

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

TEA BEAUTIFUL AFFAIR

Beautiful in all appointments was the charming tea given yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock by Miss Mary Owings, complimenting her house guests, Miss Mildred Whitham of Los Angeles and Miss Presley Ellis of Tacoma at the Owings residence in Main street. Miss Owings was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Frank Owings.

The rooms were attractively decorated with a profusion of autumn leaves and vine maple. In the living room, the fireplace was banked with red vine maple leaves, while bowls of goldenglow were used throughout, adding to the autumn decorative scheme. The tea table was centered with a large artistic bowl of nasturtiums and greenery.

Mrs. John Pierce and Mrs. Arthur Marion presided over the table from 4 to 5 o'clock and Mrs. F. J. Phillips and Mrs. Richard Burford presided from 5 to 6 o'clock. Assisting throughout the rooms were Mrs. John Dunbar and Mrs. George Benson. Little Virginia Rowe, in a frock of blue organdie, received the cards at the door.

During the afternoon musical selections were given by Miss Virginia Kuhns, Miss Rhea Billings from Tacoma and Mrs. W. F. McMahon of Auburn.

About 100 guests were bidden to meet Miss Whitham, who is to enter the University of Washington this fall, and to say farewell to Miss Ellis, who leaves soon for Poughkeepsie, where she will enter Putnam hall.

The guest list includes Mmes. C. J. Lord, M. J. Shaw, T. N. Allen, S. Raymond Holcomb, H. C. Heermans, Mitchell Harris, Charles McCleary, A. C. Baker, B. H. Allen, George Draham, R. P. McNulta, G. A. Rose, W. L. Bridgford, Kenneth Macintosh, Frank Kenney, Fred Boardman, Lyman, Kenneth Wilson, John Dunbar, George Benson, F. J. Phillips, Richard Burford, Arthur Marion, and the Misses Mildred Mumby, Ruth Peters, Evelyn Chambers, Gerorgette Fuller, Marian Troy Virginia Kuhns, Lucille McKinney, Willa Carnesow, Katherine Partlow, Janet Kenney, Anna Mumby, Grace Kenney, Angela Boardman, Grace Kenney, Helen Eagle, Marjory Holcomb, Gladys Holcomb, Gladys Holcomb, Emma Muench, Maxine Holcomb, Leota Otis, Irene Springer, Dorothy Rose, Frances Lamborn, Frances Whiting, Miriam Elwell, Margaret Ouellette, Louise Thompson, Anna Springer, Alice Springer, Doris Hall, Helen Lord, Carol Ingham, Beatrice Kearney, Ella Hart, all of Olympia.

Mrs. Charles Dodds of San Francisco, Miss Jane Hampton of Salt Lake City, Mrs. W. F. McMahon of Auburn and Miss Marguerite Luan of Auburn, Mrs. O. G. Ellis, Miss Lucille Mackay, Miss Betty Kellogg, Miss Mary Boardman, Miss Rhea Billings, Miss Helen Daponte, Miss Bernice Daponte, all of Tacoma.

Miss Virginia Jefferson, Miss Helen Lewis, Miss Wynne Bragdon, Miss Emma Calhoun, Miss Catherine Calhoun and Mrs. Vaughn Tanner, all of Seattle.

BRIDGE TEA DELIGHTFUL

The bridge tea given yesterday afternoon Mrs. Theodore Parker at her home in Main street, in honor of Mrs. Frank Lamborn, who recently returned to Olympia after making her home in Tacoma, was a most delightful affair. Throughout the rooms huge bowls of purple and white asters predominated in the decorations, while the tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. Shelley Mowell, was centered with a large bowl of pastel shaded sweet peas. Miss Frances Lamborn and Mrs. Arthur Middleton assisted in serving during the tea hour. Mrs. Lamborn received the guest of honor prize, while Mrs. John R. Mitchell won the bridge prize. Those present were Mmes. R. P. McNulta, John R. Mitchell, H. W. Partlow, H. M. Fuller, J. W. Mowell, W. J. Foster, Ernest Seaborg, F. G. Blakeslee, Warren W. Tolman, William Lahe, J. Grant Hinkle, J. H. S. Bates, Marvin Chase, Louis Opdyke, Arthur Middleton, Shelley Mowell, O. M. Green, P. M. Troy, Frank Lamborn and Miss Frances Lamborn.

