City and Country

Sunday will be the longest day of the year. Andrew Muma and family have moved to Ballard. Mrs. John T. Otis is quite ill at St. Peter's hospital.

Mrs. Edward Kavin has returned from a visit to Canada. Mrs. Fred Tew was a visitor to this city a few days ago.

Mrs. N. H. Owens is up from Tacoma on a few days' visit. Miss Prudence Wyman is home from the State University.

Samuel James, of Grand Mound, was in the city, Wednesday. Lee Reder has purchased a half-interest in Paul Dethlefsen's saloon.

It has been arranged that all stores will close on the 4th of July at one o'clock. Tenno, last Sunday, wiped out the Olympia baseball team by a score of 20 to 12.

Miss Alta White has gone to Pullman to attend summer school at the State College. Miss Pearl Fain and Roy Shotwell, both of Mima, were married Monday by Justice Frost.

Chas. Dieckmeyer has sold to S. D. Balch a ranch, near Black Lake, for the sum of $1,500. Work has begun on a new six-room residence for Oscar Craig, opposite the theater.

R. B. Clausland, a former well-known Olympian, is now a resident of Golden, Colorado. Calvin L. Johnson has begun suit for divorce from his wife, Olive Johnson, alleging desertion.

Frank Reisenweber is erecting a new residence on the corner of Franklin and Fifteenth streets. The 23d inn has been set as the date for formal opening of the Country Club camping season.

Mrs. John D. Atkinson is taking her summer's outing at Lake Chelan, in Eastern Washington. Gurnsey Chapin and Miss Martha Kaiser, both of this city, were married in Tacoma, Wednesday.

Robt. Marr went to Tacoma yesterday to attend the closing sessions of the Masonic Grand Lodge. The State Board of Education and the School Code Commission have been in session here this week.

The Oregon Railway Commissioners were here this week to confer with the like body of our State. The A. O. U. W. lodge of Little Rock will give a picnic and clam-bake near that place to-morrow.

The County Game Warden informs the STANDARD that game is largely on the increase in this county. Miss Addie Kneeland of Shelton, and E. B. Tower of Seattle, were joined in wedlock, in this city, Monday.

Mr. House has just completed a building on Second, between Washington and Franklin streets, in which he will start a vinegar and pickle factory. It is expected that 1,000 Elks will visit this city, Sunday, by the steamer Yosemite, to witness a game of baseball between lodge teams of Ballard and this city.

A. S. Kerfoot departed last week for Galveston, Texas, where he expects to remove his family and permanently reside, soon as he has made arrangements for a home. Mr. J. M. Hitt, State Librarian, and his wife, are visiting with friends in the Cascades. It is not fitting that one should take an occasional rest from arduous official duties.

Thomas J. Miller has purchased a farm from Geo. N. Shattuck, known as the old Shattuck place. The consideration was $2,500. Mr. Miller intends to make it his home. The Woman's Club have questioned the propriety of having been given today to Point Defiance, till some future date on account of the unsettled condition of the weather.

G. Rosenthal appeared before the Board of County Commissioners, Wednesday, and asked to have the sum of $57.32 refunded by the Treasurer, alleging that his personal tax was excessive. It is understood that all the shingles of the State have agreed to shut down on the 22d inst., and remain closed till July 18th, or probably longer if the prices of shingles do not advance.

A box of trout, brought up by the Mizpah, yesterday, for the Olympia Packing Company, for their Friday trade, was stolen from the city boat. Joe Zambarini says he would like to catch the thief. Mrs. James Snider, who died last Friday afternoon, at East Tumwater, after a long illness from asthma and pneumonia, was buried Sunday, in the Old Fellows cemetery, Rev. R. M. Hayes officiating.

The Brighton Park Grange will hold a basket social in the school house there, to-morrow night. The proceeds derived from the sale of strawberries and lunch baskets will go to their building fund. The Supreme Court, this week, affirmed the decision of the lower court, sustaining W. M. Ridge, of Spokane, in ejectment of a stump-mill from a hotel building, on the plea that it was a nuisance.

The Chamber of Commerce, at its adjourned meeting, Monday night, re-elected P. H. Carlson President, George E. Filley and George A. Mottman Vice Presidents, John M. Wilson Secretary and C. D. King Treasurer. Mr. Zamwall had his right hand badly injured Saturday, while engaged in shoveling sawdust from the edge of the Olympia Door Company's mill. His whole hand was badly lacerated and he may have to lose his fourth finger.

