

STATEMENT of the Financial Condition of the Olympia Building & Loan Association

AS OF MAY 1, 1917.

ASSETS.		LIABILITIES.
Cash on hand and in bank	$9,787.80	Deposits	$427,780.37
Mortgage loans	420,746.88	Contingent fund	2,512.41
Loans on Association stock	12,282.02	Reserve fund	1,267.71
Real estate (home office site)	6,730.10	Undivided profits	20,185.41
Furniture and fixtures	949.44	Total	$451,745.90
Taxes and assessments paid for borrowers	1,064.66
Bills receivable	185.00
Total	$451,745.90

The above statement is the outgrowth of eleven years of service to this community—service to depositors and borrowers alike.

Olympia Building & Loan Association

DIRECTORS:

C. H. SPRINGER, President.	J. F. KEARNEY, Chm. Exec. Com.
MILLARD LEMON, Vice President.	FRED W. STOCKING, Treasurer.
P. M. TROY, Attorney.	G. C. WINSTANLEY, CHAS. E. HEWITT.
WALTER F. McDOWELL, Secretary and Manager.

Economy

Economy is not the low price that buys a car. Economy is the low cost that keeps it.

The minimum maintenance expense of the Chevrolet has excited public comment time and time again. You are assured of economy for economy has been built into this car. This consideration has been uppermost in the minds of the builders.

A car correctly built is easily kept. This means that it must be of light weight, and of lasting construction.

You will find these points in the Chevrolet. For this reason, you will, also, find it an economical car to keep. It is never a burden. We have seen to that. And we have made sure of it.

The Capital Transit & Repair Co.

353 FRANKLIN ST. PHONE 533.

DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

Additional County News

PLUM STATION

Mrs. Freitag and Mrs. J. F. Williams, mother-in-law and sister-in-law respectively of Mrs. May Freitag, are here from Aberdeen visiting the latter.

The Nelson brothers, Andrew and Gus, have planted 10 acres of corn and are planting between four and five acres of potatoes. They contemplate enlarging their silo and building another this summer.

We are all advocates of preparedness, but it is an uphill business to raise chickens while the hawks are almost as numerous as seas on a dog. If someone will give us a quick and sure means of exterminating the hawks, he will confer a lasting favor on every individual in this community.

Mr. M. L. Carrier, formerly county superintendent of schools of Lewis county, was a visitor at our school last Tuesday.

BUSH PRAIRIE

The Blue Ribbon Bird club held its regular meeting Monday afternoon at the schoolhouse, when the mothers of the district were pleasantly entertained by members of the club, discussing different topics, also singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," "Flag of the Free" and other songs. After school the mothers and teacher decided to have a picnic on the last day of school, May 25, at the old schoolhouse. A picnic lunch will be served at noon and the invitation is extended to all who care to come and bring their lunch. After lunch all will join in a march to the original Oregon trail, which leaves the highway near the monument and has never entirely grown over. A short program of stories and reminiscences will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Drewry and daughters Ruby and Nina and Miss Sumarildason attended the recital given by Miss Crombie in Olympia April 21. Miss Ruby Drewry was on the program for several numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Will White were Olympia visitors Monday. Mr. Marsh and daughter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bush, where Mr. Marsh and Mr. Roy West drilled the home guards of the community Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hannah Brainard and Mrs. E. V. Drewry and children, Ruth, Neo and Dick, spent Friday evening at the home of A. D. Drewry. Bernice and Alice Hodge spent Saturday afternoon with Louise Bush, gathering the pretty ladyslippers.

Misses Mollie and Louise Bush were among the young people who attended the dance at Chambers' Prairie Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wasson and children and Mrs. Wasson's brother, with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cook and daughters, spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Olafson.

Mr. Rogers of the Tenino hotel was a caller in the vicinity this week, looking over land.

R. A. Cook and family, Dave Baker and daughter and Mrs. Olafson spent Wednesday evening in Olympia.

Mrs. Frances Reichel has returned from California and will spend the summer at Rainier with a nephew. Mrs. Reichel visited her son Fred one day last week.

