The women are making garden and the birds are warbling their spring notes. Every man that has a public sale on hand wants good attractive sale bills—bills that attract the attention of the passerby and very materially assist in drawing people to the sale. That's the kind we print at this office and that's the kind every man holding a sale should have. The soliciting committee for the support of the band reports that sufficient funds have been pledged to continue this organization for another year. Not all have been called upon as yet but the hearty response all along the line fully substantiates the report of the committee. Last Thursday evening John Havel, the Buick auto dealer, started to take Louis Vavricka and wife home and on getting two miles north of town had the misfortune to break his auto, and had to have the machine pulled into town. J. H. Hamilton and son of Guide Rock, will hold their tenth annual sale of Poland China bred sows and Shorthorn calves at Burr's barn in Guide Rock, Tuesday, February 3rd. There offering for this sale consists of 35 head, but it surely is a grand good offering of big, smooth Poland China sows and gilts. These hogs are all cholera immune. They will also sell three Shorthorn bulls and one Polled Durham. See their "ad" elsewhere in this issue.

Take your cream to J. O. Caldwell. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pinares Saturday evening, a baby girl. Every mother thinks she has the sweetest baby—but surely the little lump of loveliness that was laid in this mother's arms is something more beautiful than the fairest flower that ever bloomed. This paper wafts its best wishes to the happy parents. One of the men who taken part in the robbery of a "resort" conducted by Hazel McVey in Omaha, last Thursday night, at which time one man was killed and several valuable diamonds secured, has been apprehended in St. Joe. The prisoner has, according to reports, made a full confession, and the arrest of the other two men who taken part in the holdup is hourly expected.
