

now living in town. He was twice married. Several years since he sold his farm and moved to Glover village, where he resided at the time of his death. He was honored by his townsmen in official capacities, was one of the board of selectmen in 1861, at the breaking out of the civil war was liberator, and justice of the peace several years. All these duties he discharged with honor and fidelity, and to the satisfaction of his fellow townsmen. He was a good citizen, an obliging neighbor, a kind husband and father, and has left an aged companion and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. "Peace to his ashes."

West Glover.
Mrs. Emery of East Burke is spending a few weeks here visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Bean.

Harvey Lewis is making preparations to build him a new house. The old house will be moved to give place to a large two story one.

The school-house at West Glover has been thoroughly repaired in readiness for the fall term, which begins to-day with Mattie Cook, teacher.

May Squires, Mary Gilmour and Walter Anderson attend the fall term of school at Craftsbury—Addie King, Fred and Cora Chase attend school at Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hall started for their home in Baltimore last week.—Olin Skinner has gone back to Kansas. Mrs. Skinner and the children will remain here a few weeks longer.

Greensboro.
Wm. Lang is adding another story to his house.

School in Dist. No. 9 commenced Aug. 26, with Kate Keating of Barton teacher.

Hon. H. S. Tolman has commenced a new set of buildings on the foundation of the ones burned.

The Ladies' Aid gave an entertainment Friday eve to raise funds for finishing the parsonage.

C. H. Calderwood, who has been visiting here for some weeks, has returned to Nashua, N. H.

Sarah Hill has been cited to appear at the Probate Office Sept. 12 to answer to a petition for a guardian.

Some time since one of our school house's was fired, but did not burn. The authorities took up some parties on whom suspicion rested, and after the evidence was partly in one Will Bedell "skipped." Officer Jackson assisted by A. S. Clary resolved to pick him up if possible, and on Monday night he was found by them at Andrew Bedell's, and the next day brought before States Attorney Miles, where he waived an examination and was taken to jail.

Ella Chesley has returned to her school in Minnesota.—Mrs. E. S. Goodwin was in West Derby last week.—Mrs. Fred Miles and children from St. Johnsbury have been visiting at her father's, W. H. Allen.—Mrs. Walter McFarlane of Barton has been visiting friends in town.—Miss Christina Turnbull of New Haven, Conn., is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Bailey.—Mrs. Randolph Barnes and children have returned to Buffalo, N. Y.—Mrs. Albert Chesley has gone to Duxbury, Mass., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jewett Willey.—Orange King and wife have returned from a week's outing in N. H.

Holland.
Mrs. J. M. Page and her son Harry have gone to Kansas on a visit.

James Bradford is convalescent from his serious run of diphtheria. There are no new cases of the disease at present.

Mrs. E. D. Moon is at Island Pond on a visit.—N. J. Mollway and wife of N. H. are visiting at H. J. Flinn's.—Pareun Hunton and wife from N. Y. visit old friends here.

Irasburgh.
The W. C. T. U. will meet at the M. E. church next Wednesday, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. E. A. Leach of Morrisville, formerly of Irasburgh, is in town for a short time.

The Misses Gertrude and Alice Parker have gone to Johnson, Vt., to attend the fall term of the state Normal school.

Miss Julia Phelps has returned to Wellesley college; Myron Phelps goes to Dartmouth college this week, and the Misses Florence and Isabel Phelps go to Meriden academy, at Meriden, New Hampshire.

Harry and Maud Shurtleff of Montpelier made a short visit in town last week.—Mrs. Elbridge Howard and daughter Nellie have returned to Lowell, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shorey have returned to Boston.

The village schools commenced this morning. Walter Parker of Newport teaches the higher department and Miss Ellen Foss the primary. Last week's school notice was accidentally placed among the Glover locals.

News was received here some time since of the death of Mrs. J. H. Kellam, formerly of this town. She died in the West, July 1, aged about 70 years. She was Martha A. Jameson, and was for many years a resident of this town.

Lowell.
The campers are home from the lake. The latest arrival is a boy at V. M. Parker's.

Isaac Freeman's little girl is laid up with a broken arm.

The Republicans and Democrats have each swung campaign flags with names and portraits.

M. W. Farman of Westfield spoke in the town hall Saturday evening Aug. 27, on the political questions of the day.

W. L. Kinsley, E. B. Stannard, R. F. Winchester, and F. H. Sanborn are appointed ballot clerks for next Tuesday.

The notice for a Republican rally Friday eve drew a crowd sufficient to fill the town hall, but the speaker failed to materialize.

Morgan.
Sadie Flanders was too ill to go back to Lyndonville.

Arthur Rood is going to Derby Line to work for Captain Foster.

Maggie Brainard has gone to Lowell, Mass., for a few weeks, visiting.—Mrs. O. L. Farr and her two little girls have gone to St. Johnsbury visiting relatives.

