

Neighborhood NEWS

GATE

(Crowded out of last issue.)
 Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gaisell and family motored over to Black Lake New Year's Day.
 Mrs. Mary E. Loveless of Rochester was calling on Mr. William Golding and family Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper entertained Christmas guests from Shelton.
 Mrs. John Cooper was out from camp for Christmas. She also visited relatives at Grand Mound.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Parish were in Centralia shopping Monday.
 James Walker transacted business in Centralia Monday.
 Grandpa and Grandma Pilcher went east of the mountains Sunday to spend the holidays with their son L. Pilcher, and daughter Mrs. Posey.
 Mr. Roscoe Jones and Miss Jessie Kneeland stole a march on their many friends, went to Chehalis and were quietly married.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heck have moved into Mr. Brock's house.
 Rev. and Mrs. A. Self of Shelton were visiting the latter's parents this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Teasley of Little Rock were spending the week end with relatives.
 Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Parish have gone to the Hot Springs for the former's health.
 Mr. George Corditt and Vine Harrison were married recently.
 Misses Irene and Adah Lehn of Little Rock were calling on the Misses Spinner Friday and Saturday.
 Mrs. Leslie Johnson and little son are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.
 Mrs. Giese of Minneapolis is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Richardson.
 "Old" Santa brought little Harry Gaisell, a farm wagon of which he is mighty proud.
 Mr. Jackson fell and sprained his arm recently.

PUGET

(Crowded out of last issue.)
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pense and children of Firdale spent the Christmas holidays with home folks, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Arnold.
 Misses Knot and Lucy Lee called on Mrs. George Evans Monday.
 Frans and Jack Swayne of the Vancouver Barracks spent Christmas at home.

RAY

HOUSE OF QUALITY
WEEKLY PROGRAM

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
January 11-12

CHARLES RAY in "The Son of His Father," from the famous novel by Ridgwell Cullum. A Paramount picture.
 Other attractions: "A Bedroom Tangle"; a big two-reel comedy.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY.
January 13-14

MADGE KENNEDY, the famous comedienne of "Twin Beds" and "Fair and Warner," makes her first appearance as a motion picture star in Margaret Mayo's re-licking farce comedy "Baby Mine," which is the attraction at the Ray theater Sunday and Monday.

TUESDAY ONLY, JAN. 15

Greater Vitaphone present EARL WILLIAMS and CORINNE GRIF-FITH, in "The Love Doctor." The story is of a remarkable experiment that shaped the destinies of two households. Also a one-reel comedy.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
January 16-17

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, in "REACHING FOR THE MOON" Famous News and a comedy.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
January 18-19

ROSCOE "FATTY" ARBUCKLE, in "HIS WEDDING NIGHT." Don't miss Arbuckle's greatest success.
 Famous News and comedy.

Admission:
Adults, 10c Children, 5c

E. A. ZABEL : : Manager
Phone 707

New Typewriters at Half Price

Famous Oliver Typewriter—brand new—latest model—standard machine—now only $100. Our amazing low price—$50. The High Cost of Type—$100. The Reason and the Remedy—$50. The most advanced, Oliver low priced, success old machine. Write for literature. Do now you save $50. Low terms—free trial—no money down. Write for literature.

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER COMPANY
211 Market Street San Francisco, Cal.

taken very sick and Mrs. Cook had to remain with her. Mr. Cook went to Tacoma and had her taken to a specialist.
 E. V. Drewry has a new Ford.
 J. S. Bush and L. West are still getting out trees for the Gunstone Logging company.
 Janis Reichel is quite sick with the whooping cough.

SOUTH UNION

Mr. and Mrs. Wasson and family have moved on to the Martin ranch, recently occupied by Will West and family, who are going to Yakima. The community wishes them success in their new home.
 Mrs. John H. Cox and son of Tacoma are spending a week with the former's sister, Mrs. W. K. Ball.
 Mrs. Fred Schulze and Miss Ruth Johnson visited Mrs. L. R. Campbell Sunday afternoon.
 Miss Elsie Abbott spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. George McDowell, in Olympia.
 Mrs. J. E. Walker and little niece were in Olympia Monday.
 Miss Opal West is visiting Miss Viola Besse.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Gunstone, son and daughters, spent the day Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ball.
 Mrs. L. A. Randall was in Olympia Monday on business.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of Olympia spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Baker.
 Mr. John Seed and daughter were Olympia visitors Saturday.

