

METEOROLOGICAL

The following is the temperature record for the week ending Wednesday...

Local Events

Mrs. Thos. H. Phillips is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lita Cavanagh...

The trial of the State vs. Wm. Thill, charged with assaulting Rufus Sammons...

Mrs. J. F. Gordon, of Hunter's Point, was in town Saturday...

Frank Weston, the barber, has again skipped out without saying a word to his employers...

Rev. G. R. Mossias of St. John's Church will, until further notice, hold only the morning service...

Mrs. Bessie Prickman, who is attending the State Normal School at Bellingham...

A good flow of water has been obtained from an artesian well just driven in the rear of the old Perovax store building...

Our respected and venerable citizen, Mr. H. M. McKay, is seriously ill at his home on East Eighth street...

The city cleanup was thorough and effective. About 200 wagon-loads of rubbish were burned Wednesday and the work was continued yesterday to complete the job.

Margaret Wallace has begun suit for divorce in the Superior Court from her husband, Howard S. Wallace...

Mrs. T. N. Allen, who has been suffering for a long time with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving slowly from the painful complaint...

The steamer Grayhound, which had been undergoing extended repairs at Quartermaster Harbor for some time, resumed her run Tuesday...

A. Barnham has begun suit against A. F. Purganay and wife of Baesla to procure a loan of $1000 in 1904 and it is alleged that not one cent of the principal or interest has been paid...

Mr. Geo. Metzger, who had been absent from the city for over two weeks, at Rainier, returned to this city Monday...

Dr. Daniel W. Hull and wife spent last Sunday in Seattle with relatives and friends. Next Sabbath the doctor expects to visit Tacoma and deliver a lecture on the spiritual philosophy.

John Hudson, a pioneer settler living on Ward Lake, was afflicted with a stroke of paralysis, last week, that for a time left him helpless...

W. F. Barnes, of Seattle, will succeed Chas. H. Britton as instructor at the Miller High School. The latter will take charge of the manual training department of the State reform school at Chehalis.

Under the new criminal code, an attorney appointed by the court to defend an indigent prisoner, will no longer be required to serve without pay. The lawyer's compensation, by the new law, is fixed at $10 per day.

The STANDARD is an advertising medium of acknowledged merit, because besides having a large and growing circulation in the city, it is the only paper that thoroughly circulates among the country people.

The Olympia Tug and Barge Company has just completed a new "grill-iron" at their wharf on First and Columbia streets, whereby lumber, gravel and freight of all kinds from scows may be expeditiously handled.

Several of the employees in the local postoffice are afflicted with leprosy. Frank Reisenwerder, the registry clerk, has been acting as a "sub" on one of the mail-carrier routes in the business portion of the city.

W. J. McCarthy of San Francisco, one of the SPRANER's good friends, writes that he and his wife are well, but generally speaking business is somewhat quiet. His present address is Merchants Exchange, San Francisco.

Mrs. John G. Packer, who has been spending the winter in Portland, has been visiting Mrs. Rowena Meeklen in this city. She left Tuesday for Tacoma, where she will make an extended stay with her daughter, Mrs. Anderson.

Frank Groundwater, an attorney of Elma, was in the city Tuesday, on business before the State Land Commission, with reference to the purchase of a right-of-way in the behalf of a client that the opposing party had obstructed.

One of the handsomest seasonal window displays made this week was by M. O'Connor, who used a splendid array of calla lilies in connection with his fine stationery stock for a background. It was the admiration of all who saw it.

Chas. H. Gosharing, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

The stone of C. G. Moore, which is a fine specimen of granite, was removed Wednesday night of several hundred dollars in money and stamps. The safe was forced, doubtless by the use of an explosive. The lost amount of $500, $200 of which was in stamps.

The Easter observance at St. John's church last Sunday morning amounted to $170, of which the Women's Guild contributed $80 and the Sabbath school $82. The Guild realized its money through sales from time to time of catalogues, embroidery and articles wrought with the needle.

It is said that a couple of loggers in a neighboring logging camp purchased several bottles of a so-called medicine, the name of which sounds like "Pezoma," from the commissary of the camp, a few days ago, and got on a glorious "jag." They consumed six bottles on their two-day's drunk.

