Brilliant Fish Hues.
Like birds, many fishes assume their brightest hue when they wish to attract the opposite sex of their species. The colors of the male common pike become exceedingly intense, brilliant and iridescent in the breeding season. The eel also puts on an intense silvery hue at the breeding time which is very noticeable and at one time caused naturalists to distinguish it as a distinct species. The males of the tench, roach and perch also show a marked increase in brilliancy in the breeding season.

CHRONICLE OF THE DRUM.
Last year, my love, it was my hap
Behind a grenadier to be.
And, but he wore a hairy cap,
No taller man, methinks, than me.
Prince Albert and the queen,
God wot,
(Be blessings on the glorious pair)
Before us passed, I saw them not,
I only saw a cap of hair.
Your orthodox historian puts
In foremost rank the soldier thus,
The redcoat bully in his boots
That hides the march of men from us.
He puts him there in foremost rank,
You wonder at his cap of hair;
You hear his sabre's cursed clank,
His spurs are jingling everywhere.
Go to! I hate him and his trade,
Who bade us so to cringe and bend,
And all God's peaceful people made
To such as him subservient?
Tell me what find we to admire
In epaulets and scarlet coats
In men, because they load and fire
And know the art of cutting throats?
—William Makepeace Thackeray.

Heartless Hoax.
"My wife gave a reception yesterday."
"Did you attend?"
"Yes. I played a practical joke on her. I got in line where she was receiving, and before she knew it she was smiling and saying she was glad to see me —for the first time in three years."—Washington Star.

Keeping in Touch
When the up-to-date man wants to take a day off, a week-end trip, or even a month's vacation, he doesn't sigh "to get away from a telephone."

Like the late E. H. Harriman, he makes the telephone a servant, not a master; uses it when he deems it desirable to keep in touch with business affairs; and refuses to let it intrude upon his leisure, without warrant.

One talk daily to the office or factory, and—for a limited period, at least,—the rest of the day belongs to the man who has the right kind of an organization.

There will be no toll charge on a particular party call, but you are not connected with the person whose name you have given to the Toll Operator.
