

Passumpsic Railroad

Table with 4 columns: Direction, Mail, Express, Passenger. Rows for Going South and Going North.

Local News

New Advertisements

Albert Blake, we understand, is going to repair his grist mill this summer—put new machinery and make a first-class grist mill.

The "Cherry Bird" has been making work with the apple blossoms in the parts of our village the past week.

A new time-table on the Passumpsic is effect to-day. The mail time is changed.

Captain Little has decidedly improved outside appearance of his hotel by simple addition of a new coat of paint.

Advertisements brought in Monday are too late to secure insertion the date.

Whichever is driving the tin business these days. "Melve" and another fellow is piling up the tin pails pans and tins in a way that is a caution to "Bryant" who has got something to do peddle them as fast as the boys make 'em.

Mr. C. H. Hood, of Turner's Falls, Mass., has sent us in a letter, a stock of water rye which he picked from a field several acres near that place, June 5, which, when straightened out measures four feet and eight inches in length.

The H. S. Wright property—mill privilege and dwelling house—on Water street, lately advertised for sale in the report, has been sold to John Markand, of Lowell, Mass., and will be converted into some manufacturing purpose during the present summer.

General Grant having occasion to go to Washington on business last week, called on the Philadelphia Convention in his way home. It has been reported at everything passed off harmoniously and that there was some enthusiasm.

Persons who intend to erect monuments to the memory of departed friends could call on M. J. Smith of this village and look at his designs of Scotch granite monuments. They are a rarity in these parts, and as handsome as they are rare.

Not many weeks ago we announced that we would not publish communications without we knew from whence they came. We have no disposition to be so very nice, but then, somebody's letter has gone "where the woodbine creepeth," because the writer neglected to give us his, or her, name.

Chas. J. Uford, our enterprising carriage manufacturer, has torn out one of his old water wheels and put in a new middle wheel—one that will make the belts and pulleys hum to the tune "We'll jump into the wagon."

Chas. sold a good many wagons this spring and has got a good many for sale. He says he can sell them ten dollars cheaper than can be bought elsewhere, and warrant them good.

Those of our readers who contemplate a trip to the Hub of the Universe to hear the 20,000 Peace Jubilee singers, will be interested in the advertisement of another column of the Connecticut and Passumpsic River Rail Roads. Extension tickets will be sold at all stations, from June 15 to the 22, good return until the 27.

Read the advertisement and see what is going to be done at the Jubilee, who is going to be there, and how little it will cost to go yourself.

Postmaster Rawson doesn't mean to stop improving his premises as long he has got his house, inside, all just as he wants it, and has commenced on the grounds outside, with horse and scraper.

Mr. R. takes pride in having things look tidy and neat and at the same time cozy and comfortable, and in first rate order to sell if he ever wants to. We are others in our village of the same stamp; and we have just a few, also, here—

There were 150 tubs of butter shipped from Greensboro station last Monday morning.

Work has at last commenced on the steam mill at the Bend. Shall expect to see the work prosecuted with energy.

Some have had unusually good luck in fishing in Caspian Lake this spring. Good hauls have been made nearly every day.

Six boat loads of fishermen were counted on the lake Wednesday.

"Sam" the "irrepressible," not considering stage driving his forte, has now something worth his steel: having contracted to build the new road from this village to the "Bend," to be completed Oct. 10.

S. S. Bartlett has bought the barn that L. L. Buckland erected last fall, paying $150 and proposes converting it into a tenement to rent.

The trotting course on the old Fair Grounds near the Landing, is to be repaired by subscription and used to train some of the fast horses in this vicinity.

R. C. Smith has bought a strip on the edge of the mill pond near his shop, which he is converting into land by cording up slabs and carting in dirt and old rubbish. The price of land is so high that every foot must be utilized.

Building lots sell for over $300 per acre and since the nomination of Greeley the price will probably be still higher, as each one will want to tell "what he knows about farming."

On Tuesday morning a horse belonging to Whipple Morse, took fright while standing at the door of the grist mill and ran into main street, and while turning the corner threw the body of the wagon from the forward wheels and rushing with great violence round the hotel struck a sharp stick cutting a severe gash in one leg and finally brought up in the back yard, having cleared herself from both wagon and harness with the exception of the headstall.