A "hop" joint was raided yesterday morning on Fifth street, in Clatsop, and two white women, denizens of the underworld, were caught in the act of "hitting the pipe," and each fined $25 and costs by Justice Giles. A Chinik arrested as keeper of the dive, was fined $100.

Mrs. Edith Haskell has entered suit in the Superior Court for divorce from her husband, Theron Haskell. She alleges in her complaint that Haskell falsely accused her of eloping with A. F. Custer and that defendant failed to provide for herself and three children, Lloyd, Guy and Mildred.

Mr. Michael Nyxlon, of Delphi, has been a frequent visitor to Olympia of late on business which he hopes may improve in volume while Teddy is in Africa and Taft is endeavoring to revise the tariff upward and downward. It goes without saying that Mr. Nyxlon is opposed to putting lumber on the free list.

The second trial of Henry Chadwick, this week by the Superior Court, resulted in his conviction of forgery, by a jury after a deliberation of about three hours. He was charged with taking a check belonging to an uncle, from a letter, forging the signature and cashing the check. The jury stood eleven to one for conviction.

May 15th is the day fixed for the track meet to be held at the district schools of this county. All boys in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of Thurston county will be given an opportunity to try out in track events at Athletic Park. The boys and girls will also hold a declamatory contest in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Charles E. Vandever died at the family home on East Fourth street, Monday morning, after a prolonged illness. She leaves a husband and one son, aged 9. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, under the auspices of the Rebekahs and the Women of Woodcraft. Interment was made in Odd Fellows cemetery.

Mr. E. L. Minard, of Elma, recently visited this city. In the 90s he served as Deputy Auditor of Thurston county. Mr. Minard is now the father of several children, and still in the mercantile business at his home town with Arthur L. Callow as partner. He came to Olympia to look after his property interests he still maintains here.

Judge John R. Mitchell, realizing the great expense of jury sessions to the county, opens court for the trial of jury cases at 9 o'clock a. m. This is a new precedent in Thurston county. A few years ago Judge Irwin, in Chehalis county, felt constrained to open court at 8 o'clock in the forenoon and proceed with the jury trial, till 5:30 p. m.

It seems to be quite impossible to fix the identity of the suspect held for Winkle. About an equal number of people, who ought to know, declare that they are sure he is Winkle, and the others think it cannot be him. His former wife, who lives near South Union, refuses to come in and pass judgment as to whether they have the right man or not.

St. John's church held its annual parish meeting Monday night and elected as vestrymen for the ensuing years, J. M. Hitt, C. M. Bolton, W. F. Lewis, C. E. Braug, E. V. Donnelly, C. H. Springer and L. D. O'Neil. After the parish meeting a very pleasant social evening was spent by a large gathering of members and friends of the parish.

John T. Otis purchased of the receiver of the Black Lake Lumber Company, in addition to the twenty acres of land with a dwelling house thereon, ten buildings for $65. It is reported that Mr. Otis contemplates making a first-class chicken ranch on the tract. Mr. Peters has filed in court an offer of ten per cent, in advance of the Otis offer for the 20-acre tract.

M. B. Thompson was in the city Monday to receive his check for labor performed last year for the Black Lake Lumber Co. Mr. Thompson is a man in moderate circumstances and a good citizen as well, has a large family. Fred, one of his sons, is attending the Olympia high school, is said to be a bright student and is progressing favorably with his studies.

It is reported that Mrs. Isabel Gilman, who teaches school between Olympia and Little Rock, has tendered her resignation to take effect the first of next month. She intends to take the examination for admission to the bar at the May term of the Supreme Court. Mrs. Gilman is a lady of culture, having been a platform orator in England before coming to America.

According to figures given out Wednesday by State Treasurer John G. Lewis, the State will have to issue $295,923.06 worth of bonds to take up the old normal school warrants authorized by the last legislature. The face value of the warrants is $308,799.47, and the interest thereon up to June 8, 1904, is $12,879.41, making a total of $321,678.88. The new bonds are to be $23,000 each, bearing interest at 3 per cent, coupons attached, and to run for 15 years, the State to have the option of redeeming them at the end of five years in whole or in part.

