

NEWS OF YOUR FRIENDS

AND NEIGHBORS

NISQUALLY VALLEY

(Too late for last week.)
Miss Hope Hartman was home from school for over Saturday last week.
Marie, Kathleen and Leonard Wood gave a party for a few of their intimate friends Saturday evening.
Clifford Chamberlain, "Manny" Hartman and Oscar White transacted business in Olympia Saturday of last week.
Miss Martha Natucci of Dupont attended our literary society meeting Saturday evening as a guest of Mrs. J. A. Andersen.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazeltime is critically ill with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhlman have moved to the L. D. Hawk place, which they have rented.

Johnnie Koenig, our literary editor, was home from Olympia over Sunday.

The Misses Collins of Dupont were week-end guests of Winona Bennett last week.

We cannot tell any more about the anti-bachelor club we reported as being organized. Lack of members and insufficient confidence in single blessedness must have put a damper on the organization.

A farmers' loan association is being organized at the McAllister school. It is progressing slowly, but will be a success. There are over a dozen members, which is a good start.

Mrs. Wixon and Mrs. Purvis and sons were callers at the Andersen home Wednesday.

Charley Phol of Anderson Island was a pleasant caller in our vicinity last week.

BUSH PRAIRIE

Mrs. Christianson visited her daughter, Mrs. Olafson, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Oddson, Johnny Norman and Mr. Colie spent Friday evening at the home of O. Olafson.

Mrs. Al Dreyer and daughters, Ruth and Nina, called on Mrs. Bush Baker in Olympia Saturday.

The scholars enjoyed a Valentine box the 14th.

The Misses Stella and Della Cook spent Sunday at the home of Arthur Jones.

Miss Louise Bush is on the sick list.

Miss Dora Sumarildason was the guest of Mrs. E. J. Hodge Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Johnson and Miss Hatie Johnson were guests of Mrs. J. Shehan Sunday.

Mr. John Graf is busy hauling the remainder of the sawmill to Tumwater.

Mrs. F. J. Johnson called on Mrs. Hodge Tuesday.

W. W. White has been hauling wood to Olympia.

HAYES

Our school won in the spelling contest in Tumwater last Saturday. The contestants were Daisy Chilson, Adah Dye and Francis Ranney.

Mrs. L. A. Woods entertained her Sunday school class last Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served.

Mr. Milliron sold a number of hogs and heifers to Mr. Graham last week. The new telephone line is now under construction.

Charles Schuler is out of the hospital and staying at the Wickie home at present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jennings gave a party at their home Saturday evening. A fine time is reported by everyone.

John Wiggins' sister, who has been spending the winter in California, and visited here for a few days, has left for her home in the northern part of the state.

Last reports of Alonzo Gilman say he was in Chicago working in a restaurant.

A number of people from this vicinity attended the sale near Little Rock last Wednesday.

"We don't please everybody; but we try."

New Spring
Styles
ARRIVING DAILY

Ekrem Shoe Company
423 MAIN STREET

Mr. Potter and Mr. Clees brought in a bunch of cattle, hogs and chickens Sunday from Tenino.

Mr. McCafferty has rented the Granger place.

Mr. Rice is busily engaged getting out ship-knees.

Mr. Fred Adams is busy clearing land for Mr. Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kempher and daughter attended the third house of the legislature last Monday night.

Mr. J. E. Gilman's sister, Mrs. Schupp, and family, of Wenatchee, are making an extended visit here.

BRIGHTON PARK

Brighton Park Grange held its regular meeting Tuesday night and Pete Clawson was obligated in the first and second degrees. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred at the next meeting, to be held March 6.

Quite a number of friends from here attended the funeral of the late Thomas Roberts last week.

Arthur Jones was a business visitor in Olympia this week.

E. Munn took a load of fine pork to the market Wednesday.

Robert Mulholland was able to return to his work Sunday, after having been sick for the past two weeks.

Ralph Beaty has returned home from Seattle, and is busy getting the spring plowing done.

The Woman's Rural club held its regular meeting Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. D. Mulholland. It was an all-day meeting and at noon a fine dinner was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Jessie. Those attending were Mesdames E. Munn, M. E. Meek, Charles Beaty, M. Warter and Cora Ayers.

SOUTH BAY

The Farmers' Card club met at the home of John Rogers Saturday night, with 29 present. Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake, bananas and coffee, were served by the hostess. All departed at midnight. The next meeting will be at Albert Lister's March 3.

Will Taylor and wife had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. L. Longmire and family.

Mrs. Marion Madden called on Mrs. G. E. Stearns Saturday.

C. H. Sylvester and wife and C. A. Turner, wife and baby, went to Seattle Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore. All returned Sunday but Mrs. Turner, who stayed over to have some dental work done.

Charley Scott was a visitor at the Pickett home the last of the week. Mrs. Pickett and Ruth returned home with him.

Vern Rusher, who has been working for C. H. Sylvester for so long, left there Monday and went to work for Harry Lormor, near Pleasant Glade. Mr. Lormor runs a milk route.

