

Neighborhood NEWS

FAIRVIEW

Rev. and Mrs. Brandes and son of Olympia visited with Mr. and Mrs. Brash and family last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and children and Mrs. Hickman and Miss Minnie Brash spent Monday evening at the Luedecker home. Refreshments were served.

Emil Debils, who had partially recovered from an attack of influenza, became very seriously ill again and was taken to the Western Washington hospital at Setilacoom last Saturday. We sincerely hope he may soon regain his health.

George Lemley, Mrs. Luedecker and the latter's little son were visitors at the Vincent home in Little Rock last Monday.

John Hickman, who has been making his home with his father, left Saturday for Tacoma, where he will attend school.

Owing to so much sickness in our neighborhood the school is still closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and children drove to Olympia Sunday evening, where they attended the theater.

Mrs. Hickman, Miss Minnie Brash and the Messrs. Wise and Lyon spent Wednesday evening at the Benton home.

Mrs. Luedecker and son Harold called at the Bossuyt and Benton homes last Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Michaels of Mud Bay were Tuesday evening visitors at the Cooper home.

Mrs. Felhusen and son spent Tuesday in Olympia.

We are pleased to know that Miss Pearl Hickman has quite recovered from the influenza.

Mr. Wysbicki called on Mr. Luedecker Sunday morning.

Gas Jones was a visitor at the Cooper home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and family and Mr. and Mrs. Luedecker and son Edwin drove to Olympia Wednesday evening, where they attended the movies.

Mr. and Mrs. Brash and little grandson were visitors in Little Rock Thursday.

Mrs. Lockwood, son Sam and daughter Dorothy drove to Olympia Thursday.

COLLINDALE

Farmers are taking advantage of the good weather and rushing their spring seeding.

Mrs. C. H. Peterson called on

Grandma Spray Tuesday evening. Vern Spillman called on Charles Langford Wednesday morning. Mr. Spillman is secretary of the Burlington cannery and is contracting strawberry and raspberry plants for shipment to that place.

The Fancy Work club was entertained last Thursday by Meses. Kagy and Huchins at the Kagy home. There was a large attendance and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by those present.

Edgar Thomas is reported as slowly improving from his recent serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shuman of Fir Mere had as their guests March 17th, St. Patrick's Day, Dr. Warren H. Wilson of New York. Rev. A. B. Koller of Seattle, superintendent of home missions for the Presbyterian board, U. S. A., and Rev. W. M. Forsyth of the Freedom Community church. It was a surprise to the guests to find that not only was it St. Patrick's birthday, but it also was W. H. Shuman's. We wish you many happy returns of the day.

All of the people who turned out to hear Dr. Warren H. Wilson of New York speak at Collinsdale schoolhouse are exceedingly glad they did so. About 60 heard Dr. Wilson speak on the Community church, many expressing themselves as desirous of seeing the day when such a church will be in the neighborhood.

Rev. W. M. Forsyth will preach at Collinsdale Sunday morning, March 21st, at 11 o'clock. Subject, "Blind Eyes." It is hoped that Sunday school will be resumed next Sunday at 10 o'clock.

At the meeting held at the schoolhouse Wednesday afternoon it was decided to have "A Working Bee," the men agreeing to help clear off the grounds of the Freedom Community manse previous to beginning work on the building. The ladies decided to serve a warm lunch to the "bees."

SCHNEIDERS PRAIRIE

J. A. Morrow and daughter Gladys made a business trip to Olympia Saturday.

Elmer Jacobson is recovering from a severe attack of the flu.

Master Joe O'Hare and Clifford Morrow have purchased some new traps from St. Louis. They are going very strong in the trapping business.

Miss Agnes O'Hare of Olympia visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Hare, Sunday.

Mrs. John Meixner is spending a few days visiting friends and relatives in Olympia.

Miss Josie Whitney returned here Saturday from Orting, where she has been visiting friends for the last few weeks.

Charles Meixner is the owner of a new Ford touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. Page of Union Mills called on Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morrow Sunday.

G. Preston has bought a share in the Simmons & Pepper logging camp.

Tom Wynne, who is working at the state road camp, spent Saturday evening and Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wynne.

J. A. Morrow butchered a hog Monday evening.

Mrs. J. Weaver, who had an operation on her hand for a cancer, went to Olympia Monday to have it treated.

