

P. D. MOORE, OLD PIONEER, IS DEAD

VETERAN RESIDENT OF OLYMPIA PASSES AWAY AT HOME SATURDAY.

Philip D. Moore, 94 years old, died early last Saturday at the family residence, 461 Seventeenth street.

The death of Mr. Moore marks the passing of one of the oldest and most prominent pioneers in the state and the oldest pioneer in Olympia.

He had been gradually failing for the past two weeks, but up to that time was healthy and keenly interested in local and world affairs. Only a year or so ago he resigned as secretary of the Olympia Eagles, a position he had filled for 13 years.

Mr. Moore was born February 27, 1825, at Rahway, Middlesex county, N. J.

Mr. Moore first came to the Pacific coast as deputy collector of customs in the territory which is now Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

Mr. Moore was appointed collector of internal revenue for Washington and Idaho by President Abraham Lincoln, a personal friend.

It was in 1863 that Mr. Moore brought his family to Olympia. He remained as internal revenue collector under four different collectors.

After he left this office he engaged in the steamboat business, operating the steamship Favorite in the 70's under a government mail contract from Olympia to Victoria, B. C.

The first appointment to be made in this state was when Governor Elisha P. Ferry, the first governor of this state, named Mr. Moore state librarian.

Mr. Moore was of the seventh generation of Americans and of Quakers born in this country. It was in 1856 that his grandfather left Massachusetts because of the persecution the Quakers were suffering at that time, and settled in New Jersey.

Among Mr. Moore's close personal friends were such men as Abraham Lincoln, Ralph Waldo Emerson, John Greenleaf Whittier and also the leaders of the anti-slavery movement.

Mr. Moore was married in 1847 to Phoebe Harrison Earle, who died in 1899. He was the father of 10 children, three of whom survive him.

Mr. Moore platted the first addition to Olympia, engaged in various lines of business, served in various city and county offices, and was generally noted for cheerful activity long after the age when most men are incapacitated.

His mental faculties remained sharp and keen to the very last. It was only during the last eight months that his health failed him at all.

Mr. Moore held a very humanitarian view point of life, stood for a high sense of justice, did everything that he undertook in the most thorough manner and was intensely loyal to his friends.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at the family residence with Rev. R. Franklin Hirt of St. Johns Episcopal church officiating.

A male quartet composed of Clark V. Savidge, R. H. Elwell, H. A. Dittmars and Howard McKinney sang "Art Thou Weary, Art Thou Sad" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

The pall bearers were C. H. Springer, H. B. McElroy, Judge Kenneth Mackintosh, George Talcott, Frank Crosby, of Olympia, and George F. Stone of Seattle.

From The Washington Standard for Saturday morning, September 25, 1869. Vol. IX. No. 47.

WHAT OUR FATHERS READ ABOUT IN THIS PAPER FIFTY YEARS AGO

Josh Billings defines a "thunder-bred business man" as "wun that knows enuff about steelin' so there kant anybody steel from him, and enuff about law so that he can do his steeling legally."

A Worthy Enterprise—The main topic on the streets the past few days has been the proposed construction of a wharf to deep water, where vessels may at all times receive and discharge their cargoes.

Something New: Soused Salmon—Mr. John Driscoll of Cathlamet Head has furnished us a kit of soused salmon, a new article on the market.

Dakota territory will soon be knocking at the doors of the Union. Villages are said to be springing up there rapidly.

The Silver City (I. T.) Avalanche of the 14th ult. says that unusual destitution prevails among the great number of emigrants who daily pass down the Snake river valley on their route to the Pacific states and territories.

Governor Flanders has appointed Judge Dennison and Dr. D. S. Baker delegates to represent the Territory in the national capital convention soon to assemble at St. Louis.

Messrs. Frank McCann and R. G. White propose to organize a dancing class and a meeting will be held at the Olympic on Monday evening for that purpose.

The "Echo" has temporarily suspended publication. If its efforts result no better, it might as well save its ink and paper.

we now have five. Comment is unnecessary.

The Portland Herald says that since the 13th inst. the 8-hour labor system has been maintained on the public buildings. No reduction has been made in wages.

Quebec, September 14.—An annexation meeting on Sunday adopted resolutions setting forth as the deliberate opinion of the meeting that steps should immediately be taken toward addressing a petition to the imperial authorities, praying to be informed whether the nearly unanimous desire on the part of the people of the Dominion for an incorporation with the territory of the United States would not receive from the British people the same gracious reception accorded to a like request from the people of the Ionian islands for a union with Greece.

New York, Sept. 23.—President Grant intends to permit the delivery of Spanish gunboats building here now and to accord the same privilege to the Cubans.

His mental faculties remained sharp and keen to the very last. It was only during the last eight months that his health failed him at all.

Mr. Moore held a very humanitarian view point of life, stood for a high sense of justice, did everything that he undertook in the most thorough manner and was intensely loyal to his friends.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at the family residence with Rev. R. Franklin Hirt of St. Johns Episcopal church officiating.

A male quartet composed of Clark V. Savidge, R. H. Elwell, H. A. Dittmars and Howard McKinney sang "Art Thou Weary, Art Thou Sad" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

The pall bearers were C. H. Springer, H. B. McElroy, Judge Kenneth Mackintosh, George Talcott, Frank Crosby, of Olympia, and George F. Stone of Seattle.

From The Washington Standard for Saturday morning, September 25, 1869. Vol. IX. No. 47.

