

Neighborhood NEWS

SOUTH BAY

Miss Charlotte Algier of Olympia spent Saturday night and Sunday at the G. E. Stearns home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vanderveer and Mr. and Mrs. F. Hannaford and son autoed to beyond Roy Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson.

Mrs. J. W. Davison, formerly of South Bay, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Albert Lister.

Mrs. Clawson of Brighton Park spent Wednesday with Mrs. Koch on the Glidden place.

C. H. Sylvester and family spent Saturday night at the C. A. Turner home.

Bill Taylor has started working for the Union Lumber company in its logging camp.

Mrs. F. Hannaford and Mrs. P. A. Robbins, spent one day recently at the H. W. Bostian home and also called on Mr. and Mrs. John Dodge at their new farm home north of the highway on the Jacobson place, which they purchased recently.

Mrs. Sarah Wilson has been spending a few days at the O. R. Swayne home.

Word was received in the neighborhood the last of the week that Willis Moore was hurt badly in a shipyard at Seattle. He was considered in a very serious condition for a while, as he suffered from concussion of the brain, but the last report is that if blood can be kept from clotting on the brain he will get along nicely.

And Mr. Moore, the old gent, was kicked by a horse quite badly, but his condition was not considered dangerous. They formerly lived at South Bay.

Henry Adair's family has moved to Olympia.

Mrs. Fitzgerald and children returned to their home in Seattle Monday, after visiting some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lohrer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rose autoed to Centralia Thursday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Telleson came over from Camp Lewis and spent the week-end at the Pickett home. They are from California and he was discharged from the service Saturday morning.

The social at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening was well enjoyed by all. In a contest between the blues and reds in Sunday school the blues, having lost, had to entertain the reds. Ice cream and cake were served, and also, as it was April Fool's day, bun sandwiches filled with cotton, paper and string. That makes fine filling, especially at April fool time.

Mr. and Mrs. Piskett are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and family from Tacoma.

The "donkey" is coming up the road as fast as it can travel to start operations at the new tie mill.

LITTLEROCK

Mrs. Luella Rutledge, who has been spending the winter in Tacoma with her daughter, is visiting old friends here this week.

Mrs. Ethel Welks was called to Port Orchard Saturday by the illness of her uncle, William Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tegland and sons spent the week-end at Yelm.

Ralph Keller of the 74th engineers, attached to the Flash and Sound Rangers of the Intelligence Staff of the Second army, received his discharge papers at Camp Lewis recently and is visiting his brother, Jesse Keller, before proceeding to his home in Redmond. He was two years in France, 18 months of which were spent in active service at the front.

Miss Bertha Rich of Sumner was a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Zella Rutledge, over Sunday.

Mike Ringer was called to Tacoma last week by the serious illness of his mother.

Several Littlerock folks attended the program and basket social at Fairview last Saturday night. They report a splendid program and good time generally.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake of Raymond visited Mr. and Mrs. Thompson the first of the week.

About 35 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rutledge Monday night at a farewell surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rutledge, who left Tuesday morning for their home in Montana. Among the out of town guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Roy Hoage, Charles Norrie, Marcus Rutledge and E. H. Heckler, all of Olympia, and Miss Mabel Rich of Sumner.

MUD BAY

There will be a meeting of the Grange next week.

Charles Aspinwall and wife motored over from Seattle for a week-end visit. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Aspinwall, who had been visiting relatives and friends in Seattle.

The dance last Saturday night was a big success, both socially and financially. The dance this week will be as good. Come and see.

Bert Bennett, who enlisted in the navy two years ago, returned to his home Tuesday and is now making the acquaintance of his small son, whom he had never seen. Mr. Bennett was on the S. S. Rochester, in the convoy service, and was master-at-arms at the time of his discharge. He was met in Seattle by his wife.

W. D. Cook was in Shelton the first of the week.

Mrs. C. C. Aspinwall and Mrs. W. D. Cook visited Mrs. S. A. Newsom Friday.

William Albright has his incubator running full capacity, hatching both White Leghorns and Barred Rocks.

Tony Arnold is doing some plowing for Bert Shannon.

PLEASANT GLADE

Mr. Griffin is spending a few days at home, making garden.

Mr. Long and family from Eastern Washington, have moved on to the place they purchased from Mr. Nelson.

Mrs. Jesse Lehman and son Avery left last week for their home in Montana.

Miss Bessie Sleater was a week-end guest of Mrs. Harry Ellis.

Wilbur Cramp is taking a few days' rest—enjoying the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker from Shelton were calling on old friends in Pleasant Glade Sunday.

Mrs. E. R. Cramp visited old Minnesota friends in Centralia Thursday.

Fred Sleater, Foster Sleater and Miss Bessie Sleater were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Sleater in Olympia Sunday.

PENINSULA

Mrs. Florence Hartshorn visited friends in Olympia over the week-end.

Frank Adams, accompanied by his mother and grandmother, started to Bakersfield, California, Sunday. They expect to be gone about three months.

Miss Mildred Haskell of Olympia and Mr. Hagne of Camp Lewis were visitors at the Porteous home Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Hatfield has received word from her husband that they have arrived from France and are now stationed at Camp Mills, awaiting further orders.