At the annual meeting for the election of officers for the Sabbath School Homer Thrasher was chosen superintendent, assistant sup't, Lucius Nye; secretary and treasurer, Salmon Nye; librarian, Salmon Nye; assistant librarians, Bennie Thrasher and Fred Wheeler.

E. W. Langmaid starts to-day for Iowa.

Amasa Scott has a five years old milch cow that weighs 1450.

All are invited to attend the Sabbath School Convention at this place on the 25th & 26th inst.

Mr. H. Bennett has leased the hotel at Craftsbury Common. Mr. Hodgdon, the present landlord has gone into the tin business with Mr. Whitney.

The Craftsbury Mill Company have lately sold their mill property—saw and grist mill—also dwelling house and other outside property, to A. L. Streeter and H. J. Bushway. They are going to repair the sawmill and put in some new machinery.

There have been showers nearly every day the past week. Women are worrying about their flower seeds rotting, and men are fretting about the corn, but as for us it is always "jolly weather."

The Quarterly Union of the Good Templars of Orleans county will be held with Blazing Star Lodge, at West Derby, to-morrow, (Tuesday, June 11).

Mr. E. D. Durocher, of Beebe Plain has the contract of building the new Boot & Shoe Factory at Derby Line for Messrs. Morrill & Judd the present season.

The Gloucester fishing schooner "Enole C" has been captured by a Canadian vessel for violating the fishery laws.

There will be a temperance picnic at Beebe Plain on the 25th, with S. Capper for speaker. The union picnic at Ayer's Flat will be held on the 1st of July, the orator not yet secured, but a good one will be obtained.

Two men named Patrick Murphy and Patrick Ryan were accidentally drowned at Hastings, on Sunday evening, the 12th ult., by missing the bridge in the dark.

The Sherbrooke papers note the arrival of emigrants, whose services can be obtained by applying to Mr. Hubbard, Secretary of the Sherbrooke Colonization Society.

The Superior Court term commenced June 6th.—Stantead Journal

There were 1431 tubs, equal to 74,464 lbs., of butter shipped from St. Albans station Tuesday, the 29th.

The Middleton mineral springs are once more becoming famous for the wonderful cures effected by drinking their waters. Many have been cured.

The market at St. Albans on Tuesday was quite active and firm. Common to fat, 20 to 25 cents; medium to good, 25 to 28 cents; selections, 27 to 31 cents.

Cheese 20 cents; none in market.

The Vermont Central, Harlem Extension and Passumpsic Railroads will carry persons attending the Grand Masonic meetings at Burlington, June 12, 13 and 14, for fare one way.

A little boy 12 years of age, son of E. T. Watkins, of Sharon, died not long since from an injury received to the brain by jumping from the high beams of the barn on to the hay below for sport.

The Directors of the Lamoille County Agricultural and Mechanical Society met at the town hall in Morrisville, on Saturday, June 15th at 1 o'clock P. M., to arrange a premium list, appoint Awarding Committees and make all necessary preparations for the next Annual Fair.

A young lady who was recently taken sick at the City Hotel in Taunton, Mass., gives her name as Georgia Scott, of Vermont. She is very ill and seems indifferent to her own condition and to everything about her. And she gives no clue as to the whereabouts of any of her relatives or friends.

The directors of the P. & O. R. R. met last Wednesday to locate the freight depot, but there was a division among them as to the precise spot, which a capital trout dinner at A. B. Cook's hotel failed to harmonize.

On the 24th ult., Capt. Daniel Landon of Waterbury, formerly of this town, was killed in a shocking manner. He was driving a meat cart and was last seen in Bolton, 5 o'clock on Thursday evening. In the morning he was found under his wagon in his own shed, his body being nearly cut in two. It is supposed he fell from his wagon and becoming entangled in it some way, was dragged home by his horses. Mrs. Landon has commenced a suit under the prohibitory liquor law, against L. H. Horton of Bolton, claiming $20,000 damages for selling her husband intoxicating liquor. Landon was 45 years of age and was a captain in the 7th Vermont regiment.—Express

Mr. Fred H. Holdridge has sold his interest in the store to Henry Waller.

Mr. Walden Priest is building a nice barn, 40 X 70 with a cellar underneath 8 feet deep.

Choice of seats and pews in the Congregational church at Irasburgh will be sold on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, at the church.

