

Commissioners' Notice
Estate of Henry Hunt

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Honorable Probate Court for the District of Orleans COMMISSIONERS, to receive, examine, and adjust the claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Henry Hunt, late of Orleans, deceased, in said District, deceased, and all claims exhibited in offset thereto, hereby give notice that we will meet for the purpose aforesaid, at the home of E. C. Drown in the town of Barton, Vt., in said District, on the 24th day of May and 28th day of June next, from 10 o'clock a. m. until 12 o'clock p. m., on each of said days and that six months from the 8th day of April, A. D. 1913, is the time limited by said Court for said creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated at Willoughby, Vt., this 22nd day of April, A. D. 1913.

GEORGE WHEELER
ALONZO FOLSOM
Commissioners.

Estate of Mary E. Hall
STATE OF VERMONT

District of Orleans, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District aforesaid:

To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of Mary E. Hall, late of Barton in said District, deceased,

WHEREAS, application hath been made to this court in writing, by the Administrator of the estate of said Mary E. Hall, praying for license and authority to sell all real estate of said deceased, for the payment of debts and charges of administration, setting forth therein the amount of debts due from said deceased, in the balance sheet attached, and the amount of personal estate and the situation of the real estate.

WHEREUPON, the said Court appointed and assigned the 14th day of May, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Probate Office in Newport, in said District, to hear and decide upon said application and petition, and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order together with the time and place of hearing three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate, and the said publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing.

WHEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place assigned, then and there in said Court to make your objections to the granting of such license, if you see cause.

Given under my hand at Newport, in said District, this 28th day of April, 1913.

B. M. SPOONER, Register

Estate of Cynthia S. Denison, Brownington.

District of Orleans, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District aforesaid:

To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of Cynthia S. Denison, late of Brownington in said District, deceased,

WHEREAS, James M. Wymann, executor of the last will and testament of said Cynthia S. Denison in her lifetime, and said executor, do hereby certify that said Cynthia S. Denison received from said Collins French that certain parcel of land situated in said Brownington, described as follows:

Word has been received of the death of W. C. Tucker of South Coventry, Conn. It will be remembered that Mrs. Tucker was Miss Leila Wallace of this place, daughter of T. J. Wallace. Mr. Tucker had Bright's disease and liver trouble but death was hastened by an auto accident. Mrs. Tucker was driving the automobile that overturned and brought on the injuries that finally caused his death. Mr. Tucker was a prominent hotel man. Rev. George Wright of Wapping, Conn., officiated at the funeral. Mr. Wright was formerly at Irasburg.

SOUTH ALBANY.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hardy are moving to Craftsbury this week.

W. B. Locke has gone to Athol to see his son Harry, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Cora Winslow and Mrs. W. E. Hanson of Barton were guests of Mrs. O. M. Rowell last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orne, with friends from Green's Corners, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Services will be held at the schoolhouse next Sunday at the usual hour, until further arrangements can be made.

Mrs. F. C. Brown of Orleans, Mrs. W. W. Williams and Mrs. H. G. Perley of Barton were at A. D. Patterson's last week.

Mrs. A. C. Williams spent a part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Chase, before Mrs. Fred Chase left for her new home in Woodbury.

Miss Susie Miller spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. Henry Magoon. Her sister, Miss Katie Miller, spent Sunday at her home here.

Floyd and Hester Webster, who have been staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keith, since the fire, have returned and will be in school again.

Members of the Passumpsic Telephone Company were in town Wednesday, the day after the fire, and installed a central at Will Courser's for the present. Mrs. Elmer Douglass is tending the phone.

A meeting was held at the schoolhouse Saturday evening to see what could be done about putting up a new store. A paper was circulated and $800 promised. It was thought best to hold another meeting on Saturday evening of this week, May 17, to which all are invited. It is expected that it will be decided at this meeting, who will have charge of the store.

WILLOUGHBY

Miss Ollie Sheldon has the measles.

E. C. Drown has begun peeling pulp.

Mrs. Stone visited Mrs. Thrasher over Sunday.

Winifred Kimball of West Burke was home over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Gray, who has had typhoid pneumonia, is better.

Mrs. Julia Drown has gone to New Haven, Conn., to visit her son.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kimball of Newport spent the day here Thursday.

