

NEWS OF YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS
INTERESTING HAPPENINGS IN THE VARIOUS COMMUNITIES OF THURSTON COUNTY.

FAIRVIEW

Lulu, Lester and Howard Benton visited Mr. Ensign's family at South Union Saturday.
Mr. C. Craddock's mother from Seattle is visiting him for a few weeks.
R. W. Bates and family spent a pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bozarth, Friday.
Olympia friends had the pleasure of greeting Miss L. Standke Saturday.
Mr. Benton and family, also Mr. Bozarth's family, and Miss Standke enjoyed a taffy pull at the Bates' mansion Saturday evening last.
Mrs. J. Bozarth had a pleasant visit with Mrs. Query in Olympia last Saturday.
Mr. Looker has been in Tacoma for a few days on business.
Mrs. R. W. Bates' sister, Mrs. J. P. Steele, has returned to her home in Seattle.
The Friendship circle met last Wednesday with Mrs. J. Bozarth.
Mrs. Waldrick of Olympia is spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Fay.
Fred Levee and parents motored out to J. Bozarth's Sunday.
Mr. J. V. McAfferty and family have moved to near Tumwater.

PUGET

Quite a number of the Puget people were in Olympia Tuesday of last week attending the funeral of Mrs. Captain Thomas.
Mrs. Nathan Arnold called on Mrs. Gus Thelander one day last week.
Mrs. S. Y. Bennett was on the sick list a few days of last week.
Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Swayne spent Sunday afternoon at the Warner home in South Bay.
George Bullard, who has been working for O. R. Swayne, spent Sunday with home folks.
Miss Helen Leghorn, who went to Olympia Saturday to spend the week-end with home folks, was accompanied by Miss Lucy Lee.
A clearing bee was given at the home of Mr. George Brown, and it was well attended.
Miss Jessie Williams and Miss Pauline Caywood of South Bay called on Mrs. Jaquetha Swayne last Saturday evening.
Mrs. Barkley visited with Mrs. S. Y. Bennett one day last week.
Franz Swayne spent Thursday evening of last week with Burton Moore of South Bay.
Friends from Olympia attended the singing a few days at the home of her daughter and son, Mrs. and Mr. Milan Wright.
Last Thursday evening the neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown. The evening, which was spent in games and social chatting, was greatly enjoyed by all.
There will be preaching by the Rev. Mr. Minnall at the Puget schoolhouse next Sunday, the 7th. Everybody is cordially invited.
Switches made from combings. First-class work guaranteed. Miss B. Lois Hoover, 513 Main street, Olympia. (adv 1-5tf)

CHAMBERS' PRAIRIE

Mr. W. H. Cooper and family went to Tacoma Sunday in their automobile.
Miss Florence Alexander of Long Branch, Wash., attended the play staged at the Grange hall last Saturday evening.
Miss Lucille Johnson and a party of friends from Olympia attended the play, "All a Mistake," at the Spurgeon Creek Grange hall, last Saturday evening.
Quite a number of the Grangers of this vicinity attended the installation of Pomona officers at the Chambers' Prairie Grange hall Wednesday of last week.
Miss Olive Dille spent Saturday and Sunday at home.
Mr. and Mrs. Young of Olympia spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whidden.
Miss Pearl Whidden went to Bellingham Monday to take up her studies in the Normal school until the close of the summer term.
Mr. Charles Langford this week received the sad news of the death of his nephew, Austin Langford, at La Mesa, Cal.
Mr. Kelley had a barn raising last Thursday and it is reported the neighbors turned out in large numbers.
Miss Zona Jarvis spent Sunday and Monday in Olympia.
Mr. Ben Jarvis left Monday for his homestead in Colorado.
Miss Reva Neese of Hay's district attended the play given by the Y. P. S. C. E. at the hall last Saturday evening.
Rev. Mr. Mixsell held services at the schoolhouse last Sunday evening and the house was filled by a very appreciative audience.

Mr. Willis Aternathy attended the services at the schoolhouse Sunday evening.
The play staged at the Spurgeon Creek Grange hall by the Y. P. S. C. E. last Saturday evening was a decided success and the members of the society wish to express their thanks to the community for its unselfish support.

