Canadian Circle Elects. The annual meeting of the Canadian Circle was held with Mrs. Lothrop Friday. A review of the year's work was given. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Demick; vice president, Mrs. Hardy; secretary, Mrs. Morrison; treasurer, Mrs. Wiggins; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Wilson; chairman of program committee, Miss Sadie B. Lothrop. It was voted to hold three evening meetings during the year. The following program was given: Reading, "Boundary Line," Mrs. Brown; reading, "Doughnuts and Pies for the Trenches," Mrs. Morrison; violin solo, Master Edwin Hall, "God Save the King," and "America," were sung by the club. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and a pleasant social time was spent. The next meeting will be May 24th.

Congregational Church Notes. R. A. Hamilton, Pastor. There will be the regular services of the church Sunday at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. with Bible school at noon.

A sugar supper will be held in the chapel and vestry Thursday evening. This will be preceded by a social time with an interesting program beginning at 8 o'clock. Sugar on snow is a luxury this year and it is hoped many will come to enjoy it. The admission will be 25c.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held next Tuesday evening at 7.30 at the home of Mrs. Pearson. There will be resumes of the work of the year and election of officers. Mrs. R. A. Hamilton will present the subject, "The Right of the Child to be Well Born." This subject gains in importance this year for the Children's Bureau in Washington has launched a campaign whereby it hopes to save the lives of 100,000 of the 300,000 babies who die each year from preventable causes. Vermont's share in this is the saving of 321 infant lives this year beginning with April 6, the anniversary of our country entering the war.

Elijah Hanson. Elijah Hanson died at Hotel Lyndon Friday morning, April 5, aged 69 years. Elijah Hanson, "Pete," as he was always called, was born in Barnston, P. Q., in October, 1849, the son of Elijah and Lydia Humphrey, Hanson. When he was about three years old the family moved to Brownington and he has always lived in this vicinity except for about ten years when he lived in Massachusetts. He married Addie McLaren of Greensboro, who died about 35 years ago. There were two sons, Harley, who died last year, and Herbert, who lives in Craftsbury. He was originally a farmer, but of late had been doing other work, the last five years as porter at Hotel Lyndon, where he retired as usual Thursday night and was found dead at 6.30 Friday morning. He was the last of a family of fourteen children.

The funeral was held at the home of his nephew, Harry Merrill, on the Barton road and interment will be at East Craftsbury, Rev. W. A. Warner was the officiating clergyman.

Get All-wool

It's Economy

You know how important a factor in your affairs your clothes are, but you probably don't think much about it except when you're buying them; and then a man's quite apt to think more about what the clothes cost than about what they are.

This season "what they are" will be the vital question. You've heard a lot about the excessive cost of wool; the facts about it are a great deal more real than the words about it.

But the result of high-priced wool shows in one of two ways; either your clothes will have less wool in them or you'll have to pay more for them. If you buy cheap clothes that means you don't care for all-wool; there's no way to get all-wool now at "cheap" prices.

We're here in this business to be of service to you; and service to you means, as we understand it, supplying clothes that are best for you.

That means Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; and we're ready to show you the Spring suits we have for you.
