Another Good Time.

At the Brighton Park Grange hall, Saturday evening will be held another of those entertainments and box socials that they are holding to help get a lighting system for the hall.

The feature of this entertainment will be that the boxes are being brought by the men, and the women have to do the bidding and pay for them, instead of letting the men do it as always before.

There has been quite a good many state, that if we wanted to make money we had better change our system, but if we were young or old men, and wanted some certain person to buy our basket, we would give that person, lady or girl, the money we would naturally spend for their basket and let her buy it. Of course if we didn't have any choice we would just let it go, for there will be enough girls and women to buy them.

It certainly is funny that a woman doesn't have a share in spending the money that is earned by the other member of the family. We have heard of some girls that are saving their money so they can buy the basket they want instead of letting a boy or man give them the money for it.

Well, anyway, if you want to have a lot of fun just drop out and we will try and keep you entertained. There is a very good program arranged so it will be worth your while even though you don't dance, to come and hear it.

Everybody is welcome so let the men folks get those baskets ready and bring them and let the women see if they can't do just as good a job of bidding on them as the men think they can.

GENIUS MAKES WILSON LONELY

the echo of the applause still ringing in my ears.

Sincere Hatred of War.
"For a while he sat silent and pale in the cabinet room. At last he said, 'Think what it was they were applauding. It means death for our young men. How strange it seems to applaud that.'

"My friends, that simple remark is one key to an understanding of Woodrow Wilson. All politicians pretend to hate and dread war, but Woodrow Wilson really hates and dreads it in all of the fibres of his human soul."

Tumulty told how the president communicated with Secretaries Baker and Daniels in 1913 about the situation in Mexico, saying:

"After the situation had been stated over the telephone, the voice came back clear and firm, 'Order Admiral Mayo to take Vera Cruz at once.' I was on the telephone at the time and listened to the conversation between the president and Secretaries Baker and Daniels. Before I cut off the connection I said a word to the president about the tragedy of it all. But his voice responded, no longer clear, but muffled, as when one chokes back a sob, 'What do you think of it, Tumulty? It means death. It breaks my heart, but it must be done.'

Changed In Three Years

The president signified his intention of taking part in a procession when the bodies of the marines killed at Vera Cruz were brought to New York. Secret service operatives asked him not to participate in the march, because reports had come that an attempt would be made on his life. Tumulty said of this:

"His answer was a curt refusal to comply with the suggestion. One undertook to argue with him, saying, 'You will show all proper respect by appearing in the reviewing stand. The country cannot afford to lose its president.' His reply was, 'The country cannot afford to have a coward for president.' This was his brief and final answer. He rode in the procession."

Vindication of the president will come, Tumulty declared.

"Two pictures are in my mind," he said. "First, the hall of representatives, crowded from floor to gallery with expectant throngs. Presently it is announced that the president of the United States will address congress. There steps out to the speaker's desk a straight, vigorous, slender, active and alert man. He is 60 years of age, but looks not more than 45, so lithe of limb, so alert of bearing, so virile. It is Woodrow Wilson reading his great war message.

$---1,200,000---$

The Carlyon Bill—Referendum No. 1

Mr. Taxpayer of Thurston County, this is what Referendum No. 1 will do for you

The state will pay back to Thurston county $400,000 advanced to the state from Thurston county bond issue for paving state roads in this county. (Read Section 11 of the bill.)

The state will pave for you 31 miles more of state roads in this county at an estimated cost of $800,000, from motor vehicle license fees. WITHOUT ONE CENT OF TAXATION.

Referendum No. 1 provides, WITHOUT TAXATION, the means for paving the balance of the state roads passing through Thurston county.

If this bill fails, your representatives in the legislature must each session fight for appropriations to pave a few miles a year on the "pay as we go" plan.

If this bill fails, the property of Thurston county must be taxed each year for revenues with which to pay off the road bonds already issued, amounting to about $400,000.

The Carlyon bill is a state aid bill. The large industrial centers, thickly populated and having large numbers of machines help the small, sparsely settle counties to pave the state roads in the farming counties.

Upon what line of reasoning could any voter of Thurston county support the opposition in trying to defeat this bill which will delay the paving of these state roads many years and continue a tax levy to be made in this county to pay off the $400,000 of bonds issued.

YOU MUST DECIDE

A VOTE FOR THE BILL means getting the roads paved now and saving $400,000 in taxation to the taxpayers of Thurston county.

A VOTE AGAINST THE BILL means many years of delay in getting the roads paved and a 2-mill tax levy for about 18 years to pay off the $400,000 of bonds outstanding against Thurston county.