FOR RENT.

Two stalls in the CITY'S PUBLIC MARKET in the Ogle Building, corner Fifth and Columbia streets, after February the 1st, 1915. Apply to Hiram Dohm, Market Inspector, City Clerk's office, City Building.
This Market is under the supervision of the City of Olympia. (adv-1-4tf)

PLUM STATION

Mrs. M. F. Fuqua of Sprague is visiting Mrs. Henry Backman for a few days.
Earl Sheldon and Jack and Ed Sheehan returned to Bordeaux the last of the week to resume work at the logging camps.
Mr. Harry Parkinson has moved his family here into the new tent he has been building for them near the schoolhouse.
The school children were given a half holiday last Tuesday when Mr. Nelson took a big load to McCorkle's lake for the skating.
An interesting and instructive session of the singing school was held Saturday night under the direction of Mr. Mixell.

FOR SALE—One three months' scholarship in Wilson's Modern business College, Seattle. Reasonable price. Phone 12F12, or address Miss Jessie Mulholland, Tumwater, Wash. (adv.)

BLACK LAKE

Mrs. Floyd Goldsby, who has been sick for several weeks, is improving now.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Barns went to Copalis last week.
Mr. and Mrs. B. Keller of Renton are living here again.
Tom Pier returned to his home at Copalis last week.
The Misses Dent entertained the Black Lake Card club Wednesday night of last week.
Miss Verna Hart and Miss Ethel Todd made a trip to Tacoma last Thursday and returned home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Butterfield of Olympia spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dent last week.
Mrs. Emmett Brown and the baby are getting along nicely.
Miss Holaday, teacher of the Belmore school, spent the week-end with the Misses Molly and Belle Bush of Bush Prairie.
Mr. and Mrs. Marsland and daughter Gertrude have been on the sick list for the last few days.

ELD INLET

Mr. and Mrs. M. Ahearn and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Campbell spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weatherill and family.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Erskine and family were in the city Saturday.
Mr. George Kelley was in the city Saturday on business.
Mr. Will Ahearn has gone to Bordeaux to work, after spending several months with his brother, Mr. M. Ahearn.
The health of Mrs. Minnie Swan still remains about the same.
Miss Florence McLane of Olympia spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milner McLane.
Mr. Leslie Campbell has returned to his home here after spending several days in Tacoma on business.
Mrs. James Stock was in the city Saturday.
Mrs. George Arnold was in Olympia shopping last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Comstock and daughter Ida were in the city Saturday.
Mrs. Ivan Swigart and Mrs. Leslie Campbell visited with Mrs. James Lennahan of Drahamville one afternoon last week.
Mr. B. J. Shannon of Olympia is working on his place in this vicinity every day. He has quite a piece slashed.

FOR SALE—80 acres of land, or will trade for dairy cows. B. R. Conine, Yelm.

TENINO

The Tenino mill has been laid up for several days for repairs, the cylinder head of the engine having blown out and the machine damaged in other respects.

Ice on the lake kept the McIntosh shingle mill closed down for several days.
Charles Halford and family have moved to Seattle.
Mrs. Ed Robinson of Boston Harbor spent a few days here recently with her mother, Mrs. Sumption, and sister, Mrs. Harry Swain.
Theodore Rudman of Denver stopped over here for a short visit with his aunt, Mrs. Wm. Mullaney, while en route to Lower California.
A branch of the Olympia and Thurston county library has been established here in Battista & Ruggieri's drug store, as the result of the efforts of the Women's Civic Improvement club.
Tenino's new paper, the Journal, made its initial appearance last week and it certainly is a newsy sheet—something Tenino has needed for a long time.
Assisted by Mrs. Hoage of Olympia, Rev. J. W. Miller, pastor of the local Methodist church, began a series of meetings here last Sunday evening.
John T. Tweed, former city clerk of Tenino and for two terms auditor of Thurston county, died in the Masonic home at Puyallup last week. He was 69 years old.
Members of the local Presbyterian church will hold their annual meeting Sunday morning.
Mrs. Martha Davis of Stony Point spent a few days here recently visiting relatives and friends.
An elaborate program is being prepared by the school children for the meeting of the local Parent-Teachers' circle at the schoolhouse the second Friday of this month. The circle was organized in December with Mrs. Ward as president, Mrs. Pape vice president and Mrs. Gass secretary.
The young people of the Skookumchuck valley are working on a plan to establish a new rural route out of Tenino to give them daily mail, the proposed route to run up the valley to the Stony Point schoolhouse.