A number from South Bay expect to go to the public sale near Independence.

A number from South Bay attended the Pomona Grange meeting at Spurgeon Creek Tuesday. They were Mr. and Mrs. George Parse, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Kegley, and Rev. F. H. Mixsell. All were initiated into the Pomona.

Henry Adair's family, of South Bay have moved to Pleasant Glade and are living in the Calahan house.

Harry Barnhart autoed out to David Barnhart's, his father, Sunday in a brand new Ford.

EUREKA

Miss Vera Algyer came home Saturday evening, returning Sunday to Tacoma.

The revival meetings conducted by Rev. Mr. Reeves are still in progress.

Mrs. McLain gave a house-warming to her friends last Saturday evening. An enjoyable time was had by all present.

Mrs. Evan Martin, of Yelm, was a Saturday and Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conline.

Mr. Pringle enjoyed a visit from his brother, Tom Pringle, the last of the week.

Mr. Harry Fitch and sister, Miss Helen Fitch, came Friday evening to attend the E. K. Fitch sale Saturday.

Several from the Des Chutes Grange met with the Pomona Grange Tuesday at Spurgeon Creek.

The Forest Literary society will hold its next meeting March 2.

The sale of E. K. Fitch, held last Saturday, drew an unusually large crowd and everything brought fairly good prices.

INDEPENDENCE

Mesdames Ferguson and Tweten and Mrs. H. Taylor, of Rocky Prairie, visited school Friday afternoon.

Miss Sadie Begg, of Ward's Lake, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Littlejohn Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ferguson and Mrs. F. E. Littlejohn motored to Olympia Wednesday afternoon.

Misses Gladys Erickson and Rena Littlejohn attended the spelling contest in Little Rock Saturday.

Lester Walker, of Olympia, was home for the week-end.

Several farmers have been selling potatoes to Morgan, of Little Rock.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. John Gunstone entertained Mr. and Mrs. West and family; Misses Mollie and Louise Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Ball, and Messrs. Gerwick, Elmer Walker, Lester Walker and Clarence Ball.

Mrs. Harry Taylor's children are staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Diamond, while their mother is spending the week in Seattle.

Mr. Andrew Tweten was in Olympia one day this week.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. J. Parsons called on Mrs. L. E. Fay Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Benton and son Howard were business visitors in Olympia Tuesday.

Little Miss Katherine Conrad is much better.

Everett Bozarth spent the week-end at home.

Miss Augusta Brasch, with little Howard and Lorraine Brasch, visited at school Wednesday afternoon to enjoy the Valentine box.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brasch drove to Olympia Wednesday and from there autoed with Mr. George Kelly to his ranch west of Olympia.

Mrs. J. Brasch and children took dinner with Mrs. E. E. Cuyler Saturday.

Mrs. J. Benton called on Mrs. J. Parsons Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. F. Nason called on Mrs. J. Benton one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Nason autoed to Olympia Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Benton and son Howard spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bean.

An auto load of seven, including Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, came over to the J. Brasch home from Mud Bay Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brasch spent Sunday evening with J. Brasch and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fay drove to Olympia Monday.

COLLINGSDALE

The Eastman brothers have moved their camp across the lake.

Several farmers in this vicinity have lost horses from fern fever. Mrs. Bushnell now has two sick horses.

The Thurston County Pomona Grange held its regular monthly meeting at the Spurgeon Grange hall last Tuesday. The meeting was well attended by the farmers of this community.

Mrs. Kelsey spent last week in Olympia having dental work done.

The Y. P. S. C. E. was reorganized Wednesday evening. The new officers are: President, Marvel Johnson; vice president, Myrtle Harper; secretary, Gladys Tingley; treasurer, Mabel Whidden. The society will hold short meetings before the regular singing practice at 7:30 Wednesday evenings.

The Literary society will meet at the school house Saturday evening.

The teachers of Collins school gave a short program Wednesday afternoon in commemoration of Washington's birthday.

Mr. Kelly is slowly improving.

Mr. Jesse Martin has returned from a visit to his old home in Michigan.

ELD INLET

The Ladies' Sewing club met last Thursday at the home of Mr. C. J. Welker. All report a good time and Mr. Welker an ideal entertainer. Delicious refreshments were served by the host.

A large attendance was reported at the McLane Grange dance last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Campbell of South Tacoma came over Saturday evening to attend the dance.

Messrs. E. M. Twohy and Walter Campbell of Tacoma came over Saturday evening to attend the dance.

Mr. Lester Twohy, who has been quite ill, is reported to be improving.

Miss Margaret McLane visited the home folks over Sunday.

Miss Frances Bullock visited Miss Florence McLane Sunday.

Miss Helen Olson of Olympia visited over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Austin.

Mrs. James Housman has returned to her home after several weeks' visit in Seattle.

Mr. C. J. Welker is improving his place with a new fence.

There are rumors of a new rural telephone line being put up in this vicinity. Let the good work continue.

