

Neighborhood NEWS

HOPP, MONTANA

Mrs. B. A. Hendershot visited Mrs. R. R. Weller last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Berg and children left last week for their old home in Wisconsin for a family reunion.

Mrs. Lester Bond and children have gone East to spend the remainder of the winter.

We are still having fine weather, although the ground is frozen enough to prevent farming operations.

Mrs. Walter Waddle has gone to Whitefish to be with Mr. Waddle, who is employed near that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman are living near Whitefish, where Mr. Lehman has a contract to fall timber.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rutledge and son Lester and daughter Veva were dinner guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown.

Mr. Magnuson of Big Sandy was in this vicinity several days ago, securing oil leases for the Kootenai Oil company. The company say they will be drilling for oil by the first of May.

Herbert Weller drove to Big Sandy Monday.

Montana crops of apples and potatoes are much larger yields than last year and the corn crop is largest in history, with a fair yield of other grains. But even so there are families in some parts of northern Montana who are in want. Cutworm and drought have destroyed their crops and they are left without anything. Truly, one-half the world knows not how the other half lives.

FUJET

Mrs. M. J. Doyle, who has been ill for some time is able to be about.

John Lister went over to Tacoma Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Evans are making a long stay in Olympia, at their son's, O. I. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. William Forster of Olympia called at Sunny Beach farm Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Whitman, Sam Striker and Earl Lister had a narrow escape from being wrecked Friday, when they were on their way to Olympia in Mr. Whitman's launch. In a storm the engine refused to run and they drifted up North Bay before they were rescued by a launch, which towed them home. They were all chilled from being out so long and were glad to get home.

Walter McCabe returned Sunday from the Black Hills, where he was working in a logging camp.

Captain Thomas went over to Seattle on business Monday and also visited old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Boltinghouse were calling on relatives here Sunday.

MAYTOWN

George Shelley and family, the Wases Turner and Cope and Mrs. Ferguson were in Olympia over the week-end shopping.

Mrs. James Hunter of Canada is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hoag.

Mrs. Hoag and daughter Marion spent the week-end in Tacoma.

Mrs. James unstone, who has been ill, is convalescent.

Rebecca Walker has returned from Olympia, where she has been under the doctor's care.

Thomas Reeder of Montana is visiting his brother, Joe Reeder.

Mrs. A. E. Hendershot of Aberdeen is spending Christmas with her mother, Mrs. A. Townshend.

Charles Shelley is quite sick with quinsy.

Mr. Reder and family attended the recital given at Oakville last Saturday night. Bernard and Clessie both played.

Miss Neilson, the Maytown music teacher, made her last trip to Maytown this week until after the Christmas holidays.

BRIGHTON PARK

The Ladies Club met at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gerth on Thursday. There were eighteen members present. A fine program was rendered and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Seward.

Mrs. W. C. Neuman has moved back to the ranch.

A. G. West was out with the grader on the main highway last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Lewis had as their guests at dinner Thursday evening Mr. H. F. Giles, Mr. Sigurdson of Seattle, Mr. Martin Erskine, and Mrs. Dora Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ferguson of Skookumchuck were business callers last Wednesday morning at the secretary of the State Granges office.

Mr. William G. Kimsey was an Olympia visitor last Wednesday.

Arthur Jones jr. who was injured by the explosion of a gasoline tank, is doing fine at St. Peters Hospital. He expects to be removed to his home soon.

W. J. Davison was shopping in Olympia Thursday.

FAIRVIEW

In the issue of the Standard of November 30 portions of the seventh, eighth, and ninth items became consolidated through typographical error. The three items should have read:

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Cooper visited Sunday evening at the Berg home.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick of Olympia called on the Lockwood family Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Lockwood accompanied Mrs. Howard Lockwood to her home in Tacoma on Sunday and will visit a day or two.