Morgan Center.
Francis Hill from Barton has moved into the Clapper house.

Samuel Wark and Alonzo Ewins have purchased a new threshing machine and are ready to do good work.

The six-year-old daughter of Lansford Griffin died Friday morning, the 2d inst., of diphtheria. The only child of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Judd, who is staying at Mr. Griffin's, is now sick with the same disease. Much sympathy is expressed for the grief-stricken family.

Jonathan Bryant has bought the large building of Stevens Bros., formerly owned and used by J. M. Butters as a boarding house. He will at once remove the building on to a lot he has lately purchased at Island Pond.

Newport.
Mrs. Mary Dunn is failing slowly.

Carl Story is home from the West. E. B. Edgers of Lyndonville spent the Sabbath at J. C. Davison's.

Thomas Raymond and family return to their home in Cambridge this week.

The "striking" printers have been camping the past week on Skinner's Island.

Dell Shepley and Ed. Prouty started for Boston yesterday morning on their bicycles. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

R. L. Olds returned to New York Tuesday morning with the party of fresh air children which he brought here two weeks ago.

The game of ball between the C. P. and B. & M. office boys Tuesday was very interesting. Both sides were enthusiastic and played well. The score stood 21 to 13 in favor of the C. P. boys.

There was a false alarm of fire here last Monday, which called out a large number of people in an amazingly short time. It is thought the alarm was rung by an accident somewhere.

The Boston Clothing Store people have stocked up very heavily with fall and winter clothing and proposes to inform the readers of this paper of the fact in a big advertisement next week.

Mr. Grout's foreman and one other man "struck" on Monday last, just as his paper was ready to go to press, causing him much trouble. By the assistance of Mr. Ranney he got out his paper in due time. It was a very unfair thing on the part of his help.

The public school opens to-day, with W. R. Emerson, a graduate of Dartmouth college, class of '92, as principal. Miss Mirabelle Robinson will teach the grammar grade, Miss Marion Bugbee the intermediate, and Misses Alice Robinson and Clara Richmond the two primary departments.

Excursions on the Lady of the Lake have been numerous during the past week. She carried a party of about six hundred from Sherbrooke down the lake Saturday. Monday and Tuesday there were excursions from Magog and Georgeville, and Wednesday the Sunday schools of Newport Center went the length of the lake and return.

Troy.
The funeral of Stafford Farman whose death was mentioned last week, was held at his late residence on Sunday, Aug. 28, Rev. E. W. Smith officiating. The remains were taken to Lowell for burial. When a young man Mr. Farman came to this section from Bath N. H., and has remained here ever since, living in Lowell, Westfield and this town. He reared a large family, and accumulated a good property; of his fourteen children, only six survive him. Though so aged, 86 years, he was straight as an arrow and only the Monday preceding his death, he walked from Westfield to this village, a distance of a 1 1/2 miles. He was an obliging neighbor and a respected citizen.

Westfield.
Lester W. Miller is home from Boston for a month's vacation.
Rev. I. P. Chase attended Lyndonville campmeeting last week.
Arad Brown has purchased the land which belonged to the Orrin Miller estate; consideration, $650.

Communion services were held at the Cong. church yesterday; one person united with the church on confession of faith.

Elva Farman has returned to Rutland to resume her work as teacher in the Grammar school.—Florence Bedell teaches in this town in Dist. No. 7.

Ada and Elgie Brown and Florence Wakefield attend the Johnson Normal school this fall.—Guy H. Farman returns to Pennsylvania to continue his studies in Lehigh University.—Albert Farman is attending the Lyndon Institute this fall.

Westmore.
Mrs. Bliss has gone to Montpelier to care for a sister who is very ill.

Henry Trescott cut a severe gash in his finger with an axe at the bobbin-mill.

Schools opened Aug. 29. Miss Nellie Case at Mill Brook, and Miss Hitchcock on the west side.

The Universalists will hold a Grove meeting at Willoughby Lake, beginning Friday evening, Sept. 9th, and continuing over Sunday.

CALEDONIA COUNTY.
East Hardwick.
Bell Johnson has gone to St. Johnsbury to school.

Rev. G. P. Byington was so far recovered as to occupy the desk last Sabbath.

Leslie Johnson, Ernest Dow and Mattie Hyde go to Hardwick academy to school.

The authorities have seized a barrel of whiskey at the station which came directed to Childs & Co.

G. L. Johnson has raised up the roof of his mill so as to make it two stories, C. Keith doing the job.

West Burke.
The village school opens today; Sarah Cummings of this place is the teacher.

Rev. J. E. Farrow of East Burke preached in the M. E. church yesterday in exchange with Rev. Granger.

