

RESOLVED--THAT WE LEAD THE PROCESSION IN THE GROCERY BUSINESS BECAUSE WE HAVE GOT THE GOODS.

Although we keep agoing we are here to stay. If you buy your groceries and vegetables from us you will be here to stay. The way we expect to stay is to give our customers full value for their money. We are here to serve our patrons. We know what to buy and what to charge for it, and you can't be disappointed in what you buy from us. We stand by our groceries and make good on every sale.

Best Flour—Best Hay and Feed. Best prices.

REDER & PHILLIPS

207 East Fourth Street

PHONE 593-594

It's The Furniture

that gives character to the home. The stateliest mansion will not attract if inappropriately furnished.

For Every Room

In your house we have furniture that will add to its beauty and in addition to its attractiveness every piece of our furniture is built solidly and honestly. Long service is as much of a requisite as beauty with most people. We provide both.

C. NOMMENSEN

603-13 East Fourth St.

Olympia, Wash.

Beware of Smooth Strangers
YOUR MONEY IS SECURE IN OUR BANK

A banker in Ohio is responsible for the statement, that if all the money taken out of his community by smooth strangers and "Get-Rich-Quick" schemes had remained at home, it would pike every road in the county.

Why do you not put your money safely in your home bank, where it will help you and everybody else in your community, and where you can get it when you want it?

Do YOUR banking with U.S.

We pay three per cent. interest compounded semi-annually.

Capital National Bank

The Weddell Poultry Yards

HATCHING EGGS FROM S. C. White Leghorn Hens three years old mated with unrelated cockerels. These birds are large, healthy and well bred—good layers and will produce satisfactory stock.

Prices at home, $6.00 per hundred or $1.00 per fifteen. Shipment, $6.50 per hundred or $1.50 per 15.

J. B. WEDDELL

Olympia, Wash.

AROUND THE COUNTY

TONO.

Mrs. E. S. Brooks and son, Edw. B., Jr., spent a few days of last week in Seattle.

R. B. Ober, John Ismay and F. O. Nelson attended lodge in Olympia last Thursday.

Charles Barman made a hurry up trip to Olympia Monday of last week to see his son, John, who is confined to a hospital there. He has suffered a relapse.

George Crank, who several months ago went back to England in quest of a "frau," returned last Saturday with a beautiful, blushing bride. The Tono brass band turned out in full force and gave them a rousing serenade in the evening. George "came across" with cigars and the "trimmin's," so he is o. k. now with the boys. We all extend our most sincere wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Crank for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

"Press" McDonald went to Olympia last Saturday and caught for the McKenna baseball team. While there he was the guest of "Lefty" Criger.

TENINO.

This week has been vacation week in the local schools.

The Easter ball at the Oasis hotel Saturday night was one of the brilliant events of the season.

C. E. Ashwill of Olympia has relieved Station Agent Girardot, taking his place the first of the month.

Assistant Engineer E. L. Wolfe and crew have been busy recently surveying the lines and grades over the route of the new street improvement district.

Saturday, May 2, will be general "clean-up day" in Bucoda, that date having been chosen by the mayor and city council.

The Pacific Coast Investment company of Olympia is erecting a 60x90 one-story business block at Sussex and Howard streets, to be occupied by the Tenino Bar, a poolroom and a moving picture theater operated by T. J. McClellan. Contractor J. Hansen of Tacoma expects to complete the building in 90 days. The walls will be of stone and tile.

Mayor Davies of Bucoda has appointed S. M. Sutherland marshal for the remainder of the year.

Friday and Saturday of next week, April 24 and 25, will be general "clean-up" days in Tenino.

The council is being urged by the Woman's Improvement club to fence the city park.

YELM.

Dr. E. S. Norton of Portland, father of Ray Norton of this city, has located in Yelm, being a veterinary surgeon and state deputy for this district.

G. W. Neat is erecting a building in the rear of the Mountain View hotel for his blacksmith shop.

Herbert Plenge has gone to North Dakota to visit relatives.

