B. A. Wins First Game of Season.

Barton took a one-sided game of baseball, the first of the season, from the Craftsbury academy team on the fair ground Saturday afternoon by a score of 24 to 7.

The local boys showed considerable form, Paul Buchanan in right field, George Carter at second base and Ross Wright in the pitcher's box, made an especially good showing. Someone said Wright was right as a right-hand pitcher, striking out ten men, and also right as a batter, getting one three-bag and one two-base hits.

Rowell, the opposing pitcher, threw a good game, but was given rather ragged support. The team from Craftsbury was a splendid-spirited team of good fellows. If the local boys keep their heads the prospect for the team is very encouraging. The game was two hours in playing, Tower and Dubois umpiring.

The score:
Inning 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Barton 2 2 5 2 2 1 3 7 0—24
Craftsbury 2 2 0 1 0 2 0 0—7

The boys ought to have better support, especially with the form they are showing. In the case of Saturday's game the guarantee to Craftsbury was $10 and but $8.50 was taken in gate receipts.

Let's encourage the team and if possible have some summer baseball.

The Barton academy baseball team will play the Orleans high school team at the fair grounds Wednesday, May 21. The game will be called at 4 o'clock sharp. Admission 15c.

ROY TO QUARRY GRANITE

Further Development of Barton Granite Expected by New Move.

T. F. Roy, who operates the Roy granite sheds, the largest in Barton, has completed arrangements with H. S. Fisk, whereby Mr. Roy begins quarrying operations under a much larger scale than has ever before been undertaken in Barton.

William Folsom of Hardwick, an experienced quarryman, with a gang of five men, has already begun operations on the Fisk quarry on Barton mountain for Mr. Roy. This gang will be increased to 12 men and two electric hoists will be used and modern equipment of all kinds will be installed with the idea of quite extensive quarrying operations.

The stock will not only be used for the local sheds but shipped to granite sheds in other places. Barre stock is now so extremely high and freight rates so exorbitant that Mr. Roy has good assurance of an outside market for much Barton granite. This means a substantial addition to the business of the town in many respects and perhaps presages much further activity in the granite business in Barton.

ed to this country recently, and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheldon.

N. M. Lewis of Northampton, Mass., is in town for a few days on business. His son, Neal, who was in the 26th Division in overseas service has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hawkins and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hawkins, left Saturday for Thetford where they have purchased a farm and will make their home.

James Durkin, recently returned from overseas service, who has been visiting his sisters, Mrs. Cornelius Buckley and Mrs. Jerry Buckley here, returned to his work in Boston Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rush, who have been stopping at O. H. Moser's man's for a time, have rented the Redfield cottage at Willoughby lake and gone there for the summer.

Mrs. E. W. Barron, vice president of the Vermont Branch of Woman's Board of Missions, was in Derby Line last week to visit a contributing society of the Vermont branch.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Campbell of Newport are the happy parents of a daughter, Margaret Scott, born Friday. Miss Ruby Campbell of New York City is caring for the mother and child.

F. B. Flanders of Portsmouth, N. H., has purchased the C. B. Webster house in this place. Mr. Flanders has been the income tax man in this vicinity and will find a welcome in Barton.

Have you left your gift to the Salvation Army needs at the bank? Barton is asked for a definite quote and is largely left to the people to see if they will do their duty without solicitation.

Mrs. C. E. Hibbard returned from a two weeks' stay in South Royalton on Monday evening. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mary, who has been working in Randolph several months.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goodro are in Burlington to attend the state meeting of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. While Mr. Goodro is away Mrs. Frank Chesley will have charge of the Independent Telephone exchange.

A stranger in town Saturday visited the academy ball game on the fair grounds and expressed his surprise at the profanity heard there among the young people. When it comes to a mere matter of speech, let us not allow strangers to carry away the impression that Barton is a vulgar place.

