Vermont Editors Coming to Barton.

Editor Gilpin of this paper has invited the Vermont Press association to meet at Barton for its annual summer meeting and outing, August 5 and 6 and it is expected a large representation of Vermont editors and their ladies will be present. The outing opens on the evening of Thursday, August 5 with a banquet at Hotel Barton at which Ex-Lieutenant Governor or Howe, editor of the Bennington Banner will preside. Among the speakers will be Congressman Frank I. Greene, formerly editor of the St. Albans Messenger and an honorary member of the association; Arthur Pratt Howard, the new editor of the Advance and others. Frank O. French of St. Johnsbury will entertain. On Friday morning the delegation will go to Willoughby lake by automobile and spend the day there. They will dine at Pisgah lodge and spend the day in sports, and a trip on the lake and other recreation. On Friday evening the association members will assemble at the house of Le Beau Lac Boat club where a business meeting and social dance will be enjoyed. This is an opportunity for Barton to place itself upon the map by showing the Vermont colt pushers that we have a live modern town and that our people are anxious to make strangers feel comfortable and at home. The impression of a town left upon the minds of all these newspaper men is really of some importance. State conventions seldom meet here and now is a good time to show the newspaper men what we are made of up here. Mr. Gilpin is serving his second year as president of the association.

Congregational Church Notes.

The Christian Endeavor service will be held in the auditorium of the Congregational church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. No other service will be held in the church during the day.

BOYS' STOCK JUDGING AT FAIR.

Another department and interesting feature of the Orleans County fair to be held at Barton August 17-20 is a boys' stock-judging contest. This contest is held in co-operation with the Vermont Agricultural Extension service. This will be a valuable stimulus to greater interest in good stock and the judging of good points in stock. Any boy under 18 years of age is eligible to compete and all judging will be supervised by a representative of the extension service. The prizes are $10, $5, $3 and $2. This department ought to interest the boys of Orleans county and create considerable interest among them. For more detailed particulars a letter to C. E. Hamblet will bring a premium book which contains all necessary information.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

The subject of the pastor's sermon Sunday morning was "Appreciation" taken from the story of the prodigal son, making special mention of the elder brother. Do you your best you put your mind on your work and also love it. Duty has never turned out a master workman. The man who brings things to pass is the one who puts his heart into it. The prodigal son is a splendid picture of God's love, but one virtuous man is better than all the prodigals. It is when a man is struggling that he needs the helpful word, not after he is dead. Do not criticize President Wilson these are trying times for him and he needs your prayers. The sharpest critic a singer meets is one who cannot carry a tune himself. Nothing spurs a man to work like good wholesome praise. No one has ever been spoiled by praise but many like the elder brother have been embittered by lack of it. Jesus showed his appreciation of everyone. Appreciation is a Christian grace to be cultivated, lifting up of Jesus Christ and appreciation of our fellowmen.

Remember the prayer meeting Thursday evening.

The concert Friday night was a decided success. Every number on the program merited special praise. The society cleared $31.62 for the piano fund.

Sunday evening the pastor gave an interesting talk on the life of Samuel Chapman Armstrong.

C. E. Allechurch of New York City has been the guest of his mother and his sister, Mrs. Victor Hunter, the past week.

George LaBar of Delwater Gap, Pa., was recent visitor in town and is preparing for the season's Christmas tree output.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Proctor and children went by automobile to Springfield, Mass., Sunday, where they visited relatives.

Warren W. Hartwell of Northfield was a caller in town last week. He has been spending a few days at Willoughby lake.

S. O. Mitchell entertained his mother Mrs. Samuel Mitchell, and his sister, Miss Ila Mitchell of Irasburg, the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Underwood spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. McLellan at the McLellan cottage at Willoughby lake.

The following letter remains uncalled for at the postoffice. Please see advertisement when calling for these letters. Ralph Church.

H. J. McCaffery of Lyndonville, on leave of absence from the first class battleship "Texas," is visiting relatives and friends in town.

Mrs. Chester Proctor and daughters of Sherbrooke, P. Q., and Mrs. Elisha Foster of Evansville are guests at the home of Mrs. Della Willson this week.

Irma King, who played the violin at the concert Friday night and her sister, Ruth, of Passumpsic, spent the week-end with their uncle, George E. King, and family.

Prof. E. L. Erwin was the guest of Lester Kinsley and party at Long pond Friday. J. E. Smith, formerly principal of Orleans high school was also a guest in the party.

Mrs. H. J. Stannard entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Howard of Albion, N. Y., Mrs. Emma Perley and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wright at a dinner party Friday.

