order.—Central News-Reporter. David Thompson, alias David Tulies, the English contractor arrested in Seattle, March 29, on a charge of being about $70,000, was taken care of from Tacoma Saturday in charge of two Deputy U. S. Marshals who will deliver him to British authorities at Boston, Mass. Patrick O'Leary, a boy 8 years old, son of James O'Leary, living in the Indian addition near Tacoma, accompanied his father to the school election Saturday, and while his father was at the polls the boy fell into a deep ditch by the roadside and drowned in a little more than a foot of water. John Hackett, a Seattle tailor, is laboring under a peculiar hallucination. He imagines that he is hypnotized; that Svengali, with baneful design, has placed him under a mysterious psychic influence. Recently he stopped everybody he met and insisted on telling all about it, and he was arrested and placed in jail. Claude Powers, aged 22, attempted to commit suicide Sunday afternoon at his lodgings in Tacoma. Unrequited love was the cause of Claude's sadness, laudanum the route he chose. Miss Olive Waters, an attractive young woman, who makes her home with her aunt, was the object of the young man's affection, but she is pledged to another, and she so informed Claude when he pressed his suit. Her lover is now in Alaska seeking his fortune. Whether by accident or with suicidal intent is not perfectly clear, but Don Cowie, a well-known and popular young man of Seattle, went overboard from a naphtha launch about 9 o'clock Sunday night and was drowned in the waters of Lake Washington. The circumstances, as related by eye-witnesses, indicate design on the part of Cowie to end his life. He was 26 years old. It appears that the party attempted to rescue the young man, but he made no effort to be saved and sank from sight. Miss Ruby Friend, one of the pleasure party aboard the launch, has since suffered from nervous prostration.
