For Holiday Time

An unusually pretty breakfast cap is here offered as a suggestion for a gift. It is a spirited model made of taffeta silk and almost covered with crisp, plaited frills of taffeta ribbon. Such a cap requires a crinoline support and a lining of thin silk.

Holiday Red and Green

This Christmas candle shade is made of red and green crepe paper and decorated at the top with a spray of holly and holly berries. The paper is cut in petals, the under ones in red and the outside ones in green.

For Holding Pins

The baby will be served and his mother delighted at Christmas time with little gifts convenient for holding safety pins. A doll and a basket are shown in the picture each suspended by ribbons for hanging them. Little rings attached to the feet, hands and belt of the doll accommodate pins of several sizes. There are assorted pins in the basket.

To Welcome the Baby

Two lovely gifts, with which to welcome the stork, are suggested. They are a little cap of georgette crepe and a silk-lined and ribbon-frilled basket containing everything the baby needs for his toilette.

SUITS WITH SHORT COATS

In this suit a plaited skirt and short, straight jacket bear one another company in an ingenious adaptation of French modes to an American street suit. Any one will concede its good style and other good points, especially when the embroidered motifs on the short coat are under consideration. They appear at the front and back and on the sleeves, and the designer has gone so far as to make a special place for them by placing them against points cut in the material. A pretty satin girdle goes with that skirt, its ends supporting very handsome silk tassels and ornaments.

HELPFUL SEPARATE SKIRT

Everyone thinks well of the separate skirt but the business woman, more even than others, has reason to be its devoted admirer. By means of a skirt or so, and a generous supply of blouses and smocks, she is able to give the spice of variety to her daily garb and to tone up her toilette to almost any requirement the day may hold.

In wool fabrics the plaid, stripe, and barred patterns have provided for great numbers of separate skirts, but plain materials have not been wholly neglected. A handsome model for such a skirt appears in the box-plated design shown above.

CABERET SUPPER DANCE

ENLIVEN MASONIC TEMPLE

A most enjoyable affair was the cabaret supper dance given Tuesday evening at the Masonic Temple by the members of the Men's Club of St. John's church. About 150 persons were seated for the supper which was served at six long tables decorated with sprigs of holly and white candles. A program was presented during the supper consisting of a violin solo by Walter Whiting; two novelty sketches by Bert Goodfellow and Walter Hodge and a novelty shadow performance presented by A. L. Strock and William Strock.

At 9:30 the floor was cleared and the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing. The program was in charge of Merritt McCully. The kitchen committee consisted of J. D. Mansfield, John Dalquest, Charles Simpson, Linus Brewer and F. C. Mercy. Decorations were in charge of Glen A. T. Powell while H. L. Whiting had charge of the waiters. Those who served were S. Raymond, Holcomb, Fred Cook, Harry Wortman, C. L. Shuff, Edward C. Dohm, Ted Goodfellow, Walter Hodge and James Davies.

THREE STATE TEACHERS GET STATE CERTIFICATES

Three Thurston county teachers were granted certificates at the November state teacher's examinations, according to Mrs. Rose Fowler, head of the certification department of the state superintendent of public instruction's office.

The certificates were granted after the state board of examiners met at the state house for eight days. The November examination was the smallest handled by the board in some time. The board is composed of Miss Adelaide Pollock of Seattle, Miss L. L. West of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blankenship, Mrs. Hester Brown and Mrs. Birdie Longaker of Olympia.