The three young children of Mrs. Ellen White, of Oyster, Helen and Fanny, are enjoying their school vacation with the family of Harvey Chambers, at Puget City. Considering their years these children are said to be remarkably self-reliant. Last Friday afternoon the residence of Charles Collins, on Chambers' Prairie, near the Yelm road, about 12 miles from town, was wholly destroyed by fire, excepting a little bedding and a few articles of furniture. The estimated loss is $2,000, with $800 insurance.

Chester Thompson, the murderer of Judge Emory, at Seattle, a year ago, was in town this week, and (it is said) for other crimes, never to return. The doctors say he will never have another attack of insanity, but it might be well to authorize the people wherever he sojourns to carry means of self-defense. John Bridges, Jr., a son of Rev. John Bridges, of Westside, met death by an accident of some nature, not stated, on a farm, yesterday, at Walla Walla. He was 23 years of age, and had been engaged in that calling in Eastern Washington several years. The father is a brother of former Land Commissioner Robt. Bridges.

Miss Pearl Smith is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Seth Wismer, at Bellingham. It will be borne in mind that Miss Smith graduated there, at the State Normal school, before coming to Olympia. From all accounts the accomplishments of this young lady are as warmly appreciated in that city as they are by her many friends in our community. Edward R. Smith, a well-known barkeeper, formerly manager of the Kneeland hotel bar, committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid, at his home on Eighteenth and Water streets, about one o'clock Tuesday morning. He leaves a wife and four children. It is supposed that dependence over the loss of money caused the rash act. Deceased was about 28 years old.

A good start has been made on the Governor's mansion. Plans and specifications are about completed and it is expected the call for bids will be issued next week. Work will be on the main topics presented under direction of Superintendent Roberts, of the Tacoma park. It is thought the corner-stone will be laid next month and made the occasion for imposing ceremonies. A. W. Fawcett, of Tacoma, is making a tour of the State to secure a place on the official ballot for Lieutenant Governor of the State. As that office is generally regarded as the "fifth wheel" to our political system, it seems altogether appropriate that he should campaign in a wagon as an exemplification of its utter uselessness. Mr. Fawcett visited this political Mecca a few days ago.

The City Council has provided by ordinance that the speed of automobiles shall not exceed twelve miles per hour; that they be provided with two white lights in front and one red light in the rear, and shall have "horns," to give warning of approach. It is likewise provided that motor-cycles shall keep within the same speed limit, and must be provided with suitable bells or horns. They are also required to keep off the sidewalks. Violations are to be punished by fine not to exceed $100.

The Grand Lodge of Masons lately in session at Tacoma, decided upon a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Grand Lodge of Washington, by a Golden Jubilee, to be held in this city, Dec. 7th and 8th. It is expected that several thousand Masons from abroad will participate. A part of the programme will be the holding of memorial services over the graves of Thornton P. McElroy, the first Grand Master, and Thomas M. Reed, who died last week, the oldest Grand Secretary in point of service in the United States.

Many of our people will remember Albert Sidney Gregg, whom the Olympia newspaper reports (and who is the best as the STANDARD knows from the copy turned in to it), and afterwards became a preacher in charge of the Madison street M. E. Church, Seattle, has at last developed into a New York legislator, lobbyist, and has been actively engaged in promoting George Hughes' efforts against race-track gambling. He is said to have been the first person who registered under a new law requiring that course before any attempt is made to influence legislation by personal appeals.

Mrs. G. Lawrence sustained a broken wrist, Wednesday afternoon, by being thrown from a buggy, while on her way home from this city, on the Tumwater road, near the residence of Geo. C. Israel. It seems that a wheel of the buggy ran into a depression of the road, overturning it, and throwing Mrs. Lawrence to the ground with great force, breaking her arm at the wrist. She was immediately removed to Mr. Israel's residence and a physician summoned. She was unconscious for a short time, but soon recovered sufficiently to be removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Mills, at Tumwater.

Next Sunday, the 21st, is the Summer Solstice, when the Sun is said to stand still, from being the farthest in its elliptic from the Earth's equator, north or south, and is the time when the days are longer, in Summer, and the nights in Winter. The daylight Sunday will be theoretically, at least, 15 hours, and 40 minutes in length. A week thereafter, it will have lessened a minute, the next week seven minutes, and next, eight minutes, then ten minutes, with constantly increasing abbreviation, until the Autumnal equinox (Sept. 21st) when the day and night are equal in length, and in an inverse ratio, until the Winter solstice, December 21st.

