

A. Scott; Electa, Mrs. C. E. Hatch; Captain, Mrs. Z. R. Leonard; marshal, C. C. Stratton; organist, Miss C. Floss; warden, Miss Lucretia Allen; sentry, H. A. Scott. After the installation marks were made by the Grand officers and others. This chapter starts off with bright prospects.

East Craftsbury.
Miss Zeldia A. Snow, who has been spending her vacation with her aunt, Miss E. G. Howell, has returned to her home in Lowell, Mass.

Verby.
W. S. Robbins was in Jay on business last week.

Mr. Bryant and daughter Grace of Holland visited at Chas. Clark's last week.

Several from this place attended the C. Valley at Newport Friday afternoon and evening.

Chas. Seales has returned from Boston tending to go into partnership with his father in the meat business.

Mr. Wallace has moved from the Bates farm into one of Chas. Doody's and is raising horses for Alva Davis.

Dr. Cummings, Elmer Silver and Mr. Brown have been enjoying a week's hunting and fishing at Holland pond.

Collis Blay has been putting new foundations under his house on the Charleston road and Friday night dedicated it with a service.

Mr. Albert Silver, Jr. has purchased Mr. Ernest Albee's residence and it is reported that he will convert it into two model apartment houses.

The students and other young people enjoyed a social Wednesday evening given in honor of Miss Edith Bates who left for New York Thursday night.

Miss Helen Page spent the Sabbath at home in Troy.—Dr. C. V. Bogue was in town last week.—Miss Gertrude Pike of Derby Line was in town Friday calling on friends.

Derby Line and vicinity.
Miss Emma Adams of Coaticook has been visiting friends in this vicinity.

The corner stone of the Pierce memorial hall was laid Oct. 5th, with appropriate exercises.

Mrs. G. R. Caswell has returned from Massachusetts and will spend the winter in Derby Line.

Hon. C. C. Colby and family, who have been abroad during the past year have returned home.

The corner stone of the Haskell Library will be laid Tuesday, Oct. 15th, with Masonic ceremonies.

Miss Marie Patenande died Tuesday night of typhoid fever. Miss Patenande had been attending the convent. Her sister, who had also been attending the school, died Wednesday for St. Paul, Minn., where she remains.

Cover.
John Mathie went to Manchester, N. H., last week.

Mrs. C. S. Parker and son are visiting in Johnsonbury and Lunenburg.

George McGaffey is repairing the building which he formerly used as a store.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Samson on the birth of their little daughter.

Rev. E. W. Pierce will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday at 1 o'clock p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Willey are away for a few weeks visiting relatives in Massachusetts.

Geo. Wilson has taken his father's farm a year and his father has moved to the ring place.

Remember the auction sale of personal property at the W. O. Gray place, Tuesday, Oct. 22, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

The Epworth League topic for Tuesday evening is "Dark Days and their Lessons," pp. 107-115. Leader, Mrs. S. N. Clark.

Six ladies took dinner with Mrs. Sumner Edgett last Tuesday. The sum of their gifts, including Mrs. Blodgett's, amounted to $75.

Dr. Templeton was called to Westmoreland Tuesday night to see Mrs. R. H. Cheney who is very ill in her summer home near Gardons hotel.

Two double teams filled with Barton Academy students passed through here Thursday evening on their way to a party at Burleigh Sherburne's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Walker attended the funeral of Mrs. Noyes Newport last Thursday.

Mrs. C. S. Phillips invited the little folks of the village to meet in the Cong'l vestry Saturday afternoon to celebrate the birthday of her little son George. A very happy afternoon was spent.

Typhoid fever has broken out in the convent at Stanstead where the two daughters John Mathie have been attending school at the pupils have all been sent home. A nun has died and the convent is closed the present.

West Glover.
Mrs. Theodore Wright is stopping with her son Charles.

Clayton Magoon of Greensboro spent the Sabbath with Clark Borland.

Blas Miles is putting up a horse barn. Theodore Wright is doing the work.

Rev. S. L. Vincent's son from Rhode Island has been spending the week here.

Mrs. Leggett and son George returned to their home in Connecticut on Thursday.

Miss Kate Barry and a lady friend from Derby spent the Sabbath at home with her father, Mrs. Maria Barry.