In the September 11, 1905 issue of the Monitor it is noted that E. W. Barron advertises that a $5 bill buys a barrel of the best pastry, all round or white winter wheat flour milled in America. Times have changed and a $5 bill will soon buy but a quarter of a barrel we are told.

One of the pleasant events of the week took place at St. Paul's Roman Catholic church Monday, when Miss Agnes Kilgallen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Kilgallen of Elm street, and John Morley of Craftsbury, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by the Rev. Fr. Hagan of Orleans. The young couple received numerous and valuable gifts from their large circle of friends. After a trip to Boston and Philadelphia and other places, they will be at home on Elm street where they will receive and entertain their friends.

It must have been the same Uncle Tom's Cabin show in Northfield that was in Barton recently, and this is the way the Northfield News described the show: "Little Eva was a dear, sweet and refined and a good actress. Uncle Tom had a dialect unknown in this section. He was awful. Eliza talked as she appeared, languid, and struggled through her lines. The hit of the evening, or at least the one that attracted those in the box seats, was the green stockings, with a brassack for an overgarment, with the addition of a flaring green bow on the alleged uniform. Harriet Beecher Stowe would have turned green with envy could she have gazed on these green stockings."

The Afternoon Study club met with Mrs. H. R. Cutler May 8. Twelve members and a visitor were present. The topic for the meeting was "Birds." Miss Mary Wheeler gave Decoration Day Plans.

Barton hopes to make Decoration day this year a memorable occasion by giving the boys returned and returning from the great war a prominent place in the exercises of the day.

As heretofore a parade is planned to form at 1 o'clock at the school-house, marshalled by J. A. Pearson. All organizations are invited and urged to go in the parade, and an especial invitation is extended to all boys from this community who have returned or return before that date to form on.

The parade will march to the cemetery accompanied by the band and return to the place of formation and immediately following the disbanding the address of the day will be given by Rev. M. A. Turner in Seaver's opera hall.

In view of the thinning ranks of the G. A. R. and the special reasons why this year of all others should be made to rank foremost among the Decoration days of the years let every organization in town plan to take its part in the events of the day. Plans are in charge of E. G. Colliston, commander of Geo. W. Quimby Post.

a most interesting and instructive talk on "Bird Study with Opera Glass and Camera," showing several species of birds, and whistling their songs. Reading, Burroughs' "Wake Robin," Mrs. Ellen Webster. After the meeting was adjourned, the hostess served light refreshments. The next meeting is the annual meeting to be held with Mrs. H. W. Carter, May 22.

Mrs. W. B. Proctor will entertain the Ladies' society at her home Tuesday afternoon, May 20th. As there is business to be brought up at this meeting, a good attendance is desired.

The W. C. T. U. held a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. J. A. Pearson Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. H. R. Cutler presiding. After the usual business and program the following officers were elected for the coming year: Pres., Mrs. E. W. Barron; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. E. R. Cook; 2d Vice Pres., Mrs. W. H. Gilpin; 3d Vice Pres., Mrs. John Millar; Sec., Mrs. O. B. Willard; Treas., Mrs. F. E. Nelson; program committee, Mrs. H. B. Cutler, Mrs. John McLellan; superintendents—S. T. L. Mrs. Edwin; purity and flower mission, Mrs. Comstock and Mrs. Willard; literature, Mrs. Reidin; Sunday school, Mrs. P. L. Webster and Mrs. F. E. Nelson. Delegates to county convention, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. C. F. Cutler, Mrs. H. R. Cutler, Mrs. E. R. Cook, Mrs. John McLellan. The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the meeting and Miss Marie Browning played several selections on the piano very acceptably.

Dr. Homer Bogue of Richford visited his sister, Mrs. A. E. Templeton, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Going of St. Johnsbury visited her brother, E. N. Knapp, this week.

S. W. Beaulier and grandson, Allen Gaynor, are spending the week in camp at May Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Switzer of Westmore are spending a few days with their son, Don Switzer.

