

Neighborhood NEWS

LITTLE ROCK.

Mrs. Dooley had the misfortune to fall down stairs one day last week. She broke one of the bones in her arm.

William Roles of Raymond is spending a few days with his parents here.

Mrs. B. E. Loomis and son Henry of Oakville were Little Rock visitors one day last week.

Commissioner M. J. Neylon was inspecting roads in this vicinity the first of the week.

Virgil Thompson enlisted in the navy recently and has gone to Newport News for training.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Heckler of Olympia and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winans of Wildwood spent Sunday at Albert Rutledge's.

Uriah Lemon was called to Oakville last week by the serious illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clifton are the proud parents of a baby girl. Mrs. Clifton was Miss Stella Stephens before her marriage.

Mrs. Olson Garrett is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Hudson from Portland.

Miss Nina Wallace of Oakville and Wesley Vincent of Little Rock were married last Saturday. They will make their home here.

The girls have organized their canning club for the coming year. The following pupils have applied for enrollment: Ada Lehn, Evelyn Kearney, Helen Lassen, Irene Lehn, Mable Roles, Lenora Kearney, May Diamond and Thelma Stephens. The officers were: Lenora Kearney, president; Mable Roles, vice president; Irene Lehn, secretary. Mrs. Corz Lehn will again be the leader of the club.

The pupils of the school are entering into the modern health crusade with enthusiasm. Many of them have secured their first honors and are now ready for the second honor. During the past week classroom height and weight records have been made. The "flu" epidemic has apparently subsided here. The enrollment at our school is approaching normal once more.

MUD BAY.

Miss Myrtle Boone, county demonstrator of home economics, will be at the Grange hall for an all-day meeting Friday of next week, to continue the lessons in home millinery.

Leo Cook, who was ill the first of the week, returned to high school Wednesday.

Walter Brenner entered the Olympia high school at the beginning of the second semester.

Mrs. Florence Arnold, who is attending business college in Seattle, visited friends in Olympia during the recent strike.

Alex Blackwood is hauling wood to Olympia.

Bert Bennett, master-at-arms on the U. S. S. "Rochester," who arrived in New York last month after a perilous voyage, has started on another trip to France.

Mrs. Charles Aspinwall and children visited at C. C. Aspinwall's over Sunday.

Miss Emma Reihl of Alton, Ill., is with her sister, Mrs. Charles Starr, for a long visit.

Probably the largest crowd ever present gathered at McLane Grange hall Saturday evening, the occasion being the minstrel show put on by members of the Grange. Those taking part were Jay Bolster, who also acted as general manager, end man; Claude Barnes, Leslie Campbell and Chan Aspinwall, end men; Don McClelland, middle man; Will Swan, John Nagley and Clarence Worthington, and Mrs. Worthington, who did a cakewalk with her husband, as a closing number. The success of the show was soon proved by the almost continuous applause. We challenge any Grange in the state to beat it. After the show came supper and a jitney dance by the "coon" orchestra.

Mrs. Ahearn and Frank Barnes are on the jury that will decide the Burnett murder case.

Mark Aspinwall who had rehearsed faithfully as end man in the minstrel show, was ill and unable to take part, and is still confined to the house.

Mrs. Galligan is quite ill. Her grandson, Gordon Bennett, who was sick last week, is better.

The Pomona Grange will meet at the Chambers' Prairie Grange hall next Tuesday, February 18. The subject for discussion during the lecturer's hour will be "At the present time, under present business conditions, is the travelling man a necessity?" All are invited to be present.

BLACK RIVER VALLEY

Frank Pilcher and family of Hoquiam were week-end visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Earl Hunter.

Ralph Parish and wife have rented a furnished house in Moclips, where Mr. Parish has a job and will go down there this week. They expect to remain during the winter.

Misses Florence and Evelyn Spinner entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner

Sunday Della and Henrietta Paroz and other friends.

Lester Christenson and James Pearce are working in a logging camp at Mud Bay.

Farmers are busy repairing fences since the recent high water.

O. Cross is getting out posts to put a new fence in front of his bungalow.

Mrs. Alta Parish and son Otis went to Olympia Sunday to spend the week with Mrs. Lawrence Teasley and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp of Chehalis were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pilcher of Gate Saturday and Sunday.