Mrs. Housman and Mrs. Griffith called on Mrs. Swan and Mrs. Ahearn Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Housman and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cook represented McLane Grange at the Pomona meeting at Spurgeon Creek Grange hall.

Mr. R. A. Mullenger of Olympia was around among the farmers and young men of this vicinity recently getting members for the Modern Woodmen lodge. He was quite successful, as several have promised to join.

Mr. George Kelley was in Tacoma last week on business.

SOUTH UNION

Mrs. A. Hansen and Mrs. L. A. Randall spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. John Ismay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Abbott and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. George McDowell and son and Mr. Harold Abbott attended a dance at Mr. Drake's residence at Rocky Prairie Saturday evening, having a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gunstone entertained a few friends Saturday evening. Dancing and cards were part of the amusements. Mr. J. G. Gerwick played some excellent selections on the piano. Mr. Roy West entertained the guests with popular songs, and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, covers being laid for 18.

Mrs. O. E. Ferguson spent Friday evening with Mrs. John Seed.

A number of farmers in this vicinity are busy sacking their potatoes and grain, which they recently sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dowman and little daughter of Seattle are visiting Mrs. Dowman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bollinger.

Miss Sadie Begg of Olympia spent an afternoon with Mrs. John Seed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Abbott and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. George McDowell and little son visited Mrs. Abbott's brother, Mr. Milo Drake, in Olympia Sunday.

Mr. P. B. Glasford called on Mr. Al Dreyer last Sunday.

Mr. Conrad Hansen, who was taken to St. Peter's hospital Friday, suffering from the measles, is improving nicely.

Mr. Grant Besse is much improved and expects to be home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Besse and daughter and Miss Clara Peterson were in Olympia Saturday.

Mr. John Gunstone is ill with the grip.

Mr. John Begg and sons were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard one day last week.

Mr. J. G. Gerwick spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker.

Miss Mamie Moulton visited Sunday at the home of W. K. Ball.

PUGET

The Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. S. Y. Bennett Thursday. A pleasant afternoon was spent in chatting and sewing. The luncheon table was attractive, the valentine motif being carried out. Covers were placed for Mesdames G. W. Evans, H. Becker and Harland Crowell and the Misses Ashwill, Edna Chambers and Magdalene Becker. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Paulk of Olympia spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Paulk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. Manville and Mr. Towers of the Fir Tree and Mr. and Mrs. Pease of Tacoma spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alkire.

Katherine Becker and Edith Shull called on Mrs. C. E. Town Sunday.

Jess Swayne spent last Saturday at the Chambers' home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Swayne were Sunday callers at the Lorher home.

Mrs. Nathan Arnold, Mrs. William Bickle and Mrs. Alkire visited Mrs. Gorzelanzky Wednesday afternoon.

Edna Chambers called at the Becker home Monday of last week.

Mrs. George Brown is reported to be in the St. Peter's hospital in Olympia.

Mrs. H. Crowell called on Mrs. Barkley and Mrs. S. Y. Bennett one day last week.

Just Consider
This—

We had a kick on our silo this winter.

"I do not like your doors—they're too tight," the man said. "Otherwise your silo is all right."

Did you ever hear that criticism on any other make?

It simply shows that the TUNG-LOK has all the good points of other silos and none of their defects.

Become one of the army of satisfied TUNG-LOK users now.

Buy a Tung-Lok--The Silo of No Regrets

MADE BY THE

UNION LUMBER CO.
UNION MILLS, WASH.

Special Thurston County representative: W. D. COOK,
R. F. D. No. 1, Olympia. Phone 12F23.

DELCO PRODUCTS

Here's what a nickel's worth of gasoline used to generate electricity in a DELCO plant will do—

Milk ten cows
Churn 20 pounds of butter.
Separate 1,400 pounds of milk in a cream separator.
Do two large family washings.
Heat an electric flat iron for a half hour.
Run a sewing machine four hours.
Make griddle cakes on an electric griddle, twice.
Pump water enough to last the family two days.
Sharpen an axe or scythe on the grindstone six times.
Light a 32-candle-power lamp an hour a day for five days.
Make five slices of toast every morning for four days.

JUST LET US KNOW YOU'RE INTERESTED AND WE'LL DEMONSTRATE IT RIGHT IN YOUR OWN HOME.

Price $310 complete with standard battery
$370 with large size battery
f. o. b. Seattle.

N. W. MOTTINGER
SALES AGENT

207 West Fifth St OLYMPIA Phone 87

Good reasons why
your ticket should read
Union Pacific System:

Automatic Safety Signals
Protecting every foot of the way to Chicago.

1140 Miles of Double-Track
Highest type of road-bed construction.

Top-Notch Trains
Through Sleeping-Cars and Diner to Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, Denver.

Columbia River Route East
Parallels America's Greatest Highway through the famous gorge, between road and river.

UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM
JOINS WEST AND EAST WITH A BOULEVARD OF STEEL
T. I. McGRATH, Agent, 4th and Adams Streets, OLYMPIA