METEOROLOGICAL

The following record of temperature and rainfall for the week ending Wednesday, Oct. 11, is from a record kept and kindly furnished the Standard by M. O. O'Connell, meteorologist, Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau.

City and Country

E. H. Baumgardner, of Tenino, is in the city.

Frank Kotlik has returned from a trip to Alaska.

Warren Hubbard, of Rainier, was in the city Saturday.

J. M. Layton left Saturday on a visit to Tonka, Kas.

"Eddie Bonnie" Morrill is in the city on Little Rock.

A daughter was born to Mrs. O. R. Hawthorne, last Monday.

Clarence Adams has returned from a visit to relatives in Kansas.

According to latest accounts, Mrs. Ellen White's condition is improving.

A son was born in this city to Mrs. George H. Hahn, of Bremerton Monday.

And now we are to have Tacoma architects to plan and build our city hall.

Lawyer A. J. Falkner was in the city this week on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Filley have been enjoying a visit to down-Sound points, this week.

William H. Mitchell, of Tumwater, has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the winter.

Attorney H. W. Leanders, of Tacoma, had business in the Supreme Court, Wednesday.

Harry Allen, of South Bay, was in the city Tuesday. He reports his oyster business flourishing.

Fred Schouber has moved his office to the location he formerly occupied, at 317 Washington street.

Mrs. Henry B. Bohr, who resides on a ranch a few miles south of this city, visited friends here Monday.

Henry Meyer, the old-time Olympia blacksmith, was in the city, this week, from his ranch at Mud Bay.

Mrs. Ada Gott has resigned as Secretary of the Loyal Temperance League, and will soon leave for Okla-homa.

The contemplated bonds to retire school warrants will have to be re-authorized by a two-thirds vote before they can be available.

Peter Heck, of the Chehalis tribe of Indians, was elected bishop of the Shaker church to succeed the late Mud Bay Sam, Saturday.

George Marvin Savago is displaying corn-stalks 10 and 12 feet long from his ranch on South Bay, in the Chamber of Commerce window.

The new church of the Chehalis Indians was dedicated Sunday, and Peter Heck was installed as bishop. About 200 Indians were present.

The condition of James A. Hooge is serious. Bright's disease of the kidneys is the cause of his affliction, as diagnosed by the attending physician.

A burning chimney in the Elks hall on Main street caused an alarm of fire Tuesday evening, but the flames were extinguished without damage.

George Walsh and Miss Margaret Stapleton, both of Hoquiam, were married in this city, Tuesday. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Wm. Forbes, of Westside.

George Dougherty has been arraigned on charge of murder for killing J. C. Pierce and given till today to plead, on motion of his attorney, C. E. Collier.

J. J. Brenner and wife have returned from an extended visit to the East. They spent a portion of the time in Wisconsin near the scene of the big floods.

Chas. S. Turner and family, new arrivals from the East, are comfortably settled on a ranch they recently purchased, a few miles down the bay, on Westside.

An infant son of C. A. Taylor, residing at Kelso, lost a finger of his right hand by an ax in the hands of his brother, aged 3 years, who was playing with the dangerous tool.

Billy Forbes recently killed a large buck deer, a few miles down the bay. The gentleman has the thanks of the Scandinavian force for a liberal supply of venison. When are you going deer hunting again, Bill?

James Kelly, aged 80 years, died at his home on Schneider's Prairie, on the 12th inst., and the funeral was held from the Sticklin chapel in this city, Sunday afternoon. He leaves one son, 17 years of age.

Attorney George C. Israel has bought a big Yale touring car. It is of the four-door model, of a drab color and is thereby easily distinguished from other local cars. It is one of the finest cars on the road.

The Governor has selected Harold Preston to succeed H. A. Fairchild, deceased, for Chairman of the Public Service Commission. Mr. Preston is a Seattle lawyer. His acceptance of the position has not yet been announced.

Mrs. Sarah J. wife of Dr. Rufus Willard, of Seattle, died yesterday in that city. She and her husband were schoolmates in Olympia in the early fifties. Rufus was a son of Dr. G. K. Willard, who was one of our early postmasters.

The Eagles had a festive session Tuesday evening, at which besides the fine speech, the membership were regaled with a bowl of soup prepared by ex-Senator Lincoln Davis, of Pierce county, and J. H. Schively, State Insurance Commissioner.

The Supreme Court has reversed the demurrer sustained by the Thurston county Superior Court, and Joseph M. Snow formerly State Highway Commissioner will have to stand trial on the charge of embezzlement of $2,109 of the State's money.

The steamer Chickaree is now performing the service lately abandoned by the Mizpah, on the run from this city to Kamahoe. The new boat is four years old, built by the Puget Sound Iron and Steel company, 77 feet in length and can make twelve miles per hour.