Will and Carroll Magoon are doing quite a business at trapping this season. They have a large number of traps set.

Geo. Dow is at Buffalo this week.—E. O. Hall is in town tending his store and doing the work on his house.

Mrs. L. L. Hastings will sell a quantity of personal property at auction Tuesday, October 22nd. The sale commences at 1 o'clock p. m.

John Borland is having his barn and other outbuildings painted. Will Cameron has had his barn painted.—Judson Stevens is painting his house.

The Ladies' Home Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Agnes Cook next Saturday afternoon to finish the quilt presented by the children of her class. The children and their mothers are especially invited to be present. The barrel that is to be sent to Melatosh will be packed at the same time so please bring or send in articles that are to be contributed.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stevens were in Coventry last week.—Mrs. Jane Graves and Miss Agnes Telfer went to Waterbury, Conn., last week.—Mrs. Maria Barry is going to Cleveland, Ohio., to visit her sisters. Her son Elmer accompanies her as far as Buffalo, where he will stop to take in the exposition.—Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Stevens took a carriage drive to Johnson last week.

Greensboro.
Mrs. R. A. Ritchie is visiting in Manchester, N. H.

Mrs. Will Richards visited at D. C. Melvin's last week.

G. A. Porter is adding two bay-windows to his house, doing the work himself.

Dr. F. C. Kinney returned last Wednesday from his trip to the Pan-American exposition.

The Ladies' Aid society will give an entertainment Friday evening, Oct. 18, at the Cong. church.

Ferde Chase entertained several of his friends at his home last Friday night, the event being in honor of his birthday.

L. A. Jackson and Miss Clara spent last Tuesday in St. Johnsbury.—Miss Emma J. Lindsay visited her brother last week.

Geo. and Willie Rodgee were called to Danville last Thursday by the death of their grandfather, whose age was 94 years.

Greensboro Bend.
A. S. Clary has been suffering from an abscess on his hand but is better.

J. H. McDowell has moved to Wheelock where he has purchased a gristmill.

Several from this place went on the excursion to the White Mountains last Friday.

Mrs. E. M. Salmon returned from market last week with a new supply of millinery.

About forty attended the corn husking at E. L. Batchelder's last Saturday evening and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Irassburgh.
Mrs. F. A. Fields recently visited friends in Johnson.

Eugene Webster is building an addition to his barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Currier will move to South Troy this week.

Mrs. Thompson's many friends are pleased to see her out again.

Mr. G. B. Brewster is visiting his son, Dr. L. E. Brewster, in Boston, Mass.

Miss Kate Kidder is at home from Sunderland, Mass., for a few weeks' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook are entertaining friends from Piermont, N. H.

A. B. Post has returned from a two weeks' stay in the southern part of the state.

Cyrus Metcalf has moved into the John Fuller house, recently purchased by his son, Charles Metcalf.

Mrs. Holdridge returned home from Gloucester, Mass., last Thursday, after several weeks' absence.

Dr. C. V. Bogue and wife, Dr. H. E. Bogue and Dr. H. A. Bogue visited their sister, Mrs. Templeton, last week.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilmore Thursday. A chicken pie dinner will be served from 1:30 to 4:00 p. m. All are cordially invited.

The most interesting ball game of the season was played last Saturday between the fat and lean athletes of Irassburgh. The result was in favor of the lean men, 18 to 16.

Mr. E. P. church has been spending two weeks with his children in Weymouth, Mass., Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Tenney. Mr. Church also visited his son, S. Dana, in Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Nellie Eaton is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nettie Schofield, in Lyndonville, and her brother, Charles Locke, in St. Johnsbury.—Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Grant are visiting Mrs. Grant's mother, in Bakersfield.

Among those who attended the Christian Endeavor meeting at Newport last Friday were Rev. E. P. Treat, Rev. J. E. Knapp, wife and daughter, Hon. C. W. Wheeler and two daughters, and the Misses Mary and Effie Holman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Metcalf received a visit from a large company of friends from Coventry and Irassburgh last Thursday evening. A contribution for household furnishings, with many best wishes, was left the young couple. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

J. G. Prance and son John have been visiting David Prance and enjoying a few hunting expeditions after partridges and gray squirrels. Mr. Prance is a fireman on the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R., and his son is baggage recorder at the Boston terminal. Both have enjoyed their vacation exceedingly.

