MASONIC.

Regular Communication of Orleans Lodge, No. 85, F. & A. M. Friday, May 21.

Local News.

Albany.

The village school begins to-day.

Rev. S. W. Chapin lost a horse one day last week.

E. L. Anis is improving his house by putting on another half story.

Jefferson Cowles is improving the appearance of his premises with a new front yard fence.

A. B. Sargent recently discovered several potato bugs in his garden; they appeared robust and happy.

Teacher's examination will be held at the school house in Albany village, Saturday, May 1st, at the usual time. All are invited.

R. P. Hitchcock vomited a large quantity of bile from his stomach a few days ago. He is in a precarious condition, but it is hoped he will recover.

The inhabitants of the village school district, No. 6, have decided to put on another story and other wise improve the present school building, preparatory to grading the school.

If the lovers of fine stock wish to see a beautiful flock of long-wooled sheep, or a lot of excellent Devon animals they can do so by calling on S. C. Wilcox.

The wool on some of his yearlings measures nine inches. He still keeps that premium Devon bull.

J. W. Murkland has a new advertisement.

Frogs have taken their appearance. They are piping "Edmunds."

William J. Wiggins takes butter at Hall's store every Saturday.

O. D. Owen has a big advertisement this week which every body ought to read.

Read the advertisement of Geo. W. Buzzell. He sells all kinds of machinery and mill goods.

The measles are still lurking about, and some are having them hard.

The mud dried up remarkably last week, but the roads are not quite settled yet.

Gardner B. Drew has been putting on an addition to the south end of his house, which will be a great convenience to it.

The Academy will be painted and repaired, with, perhaps an addition of a recreation room, as soon as this term of school ends.

It is hoped by the patrons of the academy and graded school in this place that E. C. Benjamin, principal, will be hired another year.

Charles Graves has bought the Fairbanks house on Church Street, of Mr. Warren. He will fix it up and make a pleasant home of it.

We have a large supply of waxes, papers that are suitable for use on shelves, under carpets, and for doing up packages. Price 5 cents a pound.

Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Thomas go to Boston to-morrow (Tuesday) to select a large line of millinery goods. Look out for advertisement in two weeks.

Chas. H. Dwinell has moved back from St. Johnsbury, and rumor has it, that he intends to build a good set of buildings on his lot on Park Street.

Jacob C. Hopkins has traded his farm for the grist-mill at Irasburgh, and will go there soon to carry on the mill. He has employed a good miller, to assist him and teach him milling.

The public examination of teachers for the town of Barton, will be held at the village school-house on Saturday, May 1st, commencing at 9 a. m. All who expect to teach in this town, are expected to be present. The public are cordially invited.

O. H. Austin, Supt.

Rev. J. Wallace preached his "farewell" sermon at the M. E. church yesterday. His friends were glad to hear him once more. Rev. Mr. Wheeler will be present next Sunday.

Herbert Eaton and Varney Grover, two young men, of 18 years of age, recently cut, split and piled, 10 1-2 cords of four foot hard wood in one day. The wood was cut for Z. D. Goodenough.

The Methodist church and community will welcome Rev. A. M. Wheeler and wife to this "charge," and wish them success. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler have been very successful in their labors, both as teachers, and in their pastoral work.

The butter market at Lyndonville, is expected to be a good thing for that village, and surrounding vicinity. Two or more butter buyers will be present each Friday to purchase dairy goods.

J. B. Freeman of this town is one of the buyers at present.

Silas P. Ball of Sutton sends us a specimen of maple sugar made in an ordinary pan, that is equal to the best evaporator sugar we have seen.

It takes clean buckets and great care to make sugar of this quality. We are ready to sample other lots.

Since they have published an account of liquor sales at the St. Johnsbury agency, brother Chase of the Union, has become very thirsty, and inquires if we have a liquor agent in this place. We have an agency, but the Union man is too well known to make it of any use for him to apply.

Rev. J. Wallace is to leave for Crafts-bury very soon, and he is urgently requesting every man who has an account with him, to step into his office and settle at once. He has a new chamber set, a large new parlor stove, and an excellent cooking stove, that he will sell at a big discount if any body wants the articles.

N. M. Scott, having bought the large stock of goods belonging to J. Wallace at the old "Depot Store," announces to the public that he intends to keep everything belonging to his line, which he will sell at lowest living rates. Mr. Scott has had much experience in the grain business, and knows how to meet the wants of the trade. Give him a call.

Let every man see to it that he does his part toward putting this whole village in as clean and tasty a condition as possible, in the early spring. A little work on the part of all will make a great difference in the looks of the village. The trustees are contemplating improvements, and if they will enforce the by-laws and make the rest of us do our duty, there will be a decided improvement.