A Year in College. $250 cash or a year in College can be easily earned by one young man or lady in each county by September, 1909. Plan does not interfere with other employment, and student can select the school.

State name of institution you wish to attend. No money required. For particulars address, MORTON H. PEMBERTON, Jefferson City, Mo.

When a woman says that if she were rich she would do lots of good in the world, she means she would give away her old clothes to her poor relations.

CHAS. H. GOSHARING, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

CHAS. H. GOSHARING, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

CHAS. H. GOSHARING, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

CHAS. H. GOSHARING, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

Local Events

Mrs. Thos. H. Phillips is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lita Cavanagh...

The trial of the State vs. Wm. Thill, charged with assaulting Rufus Sammons...

Mrs. J. F. Gordon, of Hunter's Point, was in town Saturday...

Frank Weston, the barber, has again skipped out without saying a word to his employers...

Rev. G. R. Mossias of St. John's Church will, until further notice, hold only the morning service...

Mrs. Bessie Prickman, who is attending the State Normal School at Bellingham...

A good flow of water has been obtained from an artesian well just driven in the rear of the old Perovax store building...

Our respected and venerable citizen, Mr. H. M. McKay, is seriously ill at his home on East Eighth street...

The city cleanup was thorough and effective. About 200 wagon-loads of rubbish were burned Wednesday and the work was continued yesterday to complete the job.

Margaret Wallace has begun suit for divorce in the Superior Court from her husband, Howard S. Wallace...

Mrs. T. N. Allen, who has been suffering for a long time with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving slowly from the painful complaint...

The steamer Grayhound, which had been undergoing extended repairs at Quartermaster Harbor for some time, resumed her run Tuesday...

A. Barnham has begun suit against A. F. Purganay and wife of Baesla to procure a loan of $1000 in 1904 and it is alleged that not one cent of the principal or interest has been paid...

Mr. Geo. Metzger, who had been absent from the city for over two weeks, at Rainier, returned to this city Monday...

Dr. Daniel W. Hull and wife spent last Sunday in Seattle with relatives and friends. Next Sabbath the doctor expects to visit Tacoma and deliver a lecture on the spiritual philosophy.

John Hudson, a pioneer settler living on Ward Lake, was afflicted with a stroke of paralysis, last week, that for a time left him helpless...

W. F. Barnes, of Seattle, will succeed Chas. H. Britton as instructor at the Miller High School. The latter will take charge of the manual training department of the State reform school at Chehalis.

Under the new criminal code, an attorney appointed by the court to defend an indigent prisoner, will no longer be required to serve without pay. The lawyer's compensation, by the new law, is fixed at $10 per day.

The STANDARD is an advertising medium of acknowledged merit, because besides having a large and growing circulation in the city, it is the only paper that thoroughly circulates among the country people.

The Olympia Tug and Barge Company has just completed a new "grill-iron" at their wharf on First and Columbia streets, whereby lumber, gravel and freight of all kinds from scows may be expeditiously handled.

Several of the employees in the local postoffice are afflicted with leprosy. Frank Reisenwerder, the registry clerk, has been acting as a "sub" on one of the mail-carrier routes in the business portion of the city.

W. J. McCarthy of San Francisco, one of the SPRANER's good friends, writes that he and his wife are well, but generally speaking business is somewhat quiet. His present address is Merchants Exchange, San Francisco.

Mrs. John G. Packer, who has been spending the winter in Portland, has been visiting Mrs. Rowena Meeklen in this city. She left Tuesday for Tacoma, where she will make an extended stay with her daughter, Mrs. Anderson.

Frank Groundwater, an attorney of Elma, was in the city Tuesday, on business before the State Land Commission, with reference to the purchase of a right-of-way in the behalf of a client that the opposing party had obstructed.

One of the handsomest seasonal window displays made this week was by M. O'Connor, who used a splendid array of calla lilies in connection with his fine stationery stock for a background. It was the admiration of all who saw it.

Chas. H. Gosharing, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

Mrs. Thos. H. Phillips is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lita Cavanagh...

The trial of the State vs. Wm. Thill, charged with assaulting Rufus Sammons...