The community was well represented at the Dewey day exercises Tuesday evening.

ELD INLET

Miss Ruth Austin, who has been quite sick with quinsy at the nose of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Austin, is reported to be improving.

Miss Margaret McLane visited over Sunday with Mrs. L. C. Campbell in South Tacoma.

Rev. W. H. Mixsell of Olympia preached in the McLane Grange hall last Sunday night to a good sized audience.

There will be a dance in the McLane Grange hall next Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Shannon and daughter Nelda visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Milner McLane.

Mrs. Matt Twohy has been quite ill for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Carr had a young daughter come to make her home with them the other day. Mother and baby are both doing well.

Messrs. George Kelley, W. D. Cook and Clyde McKenzie, who went to Sequim looking for cows, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. George Kelley entertained friends, former schoolmates from Seattle, over Sunday.

The farmers in this vicinity are busy trying to get their crops in between showers.

LITTLE ROCK

Mrs. Jennie Tucker and Mrs. Mark Rutledge came out from Olympia Saturday evening to attend the Epworth League play, and were over-night guests of Mrs. Albert Rutledge.

Miss Ellen Palmer of Rainier was the week-end guest of Miss Orilla House.

Oliver Rutledge of Ridgeville spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rutledge. The play, "Every Youth," was given Saturday evening by the officers of the Epworth League to a large and appreciative audience. A feature of the entertainment was a delightful reading given by Miss Ellen Palmer of Rainier.

Mrs. Frank Kotick and daughter were Tacoma visitors last week. Mrs. Nettie Reynolds Moll of Tacoma was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Rutledge, Sunday.

The Morgan-Tannahill company has purchased an auto truck for delivering goods.

Mrs. Henry Evans and little son Harold of Tacoma are visiting her sister, Miss Helen Evans.

Mrs. F. D. Stephenson and little grandson of Centralia were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heckler of Olympia were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rutledge Sunday.

Misses Mildred Kotick and Irma Brown spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rutledge, Ross Rutledge and Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Smith went to Olympia last Thursday evening to attend the Odd Fellows' reception.

C. L. Carroll accompanied his school baseball team to Tenino last Friday afternoon, where they played the Tenino school team. The score was 11 to 9 in favor of Little Rock.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ishihara wandered away from home Monday and at the present writing has not been found. The little fellow's cap was found floating on the river and it is feared he was drowned.

PUGET

Mr. George Gartley spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks. A box social was given at the schoolhouse Saturday evening.

The people of Puget are busy repairing roads. The work, which is needed badly, is being done under the direction of Mr. Bartley.

Mrs. Leubbe visited her daughter, Mrs. Millard Libby of South Bay, Monday.

Nate Arnold has had a sick horse for the past week, but it is reported to be improving.

Miss Emma Reed spent Sunday at North Lake with home folks.

Mrs. Alkire and little daughter, Mrs. Neat, and children and Miss Emma Reed spent Saturday on the beach, digging clams.

Mr. S. Y. Bennett made a business trip to Olympia Monday.

Mr. D. C. Chipman is suffering from a fractured rib.

Billie Moon was badly bruised recently when he was struck by a falling tree.

Mr. G. Poncin has returned to his home at Johnson's Point for the summer.

S. S. White, a well-known farmer of Puget, is a lover of animals and in the past eight years has bought five fine puppies and raised them to maturity. From the five he now has only one left, the other four having been poisoned. He offers a reward to anyone who can furnish evidence that will convict the person responsible for the death of his pets.

BEN'S COVE

Mrs. William Countryman called on Mrs. W. J. Schlegel last Friday.

Miss Burdick was in Olympia shopping one day last week.

Mr. E. T. Turner, a merchant of Laurel, Ore., was visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. W. J. Schlegel, and family a couple of days last week.

Mr. Mike Mippett got caught between two logs while helping load at Schlegel & Bennet's camp the other day and was hurt quite badly. He was taken to St. Peter's hospital, Olympia, where it is reported he is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett motored to Olympia Saturday evening.

Mr. D. R. Burdick of Little Rock was visiting his daughter Mabel over Sunday.