Mr. Hazen of Tacoma and Mr. Porteous are spraying their fruit trees this week.

Miss Katie Keasal of Tacoma is the guests of Mrs. Florence Hartshorn this week.

Will Whitney visited his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Modes, while in Seattle Sunday and Monday, and made the acquaintance of his little grandson, Vernon.

There was no school at Butler's Cove Thursday and Friday, our teacher, Mrs. O'Day, having been called home to attend the funeral of her grandmother.

BRIGHTON PARK

The entertainment and basket social given by Brighton Park Grange No. 163 last Saturday evening was well attended. The following program was given: Song by audience, "Star Spangled Banner"; recitation, "Buying a Feller," Mrs. Elmer Crawford; duet, "Perfect Day," Pete Clawson and Robert Forbes; dialogue, "Taking the Census," Mrs. Gus Nelson and Elmer Crawford; song, "The Blue Bird," the Brighton Park Glee club; recitation, Miss Verna Nelson; reading, F. W. Lewis; "Pantima," Frank Clawson, Margaret Davidson, Mrs. J. W. Alderman, Elizabeth Davidson and Sarah Clawson; song, by all, "America," after which the baskets were auctioned off by F. W. Lewis, netting $35, while the cake, coffee and sandwiches sold for $7.50. Then, with the aid of a phonograph, the rest of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Leach spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Munn.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Dent spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dent at Black Lake.

Mrs. Jennie Mitchell, who has been spending the winter in California, is expected home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ruddell and children of Olympia spent Sunday visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. D. Mulholland.

BUSH PRAIRIE

Miss Thelma Rogers of Tacoma is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. J. Hodge, for a week.

Miss Bernice Hodge returned home from Sumner Tuesday, bringing her two little nieces, Elaine and Phyllis Martin, to spend a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hodge, before going to California.

Mr. E. Dahl and Mr. and Mrs. Isbell of Seattle were callers at the home of E. J. Hodge Sunday.

Mrs. A. E. Martin of Sumner was a week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. Hodge.

COLLINSDALE

Mrs. James McLaughlin is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins.

Edgar Thomas is the new driver of the school bus, Mr. Mixsell having retired.

Mr. E. L. Thornton of St. Clair lake was an Olympia visitor Saturday.

Mrs. C. H. Thomson was visiting in Portland last week, returning home Sunday.

D. M. Kagy, J. M. Spray and Ed Hutchins went to Olympia Saturday in Mr. Hutchins' car.

Mrs. Charles Langford, Miss Ivy and Edward are spending the week-end in Tacoma visiting relatives.

Mrs. H. A. Gagie and daughter Sadie were calling on Mrs. Charles Langford Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Walterstead and family were called to Tacoma last week by the death of Mrs. Walterstead's mother.

It is reported that some of the school children were an hour late Monday morning—must have neglected to turn the clock ahead.

FAIRVIEW

Last Saturday evening a box social and entertainment were given at the schoolhouse to raise funds for needed equipment for the school. The program was given mostly by the pupils, who were assisted by little Miss Lillian Miller, a clever toe-dancer of Tacoma, and by Mr. Carl Stephens, violinist, and Miss Dorothy Lockwood accompanist. Miss Nellie Fowles of Seattle sang several vocal selections.

ELD INLET

Miss Margaret McLane visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milner McLane.

Mrs. Mae Stubbs of Gate visited her sister, Mrs. Swigert, Sunday.

There will be a dance in the McLane Grange hall Saturday evening. Come and jazz with us.

Messrs. Walter Campbell of South Tacoma and Colin Campbell of Iron River, Wis., visited their brother, L. C. Campbell, of this vicinity, last Sunday.

The farmers are all very busy at present putting grain in the ground.

Mrs. Wages visited Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Ahearn Tuesday.

Mr. Joseph Ramsauer, who is employed on the run between Seattle and Alaska, visited friends in this vicinity Sunday.

April 1st being the first day of the fishing season, the creeks, were lined with fishermen.

Mr. Bert Bennett, who enlisted in the navy in May, 1917, returned to his home here Tuesday, having been honorably discharged from further service. He made nine trips across the Rochester, which conveyed troops over. The Rochester made next to the highest number of trips that was made across with troops.

Mrs. John Adams and two children spent Thursday with Mrs. Ivan Swigert.

Mrs. C. Crusen was a business visitor in the city Friday.

Mrs. B. J. Shannon and daughter Nelda visited her mother, Mrs. M. McLane, one day last week.

Mrs. Gertrude Griffith of Seattle spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Housman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley were business visitors in Tacoma one day last week.

SOUTH UNION.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ismay were in Chehalis last Wednesday on business.

Miss Elsie Abbott spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. G. E. McDowell in Olympia.

Mrs. J. E. Walker visited Mrs. Kelsey Wednesday.

Mrs. Thomas Eggan of Tacoma spent several days recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ismay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leonard and Mr. Scott were in Olympia Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bass and family of Tacoma spent Sunday at the home of W. K. Ball.