Miss Nellie Clapper, who is home from her work in Springfield, Mass., spent the week-end at T. C. Fisher's.

Mrs. Edyth Shorey has closed her house and gone to Indian Neck, Conn. to spend the summer with her sister, Olive.

The play given by the Barton Grange in the town hall last week, was pronounced fine by all who attended.

Mrs. John Page spent the past week in St. Johnsbury, caring for her step-son, Harley Page, who is suffering from an injured hip.

Picture show this week Friday evening in the town hall, "A Good Loser," five-act triangle feature. Ruth Roland in "Hands Up," "Skirt Strategy," comedy.

Those from out of town attending the funeral of Dr. E. W. Gaynor were Dr. and Mrs. Preston Beaulier of Concord, N. H., Prof. Roberts and Prof. Shaw of Norwich university.

Remember the closing number of the lecture course to be given in the town hall next Saturday evening by the Liberty Belles. This is sure to be the best entertainment of the course. Don't miss it.

B. A. COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Functions of the Week Include Several Special New Features.

The completed program for commencement week of Barton academy has been arranged and includes one or two new features.

The first function of the commencement season is an entertainment on Friday evening, June 6, in Seaver's hall by Charles T. and Virginia Allen Griley, famous entertainers of the Redpath Lyceum bureau. This entertainment is given under the auspices of the senior class to help defray graduation expenses, and is a new feature of commencement week.

On Saturday, June 7, the seniors advertise a street parade, also a new feature, which is said to be worth waiting and watching for, though the exact character of the event is not known.

On Sunday evening, June 8, is the commencement sermon in the M. E. church by Rev. M. A. Turner.

Monday evening is the junior re-creation at Alumni hall.

Tuesday evening of commencement week will be given over to an entertainment in Seaver's hall by the graduates. The entertainments will be remembered with pleasure by the audiences which have attended these entertainments heretofore.

Wednesday evening will be celebrated as class night at Alumni hall.

Thursday evening comes commencement exercises proper in Seaver's hall and on Friday evening the Alumni banquet will be served in the vestry of the Congregational church by the Red Cross.

The week promises to be one of unusual interest and further details will be given as the dates of the events approach.

C. D. Bailey is erecting a tuberculosis near Sunshine sanitarium, which will be dedicated about June 1. Noted speakers from abroad are expected to be present. A more extended notice will be given later.

Mrs. C. E. Pike will observe Saturday of this week as bargain day. Anyone wanting a bargain, call. I shall have a display of the "V" also "YD" trimmed advance summer styles, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

About 25 of the "Geese" flocked to the home of Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. Wiley Thursday night to give them a surprise party, it being their wedding anniversary. A very pleasant evening was spent and dainty refreshments were served.

Remember the promenade in the town hall Tuesday evening. There will be good music in attendance. While refreshments are being served Prof. G. Leland Green will talk on "From Soissons to St. Mihiel with the First Division."

Dr. E. W. Gaynor died at Irasburg Thursday, May 8th, after an illness of several months. He was born in Boston in 1871, was educated in the public schools there and then entered Norwich university, where he graduated in 1893. He was graduated from Baltimore Dental college in 1897 and practiced dentistry in Boston for 22 years. Having spent a large part of his youth in Vermont, he was deeply attached to the state. He was a member of the Vermont association of Boston and a member of the executive board of Norwich university in which he took a lifelong interest. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and Boston Order of Elks. He is survived by a wife and three sons, a brother and three sisters. He had a large circle of friends in Boston and Vermont, who will miss him greatly.

Card of Thanks—We desire to express our sincere thanks to the people of this community who were so kind and thoughtful during the illness and death of our dear husband and brother. We would also thank those who sent flowers and furnished automobiles for our conveyance to the cemetery.

Mrs. E. W. Gaynor and family, Miss Annie Gaynor, Charles F. Gaynor.
