Blinks—Is he? Why, he operated on Jones for three things he didn't have and saved him!—New York Globe.

Following Principles.
"Did you see Bibbles disappear as soon as he saw his wife coming without even waiting to see what she wanted?"
"He wasn't taking any chances on that. You see, he belongs to a 'safety first' society."—Baltimore American.

Real Reason.
Friend—I suppose the bank examiner comes around to find out what is on hand? Banker (grimly)—No; more often to find out what's on foot!—Boston Journal.

It is difficult to persuade mankind that the love of virtue is the love of themselves.—Cicero.

WESTFIELD

Reuben H. Wright is in poor health.
W. D. Bell was in Wolcott last week.
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gray were in St. Johnsbury last week.
John G. Watkins has repaired his house and made changes in the interior.
Mrs. Blanchard will be at Mrs. Joseph Goddard's on Sept. 28 and 29 with millinery goods.
Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hazen of Shirley, Mass., who are spending the week at W. C. Farman's in Troy, visited in town Tuesday.
The Christian Endeavor meeting on Sunday evening was a very interesting service. Miss Ila Tenney of Newport gave a report of the World's C. E. convention which she attended in Chicago as delegate from the county union.

WESTMORE
Wayne French went to Boston Friday night.
Miss Ila LaClair is working for Mrs. C. H. Atkins.
Sherman Ross is selling out his goods at the store at a reduction this week.
Mrs. Gaylord Fox and son, Preston, visited at M. E. Clapper's the past week.
Mrs. Clough has gone to West Burke to spend some weeks with her grandson, Arthur Berry.

THE GREENSBOROS

GREENSBORO
Miss Ruth Williams has been ill the past week.
Mrs. George Y. Simpson has been visiting the past week at Enosburg Falls.
Mrs. Julia Batchelder of Burlington is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Bertha Miller.
An unusually large number from this place attended the fair at East Hardwick Saturday.
Judge and Mrs. W. P. Stafford have just returned from a week's visit with friends in Bennington.
The Misses Alice and Cora Burbee of Morrisville spent the past week visiting at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kinney.
Professor Eliss Perry will leave Thursday of this week for his work as professor of English literature in Harvard university.
