

Our Neighbors

DES CHUTES VALLEY.

Lou Longmire of Elbe, Wash., visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Longmire, last week. The infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fox died suddenly last Tuesday. Mrs. Otis Longmire, wife of Otis Longmire and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dow Hughes of Yelm, died Tuesday after a lingering sickness which had kept her in bed for several weeks. Mr. E. A. Cooke is spending several days' vacation with his family this week. Frank and Clifford Neat spent Sunday with home folks. Mrs. Zaida Grass made a trip to Yelm Saturday, the first trip she has made since getting hurt in a runaway six weeks ago. Mrs. John Longmire was again called to Yelm through the sickness of her daughter Mrs. George Davidson. Mrs. Davidson is reported to be much better and on the road to recovery at this writing.

PUGET

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown made the former's parents a visit on Saturday. Quite a crowd from Puget attended the dance given Saturday night at Mr. Boatman's residence. There was an attendance of 50. All those who attended from here must have had an extra good time as they did not return until Sunday evening. Grandma Roth is reported to have been on the sick list this past week. We are anxious to hear of her recovery. Messrs. Dan and Lorenzo Lilly are still working for Mr. Whitham of South Bay. Muriel Bickle has been visiting her aunt, who now resides in Olympia. Mr. Perry Larsen has a host of puppies on hand. We suggest that if anybody who desires to secure a fine type of a dog may be able to purchase one of Mr. Larson. The writer has not been informed as to the breed of these dogs, but she can say that these puppies are smart little fellows. Mr. Sam Bennett, who now lives on his farm, called on Mr. Brown Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Millard Libby of Woodard's Bay called on Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lubbe last Sunday. They came over in Mr. Libby's launch.

PLEASANT GLADE.

Miss Bernice McClellan of Olympia returned to her home after spending a week at the Jacob Gunstone home. Mrs. Abernethy, who has been ill with rheumatism, is able to be about again. We are glad to report that our patients, Mr. Pugh, Mr. Robbins and Mr. Longmire, are all improving and we hope for their entire recovery soon. Mrs. E. T. Palmer is staying at the Harry Ikerd home caring for her sister and the new baby. Fred Sleater is the possessor of a new gas engine, with pumping, wood saw and feed cutter attachments. Mr. Rowe and Mr. Parks are doing some badly needed road work. Hurry up and get over to our roads, boys. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ellis returned last week from a delightful three months' visit with their son at Spokane. They were glad, however, to see Puget Sound and the green grass again after seeing so much snow. Mrs. E. R. Cramp, who has been "under the weather" for a time with grip and a severe cold, is reported much better. The farmers are making good use of the fine weather. Guess Mr. Groundhog didn't see his shadow this time. The Sleater family are enjoying a visit from their nephew, Mr. Ralph Knott of Dakota. Mr. Knott is in the employ of the Milwaukee railroad.

GRAND MOUND.

Miss Helen Hoover of Tacoma spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives of this city. Rev. H. W. Thompson and wife of Centralia attended the social given by the Ladies' Sewing club Saturday evening. Miss Loretta Leitner, who has been attending a business college in Aberdeen, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents. Mrs. F. Frieslebens and little daughter of Centralia are visiting with Mrs. Frieslebens' father, Mr. Sherman French. Mrs. Anna Whealdon of Ford's Prairie witnessed the social given by the Ladies' club Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kier of Centralia spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Leitner. Mr. Will Munson, who is attending the Olympia high school, was home on a visit with his parents Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stahl spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs.

C. P. Remley. Their home is in Tenino. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Lincoln witnessed the social given by the Ladies' club. Mrs. Clara Hughes and daughter Edith of Centralia visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Remley Sunday. Miss Clara James was visiting and shopping in Centralia last Friday. Mrs. S. E. Koch, who is working in Centralia, has been visiting with friends and relatives in this city. Mr. Harry French, who is attending the high school in Olympia, spent Sunday with his friends and relatives of Grand Mound. Miss Mabel Reigal of Centralia spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Loretta Leitner. Miss Anna Stevens of Centralia visited with friends and relatives Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. F. Mills were visiting and shopping in Centralia Saturday. Miss Florence Brown spent Saturday in Centralia. Mrs. A. S. Martin, who is in the Houda hospital in Centralia, is improving. Mr. Frank Crawford of Seattle has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mashburn.