H. D. Chamberlin has returned to his farm, from Bolton, where he has been engaged in the clapboard manufactory.

Abijah Wright has sold his farm to Geo. Wright, and H. Hovey has sold his to L. Robinson.—The first day of June there were two snow drifts near the corner of O. Sisco's field, one of which was more than two feet deep, and trees that stood in it were leaving out and blossoming.—S. Huntly has put up and is finishing off a board mill.—The grass crop looks favorable. English grain looks well but backward. Corn looks yellow and potatoes small.

The St. Johnsbury Ice Co. have commenced operations for the summer.

Horace M. Jackson has sold his place on Pleasant street to Jerry Drew.—Price $3,000.

H. C. Ide, Esq., has sold a building lot south of Prospect street to Dr. J. L. Perkins. Price $25.

Among late patents, we notice one issued to Augustus Sanborn of St. Johnsbury, for plow.

The Hibbard Family give a concert at town hall next Thursday evening, June 13th. The St. Johnsbury Band give an introductory out-door entertainment the same evening.—Caledonian.

Canada Items.

The Gloucester fishing schooner "Enole C" has been captured by a Canadian vessel for violating the fishery laws.

There will be a temperance picnic at Beebe Plain on the 25th, with S. Capper for speaker. The union picnic at Ayer's Flat will be held on the 1st of July, the orator not yet secured, but a good one will be obtained.

Two men named Patrick Murphy and Patrick Ryan were accidentally drowned at Hastings, on Sunday evening, the 12th ult., by missing the bridge in the dark.

The Sherbrooke papers note the arrival of emigrants, whose services can be obtained by applying to Mr. Hubbard, Secretary of the Sherbrooke Colonization Society.

The Superior Court term commenced June 6th.—Stantead Journal

There were 1431 tubs, equal to 74,464 lbs., of butter shipped from St. Albans station Tuesday, the 29th.

The Middleton mineral springs are once more becoming famous for the wonderful cures effected by drinking their waters. Many have been cured.

The market at St. Albans on Tuesday was quite active and firm. Common to fat, 20 to 25 cents; medium to good, 25 to 28 cents; selections, 27 to 31 cents.

Cheese 20 cents; none in market.

The Vermont Central, Harlem Extension and Passumpsic Railroads will carry persons attending the Grand Masonic meetings at Burlington, June 12, 13 and 14, for fare one way.

A little boy 12 years of age, son of E. T. Watkins, of Sharon, died not long since from an injury received to the brain by jumping from the high beams of the barn on to the hay below for sport.

The Directors of the Lamoille County Agricultural and Mechanical Society met at the town hall in Morrisville, on Saturday, June 15th at 1 o'clock P. M., to arrange a premium list, appoint Awarding Committees and make all necessary preparations for the next Annual Fair.

A young lady who was recently taken sick at the City Hotel in Taunton, Mass., gives her name as Georgia Scott, of Vermont. She is very ill and seems indifferent to her own condition and to everything about her. And she gives no clue as to the whereabouts of any of her relatives or friends.

Vergennes is the oldest city in New England. It was incorporated with city privileges, October 23rd, 1783. Boston adopted her charter by a vote of her citizens, March 4th, 1822. There was 1891 votes cast against adopting the charter in a total vote of 4978.

The directors of the P. & O. R. R. met last Wednesday to locate the freight depot, but there was a division among them as to the precise spot, which a capital trout dinner at A. B. Cook's hotel failed to harmonize.

On the 24th ult., Capt. Daniel Landon of Waterbury, formerly of this town, was killed in a shocking manner. He was driving a meat cart and was last seen in Bolton, 5 o'clock on Thursday evening. In the morning he was found under his wagon in his own shed, his body being nearly cut in two. It is supposed he fell from his wagon and becoming entangled in it some way, was dragged home by his horses. Mrs. Landon has commenced a suit under the prohibitory liquor law, against L. H. Horton of Bolton, claiming $20,000 damages for selling her husband intoxicating liquor. Landon was 45 years of age and was a captain in the 7th Vermont regiment.—Express

Mr. Fred H. Holdridge has sold his interest in the store to Henry Waller.

Mr. Walden Priest is building a nice barn, 40 X 70 with a cellar underneath 8 feet deep.

Choice of seats and pews in the Congregational church at Irasburgh will be sold on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, at the church.

