CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. J. H. Mori is quite ill. City election next Tuesday. A jury term of the Superior Court began Monday.

she had not physical strength to withstand the dread disease. Miss Holmes was about 55 years of age. Mr. Whiteside, the undertaker, prepared the body for shipment to her former home.

Mr. Billups, who is said to be one of the best bakers in the State, and who will not participate in the M. E. Church, Sunday morning, at which a sermon in that line of reform was preached by the pastor.

It seems that W. Wright does not take kindly to the refusal of the City Council to allow him to construct a "corrugated iron" structure, corner of Fourth and Columbia, and has consequently suspended demolition of the old buildings to make place for the "iron" structure, and moved one of them to the most prominent place on the corner, and had begun placing new sills, new studding, new roof, and a new floor, to defeat the object of the law.

There have been thirty-seven converts at the revival meetings held in the Christian Church under Rev. Dr. Gormley's services.

The regular Republican city convention was held in the Grand Army hall, last evening, and called to order by Chairman Owings of the city committee, and Senator Ruth was selected for presiding officer and Royal McReynolds for Secretary.

The resolutions presented were of the "cut-and-dried" variety and after the usual party perisage, present as living issues, condemnation of the water supply and approval of the policy of the "open door" in municipal affairs. The meeting of this term is restricted and assured by condemnation of gambling in a subsequent clause.

The anti Republican, or Citizens' Convention, was held in the theater. About 200 persons were present, and the meeting was called to order by Fred Schomber. Cape Reinhardt was elected chairman and John Otis Secretary.

The only contest was over settling the availability of candidates for Clerk and Health Officer, wherein the convention seemed to favor the "gang" candidates—Milroy and Kincaid. Committees were sent out to ascertain whether they would stand with the party that had already nominated them, or with the Citizens' movement.

Advices have been received stating that the ship commanded by Captain Harry Struve, of Seattle, is being held by the Japanese at Newchwang, and was not sunk, as was first reported. The boat was captured while attempting to run a cargo of provisions into the harbor of Port Arthur for the relief of the beleaguered and half-famished garrison. Captain Struve is a son of H. G. Struve, at one time resident of Olympia, where he attended school and grew to manhood.

DRIFTWOOD BY LUK F. VERNON. Strange, while they go on tick, we have to pay for them telegrams. China has forbid Russia the further use of ports for shipping supplies. Seattle by having full-fledged street car collisions secures its space in the catalogue of American cities.

When death overtakes us we trust and hope it will be in San Francisco, for that is as near the Golden Gate as we ever expect to be. Now is the time of year when umbrellas and rain-coats are in big demand, and you haven't even the price to have your leaky shoes half-soled.

It's a curious fact, says a medical journal, that there never was a bald-headed idiot. We know of several bald-headed men who act very much like idiots. "I used to be a good singer before times came in fashion," remarked an Olympia man the other day, and his friends all agree—as one man—that he lost the truth.

The immense grain and fruit crops of this year have made an immense increase in the deposits of the Walla Walla banks. It is estimated that the deposits of five institutions of that place exceed $5,000,000.

James Quinn and C. A. Williams, two boys arrested in October for robbing J. C. Ryan, in Peaceful Valley, east of the mountains, have been sentenced to the State penitentiary for six and five years respectively.

Henry Gordon, a farmer near Elmas, was started Saturday morning to find the body of a gray-haired man lying in his barn. He had been shot through the head and lay on his back with a rifle across his body held in his hands.

Because he resisted arrest for fighting, Fred Barnhart, alias "Big Fred," is in the Snohomish hospital with three bullet holes in his lower limbs, put there by Policeman Frank Caffey. Barnhart has been causing considerable trouble during a brief stay in Snohomish.

Arthur Sandle, whose brief criminal career in Seattle was cut short by his arrest, told his story Tuesday, admitting many burglaries and thefts. The day after his capture he broke jail to see a young woman with whom he is in love, whose home is in Fremont. He attempted to walk there, but not knowing the way, got lost, and returning to the city was arrested by a special officer.

These have been sixteen deaths attributed to appendicitis in Spokane this year.