O. K. Thompson, L. N. Rice, J. P. Martin, James L. Mosman, W. N. Goodwin, Charles D. Hunter and Chester Thompson, trustees of the Yelm Construction company, which is constructing a big irrigation ditch in this vicinity, issued a call for the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in this place May 23 instead of May 4, when they will act upon the proposal to increase the capital stock of the company from $5,000 to $20,000.

Mrs. Charles W. Zellar died at the family home between this city and Rainier last week, interment being made in the Yelm cemetery. The husband, three children, mother and three brothers survive.

Mrs. Saunders has come from her home in Ashland, Wis., to spend the summer with her son, G. W. Saunders, at McKenna.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Conine of Eureka are the parents of a baby girl born April 5.

The Misses Hughes entertained at dinner recently, their guests being Mrs. J. R. Buchanan and Misses Mabel Martin, Katherine King, Hazel Goodrich, Mary Eddy and Vera Longmire and Master Phillip Martin.

TUMWATER.

Irving Lloyd returned Sunday evening to Seattle where he is attending the University of Washington.

F. D. Cook and A. O. Warnica witnessed the opening baseball game at Tacoma.

Miss Temple Bunn of Seattle was a guest of Miss Laura Hewitt for a few days this week.

Mrs. F. A. Olson and daughter are visiting in Seattle.

The Tumwater school baseball team was defeated by the Brighton Park school boys by a score of 11 to 6 on the Brighton Park grounds last Thursday.

Miss Laura Hewitt and Miss Dora Sumaridason were dinner guests of Miss Lula Meacham last Friday evening.

The Easter exercises of the Brighton Park Sunday school were very well attended and enjoyed by all present.

PUGET

Miss Tatro of Lacey was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Chambers last week.

Mrs. Millard Luebbe visited her mother, Mrs. Luebbe, and her sister, Mrs. Emma Bullard, Friday and Saturday.

A dance was given last Saturday by the Puget club and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves.

George Bullard, who has been away working for some time, has returned to Puget.

Mrs. M. Wright spent Saturday and Sunday at Mrs. George Brown's.

Mrs. Nathan Arnold and Mrs. O. R. Swayne visited Mrs. Turner Tuesday.

O. R. Swayne purchased a new disc plow last week.

Mrs. Gus Thelander visited with Mrs. Nathan Arnold last Wednesday.

Perry Larsen, who has been working near Tenino, returned to Puget Saturday.

Mrs. Gartley has been spending a few days at Gull Harbor.

Last Friday the people all gathered at the school-house, the men bringing the teams and working on the school grounds, while the women planted shrubbery. An elegant dinner was also served by the ladies and an Arbor Day program given by the school.

SOUTH BAY.

Mrs. Frank Hanaford visited with C. H. Robbins of Olympia over Sunday.

Darrell Teets spent a few days in Seattle recently with relatives.

Miss Mabel Carstensen spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. H. F. Allen called on Mrs. Lee at Sunny Beach Sunday.

Miss Jessie Williams spent Saturday and Sunday in Seattle.

Miss Hollis Rose is able to sit up. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

A number of our young folks attended the dance at Pleasant Glade Saturday night.

Mrs. Capehart was in Olympia Friday.

Miss Eva Cole spent Saturday night at C. A. Rose's.

Ralph Warner spent Sunday with home folks.

Master Tom Allen is sporting a new baseball suit. Tom expects to play in one of the major leagues.

Mrs. Florence Madden and daughter Esther were in Olympia one day last week.

MUD BAY.

E. N. Steele and family spent last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Weatherill of Oyster Bay.

E. T. Young was an Olympia business visitor last Saturday.

The regular Grange business meeting was held at the Prosperity Grange hall last Saturday night.

Miss Ida Solbeck spent Easter with her sister and friends in Tacoma.

J. Draham and L. Duvall spent part of last week on business in Mason county.

BRIGHTON PARK.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sawyers have returned home after a brief honeymoon in Tacoma. Mr. Sawyers is a grandson of Mrs. Mary Trosper and they will make their home here with her.