H. D. Chamberlin has returned to his farm, from Bolton, where he has been engaged in the clapboard manufactory.

Abijah Wright has sold his farm to Geo. Wright, and H. Hovey has sold his to L. Robinson.—The first day of June there were two snow drifts near the corner of O. Sisco's field, one of which was more than two feet deep, and trees that stood in it were leaving out and blossoming.—S. Huntly has put up and is finishing off a board mill.—The grass crop looks favorable. English grain looks well but backward. Corn looks yellow and potatoes small.

The St. Johnsbury Ice Co. have commenced operations for the summer.

Horace M. Jackson has sold his place on Pleasant street to Jerry Drew.—Price $3,000.

H. C. Ide, Esq., has sold a building lot south of Prospect street to Dr. J. L. Perkins. Price $25.

Among late patents, we notice one issued to Augustus Sanborn of St. Johnsbury, for plow.

The Hibbard Family give a concert at town hall next Thursday evening, June 13th. The St. Johnsbury Band give an introductory out-door entertainment the same evening.—Caledonian.

Canada Items.

The Gloucester fishing schooner "Enole C" has been captured by a Canadian vessel for violating the fishery laws.

There will be a temperance picnic at Beebe Plain on the 25th, with S. Capper for speaker. The union picnic at Ayer's Flat will be held on the 1st of July, the orator not yet secured, but a good one will be obtained.

Two men named Patrick Murphy and Patrick Ryan were accidentally drowned at Hastings, on Sunday evening, the 12th ult., by missing the bridge in the dark.

The Sherbrooke papers note the arrival of emigrants, whose services can be obtained by applying to Mr. Hubbard, Secretary of the Sherbrooke Colonization Society.

The Superior Court term commenced June 6th.—Stantead Journal

There were 1431 tubs, equal to 74,464 lbs., of butter shipped from St. Albans station Tuesday, the 29th.

The Middleton mineral springs are once more becoming famous for the wonderful cures effected by drinking their waters. Many have been cured.

The market at St. Albans on Tuesday was quite active and firm. Common to fat, 20 to 25 cents; medium to good, 25 to 28 cents; selections, 27 to 31 cents.

Cheese 20 cents; none in market.

The Vermont Central, Harlem Extension and Passumpsic Railroads will carry persons attending the Grand Masonic meetings at Burlington, June 12, 13 and 14, for fare one way.

A little boy 12 years of age, son of E. T. Watkins, of Sharon, died not long since from an injury received to the brain by jumping from the high beams of the barn on to the hay below for sport.

The Directors of the Lamoille County Agricultural and Mechanical Society met at the town hall in Morrisville, on Saturday, June 15th at 1 o'clock P. M., to arrange a premium list, appoint Awarding Committees and make all necessary preparations for the next Annual Fair.

A young lady who was recently taken sick at the City Hotel in Taunton, Mass., gives her name as Georgia Scott, of Vermont. She is very ill and seems indifferent to her own condition and to everything about her. And she gives no clue as to the whereabouts of any of her relatives or friends.

Vergennes is the oldest city in New England. It was incorporated with city privileges, October 23rd, 1783. Boston adopted her charter by a vote of her citizens, March 4th, 1822. There was 1891 votes cast against adopting the charter in a total vote of 4978.

The directors of the P. & O. R. R. met last Wednesday to locate the freight depot, but there was a division among them as to the precise spot, which a capital trout dinner at A. B. Cook's hotel failed to harmonize.

On the 24th ult., Capt. Daniel Landon of Waterbury, formerly of this town, was killed in a shocking manner. He was driving a meat cart and was last seen in Bolton, 5 o'clock on Thursday evening. In the morning he was found under his wagon in his own shed, his body being nearly cut in two. It is supposed he fell from his wagon and becoming entangled in it some way, was dragged home by his horses. Mrs. Landon has commenced a suit under the prohibitory liquor law, against L. H. Horton of Bolton, claiming $20,000 damages for selling her husband intoxicating liquor. Landon was 45 years of age and was a captain in the 7th Vermont regiment.—Express

Mr. Fred H. Holdridge has sold his interest in the store to Henry Waller.

Mr. Walden Priest is building a nice barn, 40 X 70 with a cellar underneath 8 feet deep.

Choice of seats and pews in the Congregational church at Irasburgh will be sold on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, at the church.