BLACK RIVER VALLEY

Professor Drew of Centralia was in Gate Wednesday calling on old friends and visiting the Gate schools. Mr. Drew was formerly principal in the Gate school.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlegal and family and Mrs. Ed Cross started by auto for Anacortes last Wednesday to be gone several weeks. While gone they will visit at the home of Mrs. Will Roles. Coming home they will stop at Auburn to visit Harold Cross who is attending school at that place.

Calis Heck and wife are staying with the former's mother while the father is attending court this week.

Mrs. L. Willett will start for Portland Friday to see her son John Watson who has been sick for several weeks.

Frank Pitcher of Cedarville was in Gate several days last week visiting his parents.

Miss Gatha Stubbs is now acting as waitress at the Jones Hotel.

James Walker came home from camp Tuesday saying snow was too deep to continue logging.

Miss Graham is in Gate this week holding meetings each evening in the union church. On account of the bad weather the attendance has not been large. Miss Graham is a splendid speaker and the people of Gate appreciate her work.

A. J. Gaisel is in Rochester this week superintending the auditing of the telephone books. Mr. Gaisel is unable to use his hands to any great advantage but his brain is active and we are glad to see him back on the force. He will leave for California soon.

O. Cross is doing cabinet work for the Eubank Mercantile Company this week.

Several ladies from Gate were invited to the home of Mrs. J. Smith last Wednesday to partake of chicken dinner. For pastime the ladies tied out three comforters for the hostess. Mrs. Smith's son Harry of Camp Lewis was home and furnished some splendid music on the phonograph.

All went home voting the Smith's very pleasant people and wishing the family a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

The chautauqua is now on at Rochester. A splendid program is reported and a full house each night.

Alta Parish is doing dress making for the A. M. Kneeland family this week.

Ed Cross and Mr. Hagloc attended a registered Holstein cattle sale in Chehalis last Thursday.

SOUTH UNION

The party given at the church Saturday evening was a success in every way. Everyone had a pleasant evening.

Miss Marie Huey of Winemear, N. D., spent several days with her uncle, W. K. Ball, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Abbott were visitors in Olympia one day last week.

Volney Baker spent Sunday with W. K. Ball and family.

Sunday school at the South Union Church every Sunday at 2:30. Everyone cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Red spent Sunday in Carbonado.

Arch Randall was at home over the week-end.

John Gunstone made several business trip to Tacoma last week.

MISS BESS CROMBIE GIVES PIANO RECITAL

A piano recital will be given on Friday and Saturday of this week by the pupils of Miss Bess Crombie at her home on Tenth and Washington streets. This will be the third and fourth of a series of pupils recitals to be given this winter by Miss Crombie. The first recital will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at which time seven boys will play. They are Norman Funk, Tom Allen, Buren McGee, Howard Bolster, Carrol Shuff, Edmund Cook and Harold Meyer. The second recital will be given Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the following pupils playing, Verbena Hinkleman, Helen Hollingsworth, Lea Tweddle, Marion Coraell, Marie Mekkes, Marie Willey, Ruby Goodpasture, Clarice Jones, Ruth Reynolds, Louise Douglas, Leona Rantf, Hope Bolender, Dorothy Cook.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

The Olympia Business and Professional Women's club composed of business women of the city and a large number of women and girls employed in the state house, met last evening at the Chamber of Commerce for their regular business meeting and annual election.

Miss Edna Cagwin was elected president for the coming year, Miss Helen Leghorn, vice-president, Mrs. Pearl Kelly, secretary, Mrs. Holliman, corresponding secretary and Mrs. J. C. Barnes, treasurer.

Walter M. Olive, of Manson, on Lake Chelan, visited with his sister, Mrs. Marvin Chase, and family in this city yesterday.