WHAT OUR FATHERS READ ABOUT IN THIS PAPER FIFTY YEARS AGO

Josh Billings defines a "thunder-bred business man" as "wun that knows enuff about steelin' so there kant anybody steel from him, and enuff about law so that he can do his steeling legally."

A Worthy Enterprise—The main topic on the streets the past few days has been the proposed construction of a wharf to deep water, where vessels may at all times receive and discharge their cargoes.

Something New: Soused Salmon—Mr. John Driscoll of Cathlamet Head has furnished us a kit of soused salmon, a new article on the market.

Dakota territory will soon be knocking at the doors of the Union. Villages are said to be springing up there rapidly.

The Silver City (I. T.) Avalanche of the 14th ult. says that unusual destitution prevails among the great number of emigrants who daily pass down the Snake river valley on their route to the Pacific states and territories.

Governor Flanders has appointed Judge Dennison and Dr. D. S. Baker delegates to represent the Territory in the national capital convention soon to assemble at St. Louis.

Messrs. Frank McCann and R. G. White propose to organize a dancing class and a meeting will be held at the Olympic on Monday evening for that purpose.

The "Echo" has temporarily suspended publication. If its efforts result no better, it might as well save its ink and paper.

intervention. Spain declares she will not give up Cuba without a struggle. Sickles is badly frightened and asks to withdraw his note.

RESENTS SLURS AT NATION'S UNIFORM

LOCAL AMERICAN LEGION POST DECRIES RETURN OF PRE-WAR PREJUDICE

Resenting insinuations and slurs cast at the uniform of the army and navy at the present time and feeling that the return of this pre-war prejudice is unjust, members of the Alfred William Leach Post No. 3 of the American Legion have indorsed the following resolutions:

"Whereas, It is becoming more and more noticeable throughout the United States that the pre-war prejudice against the uniform of the army, navy and marine corps is being revived; and,

"Whereas, Instead of the pride, respect and devotion with which the American people greeted and welcomed our returning heroes a short eight months ago, we now find these same veterans—without any debasing act having been committed by themselves in the interim—excluded in many instances from resorts and places of amusement, and in general shunned because of the uniform they wear; while drunken civilians, bolshevists and worse are admitted without question to all the privileges accorded decent folks; and,

"Whereas, This feeling, that the man in uniform cannot be a gentleman and entitled as such to the rights and privileges extended to those who wear civilian clothes, has grown to such an extent that Major General Edwards, commander of the northeastern department of our army has requested that his men be permitted to lay aside their uniforms while on a pass or furlough. Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the Alfred William Leach Post No. 3 of the American Legion, as a body go publicly on record denouncing any and every tendency to throw reflection upon the American uniform or in any way to show discrimination against the man wearing it. And be it further

"Resolved, That as individuals we pledge ourselves to do our utmost to stamp out every indication of the return of this unwarranted prejudice in order that the uniform of our fighting men shall not lose one vestige of the glory that it has achieved, but shall stand as it should, a thing to be honored at all times and upon all occasions."

The resolutions were drafted by a committee composed of J. M. Wilson, Jr., who saw active service as a radio operator in the navy during the war, and F. Gallagher. The members of the local post unanimously adopted them.

Members of the Sunset club of the United Churches had an enjoyable time at a beach party at Blarney Castle, down the bay on the west side, Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Anna Johnson was most pleasantly surprised by a large number of friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julia E. Waldrip, last Friday evening, on the occasion of her seventieth birthday.

Farming's Fun With a Fordson

See Our Demonstration at the Mason County Fair
SEPTEMBER 24-25-26-27 Each Day

Tractors and Tractor Machinery

MAKE OUR TENT YOUR HEADQUARTERS—ARRANGE TO MEET YOUR FRIENDS THERE.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

HERE IS OUR PROPOSITION:

We will deliver to your farm a Fordson Tractor and Fordson Implements and show you the results you may obtain on your own farm and if Tractor does not give entire satisfaction it will not cost you a cent.

Can anyone make you a fairer proposition? It will not cost you one cent to see the Tractor and implements do your farm work; to let us show you how to make more money; to meet the labor problem; to interest the young folks and keep them on the farm.

We have made this proposition to 41 farmers and not once has the Fordson fallen down. These 41 farmers are now satisfied Fordson owners, getting their crops in on time and making more money.

Do not delay—there will not be enough Fordsons to take care of the Fall work. Order yours today so you will not be disappointed.

FILL IN COUPON AND MAIL AT ONCE

ST. JOHN & TITUS, OLYMPIA, WASH.:
Please have your Fordson Expert call and make arrangements to show me a Fordson on my own farm.
Name..... Address.....
I Live on..... Road W. B.

St. JOHN & TITUS

FORDSON DEALERS

CENTRALIA

TENINO

OLYMPIA

at Dickson Bros. Co.
1120-1122 Pacific Ave.
TACOMA

A CUSTOMER

Asked why we never have Special Sales. Our answer to him is our answer to you and to everyone who might have this thought:
For the past three years the price tendency has been upward on all lines of merchandise. This being true, goods are worth more when they arrive than they were when bought at an earlier date and to put anything below a reasonable profit on them is absolutely foolish.
If we were going to have a sale we'd mark our goods about double their cost and then offer them at 25 or 33 per cent discount, which would net us a good big profit on every article sold.
Some people like to buy this way, feeling that they are doing better, but most men reason these matters out for themselves and they know that our statement as here made is true and that it can be proven any time by a fair comparison of prices.