

Neighborhood NEWS

SOUTH BAY

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sylvester and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Turner and son drove to Hood's canal Sunday, returning Monday. They were accompanied home by Mrs. B. W. Bickle and children, who are visiting relative on South bay for a week.

Mrs. Woodward spent Tuesday afternoon with her daughter, Mrs. Hudson.

The Arthur Calvin family spent Sunday and Monday with relatives at Toledo.

Ed Turner and family from North Bend and Mrs. Ben Balch and family from Tenino are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hannaford, Mr. and Mrs. James Vanderveer, Mr. and Mrs. Will Teets, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Teets from Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Reed and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Manley Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Will Baker all drove to Centralia Monday and took in the Round-Up. Everybody returned home safely, reporting a good program.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parse and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Toyne and daughter from New Ramer, Col., took in the races at Tacoma Monday, also the evening program at the Stadium.

Mrs. Darrel Teets and daughter returned home from Auburn Tuesday, after visiting her mother, Mrs. Williams, of that place for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Madden and baby spent their fourth vacation visiting the former's and latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Madden and Mr. and Mrs. Pickett.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Moe and wife from Auburn are visiting their sister Mrs. Will Teets and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Olson and father and mother, of St. Cloud, Minn., Tuesday afternoon. The visitors were en route to California.

Mrs. Emil Whittaker and son left for Spokane Thursday, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rose, for some time. She was accompanied home by her brother, Floyd Rose, who will visit there a week or 10 days.

John Camper left Thursday for Ellensburg, where he expects to seek work in the harvest fields.

Mrs. Nettie Gray, who has been confined to the Western Washington hospital, near Tacoma, was able to be brought home to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barnhart, a few days. She returned to the hospital Monday to receive further treatment.

Ed Shince has purchased his old place from Mr. Axtell, who formerly lived on South Bay.

Mr. Shaser, who owns the little mill, has purchased the Marcot Motor Company garage and taken possession.

F. A. Warner is driving a brand new Chevrolet he recently purchased.

Mrs. F. Hannaford entertained at supper Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robbins and family, Miss Doris Bigelow from Nampa, Idaho, and Mrs. P. A. Robbins. The occasion was Fred Robbins' birthday.

A party consisting of 41 in all gathered at the beach of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robbins at Hunter's Point and spent the Fourth of July at that place. The day was spent in foot racing, tug-of-war, swimming, with plenty of good eats. Those present were Messrs. H. R. Dodge, J. R. Dodge, J. Vanderveer, M. Husk, D. C. Robbins, C. H. Robbins Sr., C. H. Robbins Jr., J. F. Robbins, A. R. Thornton, Will Hawson, Leslie Pugh, and their families, Mrs. Johnson of Seattle, and the Hannafords. Everybody reported a fine time.

There will be an open meeting held at South Bay Grange hall Saturday evening, July 10. A good program is promised, after which ice cream will be served. Everybody welcome.

HOPP, MONTANA

Miss Jennie Weller and Mrs. Fred Lehman were Big Sandy visitors last Wednesday.

Miss Agnes Lohse visited her sister, Mrs. Forrest Rutledge, several days last week.

Harold Brown killed a big rattlesnake Monday. He discovered it among the corn where he was hoeing.

A heavy rain fell Wednesday, the 7th, which was greatly needed. Winter wheat and early spring grain will be an assured crop.

Everyone for miles around attend-

RAY THEATRE THE HOUSE OF QUALITY

TONIGHT—TOMORROW Matinee Tomorrow 2:30

THE POPULAR ANDERSON MUSICAL COMEDY CO. The Best in the West

FRIDAY NIGHT

Presenting "PEACHES"

SATURDAY—MATINEE AND NIGHT

Presenting "OH, BY JINGO!" You Can't Go Wrong. Two Shows, 7 and 9.

SUNDAY ONLY

CONSTANCE BINNEY in "THE STOLEN KISS"

Six thousand feet of loveliness, some scenes more than others. Come—you'll see why.

Also Mutt & Jeff Cartoon. And Topics of the Day.

MONDAY NIGHT

DON GRAY STOCK CO. Presents "THE THREE OF US"

A Western Comedy Drama. Reserved seats now on sale at the Bookstore. Prices: 25c, 50c and 75c.

ed the picnic Saturday, the 3rd. The crowd came in wagons, hacks, buggies, on horseback and in automobiles. There were foot races, horse races, bucking contests, and numerous other stunts performed. Bill Smith's old racing mare won the first race and Herbert Weller's riding mare Pansy won in the third race. Other winners' names were not learned. The celebration ended with a dance in the evening.

Mrs. Velma Hull and daughters of Pe Ell, Wash., visited several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weller.

Mrs. Beulah Hendershot of Havre spent the Fourth with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Dan Sturdevant had the misfortune to fall from a wagon one day last week. She was severely shaken up but no bones were broken and she expects to be about in a few days.

Mr. McCloud passed away at his home Saturday. The old gentleman had been in poor health for some time and his death was not unexpected. The remains will be taken to Butte, his former home.

School closed Tuesday for a six weeks' vacation.

BLACK RIVER VALLEY

Ashton Watson and wife of Marytown, celebrated with their parents Sunday and Monday, returning home Tuesday morning.