LADIES OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN BUSINESS MEETING

The ladies of the Christian church held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. C. R. Berry, 419 Jefferson street, Wednesday afternoon, with 23 present. Following the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess. The ladies of the church have just organized and have suggested as the name for their organization the Loyal Service League. This will be voted upon at the next meeting of the society. The purpose of the society is to foster the spiritual interest of the church and encourage practical benevolence and help in a financial way in church matters. The newly elected officers are: President Mrs. William Duncan; secretary, Mrs. M. E. Meek. Mrs. F. B. Huffman, chairman of the work committee, reported that 18 comforters had been tied and mending had been done for the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. The sum of $101 was cleared from meals served during the G. A. R. convention held here in June.

JUDGE MARRIES COUPLE

Lee E. Nelson and Dena Norden, both of Montesano, were married Monday afternoon by Judge Walter Crosby. Weston Potter of Marshfield, Oregon, and Anna Gray of Tenino were also married on the same day by Judge Crosby.

HARRIS STORE EMPLOYEES ENTERTAINED

A picnic supper will be given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Harris at their summer home "The Village Green," for employees of the Harris store. The store will close at 5 o'clock in order to give plenty of time for entertainment out of doors before nightfall. Those who will be present are: Mrs. Fredericks, Mrs. May Eaton, Miss Florence Griggs, Miss Theresa Heye, Miss Catherine Kullrich, Miss Archibald, Miss Blanche Montgomery, Miss Jeannette Taylor, Mrs. Bernice Kelly, Mrs. Slim Dorland, Mrs. Bessie Hannon, Miss Ethel Smith, Miss Evelyn Eunison, and Messrs. Tom Connolly, Frederick Henry, Walter Griggs, and Clifford Lovejoy.

From the Buffum & Wright millinery department there will be Mrs. Pearl Wright, Miss Doris Delbridge and Miss Helen Claussen.

W. R. C. TO MEET

The George H. Thomas post, W. R. C., will hold its regular meeting Saturday afternoon at Veterans' hall. Meetings are held every second and fourth Saturdays in the month. At the last meeting Mrs. Carrie Diggs, president of the Shelton W. R. C., spoke before the local post. Mrs. Kate Whittaker, department president, is expected to visit the post in the near future. The principal work of the W. R. C., is to help members of the Grand Army of the Republic and their dependents. The G. A. R. meets the first and third Saturdays in the month at Veterans' hall.

ALPHA MAY CAMP TO ENTERTAIN

Alpha May camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will give an entertainment tomorrow evening at Veterans hall. An enjoyable program will be given, a feature of which will be a Highland dance and music by bagpipes. The dancers and musicians are coming from Tacoma for the occasion. Mrs. H. Anderson is chairman of the program committee. All members and their friends are invited to be present.

CONGRESSMAN WEBSTER VISITS OLYMPIA

Congressman J. Stanley Webster of Spokane was in the city yesterday visiting the new capitol group and Governor Louis F. Hart. Congressman Webster formerly was justice of the state supreme court and resigned this position to make the race for congress in the Fifth district.

MRS. LITTLEJOHN RETURNS HOME

Mrs. B. F. Littlejohn has returned to her home in this city from Portland, where she has been confined in the Waverleigh sanitarium for the past six weeks. Friends will be pleased to know that she is on the road to recovery after her serious illness.

MISS LORD ENTERTAINS WITH DANCE

Miss Helen Lord's dance this evening at the Golf and Country club, complimenting her house guest, Miss Jane Hampton of Salt Lake, will be one of the prettiest affairs of the season which is confined exclusively to members of the younger set. About 100 guests have been bidden to the affair to meet Miss Hampton, who leaves shortly with Miss Lord for Palo Alto, California, to re-enter the Castellija School for Girls.