Mr. Rudolph Ulerich spent Saturday and Sunday in Centralia. He returned with a Victrola and is now supplying the camp with fine music.

Those who attended the dance at Old Kamilche Saturday night reported a fine time and "grand" music.

Mrs. W. J. Schlegel and infant daughter have returned from a week's visit near Banks, Ore.

WAR EVENTS DAY BY DAY

Continued From Page One.

Specialists are planning general May Day strikes.

Chicago gives Roosevelt as great an ovation as at any time when he was president.

May wheat jumps eight cents to $2.75 on the Chicago market, a new high record.

S. L. Rogers, director of the United States census, wires Secretary of State Howell for list of voting precincts of state by counties, intimating that the information was desired to aid in listing men available for army duty under the selective conscription act.

Sunday, April 29.

For the first time in history, England pays a tribute to George Washington, who liberated America from English rule. Arthur J. Balfour, former premier of Great Britain and head of the British war commission now in the United States, visits Washington's grave at Mount Vernon and places on it a wreath, not the tribute of the British commission but of the British nation.

Late Saturday night, house passed selective draft army bill by a vote of 397 to 24, Congressmen LaFollette and Dill of this state being among the 24 opposing, and the senate passed it by a vote of 81 to 8, both Senators Jones and Poindexter voting in favor of it.

British report continued gains in Franco-British drive on western front.

City council of Chicago considers advisability of impeaching Mayor William Hale Thompson because of sarcastic remarks about the war acts of the national administration and slighting references to the French and British war commissions.

Copenhagen reports say that unless Germany succeeds in effecting a separate peace with Russia, she will soon resume strenuous efforts for a general peace.

An American consul, just returned from Germany, declares economic conditions in that country are desperate and people are sick of fighting.

Monday, April 30.

London reports that American steamer Vacuum, homeward bound in ballast, was torpedoed and sunk Saturday and that the American naval lieutenant, nine naval gunners, the ship captain and some members of the crew are missing. If they are not later rescued, they will be America's first fighting force to lose their lives in the war with Germany. National capital reports say that if the urgent recommendations of the allies' war commissions to the government are heeded, it will be only a few days until United States militia units now mobilized will be on their way to the European battlefront.

The fight to keep down war-time food prices took definite shape in congress today when a joint food conservation resolution was introduced in both houses, empowering the department of agriculture to make a thorough survey of the food situation of the country.

Tuesday, May 1.

General staff of United States army opposes proposal of French war commission that United States send a division of 18,000 to 25,000 men to the European battlefront. Decision to be made by President Wilson as commander-in-chief of United States army.

Both British and French report capture of additional important positions in joint drive on western battlefront.

Residents of Chicago forced to go without bread as result of strike of bakers, closing 15 of the city's larger bakeries and seven smaller ones, with a resultant decrease of 1,500,000 loaves in Chicago's daily bread supply.

Brazil officially declares neutrality in war between United States and Germany.

British Foreign Secretary Balfour dines with President Wilson at the White House and the two statesmen informally discuss war affairs.

In addition to loans to France and Italy totalling about $200,000,000, the United States is arranging to loan Belgium $150,000,000.

Arrest of two Germans in New York, with confession of one, reveals details of a wild plot to blow up J. P. Morgan's Wall street office, to be followed by cutting telegraph wires and spreading false reports of President Wilson's assassination and U-boat raids, to create stock market panic. Authentic reports from Germany say that Imperial Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg will make a peace offer in the German reichstag on Thursday, "which will astonish the world."

Buenos Aires newspaper publish an article declaring Germany and Chile effected a secret pact in 1913, guaranteeing German domination in South America regardless of developments.

The first day of June will see the first American expeditionary force on the French firing line. It will consist of six American Red Cross units to take over as many base hospitals.

Half of all the munition-workers in the Rhine provinces of Germany are reported to be on strike.

War censorship in the United States goes into effect today, the war department, acting under orders from President Wilson, taking over control of the telephone and telegraph and cable lines.

The total number of enlistments during April was 40,256, the war department announces.

Wednesday, May 2.