A. L. Aldrich and family returned on Saturday from Lyndonville Camp Ground, where they have been spending the past week.

Sadie Gaskell, Alice Townsend and Elva Smith, will return this week from the Mountains where they have been at work this summer.

Miss Alice Varney went to West Charleston on Saturday to take her old position as teacher in the primary department of the village school.—David Porter is to teach at Grotton, Nellie Forrest in the Marshall district, and Rose Cummings in the village school.

Miss Watkins, who has been visiting friends here since July 1st, has returned to her home at Bloomington, Ill., the last week.—Mrs. Clarence Bugbee, formerly Mame Keeler, is visiting at Lorenzo Bugbee's.—Howard Powers has been at home for a short visit. He is a successful physician in Boston.

Wheelock.
Alex. Dunnett Esq. and Hon. Walter P. Smith spoke on the issues of the day in the town hall last Friday eve.

Mrs. Willie McNeal died very suddenly last Thursday morning, Sept. 1. She arose that morning, and had dressed, took some medicine, went to the lounge and soon expired. Mrs. McNeal was a daughter of Salma Davis of Sheffield. She leaves a husband, two small children and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

Sheffield.
Mrs. Martin Miles is very sick.—Mrs. Fuller's little child is better.

Waldron Brown has purchased Laban Bradley's house in the village.

Mrs. Orlana Root has been visiting relatives in town.—Mrs. Mary Ingalls from Lyndon visited at Charles Ingalls' last Friday.—Miss Sadie Pearl and Miss Etta Davis visited in Lyndon last week.

Ward Bradley died very suddenly last Thursday afternoon. He has been out of health for quite a while. He had not recuperated since he had the grip last winter. Mr. Bradley was a highly esteemed and respected citizen.

BIRTHS.
In Westfield, Aug. 25, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. Woodworth.
In Sheffield, Aug. 29, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Denonville.

MARRIED.
In Barton, Aug. 27, by Rev. F. W. Lewis, Fred Cushman of Charleston and Miss Bertha Devereaux.
In Glover Aug. 27, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. A. A. Smith, Willard C. Leonard and Miss Kate Owen, both of Glover.

In West Burke, Aug. 28, by Rev. P. N. Granger, Mr. Asa C. Fuller, of Bloomfield, and Miss Hattie A. Burroughs, of Glover.
In Hardwick, Sept. 1, by Rev. H. W. Worthen, Mr. Edgar Kelsey of So. Lancaster, Mass., and Miss Lilla D. Miles, of Hardwick.

DIED.
In Coventry, Aug. 28, Lucy Ronger, aged 88 years.
In Wheelock, Sept. 1, Mrs. Flora M. Davis, wife of Willie E. McNeal, aged 24 years, 11 mos. and 12 days.
Dearest sister thou hast left us.
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God who hast bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Mrs. Anna Sutherland
Kalamazoo, Mich., had swellings in the neck, or Gout, causing 40 Years great pain. When she caught cold could not walk two blocks without fainting. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now free from it all. She has urged many others to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and they have also been cured. It will do you good.

HOOD'S PILLS Cure all Liver Ills, jaundice, sick headache, biliousness, sour stomach, nausea.

Estate of Philip D. Badger.
STATE OF VERMONT, DISTRICT OF ORLEANS ss. In Probate Court, held at Barton Landing in said District, on the 31st day of September, A. D. 1892.

J. B. Calderwood Administrator of the estate of Philip D. Badger late of Greensboro in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. The widow of said deceased, also files her application for assignment of homestead out of the real estate of said deceased. Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court that said account and said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office in Barton Landing, on the 22d day of September, A. D. 1892, for hearing and decision thereon; and, it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested, by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Monitor, a newspaper published at Barton, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have why said account should not be allowed, and such decree made.

By the Court—Attest.
36-38 O. H. AUSTIN, Judge.

Estate of Isaac L. Sanders.
STATE OF VERMONT, DISTRICT OF ORLEANS ss. In Probate Court, held at Barton Landing in said District, on the 31st day of August, A. D. 1892.

Alex. Fraser Executor of the estate of Isaac L. Sanders late of Albany in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court, that said account and said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office in Barton Landing, on the 22d day of September, A. D. 1892, for hearing and decision thereon; and, it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested, by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Monitor, a newspaper published at Barton, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have why said account should not be allowed, and such decree made.

By the Court—Attest.
33-38 O. H. AUSTIN, Judge.

5th. Annual Exhibit And Races.

—AT—
ST. JOHNSBURY
Sept. 13-14-15,
1892.

It will excel all previous ones in its Attractions.

IMPROVED GROUNDS.
LARGE PREMIUMS,
BIG PURSES,
IMMENSE CROWDS.

Balloon Ascension.
Trapeze Performance in Mid-Air.
Descent to the ground in a Parachute.

Great exhibit in every department.

