Care of Shoes.

Evening shoes should be wrapped in tissue paper, and white shoes will turn yellow unless incased in blue paper. On most light shoe leather a spot or stain can be washed off, but where this is impossible or the shoe is too badly soiled it is better to dye it a darker color or black. Various shoe dyes can be purchased and with a renewal of color now and then you have practically provided for yourself a new pair of shoes.

Medical Dinner

Sallie, a darky cook down in Virginia, has been taught by her mistress to cook chickens en casserole—an accomplishment in which she takes great pride. It is always done on occasions of state, and Sallie hunts up company to show her prowess. Sunday morning recently she came in gleefully with the remark: "Yonder come Mr. Clifford up de road to see Miss Judith. Hadn't I better cook the chicken in castor oil?"

Don't forget the entertainment next Tuesday evening, March 5th given in the opera house under the auspices of the Book and Thimble club for the benefit of the library and reading room, an extended notice of which was given in these columns last week. Miss Gertrude Canfield, a popular impersonator will read and there will be a musical program, both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Belle Somers Robinson of Barton will help to entertain the audience with delightful singing. Remember the proceeds are for the library and reading room. Tickets on sale at Austin's drug store.

An Incident of the Road.

"Stop!" cried the man in the road. "You are exceeding the speed limit." "That's all nonsense," retorted Binks, bringing his car to a standstill.

"That's what they all say," said the man in the road, climbing into the car. "You can tell your story to the magistrate at Hinktown—just seven miles up the road. Start along, please."

They drove on in silence to Hinktown, where, as the car drew up in front of the courthouse, the man in the road got out.

"Much obliged for the lift," said he. "You can settle that matter of speed with the magistrate if you want to. As a stranger in these here parts I don't think my word would go for much."