House passes omnibus emergency war bill appropriating $3,000,000.

TOURING CAR $755

ROADSTER $740

(Delivered in Olympia.)

Complete with electric lights, self-starter and all the modern equipment, ready for you to drive.

We'll be glad to demonstrate it.

E. C. TEW, Agent

Phone 335 600 E. FOURTH

Before you buy Nursery Stock see
C. H. GUBERSON
Third and Washington Sts.
Buy GUARANTEED STOCK from local man. Order now for spring delivery.

MANLEY'S

"Industry" Cigars—
10c or 2 for 25c.
"Tacoma" Cigars—
5c and 10c Each.
They are very good.

000, principally for the army. Pay of enlisted men is doubled.

Germany denies strike situation, expected to reach crisis on May 1, was at all serious.

Prevailing view among administration officials, it is reported, favors sending a corps of American troops to the European battlefront soon.

Another American vessel, the schooner Woodard Abrahams, has been sunk by a German submarine.

Peace rumors cause decline in price of wheat, May wheat on Chicago market dropping to $2.57.

Official announcement is made that the United States has already placed a considerable amount of ship tonnage at the disposal of the allies.

Witness testifying in New York federal court in trial of several Germans recently arrested on charges of bomb-plotting, says as early as May, 1915, the German government plotted to embroil the United States in a war with Mexico and Japan, to stop the shipments of munitions to the Allies.

Eastern railroads, street railways and department stores begin arrangements to employ women to fill the places made vacant by men called to serve in the army.

Western governors, in war council with federal officials, told by Secretaries Baker, Lane and Lansing to expect a long war and urged to arrange fullest co-operation among the states in the prosecution of the war.

War department announces that all young men who have been married since the declaration of a state of war with Germany will be subject to the selective draft.

Allies' war commission emphasizes to government officials the menace of Germany's submarine warfare, saying the shipping problem takes precedence over every other war problem at this time.

Senators, in discussing food situation, declare that food speculators should be hung to lamp posts. Some senators say government should conscript food.

Thursday, May 3.

American steamer Rockingham, en route to Liverpool, sunk by German submarine and 13 missing.

Associated Press, in summary of war situation, says chancelleries of all the powers at war with Germany recognize that Germany's submarine arm and not her military arm is for the moment the greatest menace to the future welfare of the United States and the entente allies.

British censors permit publication today for first time of fact that Sinn Fein riots occurred in Dublin on Easter Monday, the anniversary of the Irish rebellion of 1916.

Seventy-five Norwegian ships were sunk and more than 100 sailors lost their lives through German submarine attacks during April.

The speech on peace and international relations which was to have been delivered in the German reichstag today by the imperial chancellor has been postponed to "a more fitting occasion."

Officers and men of the Second Washington regiment send requests to the war department asking that the regiment be included among the first troops to be sent to French soil.

War department expects to complete within 15 days registration of 7,000,000 men in the country liable for service under the selective draft bill. Registration day will be set by presidential proclamation and state election systems will do the work under the supervision of the federal government, the voting precincts being the units for recording men.

Friday, May 4.

French high commission starts on tour of Middle West cities.

America makes second war loan, this time of $100,000,000 to Italy.

German government reported to have taken the revolutionary and unprecedented step of appointing a Socialist as president of the constitution committee of the reichstag.

British and French launch new attacks on the western front.

Government officials and allied war commissions turn their attention to solving shipping problem, caused by steady increase in U-boat destruction, so great as to overshadow all other war problems.

Daniel Willard, president of the B. & O., tells governors' war council that railroads will be compelled to curtail passenger train service to ship country's entire output of rolling stock and rails to the allies and to release a large number of engines and train men for freight service.

Italy is sending a commission of high officials to confer with officers of United States.

Members of the immediate families attended the wedding of Miss Katherine Heye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Heye of this city, and Albert Stamey of Pendleton, Ore., at the residence of Father Mally Sunday afternoon. A large number of guests attended the wedding dinner served after the ceremony at the Heye home at Twelfth and Main streets. Bridal and groom went to Pendleton Sunday evening, where the latter is engaged in business.