TUMWATER.

Mrs. F. D. Cook and Mrs. Charles E. Hewitt and daughter Grace spent Thursday and Friday of last week in Tacoma. They went to see Adeline Genee at the Tacoma theater. Mrs. F. Ekstadt entertained the Tumwater bridge club at her home Wednesday afternoon. The ladies had a delightful afternoon, Mrs. Cogswell and Mrs. Widener carrying off the prizes. The young people of the Baptist church gave a necktie social last Friday evening. It was well attended and much enjoyed by all present. William Hahn of Seattle is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hahn, for an indefinite time. Mrs. Joe Miller has gone to Everett where she will make her home with a daughter, Mrs. A. Cibulka. Frank Ekstadt, Al Schwarze and Adolph Malland have returned from Port Townsend where they have been visiting for the past three weeks. Mrs. Otto Berkmaier and son of The Dalles, Ore., were guests of Mrs. Berkmaier's mother, Mrs. Marian Camby. Mrs. F. W. Lewis, who has been in the East visiting relatives and friends for the past three months, returned last week. Wednesday evening a large number of friends of Mrs. Lewis, wishing to welcome her back, took her by surprise at her home. They spent a very enjoyable evening, dainty refreshments being served at a late hour. Mrs. Lewis enjoyed her trip to Cleveland, Oklahoma, and on her return was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Twist and their two children from that city. Mrs. Twist is a younger sister of Mrs. Lewis who expects to locate in this vicinity with her family. The party returned by the way of California. Miss Mary B. Clough has taken up the second semester's work at the Oregon Agricultural college. She left for Corvallis last week. The dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Forbes at their home Saturday evening was very much enjoyed by about 15 couples. Supper was served at midnight. Miss Emerine Shannon and Miss Esther Irwin, teacher of the Riverside school, were in Olympia for the Parent-Teachers' meeting Saturday. They spent Sunday with Miss Dora Sumarildson at her home at Brighton Park.

YELM.

The funeral of Mrs. O. J. Longmire was held February 13. She died after an illness of five weeks. Her husband, little daughter, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Hughes, and four sisters are left to mourn her loss. A number of the Hughes and the Longmire families from other parts of the state and country were in town on Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. O. J. Longmire. Mr. More, the pastor of the Christian church of Tacoma, preached Mrs. Longmire's funeral sermon. Mr. Frank Mosman is putting up a new building in which he expects to start a grocery store. The entertainment which was to have been held here the 14th has been postponed till the 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Fox have the sympathy of their friends for the loss of their little baby who died very suddenly last week. The funeral occurred on the 12th. Miss Alice Hughes and Miss Hilder Pearson spent Saturday in Tacoma. Mr. J. W. Blackwell is holding nightly meetings in the Eureka church. Mr. Frederick Heath, the architect, was in town this week talking over the plans for the new school-house which District 301 is going to build this spring. Mrs. Coates and Mrs. Rodney Coates visited in Roy Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Chambers accompanied her son Gilbert to Olympia Friday.

About Olympia

"THE PEARL OF PUGET SOUND."

Wives of the members of the legislature were guests of honor at a reception tendered them Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors of the Congregational church by the Ladies' Aid society of the church. Mrs. H. M. Wallace was hostess to the Young People branch of the W. C. T. U. Monday evening. An interesting program was enjoyed. C. H. Springer and wife sailed from Honolulu for home February 8, reaching here this week after spending a most enjoyable vacation in the Hawaiian Islands.

BERRY GROWERS, ATTENTION!

Thurston county growers will meet in the Forum, 505 Columbia street, next Saturday, February 22, at 2 p. m., to arrange for marketing present year's crop of berries. A full attendance is desired. 2-3-1

COMMITTEE.

The old Barnes residence, moved this week from its former location at Fourth and Adams streets, was the first building to be placed on the Swantown fill. It was purchased by A. T. Raback.

The annual banquet of the Congregational church, which was to have been held last Tuesday evening, was postponed until next Tuesday night.