A Fine Concert

Seldom do Barton people have the privilege of listening to a more pleasing program of musical variety than at the concert given at the M. E. church Friday evening under the auspices of the Women's Alliance, the proceeds from which will go toward helping to pay for a piano for the auditorium. The following program was rendered, each number receiving hearty applause from an audience that nearly filled the church. This entertainment only shows what local talent Barton possesses. Organ solo, selected, Mrs. Bessie Adams; bass solo, "Our Jack," C. B. Webster; clarinet trio, "Serenade," Messrs. Potter and Owen and Miss Potter; reading, "Air Castles," Mrs. Daisy Baldwin; solo, "When Song Is Sweet," Esther Perley of Orleans; piano solo, "Scarf Dance," Marjorie Hastings; violin solo, "Scène de Ballet," Irma King of Passumpsic; reading, "Sects in Heaven," Mrs. Daisy Baldwin; vocal quartet, "For You," Mrs. H. J. Stannard; violin duet, "On the High Alps," Messrs. Webster and Wilson; clarinet solo, selected, Slayton Lang.

Teachers' Examinations.

Teachers' examinations and examinations for free tuition will be held in the high school at Barton academy Thursday and Friday, August 12th and 13th.

C. L. Erwin, Superintendent. 30-32

Teacher Training.

If a sufficient number of candidates for the teacher training course present themselves before August to insure the continuing of a very exceptional teacher will be assigned here by the state board of education. Miss Harris, who was here last year will not return as she has been engaged on the west side of the state. Barton academy and graded school will open Tuesday, August 31.

The ladies of the Congregational church will entertain the ladies of the Methodist church at a picnic at Le Beau Lac boat club house Thursday, July 29. Dinner at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. C. P. Jenness wishes to thank the ladies of the Congregational society and other friends for the beautiful flowers they have sent and for their kindly remembrance of her.

Fred Whitcher and family, Fred Comstock and family, Ora Willard and family and Victor Hunter and party, all took a trip to the White Mountains Sunday in their automobiles.

The two small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Powers of Fitzdale, nee Margaret Keating, of this place, are spending their vacation on the Keating farm and with Mrs. C. W. Heath, their aunt.

Miss Kathleen Piper of Lynn, Mass., Miss Gladys Wolf of Peabody and Miss Vera Chadrey of Waltham, Mass., all members of the Triace Viger orchestra of Montreal, are guests at C. H. Lee's.

Mrs. W. H. Warner of North Troy is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Goodro. Francis Goodro, who has been visiting at North Troy the past month, returned here with Mrs. Warner.

H. W. Carter is taking a business trip to Springfield and New Haven, Conn., this week. The Kolyonos company, of which Mr. Carter is a director, have just awarded a contract for a new $100,000 factory to be built at New Haven.

F. Willard Magoon, chiroprapist, will treat all ailments of the feet, four days, commencing Wednesday of each week during the month of August. Telephone W. M. Magoon's cottage for appointments. 30-32

Miss Gertrude Skinner of New York is home for the summer vacation and above the lake, nee Gertrude Skinner, for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Skinner, have gone to the Batchelder cottage in Crystal Lake Grove for the season.

At the Boat club's Thursday night, last week, Miss Gordon of Montreal, formerly of England, sang several selections, which were much appreciated. Miss Gordon has a delightful voice. C. B. Webster also contributed to the short informal entertainment.

Aime Blair and Arthur Thompson, who are working at Morgan on a large barn for Herbert Hayward narrowly escaped serious injury one day last week when the staging on which they were working broke away from the structure and they received a 25-foot fall.

Miss Marion Carter is entertaining her friend, Miss Lucy Mallory of Springfield, Mass., this week and will take an automobile trip through the White Mountains the last of the week. Miss Carter gave an informal party and dance for Miss Mallory at the Club house last evening.

Robert Jewell of Atlanta, Ga., is a guest at the Crystal Lake House, and is spending a week's vacation here. Mr. Jewell has a position with the Hartford Insurance company at the Atlanta office, but "Bob" lived in Barton most of his life and admits that it's a mighty good place to live at least part of the time.

The village water will be shut off tomorrow, Thursday, while the work of spouting the water supply from above the reservoir down into the pipes is being done. The reservoir is to be thoroughly cleaned and will not be refilled until the cleaning is completed. By spouting the water from above the reservoir it will give water for ordinary purposes. The water commissioner requests that consumers draw as little water as possible.

Newport Chautauqua Information.

Interest in the Newport Chautauqua appears to have been aroused here by the Orleans Chautauqua program and the Monitor is glad to give a bit of information about the Newport event for the benefit of its readers. The ideal place to take a vacation or an outing, is at Pisgah Lodge, Willoughby lake. The managers have worked very hard to make the place attractive and furnish a first-class menu. The bracing air and magnificent view are unparalleled in Vermont. Barton parties who dined at the house recently were charmed by its neatness and fine service.

"Songs and Stories from Many Lands," sounds attractive, and with Miss Marion Bickford and Miss Gertrude Skinner, should be especially so. Both Miss Bickford and Miss Skinner have given song and story recitals here previously and this one at Seaver's hall on Wednesday evening, August 11, in which both these talented artists appear, should bring a very large attendance.

In the municipal court held here yesterday, Judge Cushman presiding, Elbridge Miles of Barton sought to recover damages from A. E. Powers of Lowell for the sale of a horse to Miles. Reiden for the plaintiff and George Young for the defense. A jury was impaneled and the case occupied all the afternoon and early evening. The jury was unable to reach an agreement and was discharged.