Ernest Weatherel and J. W. Weatherel called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morrow Monday evening.

J. M. Steele of Tacoma, who is the owner of the old Kelly farm, is making a great many improvements. He intends to erect new wire fences and new buildings. Harry O'Hare has rented and sowed 15 acres of grain on this farm. Also Joe Fredrick has taken the job of slashing a number of acres.

WEST FAIRVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Bozarth took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Barnes in Olympia Saturday.

Stillman Palms had the misfortune to have an accident with his new car Friday.

Mr. Wise called at the Brash home Sunday.

Mrs. Benton and daughter and granddaughter called on the Palms' Monday.

Mrs. Hickman and sister Minnie were Olympia visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bozarth and son Everett and Miss Dorothy Lockwood drove to Olympia Sunday to see the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and family drove out from Olympia to see Mrs. Snyder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Palms.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton and son Lester and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and daughter took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Bozarth Thursday evening.

Andy Palms took dinner with J. Benton's Monday.

We are all very sorry to hear that Emil Debils had to be taken to the asylum and hope he may soon be able to be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton and son Lester and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and baby drove to the show Sunday.

Sam Lockwood went to Olympia Friday for new parts for his car.

Mr. and Mrs. Feldhusen and son took dinner with Mrs. Wizlicki at Belmore Sunday.

We are all glad to welcome Mr. Lockwood home to stay now.

PUGET

There was quite a large crowd at the dance Saturday night. The storm did not scare them away, and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

I. D. Carpenter of Tacoma visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Larsen, for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Evans attended a lecture at the Christian Science church in Olympia.

Mrs. A. E. Larsen and son Perry, I. D. Carpenter and Mrs. Chambers visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Evans in Olympia Friday afternoon.

Mr. Doyle and S. J. Niemann were in Olympia last Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Chambers entertained Sunday with a chicken dinner. Covers were laid for Misses Mary and Dora Swayne, Edna Chambers; Messrs. George Bullard, Perry Larsen, Wendell Swayne and Neo Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. Chambers.

Mrs. O. I. Evans, daughter Wilma, Miss Estella Larsen, and Harry Larsen of Olympia attended the dance Saturday night and visited friends and relatives Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Bullard of Tacoma visited her parents a few days last week, returning home Monday, taking Mrs. O. I. Evans with her for a few days' visit.

Jesse Swayne visited home folks a few days last week.

Miss Jaquetha Swayne attended the dance on the Westside last Saturday.

BLACK RIVER VALLEY

Mrs. A. J. Gaisell was in Olympia Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Mrs. William Patten of Rochester and Grandma O'Toole visited at the home of Mrs. R. B. Parish Monday afternoon.

Bryce Harrison was up from Hoquiam Sunday in a new Dodge car.

Ashton Watson and wife are spending a few days in Moclips while he is laid up with an injured hand.

Mrs. Floyd Parish is assisting Mrs. Gaisell with the telephone books this week.

Rev. Hiden of Independence was in Gate on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Schultz spent the day with Mrs. O. Cross Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cross were trading in Oakville last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. McCreedy spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. R. B. Parish.

Mr. Peach of Olympia was a Gate visitor Wednesday.

R. H. Jones transacted business in Centralia Monday.

Mr. Maroni has purchased a lot from Steve Hodges which joins the one purchased from Mr. Spinner.

Eli Strahinja, the section foreman, has accepted a section in a healthier climate and has folded his tent like the Arab and silently stole away.

MUD BAY

Our representative, C. C. Aspinwall, has been in Olympia this week, on the appropriations committee of the legislature.

Mrs. Della Bennett and young son of Tacoma are visiting her mother, Mrs. Ellis Galligan.

An interesting and amusing sight on our roads this week is a little caterpillar drawing a big road grader.

Miss Norma La Monte, of Seattle, is visiting at Worth McInturf's.

Nine members of McLane Grange attended Pomona Grange at Butler's Cove Tuesday.

Moving pictures will be shown at the Grange hall Saturday and Sunday by a religious society.

SOUTH BAY

Friends were very much shocked at the sudden illness that befell G. W. Parse, when he was stricken with a severe attack of appendicitis and it was necessary to remove him to the hospital, where an operation was performed at once. He is improving as well as could be expected, considering the conditions found to exist.

