GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Nearly one hundred friends and relatives gathered Saturday at the W. L. Locke homestead, now occupied by Wm. Gregory and family, to tender congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Locke on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. When Mr. and Mrs. Locke came from Lyndonville, where they now reside, to spend their anniversary in the house where they had lived practically all of their married life, they had no suspicion of the celebration that was being planned for them. The parlor, where the bride and groom received was decorated in green and white largely with white lilacs. After the first greetings were over the guests were ushered into the dining room, where tables were set and reset with a bountiful dinner to which all did full justice. On the table in front of Mr. and Mrs. Locke was a mammoth wedding cake, in pyramid shape bearing fifty candles. After dinner the guests all gathered on the lawn in front of the house, where Rev. C. A. Adams read a poem written for the occasion by a Coventry friend and a letter from Mrs. Lenora Brewster in which she referred to Mr. and Mrs. Locke's marriage as ideal. Then after a brief tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Locke, Mr. Adams called on Mrs. Cook, who presented a box of gold pieces on behalf of the Irasburg friends, there were also presented at this time gifts from friends at Barton and Lyndonville. Mr. Locke made a fitting response, expressing their pleasure at welcoming so many from out of town some of whom greeted each other after many years and a most unusual and happy circumstance was the presence of Rev. H. K. Story, who officiated at the ceremony fifty years ago. Much credit is due Mr. and Mrs. Gregory and the neighbors who planned and executed the event so perfectly in every detail and the large number present attested to the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Locke are held by the townspeople.

Another Big Sale

Beginning

Thurs. June 6 AND ENDING Sat. Night June 15

Although my previous sale more than met my expectations, I have still a large stock of the Finest Millinery, and have just received a lot of new goods that I did not expect as they were to be shipped last month. But as they have come I am determined to close them out at some price, although I shall be the loser. To any one coming from out of town I will allow your car-fare one way on a $5.00 purchase either in Millinery or Hair Goods. Don't fail to come and see the big values I am giving.

NEW HAIR GOODS

Arriving every week. My sales of these goods has been more than I dared to hope for, which must be proof that my prices are the lowest and quality the highest. Don't fail to come to this sale.
