Save Part of Your Income

Do not delude yourself, let no one delude you, into the belief that the present era of high wages, with easy jobs; of high prices, with large and easy profits, can continue.

Every wage earner should at once commence to save part of his earnings for the inevitable rainy day.

Every business man should leave a good percentage of each year's profits in his business, for the inevitable lean years not far away.

Hand-Made Methods Put Lellys In The Lead

Although a slower process, hand-made methods are employed exclusively by the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company. Every fourth man is an inspector, and therefore every tire is a product that goes forth to uphold the strong standard set by these wonderful casings.

The Kant Slip, guaranteed 7,500 miles, proved to the entire United States last year that this was but the minimum mileage to be expected and gave an average of 12,000 miles.
