Goings and Doings of People

O. R. Swayne, who lives out on the Puget Route, was in the city Tuesday.

J. W. Green and Geo. T. McCoy of this city went down to Portland the latter part of last week.

Judge R. B. Paton was up from Rochester last Saturday, looking after personal and legal matters.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Just, of the Olympic apartments, had for Sunday guests, their sons, Leslie and Harry, and families, of Seattle.

Wm. H. McGraw, a rancher living just north of Priest Point park, returned Friday from a business and pleasure visit east of the mountains.

W. P. Wotton, senior member of the firm of Wotton-McKinney went to Portland Wednesday, where he attended the automobile show.

J. D. McGuire was up from Tenino Tuesday. He reports the flu situation, which has been so bad in that little city, is greatly improved at present.

A. J. Snyder, of the Snyder Motor Car Co., sent several days in Portland this week, looking after business interests and attending the automobile show.

L. H. Hubbard, wife and son Jack, were here from Tenino Tuesday. Mr. Hubbard is cashier of the Tenino State bank, and is also one of Tenino's best boosters.

M. H. Flinn was a business visitor in Seattle Monday, but he denies most emphatically that his trip there was in any way connected with the meeting of the Democratic state central committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hildebrand, who formerly owned the Cafeteria, returned to Olympia the first of the week from an extended visit along the Columbia river. They expect to engage in some line of business here.

The George Schuler family this week moved to Toppenish, where they will make their future home. The Schulers have resided in Olympia for the past two years. Mr. Schuler was employed by the Sloan Corporation, acting as foreman of the ship ribs.

R. H. Goddard and family were in from their ranch west of Tenino Wednesday consulting with a veterinarian concerning a peculiar ailment of their dairy cows. Mr. Goddard has discarded his horses and buggy and has added a new model Ford to the general farm equipment.

Acquires Westside Home.
The Christensen family will no longer pay rent. This week Ernest Meeker sold to Annie Christensen a house and two lots located on the Westside.

Funeral of Mabel Erickson.
The funeral services of Mabel Erickson, who died Wednesday, were held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Sticklin chapel in Centralia. Rev. H. W. Thompson officiating. A short graveside service was held at the Grand Mound cemetery.

WOTTON-MCKINNEY DRAW 13
Studebaker Agency Gets President Wilson's Lucky Number for Dealers' License.

The number "13" is not going to bother Wotton-McKinney, the Thurston county Studebaker agency. This firm applied for 1920 dealers' license on Friday, February 13, and perhaps some joker in the secretary of state's office thought to test the superstition of the Wotton-McKinney firm and issued he number 13 for the dealers' license.

Wotton says that he considers the drawing of number 13 the luckiest stroke of business of any single instance in the many years he has been in the automobile business. "Just watch and see what that 13 does to Studebaker sales this year," says Bill. "That good old 13 is going to prove a winner for us."

FEDERAL TRUCKS

The motor truck is a practical business adjunct. Like any other piece of machinery, the motor truck must be an earning factor in business.

Ten years of successful truck building is back of every Federal sold.

Every Federal, from one to five-ton capacity, and including light and heavy tractors, is underrated as to capacity and strength. The long life resulting is one of the Federal's best assets.

Photographs or other literature applying especially to your business will be furnished on request.