FAIRVIEW

Miss Hazel Rude took supper with Mrs. J. M. Parsons Wednesday.
 Mrs. J. D. Brasch called on Mrs. J. Benton Wednesday.
 Mrs. J. M. Parsons and Mrs. C. V. Cooper spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. Benton.
 Miss Hazel Rude called on Mrs. J. Bozarth Friday afternoon.
 Mrs. Eric Johnson and Mrs. C. V. Cooper called at the J. E. Walker home Friday afternoon.
 Lester and Howard Benton, Mrs. Eric Johnson and Thelma Odbergs called on Mrs. J. M. Parsons Friday evening.
 Sam Lockwood and his friend Joe Farrell spent Sunday evening at the Parsons home.
 Miss Hazel Rude visited Augusta Brasch Sunday afternoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brasch drove to Olympia Monday.
 Mrs. K. Kennedy and daughter, Mrs. Conrad were Olympia visitors Tuesday.
 Augusta Brasch and son Howard called on Mrs. J. Bozarth and Mrs. Klaiher Tuesday afternoon.

EUREKA

Andrew Nelson of Plumb Station was a business caller in Eureka last Saturday.
 Miss Julia Morris, who has been staying in Tacoma for some time, returned home last Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Conine were in Tacoma Sunday visiting relatives. Mrs. Conine remained until Monday evening with her mother, Mrs. Nathan Morris. The many friends of Mrs. Morris will be glad to hear that she is getting along as well as can be expected.
 Miss Margaret Curry was a weekend visitor in Seattle.
 Mrs. Frank Price was a business visitor in Olympia Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson and John Dain were Tacoma visitors Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morris were Tacoma visitors Monday.
 Mr. Weaver of the M. E. efficiency board of Sunday Schools preached at the Eureka church Sunday morning and on Tuesday evening gave a moving picture of the work the Sunday schools are doing.
 What might have proved a serious accident occurred Sunday evening as Charles Hughes was returning to Yelm from B. R. Conine's. In crossing the fill by the Milwauke track his auto slid down the side. Fortunately it did not turn over and, with the use of block and tackle, they were able to get it up on the grade again.

LITTLE ROCK

Clyde Stull is at home this week from Olympia.
 Mrs. Luella Rutledge arrived last week from Orting and expects to spend the year at her old home.
 Miss Orrilla House has been compelled to resign her position as teacher in the Little Rock school because of ill health. Her many friends here are sorry to see her go.
 Miss Veva Cummings is at home for a month or two.
 C. F. Dixon and Leroy motored to Centralia Tuesday, where Leroy took the train for Harrington, where he and his mother and sister are spending the winter.
 Mrs. Albert Rutledge spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Heckler in Olympia.

NORTH LAKE

Miss Emma Reed went to Olympia Wednesday to work.
 Mr. Fred Springer went to Bordeaux Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Olson and family spent Thursday evening at Reeds'.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adair and son Charles, accompanied by Mrs. Leach and daughter Frances of Olympia autoed to Allyn Saturday.
 Mrs. Haydeen and Mrs. Olson visited at the Anderson home New Year's day.
 Mr. Andrew Haydeen and son Arthur visited relatives and friends in Tacoma a few days last week.
 The majority in this vicinity are greatly pleased to know that Mr. Charles Carr was reinstated as teacher.
 Mrs. Ralph Warner spent several days of last week visiting relatives in Seattle.
 The Misses Ethel and Edith Adair of Pleasant Glade and Mr. Gus Anderson of South Bay spent Sunday afternoon at the Haydeen home.
 Miss Margaret Haydeen visited at Reeds' Wednesday afternoon.
 Mrs. Reed and family visited at Olsons' and Springers' Sunday afternoon.
 Mrs. J. J. Adair has been on the sick list several days this week.
 Miss Flora Reed spent Wednesday night with Miss Margaret Haydeen.
 Mr. Roy Springer of Centralia is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Springer of this place.
 Mr. Arthur Haydeen went to Seattle Tuesday.

(Crowded out of last issue.)

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie O'Brien visited with relatives here last week.
 Miss Ruby Reed has been suffering from a very painful siege of neuralgia.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adair and son Charles, Nolan and Vivian Ingram spent Saturday afternoon at the Reed home.
 We will soon be in need of boats and ferries by the looks of the country around here.
 Percy Ingram, nephew of J. J. Adair, has enlisted and is now at Vancouver.
 Mr. and Mrs. Theron Cole and children, Delbert and Albert, visited at Bert Shincke's home Tuesday afternoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Olsen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Haydeen and family, and Mrs. Reed and children spent New Year's Eve at the L. M. Springer home, the occasion being Mr. Ira and Miss Dorothy Springer's birthday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin spent New Year's Day at Ben Shincke's, at Pine Grove.
 Mr. Andrew Haydeen, Sr., is visiting with relatives and friends in Tacoma.