The chicken pie supper last Wednesday evening was largely attended. The lecture by Rev. Mr. Johnson was especially pleasing. The Irassburgh people are always glad to meet Mr. Johnson. His lecture was very interesting, entertaining and full of ingenious and not improbable thought for the "Critic" eleven hundred years hence.

Lowell.
George Crafts, who has been quite sick for a fortnight, is on the gain.

Ross Kinsley returned from Waterville Sunday. Mrs. Kinsley remained there for a longer visit.

Preparations are in progress for a fair to be held in the near future by the ladies of the Cong. church society.

George Curtis and C. H. Mix went to Morrisville Tuesday on a business trip, returning Wednesday night.

Bradley Hoadley has moved into the Chaffee house on the Eden road. He intends to finish up the new house that he has occupied for a summer residence during the coming winter.

A CARD.—We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us and assistance rendered during our recent period of grief and trouble. Such experiences render these expressions of real friendship doubly acceptable and we wish in this way to show our appreciation.

MR. AND MRS. ROSS C. KINSLEY.

Clarence Parker has vacated the tenement in the basement of the Parker block and will live with his father this winter.—Leander Sinclair has moved from the Lamore house to L. B. Wellman's house on Main street.—George Brosseau and family have vacated the Shortleeve tenement and have moved into Mrs. Wellman's house on the South road.

Rev. Edwin Rose and wife visited friends here last week. Mr. Rose was pastor of the Cong. church here about ten years ago.—Mrs. Edgar Cooledge of Johnson is visiting in town.—Mrs. R. D. Harding and Mrs. O. E. Roundy and children of Barton visited at V. M. Parker's last week.—Mrs. H. C. Cleveland and children spent part of last week with relatives here.

Morgan.
Mrs. Bruce is stopping at E. K. Lord's.

P. T. Vandewater is working for Mr. Revolt.

A. M. Gray, Geo. Wilder, P. T. Vandewater, and Maurice Burbank have returned from their hunting trip to New Hampshire.

Mrs. Marcia Bartlett has returned to Island Pond.—Mr. Brooks is visiting his sister, Mrs. James Bullock.—Miss Nora Morse, who has been visiting her cousin, Myrtle Gray, has returned to Lowell, Mass.—B. F. Moore of Newport has been visiting friends and relatives in town.—Gardner Cushman of Lyndonville visited his uncle, A. M. Gray, recently.

Newport.
Mrs. Brown is improving.

S. G. Scott and wife have adopted a little boy.

Win. Brown has been very ill for a week, but seems a little better.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hinman have been visiting friends in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Barnes and mother and Mrs. Chas. Brown visited friends in Sutton, P. Q., last week.

Mrs. H. W. Buchanan and Mrs. Frank Twombly, of Barton Landing, were in town Wednesday.

W. J. Avery of this place, and his brother and sister left last Tuesday to visit the Pan-American exposition.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Thaddeus Wilcox and Miss Gertrude Spear on Oct. 23rd.

Miss Herbert of Stanstead is taking Hattie Green's place as central girl at the Bell telephone office, while Miss Green is taking a vacation.

Fifteen or twenty of the young people went down to the station to welcome Dr. F. E. Clark Friday morning at 4:30. The first thing he heard was the familiar song, "There's Sunshine in My Soul."

The Eastern Star held their first meeting of the season last Monday evening. An oyster supper was served from 6:30 until 8:30. A large number were present. An entertainment was given after the business meeting, which was short but good. It consisted of a song by Miss Bernice Webb, song and recitation by Emily Hamilton, and violin solos by Morris Blanchard.

Newport Center.
Listen for the wedding bells this month.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray last Tuesday.

George Whipple has bought the Frank Rollins farm.

Albert Tracy has moved to his farm in district No. 12.

Miss Bertha Luxford, who has been very sick, is improving.

Mrs. Orissa Tracy has moved into the N. O. Blake house.

Dr. C. L. Erwin and wife were in Brattleboro part of last week.

Eugene Whipple has purchased the Veazy farm in the Dunn neighborhood.

Ernest Sherlaw, who injured his hand recently, is able to work in the creamery again.