H. D. Chamberlin has returned to his farm, from Bolton, where he has been engaged in the clapboard manufactory.

Abijah Wright has sold his farm to Geo. Wright, and H. Hovey has sold his to L. Robinson.—The first day of June there were two snow drifts near the corner of O. Sisco's field, one of which was more than two feet deep, and trees that stood in it were leaving out and blossoming.—S. Huntly has put up and is finishing off a board mill.—The grass crop looks favorable. English grain looks well but backward. Corn looks yellow and potatoes small.

The St. Johnsbury Ice Co. have commenced operations for the summer.

Horace M. Jackson has sold his place on Pleasant street to Jerry Drew.—Price $3,000.

H. C. Ide, Esq., has sold a building lot south of Prospect street to Dr. J. L. Perkins. Price $25.

Among late patents, we notice one issued to Augustus Sanborn of St. Johnsbury, for plow.

The Hibbard Family give a concert at town hall next Thursday evening, June 13th. The St. Johnsbury Band give an introductory out-door entertainment the same evening.—Caledonian.

Canada Items.

The Gloucester fishing schooner "Enole C" has been captured by a Canadian vessel for violating the fishery laws.

There will be a temperance picnic at Beebe Plain on the 25th, with S. Capper for speaker. The union picnic at Ayer's Flat will be held on the 1st of July, the orator not yet secured, but a good one will be obtained.

Two men named Patrick Murphy and Patrick Ryan were accidentally drowned at Hastings, on Sunday evening, the 12th ult., by missing the bridge in the dark.

The Sherbrooke papers note the arrival of emigrants, whose services can be obtained by applying to Mr. Hubbard, Secretary of the Sherbrooke Colonization Society.

The Superior Court term commenced June 6th.—Stantead Journal

There were 1431 tubs, equal to 74,464 lbs., of butter shipped from St. Albans station Tuesday, the 29th.

The Middleton mineral springs are once more becoming famous for the wonderful cures effected by drinking their waters. Many have been cured.

The market at St. Albans on Tuesday was quite active and firm. Common to fat, 20 to 25 cents; medium to good, 25 to 28 cents; selections, 27 to 31 cents.

Cheese 20 cents; none in market.

The Vermont Central, Harlem Extension and Passumpsic Railroads will carry persons attending the Grand Masonic meetings at Burlington, June 12, 13 and 14, for fare one way.

A little boy 12 years of age, son of E. T. Watkins, of Sharon, died not long since from an injury received to the brain by jumping from the high beams of the barn on to the hay below for sport.

The Directors of the Lamoille County Agricultural and Mechanical Society met at the town hall in Morrisville, on Saturday, June 15th at 1 o'clock P. M., to arrange a premium list, appoint Awarding Committees and make all necessary preparations for the next Annual Fair.

A young lady who was recently taken sick at the City Hotel in Taunton, Mass., gives her name as Georgia Scott, of Vermont. She is very ill and seems indifferent to her own condition and to everything about her. And she gives no clue as to the whereabouts of any of her relatives or friends.

Vergennes is the oldest city in New England. It was incorporated with city privileges, October 23rd, 1783. Boston adopted her charter by a vote of her citizens, March 4th, 1822. There was 1891 votes cast against adopting the charter in a total vote of 4978.

The directors of the P. & O. R. R. met last Wednesday to locate the freight depot, but there was a division among them as to the precise spot, which a capital trout dinner at A. B. Cook's hotel failed to harmonize.

On the 24th ult., Capt. Daniel Landon of Waterbury, formerly of this town, was killed in a shocking manner. He was driving a meat cart and was last seen in Bolton, 5 o'clock on Thursday evening. In the morning he was found under his wagon in his own shed, his body being nearly cut in two. It is supposed he fell from his wagon and becoming entangled in it some way, was dragged home by his horses. Mrs. Landon has commenced a suit under the prohibitory liquor law, against L. H. Horton of Bolton, claiming $20,000 damages for selling her husband intoxicating liquor. Landon was 45 years of age and was a captain in the 7th Vermont regiment.—Express

Mr. Fred H. Holdridge has sold his interest in the store to Henry Waller.

Mr. Walden Priest is building a nice barn, 40 X 70 with a cellar underneath 8 feet deep.

Choice of seats and pews in the Congregational church at Irasburgh will be sold on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, at the church.

H. D. Chamberlin has returned to his farm, from Bolton, where he has been engaged in the clapboard manufactory.

Abijah Wright has sold his farm to Geo. Wright, and H. Hovey has sold his to L. Robinson.—The first day of June there were two snow drifts near the corner of O. Sisco's field, one of which was more than two feet deep, and trees that stood in it were leaving out and blossoming.—S. Huntly has put up and is finishing off a board mill.—The grass crop looks favorable. English grain looks well but backward. Corn looks yellow and potatoes small.

