A Popular Verdict

Based on Evidence of Barton People.

Grateful thousands tell it— Of weak backs made strong— Of weak kidneys made well— Urinary disorders corrected. Barton people add their testimony. They praise Doan's Kidney Pills. Barton testimony is now complete. Barton testimony is confirmed; Reports of early relief substantiated. Merit doubly proved by test of time. Let a Barton woman speak. Mrs. E. C. Wilkie, High street, Barton, says: "I had severe pains in my back and other symptoms of kidney trouble. I knew of many people who had been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills and I tried them. Three boxes of this medicine removed the trouble."

USES DOAN'S AGAIN.

Mrs. Wilkie gave the above statement September 4, 1908 and on October 9, 1913, she added: "When I use Doan's Kidney Pills, they certainly give excellent results and I am glad to again endorse them." Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilkie has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Spelling No Guide to Pronunciation.

According to eminent English educators spelling is absolutely no guide to pronunciation. To prove this assertion Professor Jones of the University college, London, gives as an instance of the futility of trying to pronounce according to spelling a puzzle which requires the word "fixtore" to be spelled without using any of the letters in it. The answer is "phykscha." Potato could be spelled "ghoughphtheightteeau," "gh" representing "p" as in "hicough," "ough" "o" as in "though," "phth" "t" as in "phthisis," "a" as in "weigh," "t" "g" as in "gazette," and "eau" "o" as in "beau."

The subject for C. E. meeting Sunday evening will be, "The Grace of Gratitude." Leader, Guy Allen. Everett Rutledge has not been able to be in attendance at Craftsbury academy the past week because of illness. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John L. King Nov. 15th, and has been named Judith Annie. Congratulations. There was no session of the schools here Friday to allow the teachers of the school to attend the convention in Morrisville. J. D. The members of the Greensboro cornet band assisted by some of their friends are rehearsing a drama which will be given in the town hall Nov. 29 for the benefit of the band. N. L. The Caspian Lake Basket Ball team will play the Boy Scouts team of Hardwick a return game at that place Thursday evening, Nov. 30th. This should be a good game as the teams are very evenly matched and both play a clean game. Petitions are being circulated for an extension school to be held here this winter under the management of the Orleans County Agricultural association. It looks as though the project would succeed, to the great advantage of the farmers of this vicinity. Have you given the matter your sanction?

The Vigilants and the Glad Grace Chayer of the Congregational church Sunday school will hold a social in the chapel and parlor of the church Friday evening, Dec. 1st. Miss Mary Bailey, principal of Craftsbury academy, will be present and address the classes. Refreshments will be served. It is hoped that every member of the classes will be present. The local Sunday schools voted recently to hold a community Christmas tree in the town hall and a committee was appointed by each of the churches to take the matter in charge in conjunction with the day school teachers. These two committees, with the day school teachers, met Wednesday evening at the home of A. E. Perrin to complete plans for the celebration. The court trial at Newport last week, in which F. F. Wakefield sued the town of Greensboro for breach of contract in the building of the new town hall, was finished, and the verdict of the jury was for the defendant. Adams of Norwich is spending a few weeks with his brother, E. L. Adams. Mrs. Iris Collier visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jessie Forrest, the first of the week. Miss Bessie Tilliston of Waterville visited her sister, Mrs. J. B. Silver, the last of the week. George Colby has purchased the saw-mill at Greensboro of Norwood Drown and will move his family there soon. Their many friends are sorry to have them move away. The sewing circle met with Mrs. Nettie Lumsden Friday afternoon Nov. 17th. Mrs. W. D. Hill furnished a double team to carry the ladies from the Bend to Mrs. Lumsden's. There were 12 ladies present and they tied a quilt, besides doing some other sewing. Mrs. Lumsden served sugar on snow to all present.