BUSH PRAIRIE

David Drewry continues very low and there is little hope for his recovery.
 Miss Gertrude West is staying with Louise Bush and attending school, while waiting for the roads to clear over the mountains so she, with her parents and sister, can go to their new home at Ellensburg.
 While Mrs. R. A. Cook and daughters Della and Stella were spending the holidays at Tacoma, Della was

HOPP, MONTANA.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Markham were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rutledge New Year's day.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ensley and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Cummings last Thursday.
 Leonard Rutledge is circulating a petition among the taxpayers to have the school district divided. If the petitioners succeed, it will mean more months of school for this district.
 While Washington has been having high water from heavy rains, this part of Montana has had high water from melting snow. The weather is very mild at this writing.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ensley and children, Miss Jennie Weller and Harold and Verner Markham were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rutledge New Year's day.

MUD BAY

An affair that will long be remembered by all present was the special meeting at McLane Grange hall last Saturday evening, called for the purpose of initiating a large class in the third and fourth degrees. The ladies' degree team of Summit Grange put on the work in a manner not to be improved upon. A fine program was enjoyed and then came the principal event of the evening—the men of McLane Grange took this occasion to serve their annual dinner to the ladies of the Grange. They invited all the Grangers of the county and some outside and more than 250 accepted the invitation. After a "perfectly grand" supper perfectly served, all enjoyed a social time, the Grange orchestra furnishing music for dancing.
 Rev. Charles Sutherland of California is visiting his sister, Mrs. Nasse.
 Frank Barnes' children are recovering from a severe attack of whooping cough.
 Leo Cook spent part of his vacation with relatives in Tacoma.
 Mark Aspinwall returned Saturday from a short trip to Seattle.
 Miss Darnell has bought a Ford car.
 Charles Aspinwall and friends from Seattle spent Sunday at his place down the bay.
 Corporal Clyde McKenzie has safely reached France.
 Richard Duval spent some time in the hospital at Washington, D. C., with the measles. Lester Twohy was in the hospital with tonsillitis.
 Charles Starr, Joseph Comstock and Willis Cook visited Camp Lewis Tuesday.

NISQUALLY VALLEY

Misses Cordelia and Edith Hawk of Tacoma spent Christmas week with friends and relatives here.
 William Lemay has a new Ford.
 Fred Gardner has enlisted in the navy and is at Bremerton at present. Lily Wilcox is assisting Mrs. J. Andersen with house work.
 Fred and Bill Koenig of Bremerton spent Christmas week with their mother.
 The recent rain made this valley look somewhat gloomy and the Nisqually bridge that washed out surely looks so. We hope to have a fine bridge before many months, though.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Andersen were callers at the A. K. McCall home Monday evening.
 The Nisqually Red Cross auxiliary, since its organization last April, has sewed 250 sheets, 58 bandages, 40 hospital caps, 100 towels, 33 slings, 123 napkins, 201 binneys, 48 handkerchiefs, 32 pillow cases, 6 pajama

Groceries

TRUE FOOD ECONOMY
means the exercise of care in your every-day purchases.
Plan wisely—buy carefully—and get acquainted with our stock.
You will really be surprised at the savings we can effect for you.

M. E. GEORGE
Fourth and Columbia. Phone 116

Can You Save 25 Cents?

This small amount will buy a Thrift Stamp.
 Put your odd change at work for Uncle Sam. Invest in War Savings Stamps.
 Every person can help in this method of financing the war.
 Inquire at the Postoffice or either bank.

OLYMPIA NATIONAL
The Bank of Service and Courtesy

"We don't please everybody, but we try."

SHOES

Worth Having
Prices Moderate

Ekrem Shoe Co.

423 Main St. Next the Smokehouse

IMPORTANT!

CHANGE OF TIME

UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM

Effective Jan. 9th Train Schedules in effect prior to Jan. 1st will prevail as follows:

Leave Olympia 11:30 a. m. (Shasta Ltd.) for Tenino, Centralia, Portland.
Leave Olympia 11:30 a. m. for Seattle and points intermediate.
Leave Olympia 12:30 noon for Portland and points intermediate.
Leave Olympia 5:05 p. m. (Shasta Ltd.) for Tacoma, American Lake and Seattle.

T. I. McGRATH, Agent.
Passenger Station 4th and Adams St. Phone 176.