Mrs. J. F. Gordon, of Hunter's Point, was in town Saturday...

Frank Weston, the barber, has again skipped out without saying a word to his employers...

Rev. G. R. Mossias of St. John's Church will, until further notice, hold only the morning service...

Mrs. Bessie Prickman, who is attending the State Normal School at Bellingham...

A good flow of water has been obtained from an artesian well just driven in the rear of the old Perovax store building...

Our respected and venerable citizen, Mr. H. M. McKay, is seriously ill at his home on East Eighth street...

The city cleanup was thorough and effective. About 200 wagon-loads of rubbish were burned Wednesday and the work was continued yesterday to complete the job.

Margaret Wallace has begun suit for divorce in the Superior Court from her husband, Howard S. Wallace...

Mrs. T. N. Allen, who has been suffering for a long time with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving slowly from the painful complaint...

The steamer Grayhound, which had been undergoing extended repairs at Quartermaster Harbor for some time, resumed her run Tuesday...

A. Barnham has begun suit against A. F. Purganay and wife of Baesla to procure a loan of $1000 in 1904 and it is alleged that not one cent of the principal or interest has been paid...

Mr. Geo. Metzger, who had been absent from the city for over two weeks, at Rainier, returned to this city Monday...

Dr. Daniel W. Hull and wife spent last Sunday in Seattle with relatives and friends. Next Sabbath the doctor expects to visit Tacoma and deliver a lecture on the spiritual philosophy.

John Hudson, a pioneer settler living on Ward Lake, was afflicted with a stroke of paralysis, last week, that for a time left him helpless...

W. F. Barnes, of Seattle, will succeed Chas. H. Britton as instructor at the Miller High School. The latter will take charge of the manual training department of the State reform school at Chehalis.

Under the new criminal code, an attorney appointed by the court to defend an indigent prisoner, will no longer be required to serve without pay. The lawyer's compensation, by the new law, is fixed at $10 per day.

The STANDARD is an advertising medium of acknowledged merit, because besides having a large and growing circulation in the city, it is the only paper that thoroughly circulates among the country people.

The Olympia Tug and Barge Company has just completed a new "grill-iron" at their wharf on First and Columbia streets, whereby lumber, gravel and freight of all kinds from scows may be expeditiously handled.

Several of the employees in the local postoffice are afflicted with leprosy. Frank Reisenwerder, the registry clerk, has been acting as a "sub" on one of the mail-carrier routes in the business portion of the city.

W. J. McCarthy of San Francisco, one of the SPRANER's good friends, writes that he and his wife are well, but generally speaking business is somewhat quiet. His present address is Merchants Exchange, San Francisco.

Mrs. John G. Packer, who has been spending the winter in Portland, has been visiting Mrs. Rowena Meeklen in this city. She left Tuesday for Tacoma, where she will make an extended stay with her daughter, Mrs. Anderson.

Frank Groundwater, an attorney of Elma, was in the city Tuesday, on business before the State Land Commission, with reference to the purchase of a right-of-way in the behalf of a client that the opposing party had obstructed.

One of the handsomest seasonal window displays made this week was by M. O'Connor, who used a splendid array of calla lilies in connection with his fine stationery stock for a background. It was the admiration of all who saw it.

Chas. H. Gosharing, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

Mrs. Thos. H. Phillips is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lita Cavanagh...

The trial of the State vs. Wm. Thill, charged with assaulting Rufus Sammons...

Mrs. J. F. Gordon, of Hunter's Point, was in town Saturday...

Frank Weston, the barber, has again skipped out without saying a word to his employers...

Rev. G. R. Mossias of St. John's Church will, until further notice, hold only the morning service...

Mrs. Bessie Prickman, who is attending the State Normal School at Bellingham...

A good flow of water has been obtained from an artesian well just driven in the rear of the old Perovax store building...

Our respected and venerable citizen, Mr. H. M. McKay, is seriously ill at his home on East Eighth street...

The city cleanup was thorough and effective. About 200 wagon-loads of rubbish were burned Wednesday and the work was continued yesterday to complete the job.

Margaret Wallace has begun suit for divorce in the Superior Court from her husband, Howard S. Wallace...

