City Clerk Reynolds of Walla Walla, was severely cut in the abdomen by a soldier named Logan on Sunday night in an altercation over the destruction of Mr. R.'s picket fence by the soldier.

Pe Ell's crack shot, G. E. Hamaker, and H. C. Bilger, the well-known hardware salesman, had a friendly shooting contest the other day when Mr. Bilger visited Pe Ell. Mr. Hamaker broke 24 out of 25 clay pigeons, Mr. Bilger 21 and Dr. Powell of Chelalis 16.

James Chevers, a workman in a stone quarry near Vancouver, was crushed to death Saturday, by the fall of a seven-ton rock. He was working with other men to dislodge the rock, when it slipped and fell upon him, inflicting fatal injuries. He was 34 years old.

Russell Hubbard, aged 23 years, was found dead in a tank of gasoline near the N. P. coal bunkers at Pasco, last Wednesday. He had entered the tank for the purpose of cleaning it and had become overcome by the fumes. His face and hands were frightfully burned where they had come in contact with the liquid, although there was no fire near.

State Labor Commissioner Blackman believes the Supreme Court will sustain the validity of the law passed by the last Legislature making 10 hours the maximum to be required of female workers for a day's work. The question is before the court on appeals from Snohomish and King counties, and the two cases will be presented in conjunction.

The 11-year-old daughter of Mrs. Phelps, a Whatcom milliner, came near being burned to death Saturday. The little girl was playing in the vicinity of the depot, and in some manner set fire to her clothes. She was all ablaze in a moment and only for the prompt action of E. E. Sherwood, who happened to be close by, would have sustained fatal injuries.

That the prune crop of Clarke county will be short this year is now conceded by all growers. A conservative estimate of the output is 125 carloads of dried fruit, as against 250 carloads last year. The crop is reported blighted in all the principle fruit districts of the county, and the orchards are badly spotted. Other fruits will be plentiful and the cherry crop will be unusually large.

While riding a horse across the Kalama river at Blair & Moorback's piling camp, last Sunday morning, Thomas White met his death instantly. The horse stepped into a hole and fell, throwing Mr. White under it and in gaining its feet struck him about the head and under the arm. The water was not deep but he could not regain his feet and was drowned before the men could get to him.

Gay Hayden, a pioneer of 1850, died at Vancouver, last week, at the age of 83 years. Death was due to old age. Deceased was well known in Clarke county, having been engaged in business at Vancouver for many years. He was born in Rome, N. Y., and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1850, settling on a donation claim. In 1856 he went to Vancouver, where he had since resided. His wife and four children survive him.

A wreck occurred on the Northern Pacific near Seattle, on the 14th inst., in which W. T. Shaw, a fireman, was killed; Engineer W. H. Watson and brakeman Walto injured, and the company suffered a property loss of approximately $50,000. The victims of the accident were members of the crew of an incoming freight train and the wreck resulted from the neglect of the men to observe a rule of the division regulating the speed of trains within the limits of the Interbay yards.

Mrs. B. F. Van Horn, sister of Judge W. R. Bell, of Seattle, is what the police term a "woman of nerve." Instead of screaming and fainting when a villainous-looking stranger broke a window of her residence the other night, with the evident intention of committing a burglary, she secured a revolver and sent five leaden bullets somewhere in his direction. That the burglar escaped injury and made a clean get away is due to the fact that with her coolness Mrs. Van Horn is not a sharp-shooter.

Sam White, a tough character newly arrived at North Yakima, hired out to Farmer Dan Kinney and together they started for the ranch. Reaching there, White gave Kinney a drink of

HELPLESS HUSBANDS

HOW HELPLESS HUSBANDS HAVE BECOME HELPFUL.