GRAND READING AND CONCERT.—H. G. Blaisdell, having engaged Miss Fannie E. Backus, one of the best lady elocutionists in the country, and a lady vocalist from Boston, Mass., will give a first class entertainment at Robinson's Hall, on Tuesday evening, May 4th. Mr. Blaisdell is known by everybody in this locality as a gentleman and a musician of the finest taste. It is physically impossible for him to tolerate anything but the best among his artists. He will play several solos, and will be accompanied by a fine pianist. The lady singer is first class, and will sing several excellent pieces. The Cape Ann Advertiser thus notices Miss Backus' readings: Her readings were a great pleasure to all. Her selections were excellent, and well calculated to show her power in the rendering of dialect, humor and pathos. She read "The Little Hero," a poem founded on the beautiful hymn "Rock of Ages," "Little Joe," and humorous sketches, which kept the audience in an uproar of laughter. Mr. Blaisdell is always very careful to have an entertainment that is pure and classical, and while this is his intention now, he will be sufficient that is pleasing and humorous to make the evening a pleasure to all. Admission at popular prices.

LYNDONVILLE.

W. H. Hoyt has bought George Matherson's house on Main St.

Park Bennett's house at the Corner was burned at 5 A. M. last Wednesday. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp. Insured for about $500.

The band gave an out-door concert last Tuesday eve. Mr. Noble, for several years leader of the Victoria band of Sherbrooke, will play with this summer. He is employed in S. H. Wetherbe's store.

J. H. Hubbard's house caught fire one night, last week, and would have burned had not Mrs. H. been aroused by a cat. The fire was in the roof, ten feet distant from the chimney, and how it caught is a mystery.

William Boyd was fatally injured at the box shop last Thursday. He was runnig the saw used to cut up hard wood boards into proper length for use at the band saws. In attempting to throw a piece of waste about one foot square out of the window in front of him, the piece caught in his sleeve, hit the window casing and fell back upon the saw, from which it was thrown with terrible force; the corner of the board struck Boyd directly in the eye, which was entirely destroyed, and breaking the bones above and below the eye in a shocking manner, also breaking the skull so badly that a part of the brain oozed out. Drs. Squire and Cahoon were called, but very little could be done for him. He never regained consciousness, but died three hours after his injury. He was a widower, aged about fifty-five years, and leaves five children in New Jersey, the youngest being twelve years old.

Whatever else may be doubtful about the intention of the authors of our tariff laws, they undoubtedly meant to place on the free list all materials used in the manufacture of paper. It happened that pulp of wood, which is by far the most important element in the manufacture of paper used by the daily and weekly press of the country, was not specifically and by name exempted from duty. Under a Treasury decision which held that this verbal omission was fatal to the free admission of wood pulp, a few manufacturers of that article have been able to impose an exorbitant tax on the general body of paper-makers, by whom it is of course shipped to the consumers, the newspaper publishers of the country and the burden falls with special hardship on publishers outside of the great cities—we, consequently, being impoverished so that a handful of monopolists may grow rich. The most powerful champion of these monopolists is Representative Garfield. Were his opposition to the bill withdrawn, the restoration of wood pulp to the free list, where it belongs, would be accomplished in a few days. While his opposition continues the monopolists are secure. Can Mr. Garfield afford to continue his support of a most odious and oppressive tax which brings in no revenue to the Government, but which interferes very decidedly with the dissemination of knowledge among the people?

I believe that the last half of my administration has been as pleasant and as free from perplexities and troubles as ever falls to the lot of an incumbent of the presidential chair. At the outset there were misunderstandings and misapprehensions, but I think that, generally, a good degree of harmony now exists, and that the administration of affairs is on the whole such as meets approval. I have been accused of taking optimistic views; but I think through the country in general there has been a revival of just views the past twelve months, and I am not sure but that everybody is better off for having taken hopeful and reasonable views of the future of this great country.—President Hayes.

Bending Notices.

Albany, Vt., September 1st 1873. Dear Sir.—I have used your Guano on potatoes, grass and millet the past season. I used it on potatoes on half an acre; also I planted half an acre without Guano, but spread on a good coat of manure. The potatoes are not extra large, but I am satisfied that I shall get one-third more where the Guano was put. I sowed it on grass land in May. The grass has been two years before, and a good start for fall crop. On millet, I sowed four acres of old mowing not mowed for fifteen years, and all run out for grass, using two hundred and fifty pounds per acre. The result is, that I have a heavy crop of millet. It has been the best I ever raised. I would like to see you, and I would send you an order for two tons for full use, and speak for the agency for your Guano here next season. Yours truly, I. L. SANDERS.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y. 01

The Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich. We send their celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts to the afflicted upon 30 days trial. Speedy cures guaranteed. They mean what they say. Write to them without delay. 015