Sunday afternoon the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters turned out in a body for the purpose of placing flowers on the graves of seven deceased brother Knights, interred in Odd Fellows cemetery, near this city. Appropriate ceremonies were held at the cemetery grounds. Mr. R. J. Prickman was master of ceremonies, and Col. Schively delivered an able address, which was very appropriate to the occasion. The Uniform Rank K. of P. was out in force, and added much to the impressiveness of the occasion. With Captain Clark V. Savidge as drill-master, this body of men do honor to the order to which they belong and credit to themselves.

It is said Messrs. Geo. A. Mottman and Allen White will use their best endeavors to grade East Fifth, from Puget to Central streets. Property owners residing on the westward on Sixth street, assert they will not favor any improvements because the same are unnecessary at this time, and further will require a large outlay of money without adequate returns. According to reports, Mr. Mottman does not intend to do any grading at all, but is only connected with the work like cinch or graft, not advertising for bids or shaving paper. When the labor is done the pay is forthcoming.

The Marr home on the Eastside was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Wednesday morning, in which Roy Maxwell Porter and Maude Marr were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hayes of the Presbyterian Church. The bride and groom were unattended. Following the ceremony, all former and future guests were served. The house was very prettily decorated with ivy, tea vine and a profusion of roses. The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful. The happy couple left on the 11:30 train for Victoria and down-land points. The usual shower, rice and old shoes was not forgotten. Mr. and Mrs. Porter will reside at 1305 East Fourth Street, this city. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Marr of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Marr and son of Tacoma, Mr. H. W. Marr of Olympia, Mrs. A. C. St. John and children of Chehalis.

Nomination of Taft. Taft was nominated at Chicago, yesterday, on the first ballot, after a week spent in wirepulling and airing of grievances. The vote stood: Taft 702, La Follette 25, Foraker 16, Fairbanks 40, Cannon 61, Hughes 63 and Knox 64. The platform is much more conservative than the party will, on the main topics presented, touching lightly on matters likely to cause dissent and using general terms in matters upon which all agree.

Can't Dodge the Record. The fight is on between Mead and McBride for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Governor Mead's address opening his campaign at Bellingham on Wednesday evening of last week, refers prominently to his record and position on local option. It may be well for our Governor to sing local option in communities that expected great things from his Railway Commission, which ingloriously collapsed on its ratemaking powers. The people expected something from the large appropriations, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in order to benefit the shippers of commodities in this State, and what have they received for this great donation?

Unless the STANDARD is greatly mistaken, Mr. Mead is going to have trouble in distracting the attention of lumbermen and farmers from their economic interests by his local option Shibboleth. These interests have not received the consideration they merit; a large percentage of our people feel they have been handed a "brass brick" on this Railway Commission proposition.

L. F. Schmidt returned yesterday from a business trip down the Sound. Watch Our Smokey! Our new sawmill is in operation. Let us figure with you on your lumber, or the entire material for a new house. SHORE LUMBER COMPANY.

It Was a Success in All Particulars. Exhibit the Best Notwithstanding Season. The STANDARD acknowledges the receipt of a magnificent bouquet of the queen of flowers, a gracious act of recognition of such aid as it has found pleasure in regarding the ladies, which will be remembered long after the flowers have withered and their fragrance departed.

The Agricultural Department at Washington estimates that the crops in this country for the present year will amount to $8,000,000,000. For eight years the American farmer, it says, has enjoyed unprecedented prosperity, and now the ninth promising harvest is practically assured. Now before there have been nine years of such big yields and high prices.

The Dunker organization lately assembled at Des Moines, Iowa, have changed their name to "Church of the Brethren." Seventy-five women left the church because they were required to wear poke-bonnets. This action was accentuated probably by the advent of the merry widow hat.

The skeleton of a human being 7 1/2 feet tall was exhumed on the farm of S. S. Heath, Vashon Island, this week. The skull was 21 inches in diameter. The body had been buried near the surface and was unearched in digging potatoes.

The United States Brewers' Association at its closing session last week, in Milwaukee, pledged itself to abolition of the immoral saloon and to the cause of temperance in the use of liquors in the broadest sense.