G. L. Duke and family of Lyndonville recently visited at E. C. Drown's.

Fred Kimball has moved his family into the tenement vacated by Mrs. Myra Abbott.

Bessie Gray, who has been home on account of her mother's illness, has returned to Sutton.

The services held in the schoolhouse Sunday were well attended and Mr. Warner's address much appreciated. Plans are being made for a Sunday school, which will be arranged Sunday at the service which will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It is expected Rev. Mr. Allen of Barton will speak.

LIBERATION NOTICE

This is to certify that I have this day given my son, Albert R. Hardy, his time during his minority and will pay none of his debts nor collect his wages after this date.

VERNON R. HARDY
19-21p

YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN

Are urged to study BOOKKEEPING, SHORTHAND, TYPEWRITING AND STENOGRAPHY at the

ALBANY BUSINESS COLLEGE

as a preparation for good positions which we can secure for them. The demand for our well trained graduates is greater than the supply. Spring and summer sessions for teachers and others. Send for catalogue, Carnell & Hoyt, Albany, N. Y.

ALBANY

G. A. Sargent of Orleans is painting the creamery.

Mrs. J. B. Darling, who was ill last week, is better.

Eber Bashaw is painting J. D. Kelley's house.

Mr. Poutry has purchased Peter Mitchell's farm.

Lucy Martin is home from Orleans, sick with measles.

Mahlon Farman of Lowell visited at J. D. Kelley's last week.

Mr. McAllister from Lowell visited his cousin, Mrs. Charles Winget, last week.

Muriel Brown is assisting in R. M. Cowles's store during the absence of Merle Mills.

Ovid Taylor from Dover, N. H., has moved to the farm purchased of Charles Day.

Mrs. Charlotte Chamberlain, who has spent the past winter in Florida, returned home last week.

Bert Shedd has been retained by the Passumpsic Telephone Company to attend to this end of their line.

The teachers' meeting for Hardwick, Craftsbury and Albany will be held at Albany Friday, May 16.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mathews and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sargent of Orleans called on friends in town Sunday.

Commencing with Sunday, May 11, the morning service at the M. E. church will begin at 10:30 instead of 10:45 as formerly.

Mrs. Rosa Page, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Reynolds, returned last week to her home in Medford, Mass.

The ladies of the Congregational church will serve dinner Friday, May 16, to the attendants at the union school meeting, and to all others who wish to attend, for 25 cents.

C. D. McGuire, Dr. Goddard, Carroll Hitchcock, James Martin, Herbert Carter and Arthur Cheney attended the meeting of the Independent Telephone company at Barton Saturday.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church Wednesday the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mary Stone; vice presidents, Mrs. Mina Eldridge and Mrs. Ruth Martin; secretary, Mrs. Helen Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. T. J. Wallace; assistant secretary, Mrs. Effie Lanphear.

Word has been received of the death of W. C. Tucker of South Coventry, Conn. It will be remembered that Mrs. Tucker was Miss Leila Wallace of this place, daughter of T. J. Wallace. Mr. Tucker had Bright's disease and liver trouble but death was hastened by an auto accident. Mrs. Tucker was driving the automobile that overturned and brought on the injuries that finally caused his death. Mr. Tucker was a prominent hotel man. Rev. George Wright of Wapping, Conn., officiated at the funeral. Mr. Wright was formerly at Irasburg.

SHEFFIELD

Perley Drew and Gertie Doff were recently married.

There will be a social at the vestry Friday evening of this week.

Ruth Barber has been ill with the German measles the past week.

George Snelling is stopping with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Blake, for a time.

Mrs. Henry Mitchell is visiting Mrs. Samuel Mitchell at Lyndon Center this week.

Sadie Gray attended the funeral of Mrs. Gilbert Gray in Lyme, N. H., Tuesday.

Virgil Chesley has purchased the farm known as the Harley Bailey farm in Sutton.

Charles Sheldon is visiting his son Bert at St. Johnsbury. He remains quite comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Brown, also Mr. and Mrs. Willie Willard recently attended the funeral of Rev. Mr. Lance at Newport.

Fred Snelling of Wheelock and Mildred Snelling, daughter of Charles and Ethel Snelling, were united in marriage by Rev. O. S. Bancroft Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Davis and Mrs. Chas. Newell attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Leach in Kirby Sunday. Mrs. Leach was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bennett of this place.