The St. Johnsbury Ice Co. have commenced operations for the summer.

Horace M. Jackson has sold his place on Pleasant street to Jerry Drew.—Price $3,000.

H. C. Ide, Esq., has sold a building lot south of Prospect street to Dr. J. L. Perkins. Price $25.

Among late patents, we notice one issued to Augustus Sanborn of St. Johnsbury, for plow.

The Hibbard Family give a concert at town hall next Thursday evening, June 13th. The St. Johnsbury Band give an introductory out-door entertainment the same evening.—Caledonian.

Canada Items.

The Gloucester fishing schooner "Enole C" has been captured by a Canadian vessel for violating the fishery laws.

There will be a temperance picnic at Beebe Plain on the 25th, with S. Capper for speaker. The union picnic at Ayer's Flat will be held on the 1st of July, the orator not yet secured, but a good one will be obtained.

Two men named Patrick Murphy and Patrick Ryan were accidentally drowned at Hastings, on Sunday evening, the 12th ult., by missing the bridge in the dark.

The Sherbrooke papers note the arrival of emigrants, whose services can be obtained by applying to Mr. Hubbard, Secretary of the Sherbrooke Colonization Society.

The Superior Court term commenced June 6th.—Stantead Journal

There were 1431 tubs, equal to 74,464 lbs., of butter shipped from St. Albans station Tuesday, the 29th.

The Middleton mineral springs are once more becoming famous for the wonderful cures effected by drinking their waters. Many have been cured.

The market at St. Albans on Tuesday was quite active and firm. Common to fat, 20 to 25 cents; medium to good, 25 to 28 cents; selections, 27 to 31 cents.

Cheese 20 cents; none in market.

The Vermont Central, Harlem Extension and Passumpsic Railroads will carry persons attending the Grand Masonic meetings at Burlington, June 12, 13 and 14, for fare one way.

A little boy 12 years of age, son of E. T. Watkins, of Sharon, died not long since from an injury received to the brain by jumping from the high beams of the barn on to the hay below for sport.

The Directors of the Lamoille County Agricultural and Mechanical Society met at the town hall in Morrisville, on Saturday, June 15th at 1 o'clock P. M., to arrange a premium list, appoint Awarding Committees and make all necessary preparations for the next Annual Fair.

A young lady who was recently taken sick at the City Hotel in Taunton, Mass., gives her name as Georgia Scott, of Vermont. She is very ill and seems indifferent to her own condition and to everything about her. And she gives no clue as to the whereabouts of any of her relatives or friends.

Vergennes is the oldest city in New England. It was incorporated with city privileges, October 23rd, 1783. Boston adopted her charter by a vote of her citizens, March 4th, 1822. There was 1891 votes cast against adopting the charter in a total vote of 4978.

The directors of the P. & O. R. R. met last Wednesday to locate the freight depot, but there was a division among them as to the precise spot, which a capital trout dinner at A. B. Cook's hotel failed to harmonize.

On the 24th ult., Capt. Daniel Landon of Waterbury, formerly of this town, was killed in a shocking manner. He was driving a meat cart and was last seen in Bolton, 5 o'clock on Thursday evening. In the morning he was found under his wagon in his own shed, his body being nearly cut in two. It is supposed he fell from his wagon and becoming entangled in it some way, was dragged home by his horses. Mrs. Landon has commenced a suit under the prohibitory liquor law, against L. H. Horton of Bolton, claiming $20,000 damages for selling her husband intoxicating liquor. Landon was 45 years of age and was a captain in the 7th Vermont regiment.—Express

Mr. Fred H. Holdridge has sold his interest in the store to Henry Waller.

Mr. Walden Priest is building a nice barn, 40 X 70 with a cellar underneath 8 feet deep.

Choice of seats and pews in the Congregational church at Irasburgh will be sold on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, at the church.

H. D. Chamberlin has returned to his farm, from Bolton, where he has been engaged in the clapboard manufactory.

Abijah Wright has sold his farm to Geo. Wright, and H. Hovey has sold his to L. Robinson.—The first day of June there were two snow drifts near the corner of O. Sisco's field, one of which was more than two feet deep,