The funeral service of Mrs. Alma S. Vial, who died in Sacramento, Cal., was held Tuesday, at the Sticklin chapel, Rev. E. W. Bates officiating. Interment was made in the Forest cemetery. Mrs. V. is survived by a sister, Mrs. Rose, and a son, who reside in this city.

Clarence V. Boone, last Sunday, took a trip to Tacoma and Steilacoom to visit his wife at the asylum. Her condition seems to be improving, and she may be able to return home within the next few months, which is gratifying to her relatives and many friends here.

Twenty-four law students on last Saturday were admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Washington. Some of them as well as the members of the examining committee were considerably fatigued. It is reported the examination was somewhat strenuous.

Cal. Bailey, a youth of 16, died at Elma, Friday night, from the effects of a gunshot wound, inflicted by his slipping from a log while on a hunt, discharging a load of shot which entered the left side, ranging upward through his arm, on the Sunday previous to that date.

The steamer Nisqually will next week leave this city for Tacoma at 7 o'clock and arrive at destination at 9:30, and returning here at 9:45 and arrive at Olympia at 12:15 p. m. On the afternoon trips will leave at 12:30 arriving at Tacoma at 2; leave at 3:30 and arrive here at 6 p. m.

Two cougars, male and female, measuring seven and six feet in length, respectively, were killed at Mima, by A. Knapp, Monday. The animals had made way with $50 worth of turkeys, and one of them was caught in the chicken corral, and the other treed and shot near the ranch.

A temporary injunction will be heard Oct. 25th in the district court, restraining the authorities of Tenino from calling a local option election Dec. 8th when arguments for a permanent restriction will be heard. It is claimed that the petition did not contain enough valid signatures to establish its validity.

The case of Walter J. Cowett against the Olympia Door company, who asks damages to the amount of $3,000, because a pile of lumber fell upon him, February 11th, has been under consideration in the Superior Court this week. The motion of defendant for non-suit was granted by Judge Mitchell yesterday.

The steamer Simpson will be taken off the Tacoma-Shelton route and will run between this city and Shelton. She will now carry all business through this city instead of Tacoma, leaving Shelton at 6:30 mornings and return at 8:30 and in the afternoon will leave Shelton at noon and return at 2 p. m.

C. J. Van Eaton has bought the Olympia place, formerly late owned by Emil Martensen, and will conduct the business at the same stand, in the Bettman building, corner of Fourth and Adams streets. Van is a fair and square and enterprising business man and will no doubt add to the popularity of the already famous business.

Queer stories are afloat concerning the Wilson murder trial. One of which is the Northern Pacific R. Co., will spend ten thousand dollars in order to acquit the accused, that two thousand five hundred dollars are already on deposit here for that purpose. This may account, in some degree, for the evident hope being done to secure an appeal.

A note from Mr. Watson, Executive Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, to this paper disclaims any special credit for having secured a location of the McFinn shingle mill on the waterfront and states that this credit should go to the Industrial Committee, under the able chairmanship of H. P. Carlyon, and asks that this correction be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gerlach, of San Francisco, are on a visit of several days with Mr. Braeger and family of this city. Mr. G. has been for many years actively engaged in various occupations in San Francisco, and will spend some time for recreation in acquiring information about the great Sound country, his next door neighbor, as it were.

George Drumheller of Walla Walla, sold a portion of his 1911 wheat crop amounting to 110,000 bushels, to the Jones-Scott Company for 75 cents a bushel making a grand total of $82,500 for the crop of one year's crop. Delivery was to be made at four warehouses—Dry Creek, Kulo, Olimax and Pleasant View. It will take 1100 wagon-loads to make the delivery.

Mr. Theodore L. Brown was in the city last-Tuesday with a beard well started. If he permits it to grow without shaving for a couple of months he will present a patriarchal appearance. Mr. B.'s general health is better than it has been for several years—thinks it pays to get close to nature, hold close communion with mother Earth and her wonderful resources.

Sunday evening William Weller returned from his Eastern trip. He brought with him his five-year-old nephew, Raymond Orr, the son of a deceased sister who resided in Pennsylvania. The youngster's father died two months before he was born. It is reported Mr. and Mrs. Weller propose to adopt him. Violet, their only daughter, thinks the Weller family have acquired a prize.

Tacoma is talking of starting a war of extermination against the rats that have been driven in large numbers to that city, by the determined warfare so successfully waged at Seattle, where it started from danger of spread of the bubonic plague, and other infectious diseases. The suggestion at Tacoma, is given as the destruction of grain and other articles stored on the waterfront.

Lawyer R. H. Fry, in his canvass for City Attorney, wants the investigating committee to make a report with reference to the charges of C. E. Claypool against him, and the County Bar Association to exonerate him. Mr. Fry promises to tell some tales that may not be pleasant for the Colonel to hear. Of course assertions are not proofs without this evidence to substantiate them.