SEE PLAY IN TACOMA

Mrs. N. J. Redpath and daughter, Katherine, Miss Helen Lord and her house guest, Miss Jane Hampton of Salt Lake City, attended the performance of Blanche Bates and Henry Miller in the "Famous Mrs. Fair" Tuesday evening at the Tacoma theater. Miss Lord and Miss Hampton were guests of Miss Lord's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reynolds.

P.-T. A. IN FIRST MEETING

Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock the first meeting of the Hayes School Parent-Teacher circle this year will be held. Mrs. W. A. Walthew, member of the school board, will speak. All members and friends of the circle are requested to be present.

MAKE PLANS FOR RECEPTION

The first meeting of the Roosevelt Parent-Teacher association was held yesterday with 18 members present. It was decided to hold the annual teachers' reception Friday evening, September 23, at 8 o'clock, at the schoolhouse, with Mrs. Myrtle Setchell in charge of the program.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR CONVENTION

Plans were completed for the annual district convention of the Degree of Honor, which will be held here September 28, at the regular meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective Association, held last evening at Veterans' hall. There will be an all-day session, with a lunch, at the Masonic Temple and a program in the afternoon.

EXTENSION WORKER HERE

Miss Mary E. Sutherland, nutrition specialist of the Washington State College extension service, was in the city yesterday visiting the local extension office. Miss Sutherland left yesterday evening for Shelton, where she will aid in forming a home economics club in connection with the extension service.

TO MOTOR OVER VANCOUVER ISLAND

Judge and Mrs. O. R. Holcomb left yesterday for Seattle, where they will remain for a few days before departing for Vancouver Island, where they will spend two weeks touring. While in Seattle Judge and Mrs. Holcomb will hear Geraldine Farrar sing "Carmen" Wednesday afternoon at the Metropolitan theater.

MISS PARTLOW RETURNS

Miss Kathryn Partlow, who has been visiting in Portland as the guest of Mrs. C. Davis for the past two weeks, returned Sunday to her home in this city. Miss Partlow will leave the latter part of this month for Seattle to re-enter the University of Washington for her senior year.

TO HEAR "CARMEN"

Among the Olympians who are planning on hearing Geraldine Farrar sing the title role in "Carmen," at the Metropolitan theater are Mrs. P. M. Troy, Miss Marian Troy, Mrs. Jesse T. Mills, Miss Ethel Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Mumby, Dr. Anna Mumby, Miss Mildred Mumby and Sam Mumby.

TO SEE "THE FAMOUS MRS. FAIR"

Among the Olympians motoring this evening to Tacoma to attend the performance of Blanche Bates and Henry Miller in the "Famous Mrs. Fair" are the Misses Edna Cagwin, Dora Criddle, Hattie Taylor, Alice Holcomb, Ada Pierce, Charlotte Alger, Elma Wider and Mrs. Maude Vanderveer.

REV. SIMPSON BACK FRIDAY

Word has been received from Rev. T. H. Simpson that he and Mrs. Simpson and their two children will arrive in Olympia Friday. The Simpsons have been away from Olympia since the early summer, visiting the Rev. Simpson's mother, Mrs. Robert Simpson, in Ireland. Rev. Simpson will occupy the United Churches pulpit next Sunday.

TO TOUR ORIENT

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bateman and children, Barbara, Lawrence and Donald, will sail this week from Vancouver, B. C., aboard the U. S. S. Empress of Russia for the Orient. The Batemans have been in Olympia visiting Mrs. Bateman's father, George D. Aspinwall, and brother, C. C. Aspinwall. Mr. Bateman is president of the International Freight Transportation company.

TWO BRIDGE TEAS FOR THE WEEK

One of the most attractive parties of the fall season will be the bridge tea to be given tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Theodore Parker in honor of Mrs. Frank Lamborn. Sweet peas in pastel shades will be the predominant note in the decorations. Four tables of bridge will be played. Assisting Mrs. Parker will be Miss Frances Lamborn, Mrs. Shelley Mowell and Mrs. Arthur Middleton of Tacoma. Guests will be Mmes. Jesse T. Mills, Marvin Chase, A. W. Tyler, J. H. S. Bates, E. L. Farnsworth, John R. Mitchell, R. P. McNulta, H. M. Fuller, William Lasher, J. W. Mowell, J. S. Duke, H. W. Partlow, F. G. Blakeslee, C. J. Lord, J. Grant Hinkle, E. A. Seaborg, Louis Opdyke, W. J. Foster, C. J. Lord, and Warren W. Tolman.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Parker will entertain with a bridge tea, complimenting her sister, Mrs. Arthur Middleton of Tacoma, to which younger matrons and girls have been bidden.

