

NEWS OF YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS
INTERESTING HAPPENINGS IN THE VARIOUS COMMUNITIES OF THURSTON COUNTY.

Look over these news items—your community represented there? It should be, for the benefit of advertising your community could have. Everybody in the county reads The Washington Standard and if you tell them on the work that is going on in your neighborhood—social and personal items, and the like—your friends, improvements planned or under way, and the like—they will know you are on the map and "up and doing."

The Standard now has columns in nearly every section of the county, and it will be gratified to see every community represented. That is the kind of news it wants to print, and if you will send it in, it will be glad to pay all the expenses connected.

Haven't you any business in your community?
