Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Mid-week service tonight at 7.30 o'clock. Your presence would encourage others.

Sunday services. Sermons at 10.30 a. m., and 7.15 p. m., by the pastor.

In spite of a very sultry day, the church was well filled at each service Sunday, to hear Rev. W. R. Davenport in the morning and the Rev. G. W. Burke in the evening.

Friday night the members of the Junior League and the mothers were invited by their superintendent, Mrs. Fred Witt to a lawn party at her home on School street, given in honor of Miss Dorothy's eighth birthday.

The W. H. M. society held a special meeting at the church Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Kinney, in charge.

ORLEANS John Colton has bought a new Chalmers car.

W. C. Twombly has purchased a new Chalmers.

Miss Juline Rogers has returned from Burlington.

Dean Corley of Johnson has been visiting friends here.

Miss Esther Perley is assisting in the Eldridge office.

Eva Grow of Hartford, Conn., is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Harold Searles has been visiting friends at Derby.

The Orleans band will furnish music for the fair Thursday.

Miss McQueen of Stanstead is visiting at Homer Locke's.

Miss Gladys Head of Albany was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Gerald French is taking a vacation from his duties at the bank.

Miss Lula Heath is having a vacation from the Eldridge office.

Miss Bertha Richardson of Littleton is visiting at H. S. Webster's.

Mrs. A. E. Barrey of Woodsville was a week-end visitor in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tripp of Boston are visiting friends here.

Mrs. Ann Tuttle of Waterbury has been visiting at Mrs. Chamberlin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Emerson have been spending a few days at Albany.

Beatrice and Persis Stearns are spending vacations at Laconia, N. H.

Mrs. A. J. Moore of Brighton is visiting at the home of R. B. Skinner.

Miss Mae Willey is on a vacation at Salem, Mass., and some of the seaside places.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. French are taking an auto trip through Canada and Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Demick of Montreal have been visiting his brother, E. A. Demick.

Mrs. Joel Temple recently visited her daughter, Mrs. Belle Elliott, in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Daniels of Skinner, Me., have been visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fletcher of Keene, N. H., are spending a few days with Mrs. D. L. Willey.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaisdell and a party of friends motored to the White Mountains one day last week.

Rev. G. W. Burke, a former pastor here, has been here a few days renewing pleasant acquaintances.

John Orne, a former resident of Irasburg, now of Seal Beach, California, has been visiting here.

A. D. Beede and Colby Stoddard took a business trip to northern New Hampshire one day last week.

Miss Lucille Whitney of Boston, who has been spending a few weeks at A. O. Austin's, has returned home.

Rev. and Mrs. Davenport have been visiting at John Brennan's. Mr. Davenport was a former pastor here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sisco and Mrs. John Kipp of Newport were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Joslyn.

On account of the Barton fair the usual Thursday evening band concert was held at Postoffice square last evening.

H. H. Mack and daughters, Kate and Maggie, and O. J. Paquette of Hardwick have been visiting at F. J. Kinney's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holden of Greenfield, Mass., visited Mrs. Holden's brother, Lincoln Campbell, one day last week.

C. B. Stoddard and son, Clement, of Lowell, Mass., are visiting his brother, Colby Stoddard and attending the Barton fair.

The Tuesday morning Caledonian again shows Miss Doris Spafford in the lead of all contestants for the grand automobile prize.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Renfrew of Ryegate have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. H. Sweet, and were entertained at the new home.

On Saturday, Sept. 2, examinations will be held at the high school at 9 o'clock a. m., in subjects in which students were conditioned last year.

Prof. A. G. Fletcher and family have returned from a long visit at Amherst, Mass., and are preparing for the opening of O. H. S., Sept. 5.

Mrs. Cynthia Gallup and Miss Lillian Gallup of Marlboro have been calling on friends in town and are now spending a few days at Willoughby lake.

Miss Mildred Hay of Derby has been engaged to teach the sixth and seventh grades of Orleans graded school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Ray Wilkie.

Mrs. E. A. Girard, Sr., and W. L. Girard of Rock Island have been visiting at E. A. Girard's. Mrs. Girard, who is about 80 years of age, enjoyed an auto trip alongside Willoughby lake Sunday.

Several auto loads of enthusiastic bathers visit the beach at Crystal lake nearly every day. A party of the Orleans Bathing Bugs donated $10 toward the expense of maintaining the bathhouse and grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Moore and son, Ernest, of Chelsea, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey Black and daughter, Edith, of Revere, Mass., Mrs. May Coburn and son, Harold, of Sutton also friends from Manchester, N. H., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Corliss.

Work on the East street improvements and the raising of the Willoughby river bridge is proceeding rapidly.

The bridge has been raised about five feet and the abutments have been increased in solid cement. The approaches to the bridge are being widened and the road straightened.

O. W. Locke, head of the local fire department, has been investigating neighboring fire departments and finds that the neighboring hose coupling and fire equipment of Barton, Coventry, Newport and Orleans is all uniform and can be used interchangeably. This might easily prove a very important feature in case of serious fires.

The Orleans high and graded schools will begin Tuesday, Sept. 5. Nearly all the former students intend to return. The scarcity of boarding and lodging places may keep a few new students from entering. It is the earnest desire of the school board to accommodate such pupils and any who can furnish either board or rooms will favor both school and students by notifying the principal. One young man desires to work for his board and room, and otherwise will be unable to attend school.

AMERICAN RIGHTS.

"No one could successfully present to an American audience that an American citizen's rights stopped with the coast line."

"There is not a particle of militarism in my composition, but there is Americanism in its place, and if elected I am going to see that American rights are protected."

LABOR.

"The workman is not asking anything he should not have. All he wants is a square deal."

"No such thing as prosperity exists for just one class in America, unless it exists for all."

"The Republican party does not stand for the prosperity produced by the war, but for a prosperity produced by sound American policies, and these are what we propose to have."

PREPAREDNESS.

"Do not let us get this country into a low patriotic plane so that we are content with disesteem, with the scoff of the world."

"I am an American citizen, I ought to be the proudest title in the world."

CIVIL SERVICE.

"We had in the coast and geodetic survey an eminent scientist. He was displaced to make room for an excellent stock breeder."

"It is the most unworthy thing an administration can do to take public business and pay political debts with it."