A pretty wedding was consummated at the Christian Church parsonage, December 11, when Miss Jennie Weed became the wife of Charles M. Stubblefield of Seattle. A few of their friends were present, who drove

Our Store Teeming With Holiday Bargains

Santa Claus is in evidence at every turn. Our stock is varied and replete with wearing apparel for every member of the family. A few suggestions:

For Men and Boys

- | | | |
|------------|------------|--------------------|
| SWEATERS | HOSIERY | SHIRTS |
| MACKINAW | UNDERWEAR | GLOVES |
| HATS, CAPS | BATH ROBES | GARTERS |
| UMBRELLAS | NECKTIES | HANDKERCHIEFS |
| SHOES | BELTS | OVERCOATS and SUIT |
| SLIPPERS | COLLARS | SUSPENDERS |

For Ladies and Misses

- | | |
|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| SILK and LISLE HOSE | FANCY CHINA and TABLEWARE |
| KID, SILK, FABRIC GLOVES | HATS |
| SILK NEGLIGEE | TAM O' SHANTERS |
| NECKWEAR | TOWELS |
| BLOUSES | GINGHAMS |
| WAISTS | PERCALES |
| BATH ROBES | APRONS |
| BLANKETS | PURSES |
| TABLE LINENS | LACES |
| SCARFS | RIBBONS |
| SWEATERS | TRUNKS |
| DRESS GOODS | VALISES |
| SILKS, VELVETS | FUR COATS and COLLARS |
| HANDKERCHIEFS | |

DON'T FORGET TOYLAND

A splendid array to please the little tots, and those not so little. You haven't seen toys until you see our line.

Mottman's

"Where You Can Always Do Better"

The Shriner's Club will entertain with a large dance New Year's Eve at the Masonic Temple. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event which promises to be a most enjoyable affair.

We want you to come down and look our stock over before buying your Christmas Candies NUTS, AND EXTRAS for your table during the holidays.

- Soft shelled Walnuts, lb. 35c
- Soft shelled Almonds, lb. 35c
- Cream mixed candy, lb. 35c
- Cream mixed candy, lb. 40c
- Chocolates, lb. 50c to 60c
- Plain mixes, lb. 30c to 40c
- Layer raisins, lb. 35c 3lbs $1
- Bakery Goods, Cakes, Fruit cake, Angel cake, Layer cake, Loaf cake, Cookies, Doughnuts and Macaroons.

We Want Your Business.

BARNES & BOWEN

The Reliable Grocers and Bakers

Phones 47, 48 and 49

Meat is Coming Down

How Are These Prices on

PORK

- Shoulder Pork 22 1/2c
- Side Pork 22 1/2c
- Pig Head 12 1/2c
- Steer Pot Roast 15c
- Steer Boiling Beef 12 1/2c
- Liberty Steak 20c
- Any Steak 25c
- Leg Mutton 22c
- Shoulder Mutton 18c
- Stew Mutton 15c
- Best Bacon 40c
- California Bacon, heavy. 23c
- California Bacon, light. 25c
- Carstens' Best Ham, half and whole 35c
- Picnic Ham 23c
- Dry Salt Pork 23c
- Hamburger and Sausage. 20c
- Calf Brains 15c
- Fresh Tripe 15c

Olympia Cash Market

210 W. FOURTH ST.

RAY Friday
Saturday

MAURICE TOURNEUR in

"DEEP WATERS"

Also Monkey Comedy and Paramount Magazine.

SUNDAY, MONDAY
Billy Burke in

"THE FRISKY MRS. JOHNSON"

Comedy and Topics.

25c MATINEES 11c
35c NIGHTS 11c

CHILDREN'S XMAS MATINEE SATURDAY, 2:30
All children attending will receive a present.

Rex Friday
Saturday

SHIRLEY MASON
Starring in

"THE LITTLE WANDERER"

and
Christie Comedy.

SUNDAY, MONDAY,
TUESDAY

7-Reel Submarine Feature

"BELOW THE SURFACE"

- And Good Comedy.

25c MATS., SAT., SUN. 11c
30c NIGHTS 11c