The ledge in front of the creamery is being blasted out in hope of finding water to supply the creamery.

Newport Center Grange will present the play "Turn of the Tide" at Erwin's hall next Friday evening. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Burt who have been here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Burt's father, Edmund Doane, have returned to their home in Lunenburg.

Harry Sears, wife and daughter Flossie and Miss Grace Sears of Morrisville, who have been here visiting Mrs. Sears' father, J. W. Merrett, have returned to their home.

Edmond Doane died at his home Sunday night, the 6th inst., after an illness of a few weeks. Mr. Doane was 82 years of age and had been in poor health for several years. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters to mourn his loss. He was a faithful Christian, highly respected by all who knew him and will be greatly missed from the community. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

The Free Baptist quarterly meeting will be held at this place this week commencing Tuesday and lasting three days. It is hoped there will be a good attendance.

Following is the program: Tuesday afternoon: Organization of Conference and prayer service; Conference Sermon, Rev. W. H. Ward; Evening: Woman's Missionary Meeting; Devotional service; Report of Secretary and Treasurer; Address, Rev. J. W. Burgin; Wednesday Morning: Ministers' Conference, (private); Business; Sermon, Rev. R. L. Duston; Afternoon: Prayer-meeting; Sermon, Rev. B. F. Jefferson; Business; Evening: Young People's Meeting; Program to be arranged by the president, Rev. E. E. Phillips; Thursday morning: Prayer-meeting; Sermon, speaker to be announced; Afternoon: Ten minute papers: The Need of Evangelistic Effort, Rev. J. D. Waldron; The Work of an Evangelist, Rev. E. E. Phillips; Special Gifts of an Evangelist, Rev. G. A. Downey; Observations of Evangelistic Success, Rev. W. H. Lyster; Sermon, Rev. F. A. Sargent; Evening: Prayer-meeting; Sermon, Rev. O. Roys; Closing Resolutions; Adjournment.

Troy.
F. W. Brown has moved to Barton Landing.

Bradley Houston has moved back to town.

Mrs. Wealthy Smith and Mrs. George Smith are visiting relatives in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Marston has returned from Montreal hospital where she has been for treatment.

The corner lot now owned by Mrs. F. M. Hammond has been graded and makes a much neater appearance.

Peter Taylor has rented his farm to Mr. Besaw. Mr. Taylor moves soon to C. H. Woodcock's farm which he has rented for a year.

CONTINUED ON EIGHTH PAGE.

MARRIED.
At the M. E. parsonage, Derby, Vt., Oct. 11, 1901, by Rev. G. H. Wright, James B. S. Call and Mrs. Clara V. Call, both of Marog, P. Q.

J. R. FARRANT,
OF NEWPORT,
Wishes to inform his customers and the public in general that he is at home and is running his business as before. You can get anything you want in Plants or Cut Flowers with him. He also has a fine lot of Celery that he is willing to sell for $4.00 per hundred out of the field. Send for sample and order at once. Cut Flowers and Floral Designs a specialty.

J. R. FARRANT.
BELL TELEPHONE.

Application of Guardian to sell Real Estate.
STATE OF VERMONT, ORLEANS DISTRICT ss. In Probate Court held at Newport, in said district, on the 8th day of October, A. D. 1901.

H. H. Somers, of Irassburgh, Guardian of John S. Willey of Irassburgh, in said district, a person unable to take care of himself or his property, makes application to said Court for license to sell all the real estate of said ward, to wit:

Being the home farm of said ward upon which he now resides, situated in said Irassburgh, representing that the sale thereof is for the purpose of paying the debts of said ward, and for his support.

Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court, that said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office in said Newport, on the 30th day of October, A. D. 1901, for hearing and decision thereon.

And it is further ordered, that all persons interested be notified hereof, by publication of notice of said application and order thereon, three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper printed at Barton, Vt., before said time of hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and, if they see cause, object thereto.