Never does a man feel so helpless as when he looks upon the suffering of the wife he loves and knows that he is powerless to prevent it. And when, as is often the case, he has exhausted every means at his disposal in the vain effort to restore his wife to health, his despair almost equals her suffering. There are husbands who have passed through this experience and have found a way to be helpful to their wives when physicians had absolutely failed to cure, and been even powerless to help the sufferer. One such husband thus relates his experience:

"I take pleasure in writing you to let you know about your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mr. E. E. Fricke, of Petersburg, Menard Co., Ills., Box 367. "My wife had been sick nearly all her life, and after trying everything I could think of I made up my mind to try 'Favorite Prescription.' I sent to Chicago and got six bottles, which my wife took, a tablespoonful three times a day, until the baby came. She felt better after taking the first bottle, and when baby was born he weighed nine and a half pounds. To-day he is six months old and weighs twenty-two pounds. He is as good a child as any one could wish. The doctor says he is as healthy as any baby could be, and also the doctor says your 'Favorite Prescription' was the cause of such a healthy baby. I felt I owed you 'this much for the good you did my wife and for my own happiness.'"

HIS "BETTER HALF."

The reference to the wife as the "better half" is made sometimes half humorously. But in his heart every man feels that the old phrase expresses the fact. When the wife is sick the whole fabric of home totters to its fall. When the wife is confined to her bed the husband leads a half life, a life from which the sunshine and laughter have been taken away. It is not to be wondered at therefore, that husbands express their gratitude for the cures which follow the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. What a change from a sickly bed-ridden wife, helpless and miserable, to a wife who is once more able to "guide the house" in health and happiness.

"My wife was afflicted with uterine trouble for several years," writes Mr. J. C. Day, of Little Britain, Lancaster Co., Pa., "when in November, 1898, the doctor said she had a mishap. He treated her for about two months or so, but there was but little improvement. I wrote you after she had commenced to take 'Favorite Prescription' and you told us to get 'Golden Medical Discovery' also. She took six or seven bottles drugged whisky, then stole $50, a watch and a horse. Kinney was able to notify Joe Mondore and C. A. Ross, neighbors, who followed the thief. After an exciting chase they overhauled him, and by threatening to shoot induced him to stop. They tied him with a rope and took him to town. The stolen property was recovered.

Saturday night a large party of Centralia young people went to Chelalis to attend an athletic contest between the high school pupils of the two towns. The ride was made on hayricks covered with straw. During the evening the wagons were left standing on the streets in front of a livery barn. While no one was watching, some hoodlums smeared paint over the straw and uncoupled the wagons. When the Centralians started home they soon discovered the paint, but not until a number of young ladies and gentlemen had their clothing almost ruined from the color. General indignation is felt, not only at Chelalis, but in Centralia. The general impression seems to prevail that the mischief was done by a gang of hoodlums from Centralia, who are at outs with the high school young folks. The high school students of Chelalis have offered a reward of $25 and the City Council offered $50 reward for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

There was considerable excitement in the family of John Shannon at Aberdeen, the other day, when it was discovered that two of the daughters had eloped. Miss Bessie, the eldest, a girl of 16 or 17, was sent to Ocoota to make preparations for the removal of the family to that place. Upon her arrival there she was met by a young man named Frank Wilson, who had followed her from Aberdeen. The couple walked to Cosmopolis and took the boat for Montesano, were married by a minister there and returned to Aberdeen and are now at the home of W. B. Wilson. When the family followed their effects to the depot to take the train for their new home in Ocoota, it was discovered that the second daughter, Lena, a miss of 14, was missing. The most diligent search by the father and police failed to find any trace of the girl. It was learned later in the evening that she had been seen with a lad by the name of Marshall, but it has been impossible thus far to locate their whereabouts.

The farmers of Whitman county are in earnest in their efforts to pledge all legislative candidates to fight the railroad lobby, and have called a mass meeting for Collax, Saturday, June 7, where all candidates for the Legislature and U. S. Senate are invited to assemble and address the farmers and publicly announce their attitude on the railroad question. The call announces that party lines are to be of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery' she was cured and got out of bed and was able to attend to her household once more." Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and gives one a sense of refreshing sleep, and when the hour of trial comes it makes the lady's advent practically painless. It is the best tonic for nursing mothers, promoting the flow of the nutritive secretions and giving the mother strength to give her child.