EASTERN GIRL AT PARTLOW HOME

Miss Lucy Walbridge of Madison, Wisconsin, is convalescing at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Partlow from injuries she received Wednesday morning on the highway, when the car in which she and Judge

Stephen Chadwick were riding turned over. Miss Walbridge came west to attend the national Gamma Phi Beta convention, held recently at Lake Crescent. She was en route to Olympia to visit Dr. and Mrs. Partlow when the accident occurred. Judge Chadwick was coming to the city to attend the funeral of the late Judge Wallace Mount. Miss Walbridge's parents and Dr. and Mrs. Partlow were friends in Wisconsin.

PAST MATRONS ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Rudolph Petterson was hostess Saturday afternoon at her home to the Past Matrons' club of the O. E. S. Luncheon was served at 1:30 at small tables centered with attractive centerpieces of sweet peas and pansies. Following luncheon the business meeting was held. Those present were Mmes. Alex Wright, Charles V. Leach, George Blankenship, Henrietta Whitney, Mary V. Johns, Lulu V. Lang, Sara Sheldon, L. B. Conrad, C. W. Maynard, Harry Dean, E. M. McClintic, D. C. West, Roy Newell, F. R. Day, P. M. Troy and Miss Annie Gaston. The next meeting of the club will be October 8 at the home of Miss Annie Gaston.

CLUB ENTERTAINED YESTERDAY

The Monday Bridge club was delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. A. E. Cagwin at her home on East Tenth street. Four tables of bridge were enjoyed during the afternoon hours, with honors going to Mrs. H. M. Fuller. The club's guests were Mmes. L. D. Crow of Los Angeles, George Huestis, C. A. Billings, H. N. Fuller, Merritt McCully and F. C. Wilcox. Members of the club present were Mmes. E. A. FitzHenry, Fred Crombie, Mitchell Harris, George Blankenship, Clarence Maynard, C. W. Maynard, R. P. McNulta, John R. Mitchell and A. E. Cagwin.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISIT OLYMPIA

Mrs. John Shiveley of San Francisco and daughter, Miss Flora Shiveley of Retsil, Washington, are spending several days here as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will McClarty of Gull Harbor. Mrs. Shiveley and Miss Shiveley have been the guests for the summer of Mrs. Shiveley's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Hartsuck, at Quinault. Mrs. Shiveley and Miss Shiveley are well known here, having formerly made their home in Olympia.

ENGINEER TO MARRY

Tomorrow morning, at 10:30, at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Seattle, Lars Langloe, reclamation engineer with the department of conservation and development, will be married to Miss Elizabeth Foye. Rev. Bliss will officiate. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Langloe will go to Leavenworth, where Mr. Langloe is engaged in state work after October they will make their home in this city.

CHORAL SOCIETY CLASSES LIMITED

Due to a misunderstanding an error was made in an article concerning the Choral society to be started here October 4 by Miss Alice Muench, which appeared in Monday's Standard to the effect that the public was invited to join. The chorus will not be in the form of a community sing but the classes are limited. Singers have been recommended to Miss Muench and she has personally invited them to take part in the chorus.

Miss Muench, who recently came to Olympia from Pittsburgh, is a graduate of the Beaver College of Music and also of the Frank Damrosch Conservatory in New York City. She specializes in piano and has had much experience in vocal work.

LINCOLN P.-T. A. MEETING

The Lincoln Parent-Teacher circle will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock at the school for the first time this year. A short program will be given and tea served. All members and friends of the circle are requested to be present. New officers of the club are as follows: President, Mrs. Adolph Schmidt; vice president, Mrs. J. Frisch; secretary, Mrs. Linus Brewer; treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Wotton. Mrs. L. D. McArdle is chairman of the program committee.