Vene Hunter and family of Dryad were in Gate Saturday and Sunday visiting at the home of Charles Heck and looking after their Black river ranch.

Mrs. Ed Rhodes returned to her home in Boisfort Tuesday, after visiting her mother, Mrs. Parish, several days last week.

Jefferson Watson is plowing for Ed Cross this week.

William Bennett, an old-time logger of Gate, who is now trying his luck as a rancher in Canada, was in Gate Monday looking after his Black river ranch. He reports Mrs. Bennett as having been one of their flu victims, but is glad to say she is recovering nicely at present.

Mrs. George Blair had as a week-end guest a sister who lives in Centralia.

The family of Mike Tapio, seven in all, are all quite seriously ill with flu.

Mrs. Rosco Jones was trading in Centralia Tuesday.

Mrs. Salo has as her guest this week a niece whom she had not seen for several years.

Mrs. Ed Passaglia, who has been confined to her home with pneumonia for nearly two months, is now able to walk down town.

Hugh Johnston of Camp Lewis was in Gate last Sunday.

BUSH PRAIRIE.

Mrs. E. V. Drewry and Dick were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brainard of Chambers' Prairie.

Neo Drewry and Robert Russell called on Alice Hodge Saturday.

Representative F. B. Teter called at the home of E. J. Hodge last week to see little Mary Bonsall, who has had infantile paralysis. Dr. Teter has had good success in treating this disease.

E. J. Hodge made a trip to Seattle Tuesday to take Esther and Mary Bonsall home.

Miss Lucile Johnston was an Olympia visitor Tuesday evening.

COLLINSDALE.

Mr. Braeck has a new auto. Mr. Mantufel's daughter and son-in-law are visiting him for a few days.

Mr. Jess Spray was an Olympia visitor Tuesday.

Our county superintendent visited the school Friday.

Mr. F. W. Burns was a business visitor in Olympia Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grass entertained at a house-warming Saturday evening. About 60 friends and neighbors spent the evening with games and music, after which a delicious lunch was served. All report a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Mixsell motored to Olympia Tuesday.

EUREKA.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gifford transacted business in Roy Monday.

Master Guy Conine was visiting last week with his grandparents in Tacoma.

Miss Ruth Robinson, who has been working at the N. P. hospital in Tacoma, is home for a visit.

Messrs. Charles Gifford, Lee Conine, Reid Conine and John Dain were in Olympia last Saturday.

Mrs. Pringle returned Tuesday from Tacoma where she had been for a few days helping to take care of her sister who is quite sick.

Mrs. Nathan Morris was visiting in Tacoma last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Price were Olympia visitors last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Morris autoed to Tacoma last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conine, who are staying in Tacoma, came down Sunday, returning Tuesday.

NISQUALLY VALLEY.

Mrs. Ben Ruddock and son Raymond of Olympia motored to the Anderson home Friday.

The Coniver and Harder families "Forded" to Olympia Friday.

Mrs. J. A. Andersen and son Adrian and Mrs. Charles Ellison and son Raymond called on Mrs. Jack Premo Thursday.

Edmund Whit returned home to Gertrude, Wash., after a week's visit with relatives and friends here.

Fred Robinson had some trouble with his power in the new mill last week and has added another engine to increase the power.

John King of Tacoma was a caller in our vicinity Sunday.

Arthur Wixon and Clifford Chamberlin were among the boys discharged from the service at the cantonment Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alb Harder entertained Saturday evening in honor of their daughter's 21st birthday. Dancing and jokes were the chief amuse-

ANNOUNCEMENT

For the next eight weeks we will run a series of talks on

How to Judge a Diamond

You will find some very valuable and instructive reading in them, and we know you will enjoy them as much as we have enjoyed writing them for you

WATCH THIS SPACE

TALCOTT BROS.

Established 1872
JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS

ments. Refreshments were served at midnight. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Andersen and son Adrian, Florence and Milford Backes, Gus Andersen, Henrietta Parker, Harvey White, John Biller, Frank Kahn and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coniver and daughter.

The "deep sea treasure hunters" made their usual trip to the bay Saturday. Fine day for dry land ducks, eh?

The Braggett and Mounds families are reported very ill with influenza.