Mrs. B. A. Pearson was in Tacoma several days last week.

Mrs. Hartsuck of Olympia spent several days recently at the home of her son, C. A. Hartsuck.

A number from here attended the box social at Brighton Park Saturday evening. A good time was had.

Leah Baker spent Saturday with her mother in Olympia.

FREEDOM COMMUNITY.

Jessie Havens and wife motored from Hoquiam to attend the funeral of C. T. Havens.

Beatrice Havens is visiting at home.

Sunday is Home Mission Day at Sunday school, and a special service, "Make America Christian," is to be presented by the children. Last Sunday Jacob Jordahl from McKenna made a talk enjoyed by all. Plans for Easter are under way. Choir rehearsal was held Friday night at the home of Mrs. Willis Thomas.

Miss Boone will give on all-day demonstration at the Grange hall soon. All the ladies of the community are invited.

Grange was well attended last meeting and refreshments were served. There will be some special feature by the young folks at the next meeting. Some of the officers will be installed, the afternoon of April 11.

Mrs. Lloyd Kagy is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Jesse Martin and family have returned to their ranch from Olympia, where Mr. Martin has been employed at the shipyards.

Mrs. James McLaughlin is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins.

The Musselmans have moved back to their home from the Martin place. Emmet Thornton is painting his boats and preparing for the fishing season on Lake St. Clair.

Willis and Edgar Thomas are clearing land with a gasoline engine.

Hans Thomsen has purchased a new Ford and is busily engaged burning up the roads.

Red Cross was well attended at the last meeting Friday. Work for a neighboring family at the next meeting, Thursday, April 10. All are urged to attend.

James Havens has the contract for furnishing cedar piling for the new bridge. He is looking for a good horse to buy.

The school bus has changed hands.

Continued on Page Seven.

WANTED TO BUY

Four-foot and 16-inch firewood.

Timber for firewood and cross-ties.

BRICKET FUEL CO.

Phone 554 R

We don't please everybody—but we try.

PUMPS AND OXFORDS

ARE ALL THE GO

Patent Oxfords, high and low heel.....	$5.50-$7.00
Patent Pumps, high and low heel.....	$6.00 to $7.50
Dull Kid Pumps, high or low heel.....	$6.00-$7.00
Black Satin Oxfords, high heels.....	$6.50
Black Ooze Oxfords, high heels.....	$7.00

Also a fine line of high top shoes, at the usual moderate prices.

EKREM SHOE COMPANY

423 Main St.

Olympia

FEIST & BACHRACH

Successors to Rosenthals

Annual Spring Silk Sale

36-inch Messalines, Taffetas, Foulards and Crepe de Chines at $1.59

Beautiful Silks are the main attraction in this grand offer of silk values. Surely the women of Olympia are fortunate to have such a large selection of choice silk merchandise to select from. Choose a pattern for an Easter gown, a charming blouse or a separate skirt. Such a colorful selection of shades, both in plain and changeable. Make a selection today while the assortment is good. Special at, yard—

$1.59

Black Silks at Astonishing Low Prices

MESSALINES, CREPE DE CHINES, TAFFETAS, SATIN DUCHESS, MOIRE, VELOUR.

An Easter gown or separate skirt from some of these smart looking silks will be appreciated by all lovers of good silks. Special at, yard—

$1.59 and $1.89

Easter Kid Gloves

The demand for Kid Gloves in the foreign markets exceeds the supply by many, many thousands of pairs.

The war used so many skins for the armies that there is a terrible shortage for the manufacture of Kid Gloves. So our supply of new Gloves for Easter will soon be gone.

Make your selections early and get your size. Some pretty styles in white kid with fancy backs. New attractions in black kid in the newest styles for spring wear. Priced at, per pair—

$2.75 to $3.50

In This Spring Silk Sale We Offer You a Most Astounding Bargain in

100 Yards of Rich Beautiful Wash Lingerie Satin

$1.59 Yard

Regular Selling Price Is $2.00.

This is a bargain that no woman who loves pretty underclothes should neglect; it is full 36 inches wide, of excellent quality, soft and heavy, and with a beautiful satin finish to it that will be permanent after many washings. For making underwear, night clothes, shirt waists or skirts it is excellent. Shades are flesh and cream white.

Let Us Convince You

that there can only be One Right Price

For a piano and that we place this price on every piano in our stock.

Figure out for yourself the cost of trustworthy materials, the wages of skilled workmen, the cost of transportation, and add to this a nominal profit for us as dealers, and you have the price that is fair and square for everyone.

This is the way we have priced the CLARENDS PIANO—may we have the pleasure of showing you how good a piano it is?

Rabeck's Music House

400 E. Fourth Phone 150

Dahlia Bulbs

To introduce our western grown seeds and plants on a "From-the-Seed Farm-to-the-Grower" plan we will mail to any person sending a money order for 25 cents.

One-Half Dozen

named varieties of Dahlias, or a dozen for a half dollar

If your prefer, we'll give you Banwine Rhubarb Cuttings.

WESCO SEED CO. RANCH

R. F. D. No. 1
Rochester, Wash.