The Woman's Rural club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed. Drewery of Bush Prairie. The ladies present were: Mrs. Ayers, Mrs. Munn, Mrs. Reichel, Mrs. Meak, Madam Drewery, Mrs. Mulholland and little daughter Mildred. Delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Drewery.

Charles Beaty is busy hauling lumber from the Salmon Creek mill to build a new barn.

Mrs. Frank Eshom of Union Mills gave a party last Saturday evening at her home in honor of Mr. Eshom's birthday. A large crowd attended, those present from this neighborhood being Margie Camby, Jessie Mulholland, Marie and Hazel Dent, Tom Camby, Bernard Baker and Victor Dent, all going over Saturday evening and returning home Sunday evening. They reported a splendid time.

Miss Jessie Mulholland and brother Fred were business visitors in Rochester Monday and Tuesday, returning Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sudman and family of Olympia spent Sunday of last week at the home of Mrs. Sudman's sister, Mrs. D. Mulholland of this vicinity.

Brighton Park Grange held its regular meeting Thursday night of last week. A large crowd attended and the third and fourth degrees of the order were conferred on the following candidates: Gus Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Meak and Ellis Johnson, after which a bountiful lunch was served by the ladies.

Mrs. D. Mulholland and Miss Jessie and Robert Mulholland attended the funeral of Gladys Morgan of Rochester, daughter of Mrs. Charles Morgan, formerly of Tumwater. Mrs. Mulholland was an aunt of the girl.

Charles Beaty of this neighborhood has been on the sick list lately.

Howard Sawyer, grandson of Mrs. Mary Trosper, was married Monday afternoon of last week by Justice of the Peace Crosby. Who the bride was nobody seems to know, but all suppose it was his "best girl."

Mrs. Harry Dickgeiser was in Olympia visiting her mother recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beaty have returned home from Seattle after spending a few days there on business.

SOUTH UNION.

Mrs. Fred Schulze has returned from Seattle after spending a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gunstone and family were in Olympia on business Saturday.

The Sewing circle met with Mrs. W. K. Ball Wednesday afternoon. Lunch was served and the circle has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. John Ismay visited with Mrs. Fred Schulze Tuesday.

Fred Ensign while working in the woods at Maytown Tuesday had his leg badly crushed. He was removed to the hospital.

Mrs. C. O. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and daughter Laura, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Brown and Miss Jessie Harris motored over from Tacoma Sunday, spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. McDowell and little son Claire spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. McDowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Abbott.

P. B. Glasford is very busy sowing oats this week.

Dave Baker is putting in a large crop of potatoes.

Mrs. John Gunstone and little daughter spent the day Thursday with Mrs. W. K. Ball.

Miss Lela Curtin spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Curtin.

The South Union baseball team defeated the Black Lake team Sunday by a score of 14 to 8. Battery for Black Lake, Dunkelberger, Hibbard and Osborne; South Union, Schulze and Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Randal visited Mr. and Mrs. Pitman one day this week.

The pupils of South Union school will entertain their mothers Friday, April 17.

Miss Ward is expecting her mother, Mrs. J. F. Simpson, from Seattle this week. Mrs. Simpson will visit the South Union school on Friday and will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartsuck during her visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hartsuck entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Lonsberry of Olympia April 12.

PINE GROVE.

James Carpeter and family have moved from William Eickhoff's place to South Union.

Mrs. Walter Bishop of Keller, Stevens county, is visiting with her sister Mrs. D. Peregrine this week.

Mr. Fritch of Olympia is at Ed. Parker's—his brother-in-law's—to rest and visit for a while. Ed. says he can plant "spuds" while he rests.

BLACK LAKE.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. White surprised them last Saturday night and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

The Black Lake baseball team met the fast Brighton Park team last Sunday. The honor of the contest went to the Brighton Park boys. C. Ball and Bill Schulze were the battery for Brighton Park and Ed. Osborn and H. I. Dunkelberger for Black Lake. The score was 14 to 9. Phil Henry accepted four chances in the field and contributed four safe hits, two singles and two doubles. With a little more practice, the Black Lake boys will be able to play a pretty fair brand of ball. However, last Sunday their infield resembled a Swiss cheese.