Elmon Christopher, Walter Uhler, Donald Webb and Allen Gunstone will leave Friday for Pullman, where they will enter the Washington State College.

CHURCH PARTY A SUCCESS

The first of a series of card parties to be held this winter by the ladies of St. Michael's church was given last evening in the church hall, with a large attendance. Thirty tables of five hundred were played during the evening, with the following prize awards: Lady's first prize, Mrs. J. A. LaCasse; gentleman's first prize, Ben Goldenberger; lady's consolation, Miss Evelyn Cunningham; gentleman's consolation, John Cline. Following cards, refreshments were served by the committee in charge. The party was such a success that the committee will hold another on September 27 to which the public is cordially invited. The committee in charge consists of Miss Alice Doyle, Mmes. Fred Boardman, Joseph Arkin, Clarence Adams, Alderman and Bloomstrom.

TO MAKE HOME IN SEATTLE

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edmonds and baby have left for Seattle, where they will make their home this summer. Mr. Edmonds is instructor in mechanical engineering at the University of Washington.

MOTOR TO OREGON

Miss Nancy Wilson left Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hanzlik of Portland by motor for Salem, Oregon. Miss Wilson will spend a week with Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Shreiner at their summer home at Seaside, Oregon, before returning to Eugene to re-enter the University of Oregon.

RETURNS FROM EAST

Miss Evelyn Leupke has returned to this city following a two weeks vacation trip through the East. In Winnipeg, Canada, Miss Leupke was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beeley, former residents of this city.

Dr. Flora Mustard and daughters, Jean and Betty, motored to Tacoma this morning, where they spent the day visiting and shopping.

HELPING HAND CIRCLE

The Helping Hand Circle will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. George Beren at her home, 314 Farragut street. Members are requested to come early and bring their thimbles and cloth that can be used in making baby garments. Friends of the circle who wish to assist with articles of baby clothing are asked to bring them to the meeting, or telephone Mrs. George Zera.

LEAVE FOR COLLEGE

Miss Florence Bateson, daughter of Mrs. F. W. Bateson, will leave tomorrow for Ohio, where she will enter Oberlin college. Miss Mildred Bateson, who recently graduated from Olympia high school, will enter the University of Washington this month.

MISSOURI VISITOR HERE

Mrs. Maud Austin of Carrollton, Missouri, spent the week-end in this city with her mother, Mrs. M. T. Holloman. Mrs. Austin is now visiting in Centralia with her sister, Mrs. John Wood. She will leave shortly for Long Beach, California, to spend the winter with her son, Verne Austin.

VISITING MOTHER

Earl Williams, who has been attending the summer session of the Washington State College, is spending a few weeks here with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Williams, prior to returning to Pullman to enter the state college for the winter session.

IN SEATTLE FOR OPERA

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kearney, Miss Beatrice Kearney and Mrs. A. H. Chambers motored to Seattle yesterday to attend two performances of the opera which is at the Metropolitan theater. They returned this evening.

TO ENTERTAIN CARD CLUB

The Friday Bridge club will be entertained Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Mrs. H. C. Heermans at her home on Main street.

BUSY WEEK FOR OLYMPIANS

Social and club activities for the season began this week in a whirl. The week is crowded with interesting events, among which are two bridge teas, one bridge luncheon, a tea, the opening of the Woman's club for the winter season, and the first of Enanti club meetings, besides all the Parent-Teacher circle activities. Schools are preparing for their teacher's receptions, which marks the opening of the school social life. Almost all the Olympians have returned from their vacations and summer homes and from the present outlook the winter will be a busy one for society.

Monday evening the Enanti club met for its initial session at the home of Miss Helen Cossle, in Washington street, and Tuesday the Woman's club held its first meeting at the clubhouse. Mrs. E. L. Farnsworth's delightful bridge luncheon at the Olympia opened the week for social activities. This afternoon Miss Mary Owings' tea, complimenting Miss Mildred Whitham of Los Angeles and Miss Presley Ellis of Tacoma, is of interest to the Olympia society maids and matrons, and tomorrow Mrs. Theodore Parker's bridge tea in honor of Mrs. Frank Lamborn is being looked forward to with keen interest. On Thursday Mrs. Parker will give a bridge tea at her home in Main street in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Arthur Middleton, of Tacoma, to which the young matrons and girls are invited.