By the Court. Attest:
41 43 F. E. ALFRED, Judge

AUCTION SALE.
The subscriber will sell at public auction at the W. O. Harvey place, one-half mile West of South Barton, on Thursday, October 17, at 10 o'clock a. m., sharp, the following personal property: 25 tons of good English hay, Farming Tools, consisting of 2 buggy wagons, 1 three-seated express wagon, 1 heavy two-horse double wagon, 1 buggy wagon, 1 pair driving harnesses, 1 ox cart, 1 light pair of post traverse sleds, 1 pair of heavy lumber sleds, 1 hay tedder, harrows and plows, and other tools, 2 Bellows Falls evaporators, 1900 buckets, spouts and nails, 2 saws, 2 monitors, drawing tubs, Dairy Tools as follows: 1 P. M. Sharp's separator, capacity 750 pounds per hour and a clean skimmer; 1 Stoddard factory churn, will churn from 10 pounds to 250 pounds; 1 large Waters' butter worker, 1 single-horse power, and numerous other small articles.

TERMS: All sums over $10.00, six months' time with approved note.

W. O. HARVEY, South Albany.
W. L. BARROWS, Auctioneer.

Barton Market Report.
Corrected to date of this paper.

The prices at Barton Landing will be found to be nearly the same as those given below.

BUYING.
Butter, per lb.,	.16 to .20
Eggs, per doz.,	.45
Potatoes, per bu., new,	.12
Chickens, per lb.,	.04 1/2 to .05
Beef, per lb.,	.08 1/2
Fresh Pork, per lb., dressed,	.08 1/2
Salt Pork, 12
Beans, per bu.,	.82 1/2
Lard, per lb.,	.10 to .12
Veal, per lb.,	.04
Hay, per ton, pressed,	$11.75
Hay, per ton, bulk,	$9.00
Hogs per lb., live weight,	.05
SELLING.
Beans, per bu.,	$2.50
Hams, per lb.,	.13 to .15
Shorts, per cwt.,	$1.05 to $1.10
Ham, per cwt.,	$1.00 to $1.15
Corn Meal, per cwt.,	$1.30
Corn, per bu.,	.70
Gluten, per cwt.,	$1.15
Cream Gluten, per cwt.,	$1.40
Cotton Seed Meal, prime, per cwt.,	$1.50
Bread Flour, per bbl.,	$4.75
Winter Wheat Flour, per bbl.,	$4.25 to $4.50
Oatmeal, per bu.,	$1.20
Sugar, Granulated, per lb.,	.05 1/2
Beef Steak, per lb.,	.12 to .18
Potatoes, per bu.,	.85
Oats, per bu.,	.40

Young Men and Women are wanted at the

Albany Business College
AND SCHOOL OF SHORTHAND & TELEGRAPHY.
to learn Bookkeeping and Shorthand in preparation for good positions, which may be secured by them. Sessions during entire year. For catalogue address: CARNELL & HOIT, Albany, N. Y.

MILLINERY OPENING.

We invite the ladies to attend our exhibit of

PATTERN HATS AND NOVELTIES,

Wednesday and Thursday, OCTOBER 23 and 24, 1901.

Respectfully,

Mrs. S. D. Stone.

Post-office Block, BARTON.
MRS. M. E. FREEMAN, Trimmer.

PRESERVIT.

This preparation is invaluable for preserving cider. A $1.00 package of this preparation added to a barrel of cider will prevent it from becoming sour or "hard." It will preserve the beverage perfectly and renders it sparkling and wholesome.

Small package, $.50
Large package, 1.00

Try a package and be convinced of its wonderful preserving qualities. On sale at our store.

H. C. PIERCE,
PHARMACIST,
BARTON, VERMONT.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

WE OFFER YOU 4000 ROLLS OF WALL PAPER AT 75 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

TWO HUNDRED PATTERNS TO SELECT FROM.

C. P. JENNESS,
BARTON, VERMONT.

MISS COLBURNE will show at her Millinery Rooms, October 16 and 17, Imported and New York Patterns. Also those of home make. Next door to Bank.

Coffee ! Coffee ! Coffee !

A good cup of coffee is the joy of the breakfast table. We have the best the market affords. Try it.

All Kinds of Fruit, Fresh Every Day.

Best Line of Tobacco in Town.

WE GUARANTEE EVERYTHING AS REPRESENTED.

Will pay cash for Maple Sugar and Eggs. Also want a few trunks, farmers Print Butter.

N. M. SCOTT.
Barton, Vt., Sept. 30, 1901.