Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Prayer service tonight at 7.30 o'clock. Let us not forget the assembling of ourselves together for prayer.

Sunday services. Sermons by the pastor at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. The Bible school follows the morning service. The lessons are full of interest. Come and join us if you are not a member of any school.

The evening meeting at 7.30 continues only an hour. Some time is given at the opening to a praise service in which all are invited to join. The pastor will speak briefly on an important theme.

The first quarterly conference for the year was held Tuesday evening, District Superintendent Lowe presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hobson and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Robinson of Island Pond motored over to the Sunday morning service, their own church being closed. As old parishioners and friends we were glad to see them and think it a splendid way to make use of the automobile under such circumstances.

Congregational Church Notes.

The mid-week meeting will be held in the chapel tonight at 7.30. The topic is "Christian Freedom." We hope for a good attendance.

Morning worship Sunday at the usual hour. The pastor's sermon will be upon "Giving Our Best." There will be good music by the choir. A cordial welcome is extended to all not worshipping elsewhere here.

The Sunday school will meet at the close of morning worship. Lesson subject, "The Visit of the Queen of Sheba to Solomon." Many helpful truths applicable to life today may be found in this ancient story.

The members of the Sunday school, who have not missed attendance from Sunday school for the past three months for sickness, or absence from town or other good reasons, took their annual ride and picnic Tuesday. The party, which comprised nearly sixty, left at the church about nine o'clock in automobiles and after a ride through Barton reached the south end of Willoughby lake where bathing was participated in by many of the boys, games were played and luncheon was eaten. Then followed a ride in motor boats on the lake, after which came the ride home. The day was beautiful in every respect and the outing much enjoyed by all.
