

NEWS OF YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS
INTERESTING HAPPENINGS IN THE VARIOUS COMMUNITIES OF THURSTON COUNTY.

MAYTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Preston and daughter visited in Elmo and Montesano Saturday and Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Bert Hawk Thursday afternoon at the church. A very dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Maytown was well represented at Offut's Lake Sunday, there being about 40 who boarded the train Sunday night after having spent a delightful day there.

Mrs. Carroll is on the sick list. Dr. Partlow was called Tuesday.

John O'Donald was a Maytown visitor from Elma last week.

Mr. Hoag, agent for the Milwaukee railroad, is expecting his wife and children home after a several months' visit with Mrs. Hoag's mother in the East.

Mae and Letta Bignell and Johnie Zimmerman attended the dance at Rochester Saturday night.

Mrs. George Shelley is on the sick list again.

Work started again in the mill last week after being shut down for the Fourth.

The Maytown Lumber company has purchased a piece of timber from Joe Shelley.

C. W. Preston has had a fine piece of land cleared.

A crowd of Maytown young folks spent Sunday of last week at Offut's.

George Shelley and Mr. Nichols made a business trip to Olympia last week.

Mrs. Roy Coulsen and children and Miss Myrtle Shelley are visiting friends at Moclipis.

Miss Zetta and Mae Bignell are visiting in Maytown as the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Frank Vaun.

Miss Chela Preston, who has been visiting the past three weeks with her brother, C. W. Preston, went to Seattle last week where she was joined by friends and sailed for Alaska last Tuesday.

PUGET

George Brown, who has been away visiting relatives for some time, returned to Puget Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Thelander and family moved to Union Mills Thursday.

A social dance was given at the Puget school house last Saturday and a good time is reported by all.

Mrs. Will Brown of Olympia has been visiting a few days with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Crowell visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Schulz and baby have moved to Olympia where Mr. Schulz expects to work in the postoffice.

Mrs. George Brown and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Will Brown, visited with Mrs. Nathan Arnold Saturday.

Miss Wilma Evans entertained Miss Mary Bennett and Miss Gertrude Chambers Friday.

Misses Helen and Beth Star and Miss Lucy Lee visited with Mrs. George Brown Friday.

Miss Rhoda Waldrick of Olympia has been spending a few days with her sister Mrs. Milan Wright.

Mrs. O. I. Evans and Mrs. Harve Chambers spent the evening with Mrs. Nathan Arnold Monday.

Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. Will Brown visited Sunday with Mrs. S. Y. Bennett.

YELM

J. C. Conine attended the Democratic convention in Seattle Saturday, being one of the delegates from this county.

J. Hetrick has returned from Longmire Springs, considerably improved in health.

Miss Olive Coates has been visiting relatives in Shelton for the last few days.

Contract for laying two miles of tile on the Hastie ranch has been let.

Mrs. J. H. Lotz had as her guests recently her daughter, Mrs. Baxter and daughter of Spokane.

Nathan Morris of Eureka has gone to Longmire Springs for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Japhet was quite seriously injured near the Mountain View school house one day last week when the horse she was driving became frightened and ran away, throwing her and her daughter out and injuring both.

Local people are planning on a big picnic at the big ditch to celebrate the first turning of water into it from a creek crossed at grade.

Miss Helen Hetrick, who recently underwent an operation on her foot in Tacoma, has returned to her home and is improving nicely.

TENINO

Mrs. James Dootson has returned to her home in Bucoda after visiting relatives at Roslyn for a couple of weeks.

Robert McDonald is working in Olympia.

The band boys gave another dance Saturday night that was highly enjoyed.

William Mates, formerly a member of the Tenino Masonic lodge, attended the meeting of the Tanana Masonic lodge in Fairbanks, Alaska, the farthest north lodge in the world, on June 17, according to a letter received recently by Postmaster J. F. Canon from Frank B. Hall, secretary of the Tanana lodge.

Mrs. Alice Lindsley of Bucoda is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tamblin, at Napavine.

Miss Mabel Smith of Bucoda spent a few days recently in Centralia as the guest of Miss Emily Green.

Mr. Larrabee has moved his family to Bucoda from Walville where they had been living for about a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Medley and family of Bucoda are camping along the Des Chutes river near Offut's lake.