Mrs. John Reif visited with friends at Tumwater last Thursday.

Tom Camby, who has been working for the Tumwater Lumber company at Black Lake, left Saturday for his home at Tumwater. He will be missed here by his many friends.

A. E. White had a very valuable horse killed last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan of Tacoma are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marsland.

A. E. White was a business visitor in Seattle last week.

A dance will be given at the Black Lake Grange hall next Saturday evening.

A very enjoyable evening was spent on the eleventh at the residence of J. C. Stiles with Mrs. Stiles and Mrs. Crooker as hostesses. A number of friends from Tacoma were present.

PLEASANT GLADE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robbins went to Sedro-Woolley this week for an indefinite stay.

Glenn Rogers rode over to Hawk's Prairie on his new motorcycle Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Michel made a visit with her mother Wednesday.

Mrs. R. B. Rowe has been on the sick list.

Mrs. Zelman Ellis entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis and Frank Ellis of Olympia at her home Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hawson arrived home from their honeymoon Monday, and about 45 friends called that evening and gave them a miscellaneous shower. There were many presents and congratulations. Mrs. Hawson was formerly Miss Elizabeth Pugh. Mr. Hawson has had the codar poison in his left hand for some time but is better now.

John Rogers made a business trip to Tacoma and Seattle this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shincke returned home last week after a long visit with relatives.

Mrs. Gilberson is very ill.

Mrs. J. R. Robbins spent the week-end in Olympia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Palmer spent Sunday in Lacey.

Walter Rogers left for Canada Thursday. His mother, Mrs. John Rogers, accompanied him as far as Seattle.

BOULEVARD.

Bringing out some of the most important points to which parents should give attention in rearing their children, Rev. Chas. A. Bowen, pastor of the First Methodist church of Olympia, gave a most interesting address at the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association of the McKinley school Wednesday evening, his subject being, "Have Parents Fulfilled all their Obligations to their Children by Furnishing Homes, Food and Clothing?" At the close the audience gave a rising vote of thanks to the speaker in appreciation of his efforts. The meeting opened with a song and prayer. Other subjects discussed were: medical inspection for the schools, the juvenile court, city playgrounds, and the agricultural-industrial contest for the county. Mrs. A. J. Haycox was elected a delegate to the state convention of the Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teachers' associations which will be held in Olympia May 13, 14, 15. Several instrumental selections were played by J. Thomas.

Farmers in this neighborhood who sowed clover this spring were a little dubious Thursday morning on account of the visit of Jack Frost Wednesday night.

The storms of the past week have crippled the telephones in this neighborhood to such an extent that the farmers have no voice in the matter.

The teachers in the McKinley school are already getting busy with May festival plans.

The children of the Eastside chapel were agreeably surprised Easter Sunday morning when upon entering the church they found it beautifully decorated with appropriate flowers and greens, the work of some of the "Good Samaritan" ladies of the church.

Services at the chapel next Sunday, April 19, will be Sunday school at 10 a. m. and preaching by Rev. D. A. Thompson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Olympia, at 3 p. m.

WARD'S LAKE.

Rev. R. H. Edmonds of Olympia addressed the regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Hays school, his subject being, "Have Parents Fulfilled all their Obligations to their Children in Furnishing Homes, Food and Clothing?" The meeting opened with a song by the school children. Mrs. Leo Royal was elected delegate from this circle to attend the Mothers' Congress in Olympia next month.

Ross Chilson has just finished boring a well for A. W. Clark.

Earl McCannell of Randolph, Mass., has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. George Bell of this vicinity.

Miss Julia McDonald visited Miss Hazel Drewery of Brighton Park the last of the week.

Misses Lella and Ruby Chilson entertained a number of young people from Olympia Monday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Argue, and Misses Emma Weiss, Pauline Zamberlin, Anna Jacobson, Ida Blake, Pearl Mauer, and Messrs. Thomas Blake and Raymond and Lemone Wolfe. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent by all.