Who built this town? Business men. The laborer or the farmer? No. We did. The money was ours. We built the streets, the street cars, the houses, the churches, the schools, the hospitals, the universities, the libraries, the museums, the parks, the playgrounds, the theaters, the concert halls, the opera houses, the hotels, the clubs, the restaurants, the saloons, the gambling houses, the brothels, the houses of prostitution, the houses of sin, the houses of shame, the houses of infamy, the houses of horror, the houses of death, the houses of hell.

KITCHEN WRINKLES.

Current jelly is excellent for serving with game. Do not let left-over tea or coffee stand in tin. You cannot make good cider out of rotten, dirty or unripe apples. Sliced Seville oranges go well with wild duck, pigeons, teal and such game. Keep a rocking chair in the kitchen and you can snatch many needed moments of rest.

Red pepper is an excellent condiment. Malaria, intermittent fever or congestive chills cannot endure the presence of red pepper. It should be upon every table.

When using stale bread for puddings always soak it in a cold liquid. Bread that has been soaked in cold milk or water is light and crumbly, whereas that soaked in hot liquid is heavy.

A few drops of cedar vinegar rubbed on the hands after a washing of them will make them smooth and take away the spongy feeling they have after being in water for a good while.