FREE CANADIAN HOMESTEADS.

Why pay $50.00 to be located? We give you full information where the best lands are in Western Canada and British Columbia that are close to railroad and town; name of guide on the ground; full directions to get maps and plats free; how to get homeseekers' tickets; everything you need to know and locate yourself, all for $3.00.

Remit amount by P. O. money order and we will send you the complete information at once.

CANADIAN HOMESTEAD CO.
73 Sixth St., Portland, Ore.
For reference the Farm Magazine Co., 411 Panama Bldg., Portland, Ore. (adv. 7-4-5)

ELD INLET.

Mrs. M. L. Swan and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Young called on Mr. and Mrs. Ahearn Monday.

The Misses Maggie and Florence McLane, Mrs. J. A. Barnes of Olympia and Ed Twohy spent a few days last week at Pacific Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George elley, Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Dora Arnold visited friends in Tacoma Sunday.

James Stocks is building a fine bungalow in town for George Kelley.

Mrs. Swan and Mrs. Ahearn attended the Democratic state convention in Seattle last week and report it very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brenner and family were trying out their new auto Monday.

Rollin Ranny and family have returned from California to make this place their home.

The crops in this vicinity are very much in need of rain.

A fine ten-pound girl was born Sunday to Mrs. Frank Barnes.

TUMWATER.

Miss Verona Love of Seattle is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hewitt for a few weeks' visit.

Mrs. D. L. Jensen and children of Portland, Ore., arrived Monday to visit Mrs. A. E. Lloyd.

Mrs. Frank Gilliland of Vancouver, B. C., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Exstadt.

Miss Isabelle Meyers of Oakville has returned home after spending two weeks with her cousin, Miss Ethel Mills.

Mrs. W. O. Newsom and family of Seattle are visiting Mrs. Newsom's sister, Mrs. F. A. Olson.

Frank Aldrich of Bellingham is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Brown.

CHAMBER'S PRAIRIE.

Miss Bessie Winstanley of Olympia is visiting at H. A. Raymond's residence.

Mrs. Allie Shaver of Tacoma accompanied her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cooper, last Sunday to the latter's home.

Mrs. C. F. Rehklau of Lake St. Clair is very busy now cooking for fishing parties who are out on the lake enjoying themselves while the opportunity for good fishing lasts.

The farmers on Chambers' Prairie are all very busy harvesting this year's crops of hay and grain. However, these crops are not so heavy as they were anticipated to be because more rain was needed.

Alonzo Young is working for F. A. Johnson.

Mrs. George Raymond has as her guest her sister from Seattle.

Mrs. Leah Bland of Sedro-Woolley has been engaged, by the present board of directors of Freedom school district, as principal for the next term of school.

Louis McCarty, Mr. Burns, Robert Langford and Roy Young are helping Mr. Collins handle his hay crop.

Miss Alvina Morrison of Olympia is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Kennedy, who has been quite ill. We are glad that Mrs. Kennedy is improving.

W. H. Cooper has purchased a new 600-pound cream separator of Fred Seyfang. It was made in Belgium and is the first of its kind in this vicinity.

William Kelsey is slowly improving from a very severe attack of rheumatism.

W. H. Cooper has about finished cutting his grain and expects to have it threshed in a week or ten days.

SOUTH UNION.

Mrs. John Gunstone and daughters motored to Olympia Thursday.

Mrs. John Ismay and son George were in Olympia Saturday on business.

The new fence around the school grounds is quite an improvement.

Rev. R. H. Edmonds of Olympia will preach Sunday. Every one is invited to attend.

Little Glenn Newman, who underwent an operation at the St. Peter's hospital recently, is improving at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jones visited with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Diamond, Sunday.

Mrs. G. E. McDowell of Olympia visited with friends here the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Dave Baker and daughter were in Olympia on business one day this week.

Miss Rosa Koch has returned to her home in Tumwater after spending a few days at the Baker home.

Mrs. Ross Jones and Mrs. Will Newman were in Olympia Tuesday.

The South Union ball team defeated the Swanton Tigers by a score of 3 to 1 Sunday.