Mrs. T. N. Allen, who has been suffering for a long time with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving slowly from the painful complaint...

The steamer Grayhound, which had been undergoing extended repairs at Quartermaster Harbor for some time, resumed her run Tuesday...

A. Barnham has begun suit against A. F. Purganay and wife of Baesla to procure a loan of $1000 in 1904 and it is alleged that not one cent of the principal or interest has been paid...

Mr. Geo. Metzger, who had been absent from the city for over two weeks, at Rainier, returned to this city Monday...

Dr. Daniel W. Hull and wife spent last Sunday in Seattle with relatives and friends. Next Sabbath the doctor expects to visit Tacoma and deliver a lecture on the spiritual philosophy.

John Hudson, a pioneer settler living on Ward Lake, was afflicted with a stroke of paralysis, last week, that for a time left him helpless...

W. F. Barnes, of Seattle, will succeed Chas. H. Britton as instructor at the Miller High School. The latter will take charge of the manual training department of the State reform school at Chehalis.

Under the new criminal code, an attorney appointed by the court to defend an indigent prisoner, will no longer be required to serve without pay. The lawyer's compensation, by the new law, is fixed at $10 per day.

The STANDARD is an advertising medium of acknowledged merit, because besides having a large and growing circulation in the city, it is the only paper that thoroughly circulates among the country people.

The Olympia Tug and Barge Company has just completed a new "grill-iron" at their wharf on First and Columbia streets, whereby lumber, gravel and freight of all kinds from scows may be expeditiously handled.

Several of the employees in the local postoffice are afflicted with leprosy. Frank Reisenwerder, the registry clerk, has been acting as a "sub" on one of the mail-carrier routes in the business portion of the city.

W. J. McCarthy of San Francisco, one of the SPRANER's good friends, writes that he and his wife are well, but generally speaking business is somewhat quiet. His present address is Merchants Exchange, San Francisco.

Mrs. John G. Packer, who has been spending the winter in Portland, has been visiting Mrs. Rowena Meeklen in this city. She left Tuesday for Tacoma, where she will make an extended stay with her daughter, Mrs. Anderson.

Frank Groundwater, an attorney of Elma, was in the city Tuesday, on business before the State Land Commission, with reference to the purchase of a right-of-way in the behalf of a client that the opposing party had obstructed.

One of the handsomest seasonal window displays made this week was by M. O'Connor, who used a splendid array of calla lilies in connection with his fine stationery stock for a background. It was the admiration of all who saw it.

Chas. H. Gosharing, died Sunday evening at St. Peter's hospital, after a several years' illness, having suffered a paralytic stroke in 1894 from which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masons.

Miss Neda Tabor, aged 17 years, a daughter of Thomas F. Tabor, is lying critically ill at the local hospital. The mother of Miss Tabor, leaving a husband and four children, Neda being the youngest and promising young lady.

Undertaker Whiteside reports deaths are few and business in his line quiet, more so than during previous years, but observes by way of parenthesis, there has been more sickness from colds and grip during the last winter months and the present spring months.

The Indians of Mud and Oyster Bays are holding a big "shako" at the Shaker church at the former place. Mud Bay Sam, the grand high priest of their religious faith, says he is getting many of his tribe to join the church, some of whom have been heavy drinkers.

Mrs. Thos. H. Phillips is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lita Cavanagh...

The trial of the State vs. Wm. Thill, charged with assaulting Rufus Sammons...

Mrs. J. F. Gordon, of Hunter's Point, was in town Saturday...

Frank Weston, the barber, has again skipped out without saying a word to his employers...

Rev. G. R. Mossias of St. John's Church will, until further notice, hold only the morning service...

Mrs. Bessie Prickman, who is attending the State Normal School at Bellingham...

A good flow of water has been obtained from an artesian well just driven in the rear of the old Perovax store building...

Our respected and venerable citizen, Mr. H. M. McKay, is seriously ill at his home on East Eighth street...

The city cleanup was thorough and effective. About 200 wagon-loads of rubbish were burned Wednesday and the work was continued yesterday to complete the job.

Margaret Wallace has begun suit for divorce in the Superior