Dan Cook of Yelm, T. E. Tabor of Tumwater, E. A. Nichols of Bucoda, and C. P. Remley of Grand Mound were chosen by County Assessor J. C. Sams this week as four of the seven deputies who will assist him in the 1913 valuation of real and personal property in Thurston county. The work of determining the valuations will be begun shortly.

FOR SALE.

Incubator and brooder for sale. Telephone 572 L. 2-2-1f

- Those members of the senior class of the Olympia high school who will take part in the annual class play, "In Quality Street," to be presented at the close of the Lenten season, was announced this week by Miss Hannah Phelps, who is directing the rehearsals. The cast includes: Phoebe Sparrow.....Vivien Hindley Sarah Sparrow.....Elva Woodard Julie Longweed.....Ruth Fitzgerald Isabel Appleton.....Georgia Bell Ellen.....Faith Yantis Granville Howard.....Jack Claypool Lieutenant Wright.....Ward McKinney Captain Winchester.....Dick Mitchell Lieutenant Small.....Albert Van Eaton Major Pepper.....Jesse Leverich Albert Sidney Wallace.....Howard Ray Sergeant.....Irving Miller

E. O. Ferguson of South Union was elected president; John Rogers, Pleasant Glade, vice president, and Walter Barnard, Chambers Prairie, secretary-treasurer, of the newly-organized Thurston County Rural Telephone association, which is a consolidation of 25 of the 29 farmers' telephone lines running out of Olympia, effected this week. The numbering system of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company was adopted and with the changes necessitated by this move almost completed, the farmers' lines will be connected with each other through the Olympia switchboard.

LOST.

January 31st, Irish Setter, female, color red. Liberal reward for information leading to return. W. C. SEXTON, Tumwater, Wash. (adv-2-2-4)

Funeral services for George E. Lawton, 73 years old, a resident of Washington for 24 years, most of which time he lived in Olympia, were held Tuesday afternoon, interment being made in the Masonic cemetery by the side of his wife. Mr. Lawton died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, Sunday afternoon after suffering a long time from paralysis. He was

Mr. Chambers is on his way to Alaska and will be gone for several years. Mrs. Buchanan of Tono, who has been visiting her parents for several days, returned to Tono Tuesday morning.

The playground apparatus for the school has arrived and the students are much interested in helping set it up. Mr. Whitlash donated part of the timbers and part was paid for by the pupils with the money obtained from their Hallowe'en entertainment. Mr. W. F. Smith was in Seattle last week on business.

Schroeder Logger Shoes $6.50

"If Bettman Is on the Label You Are Safe."

Spring Goods on Display

MEN'S $4. Douglas Shoe $2.50 ODDS AND ENDS WHILE THEY LAST

See Our Windows

BETTMAN

Everything to Wear for Men and Boys

Mail Orders Solicited

A Store Where Ladies Can Trade

THE BIG FAMILY LIQUOR STORE

If you have never traded with us you will find it a most profitable matter to get acquainted by calling on or sending us your next order. Of pure goods, wines and liquors of quality, we know our stock to be the best obtainable. Our prices make it an object for you to trade here.

ON ALL ORDERS OF $4.00 OR OVER WE PAY THE FREIGHT OR EXPRESS CHARGES

Remit in P. O. Money Order or Registered Letter and write name and address plainly.

Out of town patrons are cordially invited to visit our store when in the city.

We are always pleased to tell our customers that we carry OLYMPIA BEER.

PURE GOODS—PROMPT SERVICE—PHONE 95.

OLYMPIA WINE & LIQUOR CO. LEE BAKER, Proprietor.

Experienced Bakers

High Grade Materials and Modern Equipment Enable Us to Furnish Our Patrons with Delicious BREAD and PASTRY Fresh from the Ovens Daily. A Pleasure to Show You Our Bake Shop.

DAILY BREAD SHOP

LOUIS DORNECKER, Prop.

424 Wash. St. OLYMPIA, Wash. 413 E. 4th St.

OUR LINE OF Ranges and Heaters

for Fall and Winter is now complete. The celebrated Universal Range from $30.00 up. You take no chance on this brand of Stoves.

VAN ARSDALE HARDWARE CO. Telephone 662.