Mrs. A. R. Hopkins and Mrs. Arla Hopkins and two children, who have been visiting with friends here, returned to their new home in Seattle Monday.

John Gunstone and family have gone to Hogum for geoducks.

Mrs. W. K. Ball visited with Mrs. George McDowell Monday and Tuesday of this week.

RAINIER.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gehrke were business visitors at Spanaway this week.

A surprise party was given last Thursday evening in honor of Herman Gehrke's eightieth birthday. Every one had a jolly time. The evening was spent in playing cards, dancing and other games. A dandy little crowd attended, every one wishing him many more birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and his sister, Mrs. Wade, and Mrs. Becker have gone to the mountains to spend a week.

Fires have been plentiful around Rainier and everyone had to stop work and help fight. The mill shut down so the crew could fight but got the fire under control.

Miss Anna Galavan was a guest of Myrtle Hubbard this week.

UNION MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierson, who spent a week in Bellingham and Anacortes visiting friends, returned last Wednesday.

Many have been very lucky catching fish since the season opened. Mr. Garceau and his party caught 57 fish the first day.

Miss Carrie Hanson of Olympia visited with Holmes of Long Lake last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans and daughter have moved into their new home at Union Mills.

Gus Thelander and his family have moved from Puget City to Union Mills.

The report that came out that Union Mills was afire was false. There was a large fire not far from the mill, that burned up some hundred cords of wood and a quarter of a mile of track.

The mill began operating last Monday after having been shut down for three weeks. According to its old rules, it will continue work until Christmas.

Wilsons of Lacey motored to Kent last Sunday.

Miss Mary Smith has been spending the last week with Brandts of Union Mills.

Mr. Pierson and daughter Esther went to Tacoma Saturday, returning the same day.

Little Miss Viola Holmes entertained her school friends and a few others at a picnic last Wednesday. The girls spent the day playing games, swinging, boating and launch riding, and all reported a good time. Those present were Viola Holmes, Evelyn Miller, Lillian Wilson, Margaret Gallagher, Hazel and Fern Bolander, Myrtle and Gladys Wolfenberger, Grace Marcott, Margaret McCracken, Evelyn Kinsella, Thelma Ratcliffe, Anna Larson, Edith Dolan, Ludie Enders, Olga Thelander, Albin Holmes, William Gallagher, Elizabeth Gallagher, Ruth Holmes, Edwin Holmes, Mrs. Gallagher and Mrs. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayes attended the Pioneers' picnic last Wednesday.

Francis Gallagher attended the Potlatch in Seattle.

Miss Sarah Waldrip of Seattle is visiting Gallaghers.

FOR SALE—Pigs for sale or trade for ranch horse or spring wagon.
R. 1, Box 14, Tumwater.
7-4-1*

BUSH PRAIRIE.

Rev. Mr. Walmsley will deliver a stereopticon lecture entitled "The Modern Prodigal" at the Bush Prairie schoolhouse at 8 o'clock Sunday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to attend the service.

Mrs. Ada M. Voorhies of Olympia delivered a talk on health to the mothers and daughters of this neighborhood at the school house Wednesday afternoon, urging them to use natural methods of treating ailments and to avoid operations as much as possible. Quite a large crowd attended.

FOR SALE—Pigs for sale. Wanted cattle and horses to pasture. Phone 21F13. 7-4-3*

PLEASANT GLADE

Mrs. James Longmire and daughter of Tacoma are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Zelman Ellis and children and Mr. and Mrs. Walley Malone and children spent Sunday at Hick's lake.

Mr. Knight and two daughters, Viola and Blanche, of Tacoma are visiting at the home of Edward Gray.

John Callam and Ed Gray went to the Potlatch in Seattle last week.

William Whight of Montana is making an indefinite stay at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Hawson.

Mrs. Joe Longmire is visiting in Sunnyside this week.

Mrs. H. C. Ellis is spending a few days in Olympia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hawson and Leslie Pugh went bass fishing at Long lake Sunday.

Those who attended the meeting of the Thurston County Pomona Grange from this neighborhood were Mrs. D. Springer and son Archie, Mrs. R. B. Rowe, Mrs. Paul Blaser and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Palmer.

