DEATHS OF PAST WEEK

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH NICE. Funeral services will be held at the Gilbaugh chapel Friday afternoon for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Nice, 43 years old, wife of J. I. Nice and a resident of Olympia for 17 years, who passed away at the family home Monday evening. Rev. Charles T. Goodsell, pastor of the Baptist church, will officiate, and interment will be made in the family plot in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Surviving are the husband, a son, John Douglas Nice of Seattle, and a sister, Mrs. H. F. Woodhead of Portland.

WILLIAM OEHLERICH. A lingering illness from cancer resulted in the death early Tuesday morning of William Oehlerich, 61 years old, one of the well-known farmers of the Tumwater neighborhood. The funeral took place at the J. A. Gilbaugh chapel Thursday afternoon. Rev. J. H. Secor officiating, and interment was made in the Masonic cemetery. Mr. Oehlerich had made his home in Thurston county for a long time, coming here from Nebraska, and was one of the oldest members in this vicinity of the Modern Woodmen of America. Mrs. Oehlerich died two years ago and was buried at the old family home in Nebraska. Surviving are two sons, John William and Carl Oehlerich, and a step-son L. J. Myers, all of this city, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert Moore of Pine Bluffs, Wyoming.

DANIEL DAILEY. Just one month after the death of his wife, who was 86 years old, Daniel Dailey passed away at a Tacoma hospital Sunday. He had lived in Tacoma practically 30 years and was well known. He and his wife were born in Ireland. After the loss of his wife Mr. Dailey went to McKenna to make his home with a son. His health broke down and he was removed to a Tacoma hospital, where he could not rally. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John Byrne of Spokane, formerly of this city, and by two sons, Joseph J. E. of McKenna, and J. E. of Olympia. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at St. Leo's church in Tacoma.