"My wife was sick for over eight years," writes Albert H. Fricke, Esq., of Altamont, Grundy Co., Tenn. "She had uterine disease and was treated by two physicians and got no relief. At last I read in one of your Memorandum Books which you sent me about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and we decided to try his 'Favorite Prescription.' I sent to the drug store and got one bottle and the first dose gave ease and sleep. She had not slept any for three nights. Being assured that it would cure her I sent for five more bottles, and when she had taken the six bottles she was sound and well."

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR WOMEN.

Women who are suffering from diseases of long standing are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All letters are privately read and answered, and the written confidences of women are treated with the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce in personal consultations with women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

This offer of free consultation by letter is not to be classed with the spurious offers of "free medical advice" made by those who have neither professional training nor experience are medically and legally unqualified to give the advice they offer. Although it takes more than a diploma to make a good physician yet the medical diploma is essential to the possessing of professional study and training. It is well for women to examine into offers of "free medical advice" and to ascertain whether the offer is made by the competent professional and legally to give medical advice. Any one can offer "medical advice" but such advice from one who is not medically educated and qualified is not only worthless but dangerous.

In a little over thirty years Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, has treated and cured hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women. Write therefore without fee as without fear to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The effort of some dealers to sell a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" as "just as good" is due to the fact that less meritorious preparations pay a little more profit. Insist on having the medicine which makes weak women strong and sick women well.

TO HUSBANDS AND WIVES.

The best medical work for the home is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work treats of health and disease from the viewpoint of common sense. It contains 1008 large pages and is sent free on receipt of 10 cents to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper-covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

brushed aside for this occasion, and the farmers who have issued the call will vote only for men who will agree to use their efforts, if elected, to further the interests of the farmers and fight the railroad lobby at Olympia. That portion of the call relating to Senatorial candidates is as follows: "As the Interstate Commerce Commission can materially assist or retard this movement of ours to get needed relief from the extortions of the railroad companies, it is especially desirable that Levi Ankeny, Harold Preston and Hon. George Turner and all other avowed candidates for the U. S. Senate, be with us and give us their views of how to control these greedy monopolies. Let there be a full turn-out of our people to hear what these gentlemen have to say, and then let us support the men who will best serve our interests."

"Campaigning in the Philippines."

A book of over 400 pages, with nearly 300 beautiful illustrations of troops in action and scenes in the Philippine islands, published by The Hicks-Judd Publishing Co. of San Francisco, the only publishers in the United States who sent representatives to Manila especially to compile a history of the war. As many as 23 writers were engaged in the work in Manila, many of whom were with the troops in their various engagements and they were permitted to use official records to verify their reports.

Maps of Battlegrounds, made by an official map-maker in the 8th Army Corps, enables the reader to follow closely the movements of troops. Description of Philippine Isles, giving statistical and other information as to climatic conditions, resources, etc., are an account of the trip to Manila, taking the reader to Honolulu and through Japan and China, are interesting features of the book.

Washington Special Edition contains a complete history of the 1st Washington Volunteer regiment in the Philippine campaign, and also the names, postoffice addresses and occupations of every member of the regiment, together with lists of the killed and wounded, deaths by disease, promotions, discharges, etc., and also cuts of each company and officers of the regiment. It is vouchered for as officially correct by a certificate from the Colonel.

Advance sale over 6,000 Copies in Manila shows the faith of soldiers in the publication. It is sold by subscription only and returning soldiers have been employed almost exclusively thus far and have found in this very lucrative employment. A few more agents wanted in this State. Address the Hicks-Judd Publishing Co., 21 First St., San Francisco.