There will be a necktie and apron social at the Pleasant Glade Grange hall Saturday evening, to which every one is invited. An interesting program is promised.

Mrs. J. J. Jacobs of Belmore entertained at lunch 11 little boys and girls Wednesday, July 15, at her residence on Woodside farm, in honor of her son Paul's eleventh birthday. All of the children reported a good time.

Deputy Sheriff W. Dean Hays of Tenino brought to the county jail the other day to serve a sentence of 30 days for resisting an officer, a man by the name of James Lippal, who, according to the evidence presented at his hearing before Justice of the Peace L. J. Miller in Tenino, made things "hot" for seven or eight people before he was subdued.

Little Madge Dolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dolan of the Ward's lake district, was hostess to 11 of her girl friends last Saturday afternoon at an enjoyable party at her parents' home in honor of her eleventh birthday, a happy afternoon being spent by the youngsters in playing games and various amusements, including boating and bathing with Mrs. Dolan as guardian, and excellent refreshments being served. The guests were Marie Calvert, Mollie Lindsey, Doris Chilson, Catherine, Cecil and Veronica Brogan of Seattle, Margaret Gallagher, Irene McClarty, Ruth Tanner, Theda Stokes and Dolan.

Among the matters attended to by the county commissioners this week were these: instructing county engineer to consult with Pierce county's engineer relative to repairs on the bridge over the Nisqually river at McKenna, and to have constructed a bridge on the "middle road" between Tenino and Grand Mound, crossing a creek in section 12, township 15 north, range 3 west; receiving a petition from the Fir Logging company for permission to construct a skid road across the Olympia-Shelton road

-Oil News-

☞The oil well will be shot at an early date.

☞Buy your stock now, for the boom that will follow the boom in the well will doubtless send the price of the stock as high as the oil sand thrown out by the nitroglycerin.

Crescent Oil Co.

By EMERY C. WILLIAMSON,
Secretary-Treas.

126 EAST FOURTH ST.

OLYMPIA, WASH.

Keep Your Porches Cool...

Aerolux Porch Shades

will do it and do it right—and the wind won't whip them to pieces.

Then if you will put a Deltex grass rug on the floor and two or three seagrass chairs and a small table, your porch will be cosy and cool as any one could want.

We have just received a new shipment of fiber and grass rugs especially for the summer trade—you can use them indoors and out—and a fine assortment of Wilton's are being unpacked, the shipment including some Axminsters that are the biggest values in tapestries we have ever had.

We have all kinds of tents for sale and rent, too.

Bring in your catalogues—we are prepared to meet the prices of any catalogue house in existence and will duplicate anything you want. YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD, too.

J. E. KELLEY

THE OLYMPIA HOUSE-FURNISHER.

Blue Ribbon Bread

BEST THERE IS FOR QUALITY, WEIGHT AND PURITY

Bolster & Barnes

GROCERS

PHONES 48 and 49

FOURTH and COLUMBIA STS..

OLYMPIA, WASH.

near the Helser bridge, to enable it to transport the logs cut in the logging camp it expects to start immediately, into the bay; and granting to O. W. Briggs and H. F. Hutson a franchise to construct a telephone line along the Boulevard-Chambers' Prairie road.

Henry Balch was granted a divorce this week in the local courts from Lena Balch and was also given the custody of the three minor children.

Lock Duck, a 25-year-old Chinese laborer, brother of Lock Sam and Lock Chung of the Pekin cafe, Olympia, was drowned at South Bay Monday afternoon when he fell from a float while working on H. F. Allen's oyster beds.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Kent home at Tumwater, a Seattle minister officiating, for Edwin M. Kent, who died Sunday at the age of 70 years, interment being made in the Bush Prairie cemetery. Mr. Kent was a native of England, coming to this country when he was 22 years old and residing in Seattle after living in the East for some years, moving to Tumwater about three years ago where he had a small ranch. He is survived by the widow, some sisters in England, and three brothers and a niece in this country.

The following officers were elected by the Olympia Trades council at a business session Monday evening: Joseph Forstell, president; Samuel Willey, vice president; C. H. Talmage, secretary-treasurer; E. J. Campbell, George Willey and Mrs. T. P. Holcraft, trustees.