Be Ready To Act At All Times

Many a person has been barred from success because of inability to make the necessary move at the proper time. Lack of ready money or established credit in time of need has probably caused more failures than dozens of other causes combined. In the majority of cases carelessness in the matter of saving and ignorance in regard to banks have been responsible for failure. The person who saves and who uses a bank can always get money or credit when needed. The banks are for the purpose of loaning money on proper security when the integrity of the borrower is known to the bank. The bank for you to use and to be known at is the