Several from this place attended the funeral of Rev. J. D. Waldron. The choir consisted of Mrs. S. A. Jones, Mrs. Willie Willard, A. J. Griffin and Leon Ross of this place.

WEST BURKE

Henry Moulton has not been as well again for the past week.

Mrs. Wayne Stoddard is visiting relatives and friends in Montpelier.

Bert Dean and family of Rochester, N. H., visited at George Dean's recently.

Mrs. Nettie McCoy is boarding at W. G. Ainger's during the remainder of the school year.

Mrs. E. F. Miles has purchased the George Brown property and expects to take possession soon.

Mrs. Ernest Miles came down stairs last week for the first time in weeks, and is much better in many ways.

Mrs. A. C. Way and little son Leighton visited friends in Lyndonville, on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Myrtle Caswell and Mrs. Emma Coburn go to Burlington this week to attend the D. of R. state assembly.

Miss Myrtle Alexander came home from Montreal Wednesday of last week, and is improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Miss Wilda McFarland, who has been visiting relatives in town for several weeks, has returned to her home in Waterford.

Frank Ainger of Bellows Falls was in town last week. Mrs. Arthur Bean was called to Montpelier last week by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Henry Bugbee, who has been keeping house at Gordon Ainger's for the past year, returned to her home last week and Mrs. Ainger's niece, Mrs. Kelly of Derby, is caring for Mrs. Ainger, who remains about the same.

Mrs. E. G. Way and sons have purchased the W. E. Gaskell property and will probably take possession in a few weeks. It is expected Mr. Gaskell will move into the tenement now occupied by Mrs. Way and A. W. Brockway has engaged A. C. Way's tenement.

The V. I. society will meet Thursday afternoon of this week with Mrs. J. F. Ruggles. The meeting will open promptly at three o'clock, and we hope the attendance will be much larger than at the meeting two weeks ago. All old papers will be thankfully received by Mrs. H. C. Colby and will be called for if necessary.

The sixtieth anniversary of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will be celebrated by Unity Council, No. 27, at the G. A. R. hall, on the evening of Friday, May 16th. Some good speakers are expected, including Mr. Keardon of Barre, Judge Noyes of Concord, N. H., and Mr. E. A. Cook of Lyndonville, and the evening promises to be both pleasant and profitable. Supper will be served after the speaking.

SUTTON

Lucile Barker has the measles.

F. E. Chapman is having his house shingled.

Mrs. Geo. Gilman is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Adams.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradbury May 6.

H. D. Chapman has engaged Mr. Roland to paint his house.

E. M. Phiffled and three children are recovering from the measles.

Don Wheeler has sold his farm to Virgil Chesley of Sheffield.

The C. E. meeting will be held at the North Ridge Friday night.

Henri Butterfield of Bellows Falls is visiting relatives and friends in town.

A new iron fence has been erected around the Colby memorial monument.

H. A. Blake is repairing the inside of his house by painting and papering.

C. B. Joy has sold his Klondike farm in Sheffield to Mr. Wood of St. Johnsbury.

The Wednesday evening prayer meeting will be held at Ladies' Aid hall this week.

Clinton Hasbrook, Hartley Butterfield and Alton Davis were in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Robert Carter of Peru, Indiana is in town. Mr. Carter's family were among the people rescued in the flood in Indiana.

If the weather is favorable, Rev. Mr. Hutchinson of Lyndonville will preach here next Sunday in exchange with Rev. A. N. Chandler.

A son-in-law of D. M. Goodwin has sent him a five pound trout. Mr. Goodwin thinks that if he had more sons-in-law he would have more trout.

Clinton Hasbrook, Walter Craig, H. D. Chapman, Miss Angie Davis and Miss Bertha Craig attended the funeral of Mrs. Jella (Bennett) Leach Sunday at Kirby.

The old house near Albert Clark's mill and occupied by Mr. Morin and family was burned one day last week. The men fought bravely to save the mill and the lumber.

It was Mrs. Gilbert Gray and not Mrs. Sarah Gray of Lyme, N. H., who died as reported last week. Mrs. Sarah Gray is however in a very critical condition from her recent burn.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years of suffering with spinal trouble. The remains were brought to Sheffield, her former home, Rev. O. S. Bancroft officiating at the funeral. She leaves a husband, who is quite feeble, three daughters and one sister to mourn her loss. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. George Snelling died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carleton, in Bradford after several years