EUREKA.
Herbert McVey of San Francisco is visiting Charles Martinson and family.
Rose Webber, who has been staying at home for some time, is again working at the Garstan hotel in Yelm.
Mrs. Owens and little daughter, who have been visiting in California since the holiday, returned Saturday and Mrs. Owens is a gain keeping house for Albert Reichel.
The Ladies' Calendar club of the Eureka church held its monthly social at the home of Lee Conine Friday evening. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.
Mrs. Nathan Morris, who has been suffering from a severe attack of grippe, is slowly recovering.
Mr. Willie Conine, who has been visiting relatives at Los Angeles, Cal., came Thursday to visit his brother, Lee Conine.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Gallier are the proud parents of a 9-pound girl who arrived January 28.
Mr. Harry Wetzel and little son, who have been visiting the former's parents, returned to his home in Portland Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conine, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Conine and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dameron of Bellingham were Olympia visitors last Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Conine and Reid Conine made a trip to Tacoma Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dameron of Bellingham, who have been visiting with Reid Conine and family, went to Olympia Saturday.
FOR SALE—At a bargain, practically new coal or wood stove, Empress Malleable. Olympia Gas Co., 515 Main street. 2-1-1

GOOD SURROUNDINGS
In the grocery line are always on sale in our establishment. The spice that's nice, The pepper that's hot And the mustard that's fit To put in the pot are among our fresh seasonings of unsurpassed purity.
OUR FINE GROCERIES are known far and wide, and have an enviable fame. He who won't be advised can't be helped, but we can help you if you will purchase our good tea, coffee, etc.
SCOTT'S GROCERY
Cor. 4th & Adams Sts. Olympia, Wash.

BUSH PRAIRIE
Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hodge.
Mrs. John Bush and daughter Mollie went to Olympia Tuesday.
Mrs. E. J. Hodge spent Tuesday at Mrs. Gust Nelson's.
The members of the Sunday school will bring their lunch and remain for a song service in the afternoon, February 7, Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Everyone welcome.
FOR SALE—Cheap, one-ton spring wagon, in good condition. Olympia Gas Co., 515 Main street. 2-1-1
Loss estimated at $3,000, with no insurance, was sustained by Volney C. F. Young, when his steam tug "Mizpah" was partially destroyed by fire while it lay at anchor at Mud Bay Saturday night. The boat was built in 1906 at a cost of $7,500 for use on the Olympia-Kamille run, but during the last two years has been towing logs. The fire was discovered about 10 o'clock and for the rest of the night Young and his employees fought the blaze, getting it under control early in the morning.

Coming--the Land of Mystery, Mirth and Amusement-- The Joy Carnival.

ELKS' FIESTA

Biennial Season of Entertainment by Olympia Lodge No. 186, B. P. O. E.

Engagement Extraordinary of the World's Greatest Exponent of Mystifying Magic Kasanovia

A Lineal descendant of the Safawi Kings and Court Entertainer to the Shah of Persia, Exhibiting his wonderful Collection of Medals and Decorations Conferred by Kings and Potentates

The Circassian Electrical Wonder
Marconetta

An Unsolved Mystery confusing even the Wizards Edison and Tesla and demonstrating that Man's Greatest Efforts are but puny when brought face to face with Nature's Phenomenon.

MOLAKA

The Tallest Man in the World, the Swansea Giant, on his first tour of America. Late star attraction at the New York Hippodrome.

VIVISECTION

Startling and sensational Demonstrations in decapitation and amputation - Miraculous operations in Surgery.

These are only a few of the "high spots" in a program filled to overflowing with the greatest collection of entertainers ever brought together in one show and the most wonderful assortment of curios ever displayed on the Pacific coast.

Free

A Five-Passenger Dodge Brothers Motor Car equipped with the latest up-to-date attachments.

Ask Any Elk

At the Lobby Feb. 23rd to 26th