Miss Fina B. Thomas was wedded to Frank J. Schultz, in Chicago, on the 11th inst. The bride spent most of her school-girl days in Olympia, graduating in the high school. She then moved with her parents to Maine, where she taught school for a time, returned here about five years ago. She has been teaching in Seattle for some time past. The couple will reside in Cleveland, Ohio.

William M. Arthur, of Tenino, has sold his patent for producing illuminating gas from low grade coal, to Franklin A. Munsted, of Chicago, for $34,000. Munsted has $100,000 to be paid July 1st, 1912. The sale includes the complete experimental station at Tenino. Mr. Munsted has also purchased the Great Western Coal and Land Development company's old mine near Buxford for the sum of $8,000 from parties who hold it on a Sheriff's deed.

At the late bar examination in Olympia one of the questions propounded to the students was: Can a minor make a valid will under the laws of Washington? Some of the students said he could if he might through a guardian. One of the members of the examining committee thought he might if he were married, when his minority would cease; but it was finally agreed he could not, as the statute is positive in its terms.

Many persons, owing to the frequent changes that have been made by the laws of this State, have erroneous ideas about the punishment for crime of murder in the first degree. It is punishable by death or imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for life, in the discretion of the court. For crime of murder in the second degree the imprisonment is fixed for the period at not less than ten years, which would seem to give the trial court the power to fix the term at such a length of time that it would practically mean imprisonment for life.

An addition to our list of gentlemen who care for and often cure the ills of mankind, of mature experience and great success, Dr. E. C. Story, has taken up a permanent residence for professional life in this city. He was a graduate of the University of Michigan in 1879, and been actively engaged in professional and drug business ever since, seven years in Gorton, South Dakota, and 24 years at Montezuma, this State. Dr. Story after graduating in the allopathic school, his medical practice took a post-graduate course in homeopathy in the same college. He is in favor of the latter, in the belief that it is the wise course to assist nature in performing a cure, instead of a reliance upon materia-medica to do the work. It is hoped that Dr. Story will receive a fair trial by our people.

Laurence E. Hill, last Sunday, while hunting, slipped and fell from the edge of Nisqually canyon, a distance of 250 feet down the high bluff, into a small pool of water at the edge of the river, escaping with a slight concussion of the brain and a few bruises, notwithstanding this seemingly slight injury his gun was shattered to pieces by the fall. It is not known how long he had laid in the water, with his head on the bank before he regained his senses. He was brought to by a small puppy which he had taken hunting with him kicking his face. The dog had found his master at the water's edge, and the little animal's efforts may have saved him from drowning had he changed his position very slightly.

On regaining his senses he found his way to La Grande, where he was taken by automobile to Tacoma. He was at last accounts still in a dazed condition from his miraculous experience.

Is there any city or town in the United States that would allow the charred remains of the old Star Lodging House to remain nearly a couple months to mar the appearance of our reasonably fair city, and not for this and a few other woful objects of gross neglect that meet the eye in some of the most public places. The Star was a large two-story building, corner of Main and Second streets, that was given a bad name soon after erection, by becoming the habitation of dissolute people, since which time it seems a curse has hovered over it and it has mainly stood idle. It was unoccupied when it was burned to a mere shell, about six weeks ago. If the owners are not enough respecting the proprieties to remove a palpable nuisance, the public authorities ought to do it at his cost. It is far beyond the damage limit for repairs, and had it not been liable to damage surrounding property, might have been allowed to burn to have cleared the site for prospective improvement.

The ladies of the Catholic congregation held an enjoyable entertainment in the shape of an old-fashioned singing school, Wednesday night, at Mallory hall. Following was the program:

Opening address—by the teacher, Professor Pearson, of Black Lake.

1. "Out on the Sea,"

2. "Between Sunshine and Shade,"

3. "Quartet—'Tis Beautiful Birds,"

4. "Ring Merry Bells,"

5. "Still the Angels' Stars are Shining,"

6. "Hear the Bells,"

After which Father Malley, in behalf of the class, presented Professor Pearson with a gold-headed umbrella.

The class then sang, "Sound His Praise Abroad," and a good night song was sung by Mrs. C. J. Swayne.

Soprano—Mesdames Marshall, Malloy, Swayne, Mulligan, Calvert, the Misses Haun, Kelly and Wickley.

Alto—Mesdames Danks, Jeffers, Wickley, the Misses Parkhurst, Haun and Wickley.

Tenors and Basses—Rev. Father Malley, Messrs. Heye, O'Brien, Leveridge and Goldaby.

Why Was It Thus?

As the recent visit of President Taft to the Capitol city, a prominent lady born in England carrying a parcel containing dry fish in her right hand; while the President was passing along the highway, she waved the parcel vehemently. Mr. Taft recognized her salutation and lifted his hat twice in recognition of her effort. She saw no one else salute, felt she must make up for the general manifestation of indifference on this occasion. When Mr. Taft reached the depot, and was about to shake the city's dust off his feet, one lone State official was the only individual to cheer.