Miss Georgia Clark returned from her home in Bellingham, after being absent on account of illness. She is able to resume her duties as teacher.

Mrs. Moore from Seattle visited her son, Fred Moore, and family Saturday night and over Sunday.

Vern Parse, from Tacoma, called at the George Parse home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vanderveer and son of Olympia called at the Hannaford home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Robbins is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Stearns drove to Tacoma Sunday and spent the day.

Mrs. Ed Cramp of Pleasant Glade called on Mrs. P. A. Robbins at the Hannaford home Monday.

Miss Boone, with several of the ladies of South Bay, met at the G. E. Stearns home Thursday, to put on the millinery work. There will be another meeting Friday, March 19, at the same place and for the same purpose.

The mill at South Bay, having been shut down for several days, was ready for operation Thursday.

HOPP, MONTANA

School will open the 15th with Miss Agnes Hoyer as teacher.

Harold Markham, who has been attending school in Big Sandy all winter, came home last week. He expects to finish his grade at the Hopp school this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman are moving from the Weller ranch to their own home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown visited

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rutledge last Sunday.

Walter Waddle was a business visitor to Big Sandy the first of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rutledge have moved from the Reader ranch to their own home at Hopp.

L. M. Rutledge was a Big Sandy visitor last Thursday.

BRIGHTON PARK

Brighton Park Grange No. 163 held their regular meeting Friday evening. A number of applications for membership were received. A class of 40 will be initiated the first meeting in April. Visitors from McLane and Alert Granges were present.

Fred W. Lewis was mail carrier this week in place of Mr. Hopp, on Route 4.

The Tumwater P. T. A. held its regular meeting the 17th. The hot soup which was served the children has been discontinued until next winter, so now is a good time to boost for hot soup for next winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Dent spent Saturday and Sunday in Tacoma, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mulholland and Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Mulholland.

Several from here attended Pomona Grange meeting at Alert Grange Tuesday.

Continued on Page Five.

Jewelry Adds Charm to the Toilet

The gems or articles need not be excessively costly.

If they are well set, perfectly made, chosen in good taste, they will add greatly to the charm of the wearer.

We make a specialty of exquisite personal jewelry, and take pleasure in showing our line to ladies who appreciate exclusive effects.

OLDEST JEWELRY HOUSE IN STATE
Talcott Bros.
JEWELERS & OPTICIANS
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

New Voiles for Smart Frocks

Voiles are taking a very prominent part in the pretty fabrics that will be shown for Spring and Summer blouses, smocks and dresses. They are shown in bright colorings, developed in floral effects, colorful spray designs and large futurist effects.

YARD 59c TO $2.25

40-Inch Fancy Georgettes

that will tempt the woman who admires pretty blouses and smocks. These are shown in beautiful colorings, developed of large floral designs that will be appreciated for designing the new gown.

YARD, $4.75

33-Inch Imported Jap Pongee

Many pretty dresses and blouses will be featured of pongee for this season's wear. Its adaptability for hard service and easily laundering makes this fabric very popular.

YARD, $1.25 TO $3.00

Feist & Bachrach

408 Main Street

Olympia

STRAND THEATER

EXTRA! EXTRA!

The Hobo Singer

WILL APPEAR FOR ONE WEEK STARTING TODAY

Also

TOM MIX
3 Days, Starting
SUNDAY, MARCH 21
Matinees Daily

25c

11c

JIM GORDON, HOBO STREET SINGER,

who was arrested by the police for street singing and rescued by Manager C. P. Marvin, of the Strand Theater, who secured his release in order that he might give the audiences at the Strand Theater a treat. Gordon has a splendid baritone voice.

RAY THEATRE THE HOUSE OF QUALITY

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY MARCH 19-20

SHIRLEY MASON

in

"HER ELEPHANT MAN"

Also "Star Boarder," Mack Bennett comedy.

SUNDAY ONLY MARCH 21

"UNDERCURRENT"

Special Feature in Six Parts.

"Footlight Maids," Sunshine comedy.

And a Mutt & Jeff.

MONDAY NIGHT, MARCH 22

ANDERSON MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY

16-PEOPLE-16

Two shows, 7:30 and 9:00 Adults, 50c Children, 25c

TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY

HERALD LLOYD

in His Million-Dollar Picture,

"BUMPING INTO BROADWAY"

Also "Cinema Murder," Paramount picture.