PLEASANT GLADE

Mr. and Mrs. Bjorkman and daughter arrived home last week from their visit at Joyce.

Mrs. Rinnan and daughter Ruby, from Tacoma, were visiting old friends in Pleasant Glade last week.

Several from Pleasant Glade attended the dance at McLane Grange hall Saturday evening.

G. E. Rogers is visiting his brother Leonard and wife in Seattle.

Mrs. Z. C. Ellis visited her sister in McCleary the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lund are rejoicing over the arrival of an 8 1/2-pound girl, born Monday, February 10.

Mrs. Whipple was a guest of Mrs. E. T. Palmer one day last week.

Mrs. L. C. Mikkelsen, Mrs. Albert Lister, Mrs. John Rogers and Miss Bessie Sleater motored to Camp Lewis last week.

SOUTH UNION

Mrs. Fred Schulze and son and the Misses Jeannette Pound, Vera and Sadie Dowman spent Wednesday evening at the home of W. K. Ball.

Mr. Fred Schulze is at home from St. Peter's hospital and is improving very slowly.

Mesdames Randall and Pearson were business visitors in Olympia Friday.

Mr. M. D. Haight and family are moving to the Meek ranch. Their neighbors are very sorry to see them go.

Mr. C. A. Hartsuck and family are moving back on their ranch after spending some time in Olympia. They are glad to return but their old neighbors are just as glad to see them.

Mr. Charles Leonard has returned from a business trip to Seattle.

A number from here attended the minstrel at Mud Bay Saturday evening and seem to think there was crowd enough.

Miss Esther Bergh has returned to work after suffering with eye trouble several weeks.

toolhouse which is quite an improvement.

Mrs. W. D. Bollinger has returned from Roseburg, where she has been taking care of her mother, who suffered paralysis. She was gone three months.

Mrs. W. K. Ball and daughter attended the Christian Science lecture Sunday.

SOUTH BAY

Miss Helen Fairer of Seattle has been visiting at the C. A. Rose home.

The Picketts aer now driving a Ford, having purchased it recently.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vandever of Olympia spent Sunday with the Hananofors.

Mrs. Mattie Dodge has returned to her home in Tacoma after being here some time helping to care for her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester spent Sunday at C. A. Turner's.

Wedding bells rang at South Bay Thursday, February 6, for Stanley Madden and Vera Pickett, who were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Pickett, by Rev. John H. Secor. Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom and Floyd Rose were present. They took a short wedding tour to Portland, after which they returned to Tacoma, where they will make their home. The groom is engaged in driving a truck for the Stone-

SUFFRAGISTS OPEN IN WORLD AFFAIRS

American suffragists are now waiting an international conference. Mrs. Norman K. Whitehouse has called for the peace conference where she will distribute the "blue cards" to the suffragists of the world.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of W. D. Hoagland

Park Hotel

H. C. GRIFFITHS, Prop.
Corner Eighth and A Streets
TACOMA
European Plan—Everything New and Modern—75 cents up
Sample Rooms for Salesmen

DR. W. E. STEELE

Phone: Res. 925; Office 320
Office, Byrne Bldg.
Olympia, Washington

Feist & Bachrach

SUCCESSORS TO ROSENTHAL'S

Dress Goods

We have an assortment of short lengths and broken lines of Union Warp (cotton and wool) Dress Goods. Very serviceable dresses can be made of these fabrics, for school wear, house dresses, blouses and other very useful frocks. Some are 36 inches, some 38 and some 52 inches wide—

To close out at 39c per yard

81x108 SEAMLESS SHEETS

Good quality of muslin will be found in this sheet. Every woman should see this superb value. Regular $1.95 value. Special at—

$1.39 each

54-INCH CORDED VELOUR

This cloth will make a splendid school coat or a good slip-on coat for the auto. The shade is navy blue only. Regular price $2.95—

Special $1.59

Groceries

Feed Specials

Scratch Feed, per cwt.	$4.25
Wheat, per cwt.	$4.25
Cracked Corn, per cwt.	$4.25
Mill Feed, 75-lb sacks.	$1.90
Olympic Flour, per bbl.	$12.00

M. E. GEORGE
Grocer
4th and Columbia Sts. Phone 116