CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Arthur W. Jones, of Bush Prairie, is reported quill. Mottman has a very interesting advertisement in this paper. Mrs. Stella Carroll, of Ballard, is visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Nettie Cook was interred Friday afternoon under the auspices of the order of Washington, of which she was an active and valued member. Rev. Walter S. Crockett conducted the services, and the attendance of relatives and friends was large.

Ashley's automobile broke down about two miles from town, while "spinning around the block." Wednesday evening, and the party who were making the trip had to walk back while the auto was indignantly towed in by the slower but surer horse motor.

Lon Yo, a Chinese girl 17 years of age, daughter of Hong Hai, a merchant on Sixth street, was taken to the hospital for the insane at St. Jackson this week, from which she had been released on parole, having been attacked with a violent form of her affliction.

The total assessment for Thurston county for this year, $7,311,651, of which $5,753,249 is realty and $1,558,402 personal property. This is an increase over last year of $1,229,056. Olympia realty aggregates $1,553,723; Tumwater, $158,325; remainder of county $4,051,701.

The State Board of Control has let a contract to the Walls Walla Meat and Cold Storage Co. for 100 head of cattle for the next supply of the Penitentiary, at $3.25 per hundred, on hoof, delivery to be made at the rate of about 20 per week. The pen has its own slaughter-house.

Miss Carrie Allen, many years ago a resident of this city, and sister of the late Senator John P. Allen, came up from Redlands, Cal., this week, for a short sojourn among her many friends. She still retains property interests here, and has a good word to say for old-time Olympia and her people.

George Taylor's horse easily beat B. J. Wilson's nag at Martin's race track, on Chambers' Prairie, Tuesday afternoon, although handicapped by a fifty feet start. But two of the three half mile heats were run as the winning horse came out 100 feet ahead in the first heat and 200 in the second.

Mr. Darling is moving his shoe store from the southeast corner of "W. E. D." lot to the building formerly occupied by the Rochdale store on Fourth street. The line for the new building cuts the store room vacated through the center.

County Treasurer Schomber has issued a call for all outstanding warrants up to and including the issue of 1893, and will soon, it is said, supplement it with one for payment up to 1896. Most of these warrants bear a high rate of interest, which has in some instances accrued to an amount equal to their face value.

Fred Tilley, of Shelock, was tried and convicted in the justice court this week, on a charge of petit larceny, the stealing of a watch and $22 in money from W. A. Ackers, a fellow workman on a ranch near Shelock. He was steered by the Chief of Police on the steamer Multnomah, as he was about to leave for pastures new. He was committed to serve 30 days in jail.

Now that Tykka's Cove is coming to the front as a favorite camping place a few miles down the Sound, it might be well to give our "Seaside" friends a pointer as to the orthography of the name. It is derived from the owner way back half a century—George Tykka, and should be so pronounced. Never call it "Tickle" or "Tyckler," for Tykka is the proper way to tackle it.

THOSE FLOWERS. OLYMPIA, July 29, 1906. EDITOR STANDARD: The Olympia of last week spoke of the flower gardens on Long bridge. Saturday, I went over to see for myself. This time the statement was not overdrawn. Considering the disadvantage they are at, they do well.

Manager Faulkner, of the Olympia Light and Power Co., has given orders that upon the sounding of an alarm of fire all cars that may be in the business part of the city shall at once stop and back if need be to the middle of the block, and there remain until the fire wagon and carts have passed or their course elsewhere has been ascertained. This is to prevent the possibility of collision.

Child; Secretary of the Union, George Levy; Sergeant-at-Arms, Charles Murphy; Executive Committee, Thos. E. Child, Thomas P. Holcraft and Wendell Williston; delegates to the Trades Council, A. W. Brown, T. P. Holcraft and Roy Priest.

The Supreme Court has just decided the relative claims to property on Lake Washington, consisting of boat-house and equipments valued at $20,000, belonging to Niles C. and George E. Badlong. The contest is of very little public interest, being strictly a "family affair," and is being carried to it having been for many years in "sund laid" residents of our city and engaged in the boating business here, a mere reference to the matter may recall bygone memories of early days.

The Supreme Court has decided that A. B. Woodard has no claim for a perpetual injunction against the West-side Mill Co., whose ashes, soot and cinders overshadow his home and render life a burden under the smoky cloud. In the lower court an injunction was refused, but $400 damages allowed. An appeal was taken on refusal to enjoin, but it was shown that he was at one time part owner and operator of the mill, and that he sold it knowing the purpose for which it was bought.

A BEACH AUTO ROAD.—Lalaph S. Hopkins, of Seattle, lately made a trip by automobile from Puget Sound to the Columbia river, along the ocean beach. The distance of over 400 miles was made in seven days. He was accompanied by his chauffeur, Howard Robinson, and the trip cost him $250. In an effort to reach Portland from Astoria by the same conveyance, the fly-wheel of his auto was broken and the intrapud topogears had to be abandoned and the machine proceeded to the Oregon metropolis by train. They found in their journey one of the finest of beaches, fifteen miles in length, and from 100 to 400 yards in width, at Westport, and Mr. Hopkins is of the opinion that it will, in the course of time, become a resort for auto clubs of the cities of the Northwest, for regular race-meetings. The beach is level and so solidly packed that the machine at its highest speed left no track.

UP AGAINST ANOTHER DIFFICULTY.—The Lake Washington canal scheme has met with another obstacle, that will at least delay that project. The County Attorney advises the Commissioners not to authorize the issue of half a million dollars in bonds to enable the contractor to build the waterway connecting Lake Union and Washington, until he has filed a bond for $1,000,000 to indemnify the county for damage suits. It is held that much property on the lake shores would be damaged by lowering the surface of the water, and that litigation is inevitable.

WHAT HUMPHREY!—The same lawyers who represented George Mitchell when he was prosecuted for the murder of Greffield, now appear for Esther Mitchell, charged with the crime of murder of her brother. Will they attempt to maintain that their deceased client deserved death at the hands of his sister because he was acquitted, or that she was "emotional insanity" at that instant, with a prospect that she will recover from the malady just the moment the jury pronounces her not guilty?

A bad forest fire is said to be raging along the Hoquiam river, eight miles from Aberdeen.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

A telephone war is imminent in Palouse, where a new outfit has just begun competition with the Bell company. Farm labor is so scarce in the Palouse that the Prosecuting Attorney has ordered the officers to arrest and imprison all persons who won't work. Tracks of a hawk in the mountains have been found and it is believed the vehicle carried away little Cecil Bratman, who was kidnaped from Tollgate, near Walla Walla, recently.

City Marshal Chas. Mullens gave City Councilman Harry Hughes a good "licking" the other evening at Endicott. Mullens says he got tired of having Hughes "butt in." From three-fourths of an acre of land, C. B. Stay, whose place is near Katla Falls, has sold $145 worth of cherries. It is thought that from his 20-acre orchard at least $4,000 will be realized next year.

Dr. J. S. McIlhenny, a well-known Everett physician, is under arrest on the charge of causing the death of Mrs. Kathleen Crosby, an actress, by performing a criminal operation. The woman's husband implicated the doctor in his testimony before the coroner. McIlhenny was released under $2,000 bonds, furnished by five Everett physicians.

The labor rates in San Francisco are at the top notch as are rents and the cost of living. Skilled labor gets from $1 to $10 per day and ordinary labor $2.50 and $3. It is regulated by demand, a legitimate basis for satisfactory results. THEY have a girl baby at Mt. Holy, N. Y., which at the age of one year weighs 100 pounds, and is gaining flesh at the rate of a pound a week.
