ALL THE ALBANYNS

ALBANY

The sugar makers are getting busy this week.

Miss Laclair has returned to her home in Lowell.

A little child of Hervey Daniel is very ill with pneumonia.

The schools in town closed Friday for the spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Page attended the funeral of a cousin in Troy recently.

Judge Tenney, Fred Fletcher and Mr. Wells are all home from court this week.

Calvin Carter and family of Greensboro visited in town the first of the week.

Mrs. Florence Tinker, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Day, has returned to her home.

Frank C. Hunter, who passed his 72d birthday March 6th, died Monday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Luella Eldridge, of a shock. He was stricken about 4 o'clock and died at 11 o'clock that evening. Mr. Hunter was unconscious almost from the time of being stricken and did not recognize his son. Mr. Hunter was born here March 6, 1845, and spent the greater part of his life in town until 11 years ago, since which time he has made his home much of the time with his son, Victor, of Barton. His wife, who was Addie M. Pierce of Barton, died 11 years ago and had been a faithful helpmate on the farm here where they lived. One son, Victor, and a sister, Mrs. Eldridge, survive as near relatives. Mr. Hunter was a man of integrity, industry and well thought of by a large circle of friends. He was a member of the Baptist church. The funeral is being held here this afternoon, Rev. C. W. Kelley of Irasburg officiating. Burial will be at East Burke where the body is being taken today.

R. W. Ames was in Dixville, Canada, last week.

Napoleon Mason has been quite ill with bronchitis.

Miss Mammie Locke of Barton spent Sunday with her parents.

Walter Urie of West Glover spent Sunday at his home here.

Leo Williams is at home from U. V. M. for his Easter vacation.

James Calderwood and Edward Conner began work Monday for W. F. Ames.

The village school, taught by Miss Doris Cameron of West Glover, closed Friday.

Miss Bernice Martin of Montpelier is spending her Easter vacation with her parents.

Mrs. Charles Porter is in Glover caring for Mrs. Nancy Crosier, who has been quite ill for several weeks.

Guy Courser has returned from his work at North Troy and is going to help H. D. Rowell with sugaring.

GLOVER GLEANINGS

GLOVER

Mrs. Ellery Dunn is improving.

Levi Lamorey's children are better.

Paul Francis began work for Alva Rich Monday.

Tracy Cook was home from Lyndonville last week.

Mrs. R. E. Davis is improving from her recent accident.

Mrs. Mary Cobb has been spending a few days at home.

Mrs. Bert Conner visited friends in Lyndonville last week.

Harold McFarlane of Greensboro is working for H. E. Clark.

Fred Malain visited his brother in Stanstead for the week-end.

Lee Loomis has gone to Burlington to take the naval examination.

Dr. E. G. Stevens was in town a few days ago on dental business.

Stephen King is home from the hospital and able to be about the house.

Ray Wolcott of Burlington is spending a few days among his many friends here.

One of Frank Taylor's large team horses dropped dead in the sugar place Monday.

Mr. Chesley, 82 years old, who has been ill all winter is able to be about the house.

The last number of the Glover Community Entertainment course will be given Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Aden Phillips took their eldest daughter, Genevieve, to St. Johnsbury this morning for an operation on her throat.

The Parish school closes this week. It was one week later than the other schools in town as there was a week to make up, caused by the teacher's illness.

Those from out of town attending the funeral of Rufus L. Drew were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dewing and Mr. and Mrs. Porter Gray of Orleans, Mrs. Mary Dewing and Miss Blanche Dewing and Leo Dewing of Irasburg and Archie Chase of Greensboro.

A letter recently received from Mrs. Lizzie Clark enclosed a check for the duplicate album quilt which contained some 500 names of the townspeople here and expressed much interest in the Community church work and in the Woman's Union. Mrs. Clark was a very devoted, church worker when she resided here.

RUFUS L. DREW.

Rufus L. Drew was born in Glover, the son of Isaac and Abigail Drew, April 18th, 1835, one of a family of seven sons and four daughters, of which he was the last except one brother, William Drew, 75 years old, now residing at T. M. Drew's in Glover.

In 1854 Rufus went to California, this being during the time so many were called there by the gold mines.

Among the souvenirs he brought from California was a ring in which was mounted a gold nugget in the rough. This he gave to his son, Noah on his 21st birthday. And this winter he has often told of his California experiences and shown the ring to friends and grandchildren who have called upon him in his sickness.

He returned in 1862 and that year enlisted in Co. D, 6th Vt. Regiment, where he served two and one-half years. Jan. 21st, 1866 he married Miss Laura M. Morse of Hatley, Que., and they established their home on

The farm where their youngest son, Thad, now lives. Here three children were born to them, Noah H., Mary and Thad M., all of whom survive them. A few years ago on the marriage of the youngest son they sold the farm to him and removed to another little farm a short distance away. Here his wife died two years ago and here he has lived since, sometimes with his daughter, sometimes with a niece, Miss Cora Jones, of Ayers Cliff, Que., and later his brother William has lived there with him.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at his son's home, Rev. W. A. Warner officiating, and the body was placed in the tomb at Riverside cemetery. There were beautiful floral tributes from the family, a wreath of white and purple hyacinths and narcissus from J. H. Drew and son, Harris; a sheaf of carnations from Thad Drew and daughter, Laura, a spray of narcissus, from the brother, William Drew, and a pillow of hyacinths, narcissus and roses from the G. A. R., W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans.

Mr. Drew was a man of upright character, pure life and habits, kindly, sympathetic and genial. His grief and loyal praise of the wife who walked a pillar of hyacinths, narcissus and roses from the G. A. R., W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans.

Card of Thanks—We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved father and grandfather.

Sufficient.

There is a cherry tree in our backyard. Last summer Donald was up in the tree picking cherries, which were scarce and none too ripe, and throwing them down to Buster. Buster had about twenty cherries in his hat when Donald called down: "Bout all I can reach, Buster." To which Buster replied: "All right; come down. We got enough for a stomach ache."

The Boy is the Father of the Man.

The director of education in Liverpool has just made a great and important discovery which future generations of educationalists will doubtless regard as epoch-making as the first voyage of Christopher Columbus. He says that "boys have a perfect passion of watching men at work." Strange to say, we have noticed the same phenomenon with many men.

Post Had Right Idea.

Matthew Arnold, discussing the popularity of his own dog poems, said that while comparatively few loved poetry, nearly everyone loved dogs. And Matthew Arnold was right.