The opera season in Seattle is also interesting the Olympia musical circles and a number music lovers have gone over to Seattle to hear the various performances.

The popular play, "The Famous Mrs. Fair," playing last night and tonight in Tacoma, is drawing a number of people from here who admire Blanche Bates and Henry Miller.

SURPRISE NEWLYWEDS

As a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Clem Johnson of Union street, whose marriage took place a week ago, members of Capital Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, entertained Monday evening at the Johnson home. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Claud George, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Devine, Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnston, Mrs. J. B. Perkins, Mrs. F. H. Hall, Mrs. Jim Wilson, Mrs. Flora Taylor, Mrs. Gady, Mrs. May Phillips, Mrs. Tom P. Hollcraft, and George Patnude.

STATE OFFICIALS GO FISHING

L. D. McArdle, director of the department of efficiency; Fred Dibble, director of department of licenses, and State Treasurer Clifford Babcock spent Saturday and Sunday fishing on the Wynoochee river, in Grays Harbor county.

WOMAN'S CLUB OFFICERS INSTALLED

The following officers were installed for the ensuing year at the initial meeting of the Woman's club, held yesterday afternoon at the clubhouse: President, Mrs. George Blankenship; vice presidents, Mrs. W. A. Van Epps, Mrs. Charles Hewitt, Miss Janet Moore; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Lindley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Warren W. Tolman; treasurer, Mrs. A. J. Frisch; financial secretary, Mrs. Will Yeager, Sr.; auditor, Mrs. Mary V. Johns; custodian, Mrs. Alex Wright.

A well selected program of the year's work will be introduced next Tuesday at 2 o'clock at a Spanish-American tea given by the travel department of the club.

The following musical program was given yesterday afternoon: Violin solo, Clara Fredericks, accompanied by Miss Agnes Reder; vocal selections, Mrs. Clarence Nelson, accompanied by Mrs. A. C. Baker; interpretative dance, "In Poppo Land," by Shirley McManus and Caroline Schmidt. The program was in charge of Mrs. Walter Whiting.

Mrs. Blankenship spoke on the year's work of the club and Mrs. Tolman read an interesting report of the State Federation meeting in Tacoma this summer.

Mrs. Eugenia Newell was initiated into the club.

TO ATTEND INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Dr. F. E. Bird, medical advisor of the department of labor and industries, and E. S. Gill, supervisor of the division of industrial insurance, will leave Olympia Thursday for Chicago, where they will attend the annual convention of the International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions, which meets in that place September 19 for one week. Major Gill will speak before the convention on the civil administrative code, and Dr. Bird will act as chairman of an open discussion meeting of medical advisers. Following the convention Dr. Bird will visit the state capitals of Illinois, Texas and California to investigate the medical methods in those states in regard to industrial accidents.

MISS LEA HONOR GUEST

In honor of Miss Miriam Lea of New York, sister of Mrs. Mitchell Harris, who is visiting here, Mrs. E. L. Farnsworth, entertained yesterday with a luncheon at the Hotel Olympian. The table was prettily decorated with a huge centerpiece of many colored nasturtiums and ferns. Following the luncheon, bridge was enjoyed at Mrs. Farnsworth's home in Sylvester street. High score was won by Mrs. Mitchell Harris and Miss Lea was presented with the guest prize. Those present were Mmes. George Huestis, L. D. Crow, L. J. Johns, C. A. Billings, Mitchell Harris, L. H. Motter, E. L. Farnsworth, Miss Miriam Lea and Mrs. Dodds of San Francisco.

SINN FEIN COURIERS

PROCEED TO GAIROCH
INVERNESS, Scotland, Sept. 13.—Two Sinn Fein couriers bearing de Valera's reply to the British invitation to a conference September 20, arrived here today and proceeded to Gairloch, where the Irish note was handed to Premier Lloyd George.

TO RE-ENTER OREGON

Miss Nancy Wilson left Sunday for Seaside, Oregon, where she will spend a week visiting friends before departing for Eugene, Oregon, to re-enter the University of Oregon.