SCENES THAT THRILL

The city of New York is attacked by a powerful foreign foe. You are an eye-witness. You see the enemy approaching, the powerlessness of the city, the inadequacy of its forts and defenses. You see the havoc wrought by the enemy's cruisers, its submarines, its airships—by its shells, shrapnel, bombs. You see the most beautiful sky-line in the world in flames; the metropolis of the Western Hemisphere devastated.

You see New York fall into the hands of the enemy, and the desecration that follows. You see Wall Street in flames, Washington, D. C., destroyed. You see the vivid scenes of battle, a raid of aeroplanes, submarine torpedo attacks, battleships being sunk, and invading hordes.

Then you are shown the way that such a calamity can be avoided—the one way. You are shown the way to peace—the peace for which America so earnestly prays—the peace with honor.