George Hodges and his brother, John, spent several days at Hood's canal fishing.

George Mitchell, an old-time resident of Gate, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Enright in Tacoma last Friday morning and was buried in Tacoma Monday morning.

Those who partook of the dinner and ice cream supper Sunday the 4th with Mrs. Ed Cross were William Roles and family, Mrs. Greathouse and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Gates and son Arthur and daughter Myrtle, also James Walker.

Mrs. Melvin Pilcher entertained several relatives from Port Orchard Saturday and Sunday.

Floyd Parish and family are camping at Black Lake this week. They went prepared to bring home enough bass for a winter's supply of Friday's meat.

O. Cross sold his race horse to Johnnie Benn and last Monday went to Elma to see her in the races. He came home feeling jubilant, as the little mare won the race by three goes a long way to insure Summer comfort. We are, as usual, prepared to assist you to secure that comfort and ease so essential on a hot day.

Summer Wearing Apparel

Special prices prevail on— MEN'S, BOYS, WOMEN'S AND MISSES' STRAW HATS. SUITS FOR MEN, WOMEN, BOYS AND GIRLS. SUMMER UNDERWEAR FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY. SUMMER NEEDS FOR THE BATHER.

BATHING SUITS, CAPS, AND ALL THE NECESSITIES FOR BEACH WEAR.

And we don't slight any member of the family. HOSIERY, the cool Lisle or Silk. Just what you have been looking for to combat the hot weather. Here again we quote special prices. Here again we include every member of the family—Socks or Hose for all. A BIG SPECIAL in plain and fancy Silks. Values to $3.50; while they last, per yard.....$1.98

Mottman's

THE STORE WHERE YOU CAN ALWAYS DO BETTER

lengths and could have done better.

Several from our town attended the round-up in Centralia Monday

Mr. Fisher and wife and Ralph Parish and wife drove to Tacoma Monday to see the automobile races. They report a big crowd and of course had a good time in general.

Will Roles started Monday morning for Anacortes, where he has an interest in a sawmill. The family will go next week.

Professor Croy arrived in Gate Monday evening. He will stay in Gate at the home of A. M. Kneeland until time to take up his duties as principal at Eatonville high school.

O. Cross has been doing cabinet work at the Jones restaurant but returned Tuesday to the Independence logging camp, where he has been employed as carpenter for several months.

Fulton Dailey and wife arrived in him home town Sunday to visit this week with his mother, Mrs. Eshom.

Mr. Jackson is still selling strawberries, but says the dry hot weather has cut the crop short more than half.

MICHELIN UNIVERSAL CORD

Michelins in all sizes are made in one quality only.

THE BEST

Just give Michelins a trial. We are prepared to be judged by your experience.

Capital Motors Corporation 315-317 Main Street

TWENTY-ONE BIG EVENTS

Just One Good Thing After Another

Chautauqua brings seven days of wholesome entertainment, splendid lectures and inspiring music. Twenty-one different attractions—all at a price so low as to appear almost unbelievable in these days of "sky-the-limit" costs. Two dollars and fifty cents buys a season ticket admitting to every program of the week. High school students $1.50, children's tickets $1.00. Below are a few of the feature events.

An Evening in The South Seas

Native Maori Singers presented by Ellison White for the first time in America. Illustrated lecture on New Zealand by Leila M. Blomfield.

1 Play—"Kindling" 10 Splendid Lectures 10 Musical Programs 21 "COUNT 'EM"

Royal Welsh Lady Singers

Noted ladies' choir from Wales. Great Britain, under personal direction of Madame Hughes-Thomas. Two concerts on third day.

Mary Adel Hays

Return engagement of prominent New York soprano. Mary Adel Hays possesses one of the finest coloratura voices in Chautauqua world.

"Kindling"

Splendid production of Charles Kenyon's metropolitan success by the Maurice Browne Players. A powerful play admirably presented.

Alaskan Duo

Lona Laska, native Alaskan soprano, and Huldah Voedisch. A duo that will surprise and delight all music-lovers.

Judge F. G. Bale

One of the country's foremost lecturers. Formerly of the Juvenile Court, Columbus, Ohio. Hear Judge Bale by all means.

The Parnells

Two of the cleverest musical entertainers on the platform. They will "strike twelve" with you in two programs the sixth day.

Raul Pereira

Prominent Portuguese violinist, formerly Court Violinist, and his splendid string quintet. Two Concerts—Fourth Day.

Olympia July 10 to 16

REX
25c
11c

TODAY AND TOMORROW
SHELDON LEWIS
in
"DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE"
Robert Louis Stevenson's most famous character story brought to the screen with a happy ending.
"The Strikebreaker," comedy.

SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY
An All-Star Cast, Presented in Augustus Thomas' Famous Play, "RIO GRANDE"
A real story of the southwest—the sort of story that you see about once a year, but wish you could see oftener.

Strand
Friday & Saturday

"THE PATH SHE CHOSE"
A Real Life Picture With a Punch in it, Featuring ANN CORNWALL
Also a riot of laughter, "Don't Chase Your Wife."

COMING—SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY
HARRY CAREY in "SQUARE SHOOTERS"
Matinees Daily
Adults 25c Children 11c