Low Fare on Railroads, and an exciting race between two balloons.

Hon. E. A. PARK, PRESIDENT.
Col. H. FLETCHER, VICE PRESIDENT.
N. M. JOHNSON, SECRETARY.

PROLIFIC POULTRY FOOD
WILL MAKE HENS LAY
Mixed with the morning feed prevents Egg Eating and Feather Picking, cures Roup and Cholera.
A small sum expended for it will return many times the cost in the increased production of Eggs. Sold by Seedsmen, Feedmen, Druggists, and General Dealers. 1 lb. Pkg. 25c. 5 lb. Pkg. 1.00. 1 lb. Pkg. sent by mail for 40c.
L. B. LORD, Propr., BURLINGTON, VT.
FOR SALE BY O. D. OWEN.

THE BARTON PANT.

I have on hand nearly 500 pairs of those Pants, the same as I have sold so many of the past 3 years, at the same price:

$1.60, $1.85 AND $2.00!

Also, over 100 Vests to match at $1.10 and $1.25 each. Wholesale prices and samples to dealers upon application.

The Handsomest and Best Pant for the Money in Vermont.

Also, a large lot of all Wool Pants and Vests, including all wool grey and fancy patterns. I furnish mending piece free with every pair of pants sold. Discounts given when 3 pair or more at one time. I have nearly 800 Yards of those Handsome Remnants, all perfect goods, including a lot of Cloak patterns, at 45 cts. per yard.

SEE MY HEAVY $2.00 AND $2.50 COAT!

From same goods as pants. Suits, $5.00 and $5.50. They Can't be beat! We manufacture the cloth, nearly 15,000 yards per week, (Gay Brothers at Cavendish, Vt., and save all expense of middle men and runners, and give our customers the benefit. Call and see for yourself or send for samples of the cloth.

PANTS MADE TO ORDER FROM MEASURE, CUT FROM YOUR OWN PATTERNS, OR MADE FROM YOUR OWN CLOTH.

Big stock of home spun Yarns, Overalls, Jumpers, Hand spun stockings and mittens, as usual. A good variety of flannels, over and under wear, rolls, small wares, &c. I have double the stock of Men's Jersey Shirts and Under Wear that I have ever carried, and at low prices.

Carding season closes Dec. 1st. Call at house evenings—house near the mill.

HENRY C. GAY, - Barton Woolen Mill, - Water Street,

SEPTEMBER and Cooler Weather are close by.

To prepare for it you should call at OWEN'S and look over the new

CLOAKS.

You will be surprised at the great variety shown. There was never as many or as pretty garments shown in Barton before.

NEXT WEEK

we shall open 50 BEAVER SHAWLS, bought direct from the mills, that will include some very Choice Styles, entirely new.

OUR NEW DRESS GOODS

are coming in, and we have some beautiful goods in single dress patterns. No danger of anyone getting a dress like yours, if you buy one.

—Another Bale of those—

CARPET SAMPLES

will be in this week, one yard to one and a half yards each, all wool, 35 cents a yard. And don't forget that our Carpet department is full of bargains.

(—In Our—)

Shoe Department

you will always find excellent quality for the money paid. We don't run this branch of our business with a WIND MILL solely, but keep as fine a line of goods as can be found anywhere, and give our patrons the benefit of twentyfive years' experience in handling shoes.

Another Car of Choice FLOUR.

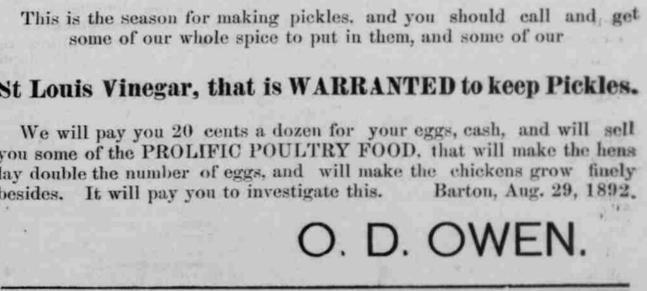

Ground from old wheat, that we shall sell at very low prices. A good winter wheat flour for $5.00 a barrel and warranted.

This is the season for making pickles, and you should call and get some of our whole spice to put in them, and some of our

St Louis Vinegar, that is WARRANTED to keep Pickles.

We will pay you 20 cents a dozen for your eggs, cash, and will sell you some of the PROLIFIC POULTRY FOOD, that will make the hens lay double the number of eggs, and will make the chickens grow finely besides. It will pay you to investigate this. Barton, Aug. 29, 1892.

O. D. OWEN.

ADAMSON'S BOTANIC COUGH BALSAM
Is composed of pure and wholesome ingredients, and is the most reliable remedy in the market for COUGHS, COLDS and ASTHMA. 10c. & 35cts.